PAUL BUNYAN

Symbol of Experience

THE STANDPIPE

*Our Symbol of Bangor
Queen City of the East*

FOREWORD

Education and experience light the way towards community progress.

125 years of progress . . . years that have meant prosperity and security to thousands of enterprising workmen and businessmen alike, years that truly merit the recognition that they are now receiving on this, Bangor's Quartquicentennial, years of progress which we of the Oracle take as our theme. Bangor is a combination of two forces: practical experience that enables the sails of progress to be set high aloft and education that provides the knowledge necessary to the steering of a straight course to the attainment of the goals established.

We have taken as our symbols for these two forces Paul Bunyan, a legendary Bangorian who represents the raw lustiness of the far-sighted pioneer who, through dint of hard work, soon placed Bangor in her "place in the sun" as the lumber capital of the world, and Hannibal Hamlin, a true Bangor native, who gained the vice-presidency under Lincoln, and who represents the knowledge, culture, and foresight that are essential to the continued growth of a dynamic community. We take as our symbol of the industrial and economic advances of Bangor, the Standpipe, an outstanding landmark of the "Queen City of the East."

We look upon BHS, indicated by the Ram's head, as a source from which we obtain the initial motivations towards community progress, progress that is this year indicated by the QC sign.

It is up to the class of 1959 to combine the resourcefulness of a Bunyan with the deep thirst for knowledge of a Hamlin. We believe that the education and experience obtained by us at Bangor High will enable us to meet the challenges of the "Space Age." By meeting these challenges we can further the progress of our school, community, state, and nation.

The entire Bangor High School force, along with Superintendent Lawrence A. Peakes, his staff, and the school board, cooperated in giving Dr. Joseph Chaplin a banquet on the occasion of his retirement. Mr. Charles Bragg, heading up the school board, paid tribute to Dr. Chaplin; and Miss Marion A. Dubourdieu, representing the retired teachers, and Supt. Peakes, on behalf of the present administration, spoke. Jewelry was presented to Mrs. Chaplin; while a boat, motor, and carrier trailer was given to Dr. Chaplin in recognition of his chief hobby, fishing. Shown at the head table are Supt. Peakes, Mrs. Amsden, Mr. Perham Amsden, Mrs. Chaplin, and Dr. Chaplin.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1959, dedicate this edition of the ORACLE to Dr. Joseph B. Chaplin, in appreciation of his outstanding work as principal of Bangor High School for the past twenty-two years. Since he first became principal in 1937, Dr. Chaplin has devoted himself to the best interests of Bangor High School. His attention to details and his deep concern for the welfare of the school and its students have brought him praise and admiration from parents, faculty, and students. Under his guidance, Bangor High School has attained a high peak of achievement both in academic and extra curricula fields.

Dr. Chaplin has received honorary degrees from Bowdoin College and his alma mater, the University of Maine. Prominent in state and national educational circles, he brought signal recognition to Bangor in 1951 when he was elected president of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

His interest in us, not just as students, but as individuals, has given Dr. Chaplin a special place in the memory of our high school days.

We, the class of 1959, join with the entire staff of Bangor High School in wishing Dr. and Mrs. Chaplin every success and happiness in the future.

SCHOOL HISTORY

Bangor High School is one of the oldest functioning institutions in the "Queen City." The school has played an important part in the life of the community since 1835. The first school, for boys only, was established at State and Pine Streets in 1835. Soon a new school for both boys and a few girls was built on Prospect Street. In 1857 the girls moved to a separate building in Abbott Square, while the boys remained on Prospect Street. In 1864 the first co-educational high school was established when the boys moved to the Abbott Square School.

A partial description of the Abbott Square school is obtained from a letter written by Miss Mary C. Robinson, the first faculty adviser of the Oracle, who served in that capacity for thirty-seven years. A quotation from the letter is as follows: "In 1877 the 'big room' in which the three upper classes sat had 144 desks, 12 by 12. The fourth class, called 'Scrubbs' by their elders, sat in two recitation rooms at the rear, but studied in the big room while classes were reciting in their home rooms."

The Abbott Square school was destroyed in the great Bangor fire of 1911. Classes were carried on temporarily in the Abraham Lincoln (Palm Street) School until the present building on Harlow Street was opened in 1913. The school was on double sessions in 1937 when Dr. Joseph Chaplin became principal.

Since that time the school has expanded both in its curriculum and teaching staff. Bangor High School alumni have successfully competed with graduates of other high schools, both public and private, in colleges, universities, and other fields of endeavor.

In the field of athletics, B.H.S. has consistently had some of the top teams in the state. During Dr. Chaplin's tenure as principal at B.H.S., basketball teams have captured nine Eastern Maine Championships, the largest number ever won by any eastern Maine school. The team has won three state titles and this year placed second in the New England Tournament. In football Bangor has captured one state championship and several runner-up trophies. The B.H.S. track team has won three State Titles and has consistently placed high in the state meet. The Cross Country team has won five second places in state meets and once won third honors in the New England meet. B.H.S. baseball teams won several successive championships in the Penobscot Valley Conference. Bangor was eventually eliminated from the conference because of the successive championships.

Not to be outdone by the sports teams, the Speech-Drama Department has consistently done outstanding work in regional and state competition. Debating teams have recently placed high in state competition. Now in its ninety-seventh year, the ROTC department at Bangor is the oldest in the nation. The rifle team sponsored by the military department has won state honors for the past few years, while the Stetson Rifles and the Stetsonettes have brought praise and admiration for their drill repertoires. Music groups at B.H.S. have been acclaimed for their fine work throughout the years. A school newspaper, the Orascope, was founded in 1945. The Oracle has maintained its continuous publication since 1892.

This past year has been an outstandingly successful one for both the class of 1959 and Bangor High School. The basketball Rams placed second in the New England Tournament, the highest position won by a Maine team since 1944, placing one player on the All-New England Tournament Team. Bangor's one-act play Lady Precious Stream won top honors in New England competition. Three B.H.S. students were voted All New England actors. The senior play drew the largest crowd in many years. Turning to local honors, both the football and baseball teams won inter-city crowns by defeating arch rivals John Bapst and Brewer. The football team placed four men on the All-Eastern Maine team. Both the girls' and boys' rifle teams again won State Championship Honors, while the boys' second team placed second in state competition. Six Debate Club members received certificates for their efforts in Bates League competition. One debating team placed second in a group of thirty schools from Maine, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire.

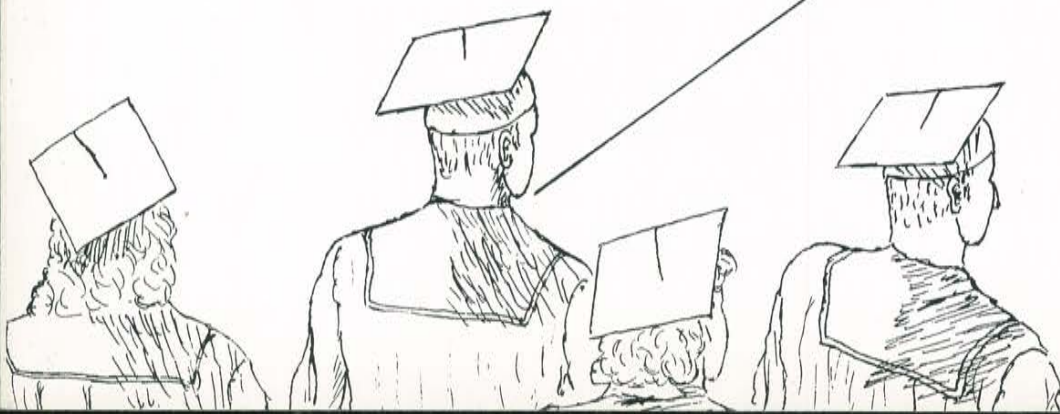

Bangor High School has a long history full of fine traditions and high ideals. We, the class of 1959, are proud to have had a part in upholding these fine traditions and high ideals. May future classes continue to uphold them, for the success of Bangor High School reflects the continued success of Bangor, the "Queen City of the East."

A Tribute to the Administration

"Education is our most important product" could well be the motto of the able and dedicated Bangor School administration. Throughout the years, Bangor High School has been guided on its road to providing an adequate education for the youth of Bangor by many prominent men and women. Heading the list of outstanding persons this year are Mr. Lawrence A. Peakes, Superintendent of Schools since 1956, and Dr. Joseph B. Chaplin, principal of Bangor High School since 1937. Acting as an even higher authority has been the school board, consisting of Mr. Charles Bragg, chairman; Mr. George Carlisle, Mr. Milford Cohen, Mrs. Grace Overlock, and Mr. James White. The time, the planning, and the work contributed by each have played a vital role in the attainment of the the best education available. We, the class of 1959, take this opportunity to express to them our appreciation and gratitude.

FACULTY

IN APPRECIATION

MRS. GLADYS BRIDGES

Every good school has as its central core, a nucleus of mature, experienced teachers, who do excellent work themselves, assist in orienting new teachers, and in other ways help to keep the ship on an even keel. Bangor High School is losing such a teacher this year through the retirement of Mrs. Gladys Bridges. Her fine disposition, her keen sense of humor, and her genuine devotion to her teaching responsibilities have been appreciated by all who came under her influence. Certainly a quarter of a century of this type of service deserves both recognition and commendation.

We wish for Mrs. Bridges and her husband their full quota of happy retirement years.

We, the Class of 1959, would also like to express our appreciation to:

Mrs. Ann Chadbourne, teacher of English, who, during her two-year stay at B.H.S. has been active in supervising the debate club, which has been outstanding under her guidance.

Mrs. Farolyn Hanscom, teacher of typing, who, although only on the faculty during this past year, has certainly been a credit to B.H.S. and its fine traditions.

Miss Barbara Hobbs, social studies and English teacher, who has been well liked during her five years at the high school. This year she was instrumental in organizing the Future Nurses of America Club in the school.

Major William Schwartz, Professor of Military Science and Tactics assigned to the B.H.S. ROTC unit, for his fine work with the Cadet Corps. We also thank him for his work in organizing the Ski Club and Team, for his excellent work with the American Field Service Board, and for reorganizing and training the Stetsonettes.

Second row: Mrs. Katherine Butler, Mrs. Dorothy Lord, Miss Bernice Hopkins, Miss Ruth Belknap, Mrs. Marjorie Devine, Mrs. Louise Hammons, Mrs. Olive Jackson, Mrs. Gladys Bridges, Miss Paulene Dunn, Mrs. Farolyn Hanscom, Miss Barbara Hobbs, Miss Mary T. Quinn, Mrs. Viola Woodward, Miss Nancy Gentile.
Third row: Sgt. Leo Allie, M/Sgt. Paul Sutherland, Mr. Worth Noyes, Mr. Donald Drossel, Mr. Vincent Cuozzo, Mr. Gerald Covert, Mr. Charles Landerkin, Mr. Frederick Barry, Mr. Ronald Pooler, Mr. Frederick Pinkham, Mr. Gerald Hodge, Mr. Granville MacMillan, Mr. Douglas Stafford, Mr. Joseph Perry, M/Sgt. Stephen Plowman.
Absent: Miss Mary Copeland, Mr. Hugh Lord, Mrs. Ann Chadbourne, Mr. Perham Amsden, Mr. Ivie Mann, Mr. M. Manning Atherton, Miss Margaret Estes, Miss Mildred McGuire, Mr. Al Martin (Military leave), and Mr. Lloyd Rhodes.

As students at B.H.S., we are fortunate to have a fine faculty. Through the patience, knowledge, and understanding of our teachers, we as seniors have had a pleasant and beneficial three years at B.H.S. Our teachers' devotion to duty and high academic values have given Bangor High School a coveted place among the top schools in the state.

Mr. Atherton takes a "time out."

"On the bench," Mr. Harlow has a ringside seat at the faculty game.

Lining up for eats are Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Hammons, and Miss Copeland.

"Umph, there's a pearl in my oyster!"

"Tea and talkin' "

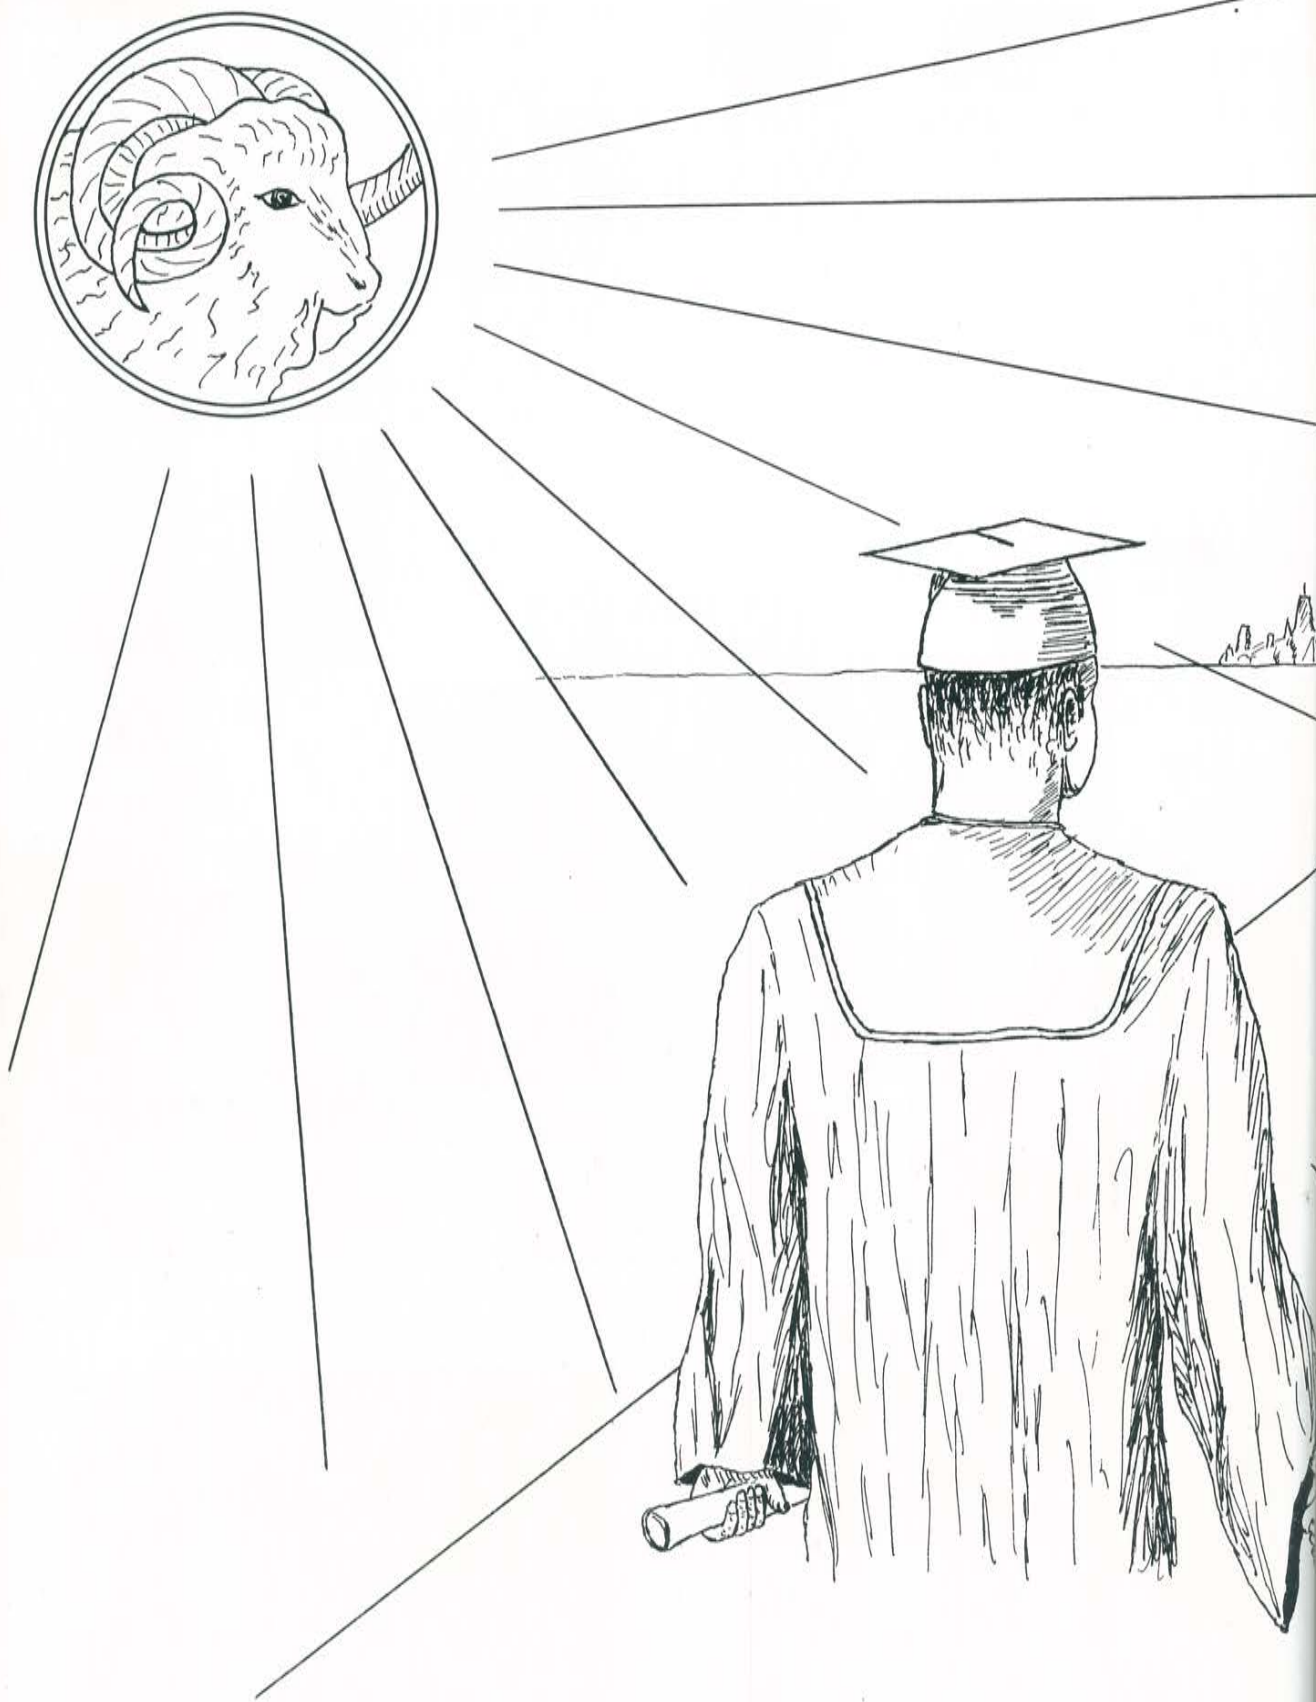

Deep in thought? Dr. Chaplin and Mr. MacMillan guard the corridors.

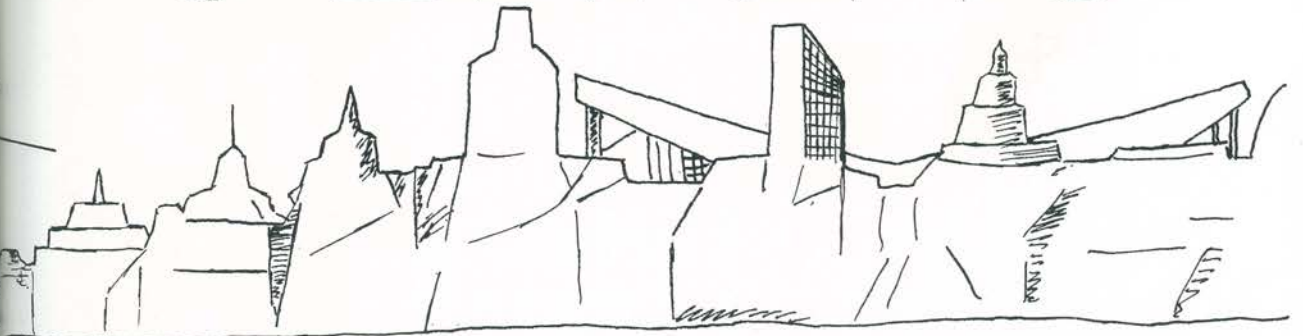

"Anything for us?" Mr. Smith, Mr. Klain, Mrs. Devine, and Miss Gentile.

The candid camera strikes again. Mrs. Woodward, Miss Copeland, Mrs. Bridges, and Mr. Bartlett confer.

ORACLE

Almost every day during the school day, someone sees a flash bulb going "pop" or a reporter seeking information. The staff members of the Oracle Board are seeking stories about the school for the yearbook—whether the stories come from the main hall showcase or from the football gridiron at Garland Street Field.

What happens to all this scattered information after it has been gathered? The process is long and complicated; but, when it is done, it results in a finished product—the Oracle.

This year the staff got off to a tremendous start with its traditional Oracle-Orascope assembly. Since the skit presented was a huge success, the school publications, that is, the Oracle and the Orascope, were almost bought before they could be sold. Then came the long after-school and vacation hours that were spent putting the Oracle together. But that is all in the past. The yearbook is completed, and we leave it to you, to read and to enjoy.

We, the staff, would like to thank our editors, Guy McChesney and Roderic McClure, and especially our adviser, Miss Jessie L. Fraser, for all the extra effort that they have put into this yearbook to make it what it is.

1946 ORACLE first published as yearbook only.

In appreciation to those teachers that have kept the Oracle in steady publication since 1892:

Miss Mary C. Robinson
Miss M. Catherine Mullen
Mr. David Barker
Mrs. Charlotte Meinecke
Miss Jessie L. Fraser

The Oracle was first published in 1892 in the form of a magazine five or six times a year. It was originally published under the guidance and inspiration of Miss Mary C. Robinson, teacher of English and Latin, and Fred Clifford, a sophomore. The first Oracles were paper back magazines of a literary nature, which included such items as poems written by students in the school. In 1945, with the commencement of publication of the Orascope, the Oracle was converted from a literary publication to a yearbook as it is now.

In memory of Mary C. Robinson, who for thirty-seven years acted as faculty adviser for the yearbook, the staff of the Oracle offers annually two prizes given in Miss Robinson's name to students who, in the opinion of the faculty, have given the most outstanding service to the school. The prizes of twenty-five dollars are given one each to a student in the college preparatory group and to a student in the non-college group.

BANGOR HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS

Bangor High School Scholars, twelve all told this year, represent the best the school has to offer scholastically. Honored since 1943, on Scholarship Recognition Day, Bangor High School Scholars are seniors who have maintained an average of 85 or better in all major subjects for five straight semesters. Honored for excellence of attainment and consistency in scholarship this year were Franklin Bragg, Sally Hill, Lawrence Johnson, Guy McChesney, Roderic McClure, Clive Nickerson, David Parker, James Sawyer, Gary Slep, Gloria Smith, Roderic Stevenson, and Nancy Todtman.

Juniors who have maintained an average of 85 or better in all major subjects for three semesters and the third quarter of this year are Marcia Batchelder, Betsey Brewster, Richard Cross, Robert Foss, Ronald Kittedge, JoAnn Peakes, and Michael Robson.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

When the need was felt for the establishment of a means of promoting SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, LEADERSHIP, and CHARACTER, a group at the South Side Academy, Chicago, formed an Honor Society in 1903. In 1930 Mr. Charles Taylor, B. H. S. principal, announced that a chapter of National Honor Society was to be formed at Bangor High. New members would be initiated into the Society each year at an annual assembly and banquet.

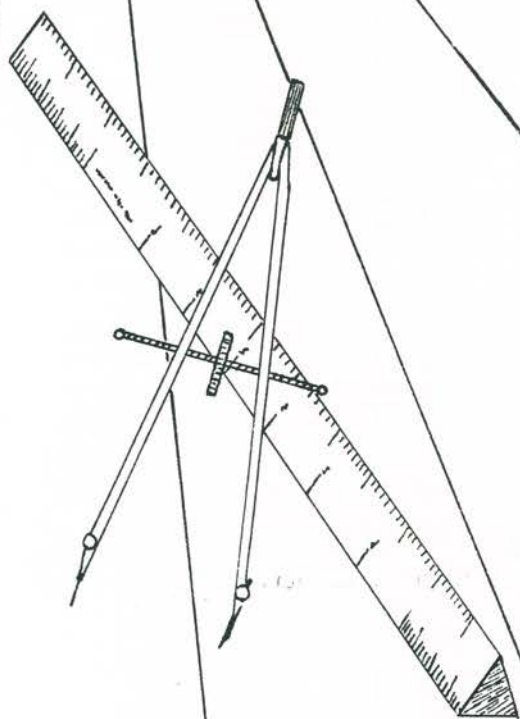

During the past years the Society has done various projects; such as, assisting at Teachers' Conventions, selling rabbits' feet, holding box lunches, editing a school handbook, sponsoring a Talent Bureau and a Student Service Bureau, selling basketball pins, as well as promoting the principles of the Society throughout the school.

During 1958-1959 the Honor Society held a cupcake sale, sponsored its annual assembly, and assisted as ushers at Teachers' Convention.

This year's officers were Guy McChesney, president; Roderic McClure, vice-president; Gailellen Fletcher, secretary; and Clive Nickerson, treasurer.

New members initiated into the society were Carolyn Allen, Mary Carlisle, Regina Crook, Raymond Dauphinee, William Demaso, Elizabeth Demmons, John Feeley, Elizabeth Gallison, Mary Lee Grant, Johanna Hunt, Joyce Lundgren, Katherine Mason, Rosalie McDermott, Russell Murray, David Parker, Robert Richardson, Gloria Smith, Marilyn Stern, James Vanidestine, all seniors; juniors inducted into the society were Betsey Brewster, Nancy Connors, Robert Foss, Clifford Larlee, JoAnn Peakes, Michael Robson, Daniel Smith, Mameve Stern, and Karen Stevens. A banquet for new members and election of next year's officers was held at the high school.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

JUNIORS

One of the most distinguishing features of the class of 1960 is the talent that its members have displayed at B.H.S.—talent that is bursting at the seams.

To begin the year, the class elected some of its most able members as class officers. They are Clifford Larlee, president; Barbara Whittaker, vice-president; Janice Weymouth, secretary; and Marion Johnson, treasurer.

An exceptional performance was put on this year by the junior class in the traditional Junior Exhibition. The literary excerpts that were chosen by the speakers were of very high quality. The speakers and their cuttings were as follows: Betsey Brewster, "Renaissance"; Steven Buck, "Ole Yeller"; Carolyn Jordan, "Gone with the Wind"; Marion Johnson, "Our Hearts Were Young"; James Plowman, "U.S.A."; Michael Robson, "By the Waters of Babylon"; Daniel Smith, "Buried Alive"; Mameve Stern, "Glass Menagerie"; and Barbara Whittaker, "Life with Mother."

Debaters Charles Baldwin, Steven Buck, and Sheila Striar led the Debate Team through a successful year. Charles Baldwin, Steven Buck, Karen Feeley, Molly St. Lawrence, and Sheila Striar walked away with Bates League Certificates, while Charles Baldwin also picked up a Certificate of Achievement at the University of Maine. Also at the speech contest held in the spring at the University of Maine, Mameve Stern and Arnold Weiss were rated as "superior," and Betsey Brewster received an "excellent" rating. Mameve Stern represented B.H.S. in the annual Spear Speaking Contest.

All-Bangor Night performers Mary MacDonald, Michael Robson, Sigrid Skoog, and Barbara Whittaker were an invaluable part of the entertainment.

Four editions of the Orascope were published under the supervision of Morton Sclair and JoAnn Peakes as editors. The combined efforts of the staff in amassing the school news produced some excellent results.

Philip Provost rose in the ROTC ranks to obtain the position of Regimental Sergeant Major. Brian Pulk and Allen Tozier gained the positions of Battalion Sergeant Majors. Receiving the Distinguished Cadet Medal was Philip Provost.

Cheering on the football and basketball Rams were Janice Weymouth and Jacqueline Graham, two members of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad. Constance Beverly and Sandra Reynolds were varsity substitutes, while Donna Benoit, Karen Stevens, Bernice Ross, and Molly St. Lawrence helped fill the ranks of the J.V. Squad.

Spectators last fall saw juniors William Bailey, Charles Baldwin, Clifford Larlee, Walter Shanley, and Thomas Pappas on the gridiron as the football season got underway.

Samuel Schindler and Aivars Knuble were varsity basketball players that rounded out the State Championship team of "Red" Barry. Robert Thomas was assistant manager for the Rams.

Charles Baldwin, Lawrence Homsted, James McPhail, Samuel Schindler, and Walter Shanley represented the junior class on the baseball team.

On the foreign scene, Michael McEwen is planning a trip to Europe on a scholarship from the American Field Service. "Mike" will spend the summer as a foreign exchange student representing Bangor High in Holland.

Scholastically, the Junior class also showed promise and talent. Achieving the highest average grades in the different courses were JoAnn Peakes, college preparatory; Ronald Kittredge, general course; and Richard Cross in the business education course. JoAnn Peakes was also commended for excellence on a competitive French test sponsored by the American Association of French Teachers. The Industrial Arts division at Bangor High entered some top juniors in the Industrial Arts Fair. First place was won by Richard Cunningham, with Stanley Strout and Charles Bamford taking second and third places respectively.

Girls' State this year had the following slate of representatives, each chosen for her leadership, character, scholarship, and cooperation: Phyllis Berger, Nancy Connors, Janice Jordan, Patricia Vose, and Patricia Zoidis. Alternates were Sandra Reynolds, Paula Rolsky, and Barbara Whittaker.

To represent B.H.S. at Boys' State, six of the most qualified of the junior boys were chosen. Those picked were Robert Barker, Lawrence Emery, Robert Foss, Clifford Larlee, Daniel Smith, and Robert Thomas. The alternates were Lawrence Homsted, Aivars Knuble, and Allen Tozier.

When the Military department initiated a Queen's Contest as a part of the annual Military Ball, two candidates were nominated from the junior class. Competing for the crown were Mary Lou LaCrosse and Barbara Whittaker; the latter won the honor.

Having passed through two years of school with flying colors, the Junior Class is now looking forward with hope and expectation to their year as seniors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

SOPHOMORES

Every year there is a new class with new faces, original ideas, fresh ambitions, and varied talents. The Class of 1961 proved to be no exception to the rule.

Under the capable leadership of class officers Neil Martin, president; Gail London, vice-president; Lois Ingeneri, secretary; and Nancy Pearson, treasurer, the sophomores soon became acquainted with the relatively new adventure and began to settle down to three years of hard, yet rewarding work.

Soon rising to the top of their respective classes, several sophomores lost no time in making their marks scholastically. Lynda Gaillard attained the highest average in the college preparatory division, while Michael Melvin in the General Course, Theodore Jellison in the Business Education Course, and David McCubbin in the Industrial Arts Course performed to the highest degree in their respective courses. The sophomore tentative list for B. H. S. Scholars gives recognition to the following outstanding members of the class: Sheila Allen, Joan Bartlett, Rebecca Clifford, Lynda Gaillard, Theodore Jellison, Barbara Kearns, Sharon Lee, Joanne Levy, Crystal Mayo, Alan McClure, Neil Martin, Michael Melvin, Carolyn Mower, Nancy Pearson, Anne Shepley, Barbara Snow, Betty Stimpson, Pamela Trojanoski, Helen Trowbridge, Charles Varney, and Jeanne Violette. This list was compiled from third quarter ranks.

Supporting the debating team vigorously were Lynda Gaillard and Helen Trowbridge. John Bragg, Helen Trowbridge, and Yvonne Westbrook revealed top-notch talent by taking part in the one-act play. Yvonne Westbrook did a fine job in the University of Maine Speech-Drama Festival.

In the Military Department Dale Moses distinguished himself by winning the Stetson Rifle Medal and the Superior Cadet Ribbon for the sophomore class. Charles Varney received the Scholarship Medal, while Gerald Schwartz won the Individual Drill-down Medal.

It is to the sophomores that the rifle team owes much of its success, for they are the backbone of the team in the months and years to come. Theodore Jellison, Gary Runnells, Gerald Schwartz, Garland Strang, and Charles Varney contributed greatly to the team.

Receiving ski team letters in this, the first year of the Rams Varsity Ski Team, were Peter Haney and Gerald Schwartz.

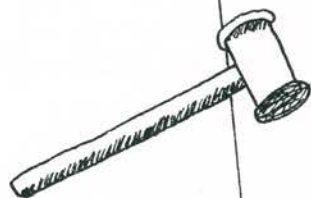

On the cheerleading side Pamela Gervais and Jeanne Quinn distinguished themselves on the J. V. squad. Robin Leadbetter and Gail London acted as substitutes.

In the field of athletics Richard Shaw was a top man on the gridiron along with David Jarvis, Terrence Roberson, and Reginald Archer. "Dick" received an honorable mention in Teen magazine for his football frolics. In basketball, Alan McClure and Richard Shaw received cheers which they richly deserved from both the students and the squad for turning in outstanding performances on the court. In the spring, Louis Bohan, David Jarvis, Alan McClure, Philip McTigue, Joel Sazin, and Richard Shaw were active in baseball. Reginald Archer, Richard Greene, Ronald Grossman, Winfred Stevens, and Richard Trott were definite assets to the track team.

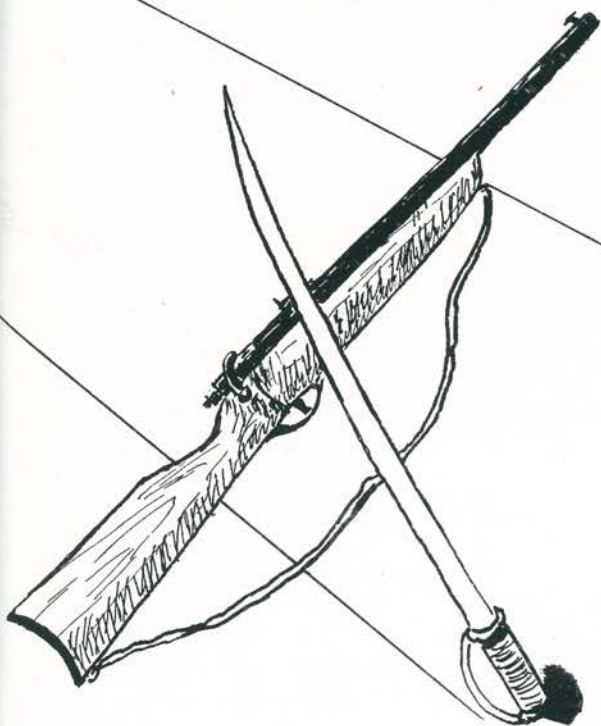

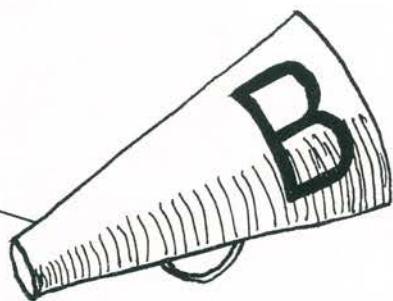

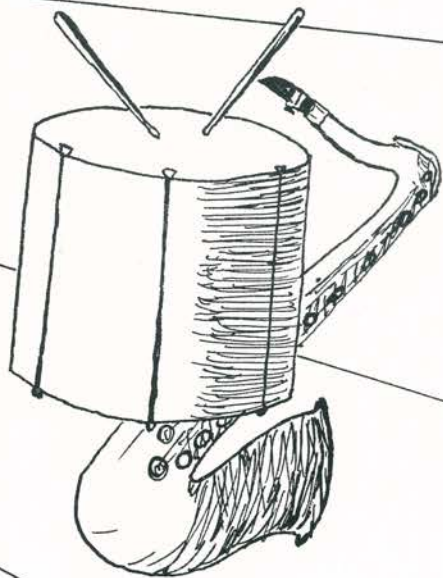

Attending All-State Music Festival were some top musicians from the sophomore class. Those chosen to attend were Steven Alpert, John Bragg, David Dunham, Peter Haney, James Lufkin, Jeanne Noyes, Pamela Perkins, Gerald Schwartz, Pamela Trojanoski, Helen Trowbridge, and Jeanne Violette.

Neil Martin during the past year has proven to be an outstanding member of the Gamma Hi-Y Club. First assistant secretary of the Older Boys' Conference and vice-president of the Central Regional Conference, he succeeded in obtaining a state-wide office when he was voted vice-president.

Discovering that high school can mean fun as well as work, the Sophomores showed that they could take both in stride.

All-Bangor Night To Be Presented at B.H.S.

MICHAEL McEWEN TO GO ABROAD

This coming summer Bangor High School will be represented abroad by Michael McEwen. He has not yet been told to which country he will be sent.

Mike is quite active at school. He is a member of Student Council, Latin Club, and French Club. He also is a Sgt. in the Glee Club.

Besides regular school work, Mike is a ham radio operator and is interested in electronics and chemistry.

BOYS CITIZENS CHOSEN

Six junior boys from Bangor have been chosen by the American Legion committee to attend the University of Maine in 1959. The boys are Robert Barker, Lawrence Emery, Robert Foss, Clifford Larlee, Daniel Smith, and Robert Thomas. Three alternates, Homsted, Aivars Knutson, and Tozier, were also chosen.

Qualification for the honor, courage, leadership, and good character, besides popularity and outstanding athletic ability.

The American Legion operates a scholarship fund over the country to furnish instruction in government. The fund may have been received in schools. A government is set up by the boys. Elections are carried on for town, county, state, and elective and appointive offices.

who are not elected to the office will organize the Commission, similar to the one in the state. Representatives of the state will assist in the election.

Music

Bangor will be host to the Maine Music Festival on the Bands, choruses, and orchestras. Eastern Maine will gather in Queen City. During the hours these musical groups will audition before audition boards judged on their performance of bands will be held in the afternoon. The Bangor High School will lead the parade representing the host city. A group previously planned for the night featuring a chorus of voices from Eastern Maine. Because of the lack of applicants, this concert has been canceled. These auditions create incentive to musicians to better music.

render her Voice of Democracy speech.

In the Interpretation of Arnold Weiss will treat even his hilarious Tar Baby by Jodel Mameve Stern will create a scene from The Glass Menagerie Tennessee Williams. Betsey will deliver the magnificent Renaissance of Edna St. Vincent Millay. As oratorical declamation also by Herbert Rogan will tell Kingdom of Fear by Pearlman.

The Bowdoin Dramatic is the official drama final for the state of Maine. Judges were Professor Herschel Bricker, University of Maine; Professor Lavinia Schaeffer, Bates College; and Professor Irving Suss, Coby College. The three judges are all heads of the drama departments of their respective colleges.

Twelve plays will be presented in the New England. No best play will be named, but ratings will be given, and "all-New-England actors" named.

In 1954 for the first time in the history of this school, Bangor High won the state finals with the drama, Dark Brown, directed by Mrs. Barbara M. Browne in her first year at B.H.S. The next year Bangor again made the state finals with the Mexican play, Sunday Costs Five Pesos. (Continued on page two)

Students chosen for Boys' and Girls' State are as follows: front row, left to right: Patricia Zoidis, Janice Jordan, and Nancy Connors; second row, Daniel Smith, Robert Thomas, Lawrence Emery, Robert Foss, Robert Barker, and Clifford Larlee. Absent when the picture was taken were Phyllis Berger and Patricia Vose.

ORASCOPE

The Orascope, Bangor High School's newspaper, has been in existence for fourteen years. It was begun under the direction of Miss Jessie L. Fraser, with David Getchell, class of 1947 as its first editor-in-chief. The credit for the name, Orascope, goes to Walter Ulmer and David Getchell. This newspaper is now published by a staff composed of members of the Junior Class.

Among the honors which the Orascope has received have been four first places in the Echo-Lovejoy school newspaper contest sponsored by Colby College.

The Orascope staff, during a full and somewhat hectic year, has faithfully reported Bangor High's school activities. Started off by a campaign and assembly carried on by the Oracle-Orascope, editor Morton Sclair and his associate editor, JoAnn Peakes, along with faculty adviser Miss Jessie L. Fraser and the other nineteen staff members, put out four papers in '58-'59.

Since B.H.S. gained many honors this past year, the staff had ample opportunity to display its journalistic talents. "Ramie" was brought back to the Orascope along with the perennial "News Barrel," "Corridor Conversation," "Skeleton Closet," and the cartoon, all ably executed by the staff.

The reporters, columnists, business staff, and typists all deserve credit for making the Orascope a success.

STUDENT COUNCIL

COUNCIL ACHIEVEMENTS

1931—Council Inaugurated
 1932—Sponsored B-Club
 1935—Council Discontinued For 7 Years
 1943—Authorized Boys' Cheering Squad
 1945—Purchased Band Uniforms

1947—Established All-Bangor Night as Annual Event
 1948—Began Art Class
 1949—Set "Up Point System"
 1954—Inaugurated A.F.S. Program Under Council
 1956—Raised Money For New Trophy Case

The 1958-59 Student Council has been more than successful in its accomplishments. This year's annual All-Bangor Night, with the theme of "Around the World in 80 Days," furnished not only excellent entertainment but also the opportunity for the students to demonstrate their abilities and talents. The affair was the most successful in several years.

In March the Student Council sponsored Tag Day, designed for the purpose of raising money to bring a foreign exchange student to Bangor High. The drive yielded well over its goal of $1000.

Bangor High was well represented by its Council members at the State Convention, as well as at regional conferences. Connie Beverly served as Secretary of the Eastern Maine Convention.

This year the school was extremely fortunate to have two paid assemblies, one being a concert tenor and the other being an acrobatic performance.

Officers for the year were Sally Hill, president; Guy McChesney, vice-president; Judy Purinton, secretary; and Marilyn Stern, treasurer. Under the competent leadership of Miss Nancy Gentile and Mr. Perham Amsden, the advisers, the Council achieved all of its goals for the year.

Absent: Larry Emery, James McDonald.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE BOARD

Tag Day 1959 was the greatest success ever. $1200, to be invested in the A.F.S. program, was netted by the combined efforts of many volunteers. Behind the scenes, vigorously directing the publicity and collecting and counting the money was the A.F.S. Board, sponsored by the Student Council and headed by former exchange student Marilyn Stern. This success was heralded earlier in the year by a successful assembly publicizing the program.

The Board consisted of Robert Clukey, Nancy Conners, Jane Dunn, Jack Dunn, Lawrence Emery, Sandra Gass, Sally Hill, Klaus Holch, Neil Martin, James MacDonald, Guy McChesney, Sharon Nason, Toby Slep, Daniel Smith, and Marilyn Stern, chairman. Advisers were Mr. Perham Amsden and Major William Schwartz.

Preparing for Tag Day are Major William Schwartz, M. Stern, S. Nason, N. Connors, D. Smith, J. Dunn, R. Clukey, N. Martin, and K. Holch.

In the process of selecting the student to go abroad next year are A.F.S. Committee, consisting of Major Schwartz, Chairman Mr. Amsden, Sally Hill, Miss Gentile, Mr. Klain; A.F.S. District Representative, Mr. White, Miss Belknap, Mrs. Pressey.
 Absent: Guy McChesney and Marilyn Stern.

EXCHANGE

STUDENT

Cheerful, friendly, industrious, brilliant—words but begin to describe Klaus Holch, of Horsens, Denmark, who has proved to be one of the most remarkable exchange students to attend Bangor High. Quiet, thoughtful, yet much given to jokes and dancing, Klaus has gained a permanent place in the memories and hearts of the senior class. Besides participating actively in the boys' chorus, mixed chorus, student council, A.F.S. Board, French Club, Spanish Club, Latin Club, Gamma Hi-Y Club, and the Senior play, he has spoken to many local service and church groups. His comment at the first of the year was that he could not see how students could belong to so many clubs and still manage to get things done! "On the go" nearly all the time, he has attended conventions in Portland, Brewer, and Orono, visited Boston, and climbed Mt. Katahdin.

Klaus Holch

Amazed by the number of student-owned cars and the activity of their owners in general, Klaus agrees that the "natives" have been exceptionally friendly, receptive, and cooperative.

Klaus tours the country this summer and then intends to return to Denmark to major in chemical engineering at the Polytechnic Institute.

An old hand at decoration, Klaus assists Dan Smith and sister, Penney

SPEECH-DRAMA

"Curtain going up!" This phrase brought a chill to members of the Bangor High School Drama Department, especially the members of the cast and crew of the Senior Play, "Best Foot Forward." Patrons agreed that it was one of the most enjoyable senior plays ever presented at this school.

Bangor's representatives scored high in competition this year. Chester Clark was named State runner-up in the Voice of Democracy contest and city runner-up in My True Security contest. In the University of Maine Speech Festival, Sandra Murphy, Mameve Stern, and Arnold Weiss received "Superior" ratings; Mameve Stern and Chester Clark represented the school in the Maine Spear Contest. The Bangor High School One-Act Play, "Lady Precious Stream" received "Excellent" rating in the New England one-act play contest. Mrs. Barbara Browne prepared all the students for the contests.

ONE-ACT PLAY

In April, the Bangor High School Drama-Rams returned to the Queen City from the New England Drama Festival, their suitcases bulging with kimonos, lotus blossoms, and top honors in the New England Event. They had qualified for the "New Englands" by winning a series of contests in Maine. First, they had won the Sectional and Regional contests at Stearns High in Millinocket, then the all-important State contest held at Bowdoin College. It was here that Lewiston again came in second to Bangor, as they had also been state runners-up in basketball. This was the second time in the history of the school that Bangor had won the Maine contest; and both times occurred under the direction of Mrs. Barbara M. Browne.

This year's offering was Lady Precious Stream, an Oriental comedy by S. I. Hsiung. The judges at the New England Festival called it "an almost flawless presentation, tops, thoroughly charming, with perfect timing . . . and the best example of teamwork in the tournament . . ."

Three members of the cast were selected for the All New England Cast, more than from any other school. They were Chester Clark, Gailellen Fletcher, and Lawrence Thompson.

The University of Maine Masque Theatre chose Lady Precious Stream as the play to be presented at its annual award banquet in May.

JUNIOR EXHIBITION—1958

In 1895 the junior class first presented an exhibition in the Y.W.C.A. A few years later the tradition of presenting the best male and best female speaker with Charles E. French medals began. In 1953 a change occurred in the presentation of medals. From that year to the present all ten speakers, five girls and five boys, receive French medals. No speaker is singled out as "best."

Junior Exhibition, 1958, was presented by the ten outstanding speakers of the junior class. The speakers, led by class president Gary Lawton and followed by the Junior Chorus, opened the evening with a dignified procession.

The speakers, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Browne, and the chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Merle Coffey, presented a thoroughly enjoyable program.

The speakers and their cuttings were as follows: Chester Clark, "The Macbeth Murder Mystery"; Sandra Gass, "The Lady or the Tiger?"; Mary Lee Grant, "Winnie the Pooh"; Barry Lieberman, "The Creation"; Jill Lyons, "The Diary of Anne Frank"; Nancy Maunder "The Snake Pit"; Clive Nickerson, "Milton and the Rhinoceros"; Herbert Rogan, "The Fog Horn"; Marilyn Stern, "Pygmalion"; and Roderic Stevenson, "Burning in the Night."

DEBATE CLUB

One of the oldest activities in B.H.S. history, the Bangor High School Debate Club, has had a very active and successful year. Starting with the first tournament of the fall, the debating teams set high records. At the John Bapst Regional Tournament three of Bangor's five teams were undefeated. The teams of Laurene Severance and Jeanne Sprague, Helen Trowbridge and Lynda Gaillard, and Charles Baldwin and Stanton Hunter made perfect scores for the day.

The novice team of Baldwin and Hunter had an outstandingly successful season. The boys made top score in the University of Maine's first day of tournament rounds. The boys outranked more than thirty teams from Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Vermont. Baldwin and Hunter went on to win semi-finalist ratings in the Saturday events. They lost only one round to the tournament winners from Shrewsbury, Massachusetts.

Another high honor was the selection of Laurene Severance and Jeanne Sprague to represent Eastern Maine schools in the exhibition debate at the Bates League Discussion Contest.

The club officers were Laurene Severance and Jeanne Sprague, co-chairmen; Steven Buck, secretary; and Sheila Striar, treasurer. The adviser for the year was Mrs. Anne Chadbourne.

ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra is one of the oldest organizations in B. H. S. history. There was an orchestra before 1898 but nowhere in the records was there any information concerning this era of the group.

When the orchestra was started again in 1898, it played for Junior Exhibition. In it were twelve members. During the 1920's the orchestra played weekly in assemblies and at graduation exercises. At that time it had grown in membership to fifty.

This year, under the capable direction of Mr. M. Manning Atherton, the orchestra performed at several assemblies, the Junior Exhibition, and the Baccalaureate Exercises. Members have practiced Tuesday and Thursday mornings before school.

BAND

1916—First band formed by H. Dennis O'Neil and associated with military; 22 members.

1917—Band held practices throughout summer; 30 members, first uniforms; recognized as best high school band in New England.

1921—New director, Mr. Whipple; 55 members. "A" and "B" bands formed.

1928—New England champs again.

1929—New England champs for the third straight year.

1946—Band changed from military to school; first girl joined.

1958—Newton exchange concert.

Host to both the All-State Festival and the Eastern Maine Audition Festival, a participant in an exchange program which took it to Newton, Mass., and the only school band in Maine with the opportunity of playing at the New England Finals since 1944, the band has had one of the most colorful seasons in its long, event-filled history. Few members will forget the three-day trip to Newton which certainly did not end in a blaze of glory nor the tourney week in Boston, which ended a terrific season for both the team and the band. Much of the success of this year's band can be attributed, in all due recognition of his interest, ability and service, to Mr. Atherton, while the Music Parents' Association actively supported all activities sponsored by the Music Department.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Some ninety girls, one of the largest groups in recent years, have participated in the Girls' Chorus this year. Rehearsing every Monday afternoon, the girls, under the able direction of Mrs. Merle Coffey, have done some fine work during the school year. Credit should be given to Molly St. Lawrence, the accompanist for the group.

At the annual Christmas Concert, the girls presented "O Holy Night," with Elizabeth Gallison and Deidra Campbell as soloists, and "Glory to God in the Highest," with Carolyn Allen, Helen Trowbridge, and Pamela Trojanoski taking the solo parts. A trio of Elizabeth Gallison, Pamela Trojanoski, and Helen Trowbridge sang a yuletide selection. Sandra Grant, Beth Smart, Pamela Lancaster, Sandra Moores, Ann Downing, and Xana Arango composed the sextet which sang "Christ Child So Fair."

At the April meeting of the Music Parents' Association, both the trio and sextet presented selections for the enjoyment of the group. The Music Parents' Association has played an important role in the activities of all music groups. The hard work put in by members of the Music Parents' Association has helped to make both the All State Music Festival and the Eastern Maine Music Festival enjoyable experiences for the boys and girls who participated.

The girls also participated in the Eastern Maine Music Festival held in Bangor in May. They sang in competition with other groups for top honors given by the judges.

Third row: Walter Melvin, Robert McEachern, Klaus Holch, Stephen Dolley, James Ross, Daniel Smith, John Bragg, Alan McClure.

BOYS' CHORUS

This year B. H. S. had the largest and best Boys' Chorus in a long time. There was a total membership of twenty-eight boys, who have really done a terrific job this year with the help of David Swett as pianist.

The Music Parents Association had the privilege of enjoying a fine concert presented by the Boys' Double Quartet. The quartet consists of Bruce Wentworth, Fletcher Carter, Edson George, Roger Lothrop, Roderic McClure, Franklin Bragg, Stephen Kinney, and James McDonald.

The boys performed well at the Christmas Concert, as did the other music groups. The boys joined the girls for the Christmas Sing in conjunction with Bangor's 125th anniversary celebration.

At the Eastern Maine Music Festival in Bangor, the boys chose to sing "Wonderful Copenhagen," "Whoa, Mule Whoa," and "Lord, Lord, I've Got Some Singing to Do."

Absent: Nancy Doane, Terrence Fitzpatrick, James Gibbs, James McDonald, Nancy Todtman.

MIXED CHORUS

The mixed chorus, consisting of about 125 boys and girls, has completed a very successful season. At the first of the year the chorus performed at the Teachers' Convention held in Bangor. The songs they chose to sing were "America, My Wondrous Land," "By'm By," and "Hayride."

At Christmas time the chorus gave a concert, as it does annually, under the direction of Mrs. Merle Coffey. The chorus members fairly outdid themselves. They presented parts of the same program at an assembly for the students the next day. Mary Lee Grant, the accompanist, not only did an excellent job on the piano, but also brightened any dull moments with her amusing personality.

Sandra Gass, Judy Ernst, Rose Baldwin, JoAnn Peakes, Robert Clukey, Michael Robson, Daniel Smith, and Chester Clark formed the Mixed Double Quartet, which performed at the Christmas Concert.

The Bangor choruses were well represented in the All State Music Festival by over thirty students. The All State Chorus presented an excellent concert in the Bangor Auditorium.

The music festival held in Bangor in May was very successful. The mixed chorus auditions for the festival consisted of such numbers as "May Day Carol," "Ave Verum," and "Standin' in the Need of Prayer."

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Francais, under the supervision of Mr. Efthim Economu and Mrs. Viola Woodward, continued its fine work during the 1958-59 academic year.

For the first time in recent years the club sent boxes of clothing to a foreign country.

The monthly meetings of the club were very interesting and educationally profitable. During the year the members saw slides of B. H. S.'s American foreign exchange student, Marilyn Stern, and heard Klaus Holch, B. H. S.'s Danish exchange student, tell about Xmas and life in Denmark. The club also was fortunate in having as a speaker a boy from Madagasca. Skits and French games were also part of the entertainment for the year.

At All-Bangor Night, the French Club, with its booth decorated in the colors of the French flag, sold French pastry.

The French Club year was climaxed by the biannual trip to Quebec on the weekend of May 22.

The officers of the club were Marilyn Stern, president; Robert Clukey, vice-president; Judith Sudds, corresponding secretary; Sally Weatherbee, recording secretary; and Guy McChesney, treasurer.

Absent: Maxine Nealley, Betty Williams.

SPANISH CLUB

In 1948 a group of thirty-nine students formed the Spanish Club. Under the supervision of Miss Margaret Estes, the club was organized to further students' interest in Spanish speaking countries.

This year the group has presented several skits at its monthly meetings and has heard Klaus Holch speak on Danish customs. At the December meeting members who had been abroad discussed some of the Christmas customs and activities in foreign countries. The annual Spanish Valentine contest was held in February. At All-Bangor Night the Spanish Club sponsored a candy booth in conjunction with the Library Club.

The officers for the year were Judy Purinton, president; Gerald Stephan, vice-president; Susan Wainwright, secretary; and Maxine Nealley, treasurer. The adviser was Miss Margaret Estes.

Absent: Miss Mary Copeland, adviser.

LATIN CLUB

Founded in 1925, the Latin Club was once called A. D. III, Kalendas Maias. The long historical background of Roman customs has provided members with unlimited activities. The celebrating of Virgil's birth, the Days of Caesar, the Ides of March, the Nones of November, and a final "Old Roman Banquet" are activity standouts. The singing of "America" in Latin and the game of "Latino," the Roman version of Bingo, have been enjoyed by members throughout the years at Bangor High.

At the present the Latin Club activities have consisted of mythology skits for sophomore initiation, a Roman and Greek version of "To Tell the Truth," a contribution to the Christmas Daddy Fund, and the sponsoring of a Pizza Booth at All-Bangor Night. Officers were Marilyn Stern and Chester Clark, consuls; Mary Lee Grant, scribe; Gary Slep, quaestor; and JoAnn Peakes, William Vomvoris, Michael McEwen, and Ann Van De Bogert, aediles.

Third row: Joan Wilson, Peggy King, Jean Wilson, Elizabeth Pooler, Patricia Jenkins, Sally Overlock, Eleanor Seavey, Sheila Johnson, Sandra Grant, Sharon Hurd.
Absent: Rita Higgins, Janice Van Aken.

LIBRARY CLUB

The basic function of the B.H.S. Library Club, to deal with all aspects of library work as well as with the books themselves, is nearly identical to that of the 1925 Library Club, the first in the school. The 1925 Club was advised by Miss Marjorie Driscoll, school librarian. A club orchestra was formed; pins were procured; and several books were presented to the school library. The dissolution of the Club came with the graduation of the Class of 1928.

At mid-century with Miss Paulene Dunn, school librarian, as adviser, a group of sophomores formed the nucleus of the present Library Club. Membership was limited to girls. Gay All Bangor Night booths sponsored in conjunction with the Spanish Club, attractive displays for National Book Week, and monetary gifts to the Firemen's Toy Fund have been included in the many projects of the Club.

This year, activities have consisted of Christmas and Valentine parties, decorating a fudge booth at All Bangor Night, and displaying books for National Book Week. Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Saffery, a Hawaiian couple; Klaus Holch and Marilyn Stern, B.H.S. foreign exchange students; and Miss Paulene Dunn, who recently toured Europe, have spoken to the group. Officers for the year were president, Judith Lamson; vice-president, Jacqueline Hamlin; secretary, Sheila Richards; treasurer, Julia O'Loughlin.

Absent: Katherine Smith.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

At the first meeting of the F.B.L.A. the officers for the year were elected. They were Sharon Nason, president; Mary Girvan, vice-president; Sandra Conners, secretary; Josephine Craig, treasurer; and Elizabeth Demmons, reporter.

In November, a supper party was held in the school cafeteria and the installation of officers was held. At Christmas time the club, taking gifts and singing carols, made its annual visit to the city hospital. An Easter party was also held. This spring the F.B.L.A. held a food sale and had a booth at All-Bangor Night. During the spring vacation the members went on a trip to Augusta.

In May, the club had a party for Cynthia Giles, a senior who had polio and attended school by the way of an inter-com. At this party the F.B.L.A. presented her with an hydraulic lift, the purchase of which has been F.B.L.A.'s project of the year.

The F.B.L.A. closed the year by having a banquet at the Oronoka Restaurant.

The present F.B.L.A. is an offshoot of the Commercial Club, formed in 1938 by Mrs. Janice Burton, Head of the Business Department. Under the constitution and bylaws of the Commercial Club, the club was set up to develop leadership and social activities, and to acquaint members with business offices in Bangor. Field trips to local firms were made by the club. Speakers from local firms, special parties, and other social activities filled the club's agenda.

Second row: Jay Osler, Aivars Knuble, John Gilbert, Joseph Reheis, Duane Fox, Clive Nickerson, Robert Ruhlin, John Bragg, Walter Melvin.

ALPHA HI-Y

Until the fall of 1947 there was one Hi-Y Club in Bangor. At that time, there were so many boys interested in Hi-Y that a new club was formed. The original Bangor Hi-Y Club then assumed the name Alpha Hi-Y and the new club, Beta Hi-Y.

Through the years Alpha Hi-Y has participated in numerous service projects. The club has bought cue sticks for the pool tables in the Bangor Y.M.C.A., sent underprivileged boys to the Y.M.C.A. camp, contributed to the building fund for the new Y.M.C.A. gym and swimming pool, and contributed yearly to the World Service Fund to help organize Y.M.C.A.'s overseas.

This year the club sold magazines to raise money for the World Service Fund and for the Community Chest. The club also had a float in the Christmas parade. The officers of Alpha Hi-Y were Franklin Bragg, president; Ronald Moores, vice-president; Frederic Newman, secretary; William Higgins, treasurer; Larry Emery, chaplain; and Mr. Gerald Ballanger, a teacher at Fifth Street Junior High School, the helpful adviser.

BETA HI-Y

When the Bangor Hi-Y Club was divided into two clubs in 1947, Beta Hi-Y was the new club formed. Since that time, the club has actively participated in many Hi-Y functions. The club has sent delegates to the Older Boys' Conference in the fall and the Model United Nations' Assembly in the spring.

A Thanksgiving basket and a Christmas basket for the needy have been club projects in past years. The club has also donated to the World Service Fund to help further the Y. M. C. A. program overseas.

This year Beta has held its annual formal initiation of new members and a special World Service program. The boys also participated in the splash party with the other two Hi-Y clubs and sponsored several dances for the benefit of World Service.

Beta Hi-Y has been very fortunate to have as its adviser, Mr. Dana Giggey, who has been the adviser since the club originated.

Absent: John Feeley, Richard Shaw, Eugene Robinson.

GAMMA HI-Y

Started in the fall of 1955 by members of the other two Hi-Y clubs, Alpha and Beta, Gamma Hi-Y has steadily risen to a place of prominence among the three clubs. Having a large membership this year, Gamma has taken an active part in many Hi-Y functions. A delegation of eleven boys attended the Older Boys' Conference at Auburn.

Gamma Hi-Y helped to stage a gala swim party at the Y.M.C.A. with the cooperation of Alpha and Beta Hi-Y and two local girls' clubs.

Throughout the years several members of the three Bangor Hi-Y clubs have held high positions in the Model State Legislature, the Model United Nations' Assembly, and the Older Boys' Conference. This year Neil Martin was elected both regional and state vice-president while Guy McChesney was elected second vice-president at the Model United Nations' Assembly.

The club sponsored several dances during the year to raise money for the Y.M.C.A. Building Fund and World Service Fund to help further Y.M.C.A. work overseas. The club also sponsored a float in the Christmas Parade and a booth at All-Bangor Night. The boys worked hard on their special project to build lawn chairs. The project helped to raise money for the Building Fund.

Gamma ended a successful year by holding its annual banquet in June with Klaus Holch, elected honorary member of the club, as special guest.

Under the club's constitution, officers are elected every half year. Officers for the last half year were Guy McChesney, president; Robert Foss, vice-president; Roderic McClure, secretary; and James Ross, treasurer. The adviser was Sgt. David Yoder, stationed at the Marine Recruiting Station in Bangor.

Absent: James McDonald, John Whitten.*

OFFICERS' CLUB

The Officers' Club, made up of third year ROTC cadets, was organized early in 1920. Through the year, the club has been active in giving dances, the most notable of which is the annual Military Ball. The Officers' Club was also behind the organization of the Stetson Rifles.

Every year the club puts out the ROTC yearbook. Money from the yearbook and from the Military Ball has been used to buy sabres, Sam Browne belts, and other equipment.

As an added attraction at its 1959 Military Ball, the Officers' Club sponsored an election for Queen of the Military Ball with six candidates vying for the crown. The officers hope that this will start a new tradition at the Ball. Also introduced for the first time this year was a ritual enacted at the Ball at which time the commanding officers passed their sabres to their respective NCO counterparts.

The adviser for this year was Major William C. Schwartz, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Absent: Charles Bamford, Brian Eastman, Wayne Howard, Michael McEwen, Melvin Mills.

N. C. O. CLUB

First organized in 1957, the NCO club is the youngest of the ROTC activities. The club is open to all MT-II students with the rank of corporal or sergeant and to all MT-I students with the rank of sergeant.

Consisting of twenty-nine members, the club was quite active this year. The club's biggest project was that of obtaining jackets for the members of ROTC activities.

The club held interviews with personnel from the various branches of the military services to acquaint the members of the club with the life in the service.

The club also saw several films about atomic warfare. To supplement their classwork, the club members held assistance classes for ROTC juniors.

In addition to all these activities, the club designed and initiated the ROTC insignia badge for the NCO Club activities' jacket.

The officers of the club were Daniel Smith, president; Allen Tozier, vice-president; and Morton Sclair, secretary. The adviser is Master Sergeant Stephen Plowman.

GIRLS' RIFLE CLUB

The first year there was a girls' rifle team at B.H.S. was 1946. The girls were supervised by M/Sgt. Arnold Dodd. They were very active and entered matches with the Boys' Rifle Club and also entered matches in competition with other girls' rifle clubs. It was active for only two years and remained unorganized until 1950. When the club was reorganized in 1950, it remained active up to and including this year.

This year the Girls' Rifle Team won many honors in competition among other girls' teams. The team was chosen as the #1 team in the state of Maine. In competitive matches between sixty-four girls' rifle teams in the entire country, the B.H.S. Girls' Rifle Team won #12 place in the outcome.

Three girls of this year's team won the honorary title of expert riflemen. They were Toby Slep, Jackie Hamlin, and Josephine Craig.

The girls were under the supervision and instruction of Sgt. Leo Allie.

ROTC HISTORY

- 1862 First military unit at B.H.S. known as voluntary drill company
- 1898 Unit enlarged; name changed to B.H.S. Cadet Corps.
- 1919 Present ROTC program formed
- 1920 Rifle Club and Officers' Club formed
- 1933 B.H.S. ROTC unit gained honor rating
- 1949 Stetson Rifles formed
- 1955 Honor rating regained and kept to present
- 1957 NCO Club formed
- 1958 Stetsonettes reorganized

First organized in 1862, the B.H.S. ROTC unit is the oldest active high school military training unit in the country.

From 1862 to 1898, the unit was known as the Voluntary Drill Company. The boys furnished their own uniforms, which were of the gray military type.

At the outbreak of the Spanish-American War, a larger unit, the Bangor High School Cadet Corps, was organized. Cadets were uniformed in the then blue army uniform. During the First World War, many officers and non-commissioned officers came from the Bangor unit.

After the war, Congress authorized the present ROTC program. Bangor High School, in 1919, received one of the first junior ROTC units.

In 1933, at the federal inspection the unit received the honor rating, which was held until during World War II. The unit regained the honor rating in 1955 and has held it to the present time.

BOYS' RIFLE TEAM

First organized in 1920, the Bangor High School Rifle Team has been one of the strongest teams in the state. This year was no exception.

The team won the National Rifle Association Sectional Tournament in Portland, and in Auburn the team repeated with a decisive win in the Pine Tree League shoot-offs.

Much of the credit for the team's success can be attributed to the first-rate coaching of Master Sergeant Paul C. Sutherland.

The club officers are Gary Slep, president; James Sawyer, vice-president; Paul Ogilvie, secretary; and Philip Provost, treasurer.

1920—The Rifle Club was formed.

1929—William Randolph Hearst Match; third place, Eastern Championship.

Absent: Melvin Mills, Charles Bamford, Brian Eastman.

STETSON RIFLES

The Stetson Rifles, Bangor High School's crack drill team, was organized in 1949. The unit was named in honor of Isaiah Stetson, under whose leadership military training was first established at Bangor High School.

The unit made its first drill exhibition in January, 1950. Since then it has been active in parades and at sports events. During its several years of activity, the unit has gained an enviable reputation for excellent drill.

There were twenty-nine members in the unit this year. They were coached by Master Sergeant Paul C. Sutherland and commanded by Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Kenneth Philbrick. The boys have marched at several football and basketball games and also at the Armistice Day parade. On Armed Forces Day, the Stetsons led the B.H.S. ROTC regiment in the parade and later performed at Dow Air Force Base for an appreciative audience.

Absent: Rebecca Clifford, Jane Lafountain.

STETSONETTES

1951—Sgt. DeFillippo organized first drill team; first uniforms—black skirts and white blouses.

1952—Membership reached a peak of thirty girls.

1953-1957—Disbanded

1957—Major William Schwartz reorganized the group.
 Uniforms—Scotch plaid skirts and blue vests and tams.

1957—Joyce Prouty became first student drill leader.

This year the Stetsonettes marched at football games in the fall, at basketball games in the winter, and at R.O.T.C. functions and parades in the spring.

The officers for the year were Kay Mason, president and drill captain; and Jane Dudley, treasurer.

The faculty adviser for the year was Miss Nancy Gentile and the instructor and supervisor was Major William Schwartz.

Second row: Jane Withee, Linda Sibley, Beverly Harriman, Sally Overlook, Mary McDonald, Marjorie Knaide, Donna Pelkey.
Absent: Bonnie Keyser, Geraldine Sloat.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

This year a new club, the Future Nurses of America, was added to the extra-curricular activities at Bangor High School. The purpose of the club is to acquaint high school students with the nursing profession.

An orientation program was held for the members at the Eastern Maine General Hospital. The club sponsored a cupcake sale and a booth at All-Bangor Night.

The following officers were elected: president, Anna Martin; vice-president, Sharon McCaughy; secretaries, Judy Sudds and Marcia Berson; treasurer, Sunny Netemeyer. The adviser was Miss Barbara Hobbs.

Second row: Mildred Fedele, Glenda Wellman, Gailellen Fletcher, Shirley Pelkey, Darlene Miles, Nancy Arnold, Julia O'Loughin, Sharon Giles, Joan Batcher.
Third row: Margaret Richardson, Judith Baker, Betty Hamilton, Joyce Murray, Helen Conway, Kathleen Brown, Pamela White.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Bangor High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America has had a very successful first year of existence. Its twenty-six members, advised by Mrs. Paul Butler and Mrs. Ronald Devine, have participated in many activities during the school year.

At the first meeting, an amusing skit depicting the marriage of "Homer Economics" and "Aggie Culture" gave the program committee a fine start.

Some of the members of the F.H.A. aided the one-act play, Lady Precious Stream, by making the Oriental cushions for the cast.

For All Bangor Night, the Future Homemakers and the Future Nurses jointly sponsored an African Tiger Hunt.

The club invited Mrs. Charles Mansur to its April meeting, and she taught the members to make flowered May baskets. Thirty baskets were made and delivered to the Bangor Children's Home.

During the month of May, the Future Homemakers held a fashion show for all students and faculty members who wished to attend. A tea followed for the F.H.A. members and their parents, ninth grade Home Economics students, and members of the faculty.

The highlight of the year's program was the State F.H.A. Convention held in Augusta on April 25. Bangor High's chapter, being a new one, was honored at a special ceremony during the afternoon session. Fifteen girls from Bangor High made the trip.

The officers were installed by the officers of the Brewer High School's chapter of Future Homemakers of America in an impressive candlelight ceremony. The officers for the year were Sandra Gass, president; Regina Crook, vice-president; Gloria Hartt, secretary; Bonnie Parent, treasurer; Judith Mills, song leader; Norma Patterson, historian; and Nancy Arnold, publicity.

Second row: Barbara Jordan, Claire Kimball, Caroline Travis, Elizabeth Gallison, Patricia Vose, Sandra Gass, Sandra Murphy, Erlene Wilson, Bonnie Flagg.
Absent: Miss Ruth Belknap, Mr. Perham Amsden, Nancy Todtman.*

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

For a new club in Bangor High, the Miss Marion A. DuBourdieu Future Teachers of America Club has developed in its members a very high degree of interest. The reason for the success of the club is perhaps its program of student observation and teaching in the classroom.

As membership is encouraged only for those with an interest in teaching and with the rank requirement set by the club, any member may have a "go" at the profession. Elementary, junior high, and high school teachers as well as music and physical education supervisors in Bangor schools volunteered to guide the students in their adventure of four to eight weeks. Susan Braveman, Chester Clark, Marilyn Stern, and Nancy Todtman pioneered in their practice teaching. With the cooperation of these four third-year French students the Bangor School department was able to conduct the experiment of teaching French in the elementary schools. The attempts of all the practice teachers of the club have been termed successful and worthwhile.

At several of the club meetings a panel of high school teachers and the four club members who had participated in the practice teaching discussed some of their experiences in the classroom.

In April, delegates from the club were sent to the Future Teachers of America convention in Old Town. Those attending were Chester Clark, Nancy Todtman, and Patricia Vose, supervised by Mr. Perham Amsden.

The officers of the club were president, Sally Weatherbee; vice-president, Bonnie Bennett; secretary, Carolyn Allen; treasurer, Chester Clark; and historian, David Marley.

The advisers were Miss Ruth Belknap and Mr. Perham Amsden.

"B" CLUB

When a student wins his letter at Bangor High, he automatically be-comes a member of the "B" Club. The "B" Club is an honorary group whose membership contains many outstanding boys.

In order to obtain membership in the club, a boy may win his letter in any one of six major sports at B.H.S. These six include cross-country and football in the fall, basketball and skiing during the winter months, and baseball and track in the spring.

Membership in the "B" Club is the ultimate goal of all sports-minded boys at Bangor High.

The 1958 Ram harriers experienced a respectable season under the watchful mentorship of Mr. Vincent Cuozzo.

Pacing the Rams to their 3-4-1 dual meet record were Phil Verrill, Boyd Osler, and Bruce Wentworth. Jim Vanidestine, Dave Parker, Rod McClure, and Dick Mooney rounded out the varsity seven.

Bowing to the Rams were Bucksport, Howland, and Piscataquis Community High School, while the harriers suffered defeat at the hands of Lee, Old Town, Maine Freshmen, and Sumner. The tie was with M.C.I.

Under stiff competition in the Regional and State meets, the Rams had to be content with fourth and seventh places respectively.

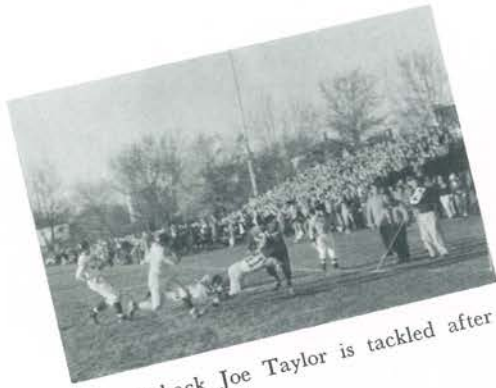

The junior Rams who compiled a 3-2 record were paced by John Thompson and Dan Temple, who, next year, will aid in filling the gap left by the all, except Mooney, senior seven.

Cross Country was introduced at B. H. S. in 1938 under Coach Charles O'Connor. From 1941 to the present, Mr. G. Vincent Cuozzo has been the able mentor. In that time he has turned out such outstanding runners as John Bowler, Walter Morrill, Frank Ramsdell, Dave Deering, Stanley Furrow, Gary Smith, Lyle Maunder, Phil Babineau, Albie Whitmore, and Phil Verrill, many of whom have gone on to greater fame in college.

He has collected two Regional wins, five second-places in State meets, and a third in New England competition.

Including J. V., Regional, State, and New England meets, in the past ten years Mr. Cuozzo's teams have accrued the record of 70 wins—23 losses and 3 ties—an outstanding tribute to a fine coach.

THE SEASON

Headed by All-Eastern Maine players Joe Taylor and Dick Shaw in the backfield and Dave Marley and Ray Dauphinee in the line, the Bangor Rams enjoyed their best season in three years. After dropping their first three games, the Rams roared back to take four out of the last five to finish with an even 4-4 mark. After beating John Bapst by an overwhelming 39-7 margin, the Rams pulled one of the biggest upsets of the year by licking the highly-favored Brewer team by a 25 to 9 score. The Rams were directed by Coach Gerry Hodge, a graduate of Bangor High, who returned to Bangor in 1957 as the Rams' line coach. 1958 was his first year as head coach.

Third row: Louis Bohan, Terrence Roberson, Robert Pullen, Reginald Archer, Walter Hersey, Edward Gilbert, Richard Fowler, and David Jarvis.

The 1958 Football Rams compiled a 4-4 record for the season, quite a respectable mark considering the competition, namely such teams as Lewiston, South Portland, and Portland.

The Ram victories came at the expense of Gardiner, 32-7; Waterville, 24-13; John Bapst, 39-7; and Brewer, 25-9. In each of the four wins the Rams played brilliantly, using teamwork to their advantage.

The Ram starters included Joe Taylor, Richard Shaw, William Bailey, and Gerald Stratton in the backfield. The line was headed by Arch Tracy, Tom Pappas, Ed Gilbert, Ray Dauphinee, Dave Marley, Robert Sloane, Fred Newman, and Richard Price.

The Jayvees played several games during the season. They tangled with Fifth Street, Garland Street, and the Old Town Jayvees twice, while meeting the M.C.I. Undergrads once. The purpose of Jayvee football is to develop future material for the varsity team.

SKI CLUB AND TEAM

The ski club's main recognized function is the sponsorship of a team. This year's was first rate.

The Bangor Rams Ski Team entered eight official meets in this, their first season, and made a very good showing against such veteran scholastic teams as Kents Hill, MCI, Stearns, Guilford, Lincoln, Maine Vocational Institute, and Madawaska.

The Rams placed ninth out of the thirteen teams in the Maine State Class B Championships held at Mexico, Maine, in January. The team did well considering the fact that they entered only one jumper instead of the usual team of four. The energy and ability of Major William Schwartz, who trained and coached the team from cross country season to the final meet in March, was certainly appreciated by the team.

The big victory was taking first place in the Golden Ski Tournament and bringing back the Silver Cup for the second straight year.

In other meets "Tykie" Melvin set a new course record at Guilford. James Ross took twelfth place out of over forty contestants in the jumping event at Mexico in his first jumping competition. Gary Schwartz really showed stamina when he ran three miles on only one ski in the cross country event at the Class B State Championship and still finished thirtieth in a field of 54.

Of these boys now shown in training, H. Tabenken, J. Dunn, A. Mitchell, F. Bragg, P. Haney, J. Ross, G. Schwartz, and W. Melvin, six went on to win varsity letters. The lettermen were Melvin, Schwartz, Ross, Bragg, Haney, and Tabenken.

JAYVEE BASKETBALL

Second row: Robert Thomas, manager; Aivars Knuble, Samuel Shindler, Alan McClure,

The purpose of J.V. Basketball is to provide playing experience for future varsity players. Mr. Al Martin coached the Ram Jayvees until he was drafted, at which time Varsity coach "Red" Barry took over.

The Junior Rams finished the season with a total of three victories, two of them over the John Bapst J.V.'s. Although the record itself does not seem impressive, the team played such top competition as the Husson J.V.'s and Class S team East Corinth.

The Jayvees came along well toward the end of the season and should be sending up some top material to the varsity next year. Good prospects include Aivars Knuble, Sam Shindler, Alan McClure, Jon Dauphinee, and Harry Bridgham.

Second row: Coach Frederick "Red" Barry, Manager Norman Sanborn, Aivars Knuble, Richard Shaw, Alan McClure, Samuel Shindler, Manager Robert Thomas, and Assistant Coach Gordon Smith.

Coach Frederick "Red" Barry was confronted with an inexperienced team late in November, with only two returning lettermen. After getting off to a rough start, the miracle Rams staged a comeback which saw them sitting in the second place tourney spot at the end of the season.

A major factor in the Rams' success was the steady playmaking and deadly shooting eye of Captain Joe Taylor.

The height and scoring touch of All-New England Archie Tracy helped pave the way to the Boston Garden.

Flashy Jim Mooney sparked the Rams with his fine shooting and his aggressiveness under the boards.

Greatly improved Russ Murray combined natural ability with a fine shooting touch to become a vital cog in the Ram machine.

Guard Jim Vanidestine was the man who scored when the chips were down.

Bangor's dependable reserves, Dick Shaw and Boyd Osler, saw considerable action during the year, especially during the New England Tournament, when they alternated in the place of Jim Mooney, who was sidelined with an infected thumb.

Behind these first seven the Rams had four capable reserves in Ronald Moores, Aivars Knuble, Sam Shindler, and Alan McClure.

The Rams had what might be called an excellent season. After getting off to a slow start with a 3-4 record, the Rams came back to win nine of their remaining ten games. In spite of only a fair seasonal record, however, the Rams were rated second in the tournament, due to victories over John Bapst, Brewer, and two over Stearns. During the season, the Rams averaged 61.6 points per game, while holding their opponents to a 54 point average. The Bangor men demonstrated their scoring punch by an 85-47 victory over Waterville, and showed the fans that they could also hold the opposition to a paltry sum by beating Old Town 58-35.

TOURNAMENT HIGHLIGHTS

It was in tournament play that the Rams came into their own and showed what results can be accomplished by teamwork. Headed by Archie Tracy, who provided the scoring punch, and Capt. Joe Taylor, the Rams swept through the Eastern Maine Tournament, terminating with a 70-61 upset victory over arch-rival John Bapst, with whom the Rams had split during the season. Next came a thrilling one-point win over Lewiston, and on to Boston. In the first game of the New Englands the Rams made it three upsets in a row with a 72-58 decision over favored Holyoke. The Rams put on what was possibly their best performance of the year as they completely outplayed their opponents. The second game, played against Nashua, N. H., was almost a repeat performance of the first. In both games the Rams hit on over 50% of their shots from the floor and outclassed their opponents by a wide margin. Thus Bangor became the first Maine team to reach the New England finals in 15 years. However, the Rams had an off night against Hillhouse and had to be content with second place.

TRACK

Coach "Cy" Perkins' boys at this writing have demonstrated that they are a superior team with fine potential. Thus far, the Rams have had three meets, all against college age competition. Against the Colby Frosh the Rams took second place while defeating Portland and Waterville. The Rams fought to the wire with M.C.I. and lost by five points. The Rams lost to the Maine Frosh by seventeen points.

Several men have shown up well for the Rams this year: Dave Parker in the 440 and 220, Reg Archer in the broad jump, and Larry Johnson in the high jump and low hurdles. Dave Marley, Fred Newman, and Dick Price in the weight events and Jim Ross and Bob Sloane in the jumping events have displayed fine ability. With the Rams' powerful and versatile competitors, they will definitely loom as threats in the State Track Meet.

HISTORY

Track has come a long way at Bangor High School since its beginning in the early '90's. The times, heights, and distances have been greatly improved in every event.

Bangor High School's track team used to practice at Bass Park. The team also used to run meets on an old indoor track at the Bangor Y. M. C. A. However, with the completion of the fine new field at Garland Street Junior High, the track team took up its present day home.

In the way of improvement, practically all event performances have improved with the most notable gain in the distance and weight events. It has been not only better facilities, but also better coaching which has improved this phase of athletics at B. H. S. In athletics as in education improved instruction improves the pupil.

BASEBALL

The Bangor High baseball team at the time of this writing has completed nearly all of its 1959 schedule. Coach Frederick "Red" Barry's Rams have won six games while dropping two close decisions.

The experienced Rams have displayed solid hitting power and a well-balanced defense. Veterans Jim Vanidestine, Ray Dauphinee, Lloyd Maunder, Larry Sproul, Pete Predaris, and rookies Phil McTigue, Lou Bohan, Dick Shaw, and Joe Sazin have sparked the Rams' victories. Larry Sproul, Rod Stevenson, and Al McClure have produced top pitching performances this year.

BASEBALL HIGHLIGHTS

1892—Athletic Association formed to regulate sports at BHS.

1893—A. A. joined the Maine Interscholastic Association for participation in various sports.

1940—Coached by Mose Nanigan, Bangor competed with Bar Harbor for the News League Championship.

1945—B. H. S. eliminated from newly organized Penobscot Valley conference because of successive championships.

1955-1956—Now using the Garland Street field, "Red" Barry coached the team to two winning seasons.

TRACK TALK

Phil Verrill speeds along the cinders to victory

Junior Dick Smith kicks a new hole in the sky

The 1959 Ram cindermen have shown outstanding potential so far this season. The team has had three meets with one remaining besides the State Meet.

In a four-way meet with the Colby Frosh, Portland, and Waterville the Rams racked up a total of 43 points to place second to the Baby Mules, who scored 67. Portland and Waterville followed with 21 and 12 points, respectively.

The next contest saw the M. C. I. Huskies nose out the Bangor men by a 61 to 56 margin.

The following week the Rams traveled to Orono to take on the powerful Maine Frosh team. Again the boys from Bangor were beaten in a real thriller, 67-50.

With the last meet of the regular season, against Waterville and Winslow, and the State Meet approaching, the Rams are striving to improve their marks in their respective events in hopes of doing as well as possible in the big contest—the State Meet.

The Crowd

As the Oracle goes to press, the Bangor Rams' 1959 baseball team sports a record of six victories against two defeats.

The Bangor nine opened its season with a sparkling 6-3 verdict over the John Bapst Crusaders behind the four-hit pitching of lefty Rod Stevenson.

The Rams' next triumph came by defeating Old Town 9-8 on a clutch triple by Bangor third sacker Joe Sazin. Larry Sproul relieved starter Rod Stevenson in the top of the ninth to get credit for the victory.

The third Bangor win was at the expense of the Brewer Witches, by a score of 9-8. Phil McTigue smashed a base hit in the last of the ninth to ice the game for Bangor.

Bangor dropped two hard-fought contests in the late innings to Dover-Foxcroft, 9-8, and to Ellsworth, 7-5.

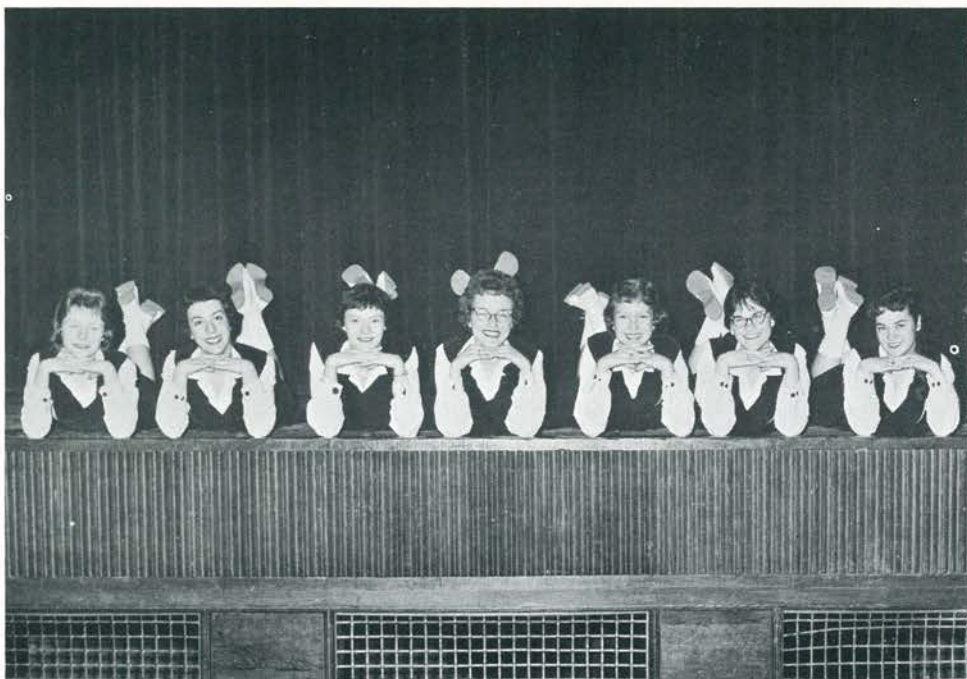

Other Ram victories were over John Bapst, Old Town, and Ellsworth.

The Line-up

Ray Dauphinee takes a cut

*Left to right: Molly St. Lawrence, Phyllis Berger, Pamela Gervais, Donna Benoit, Jean Quinn, Karen Stevens, Bernice Ross.
Absent: Robin Leadbetter, Gail London,*

JAYVEE CHEERLEADERS

The first jayvee cheerleading squad was organized in 1948. The girls designed a uniform which would be different from that of the varsity squad. The squad was organized in order to develop spirit and encouragement for the jayvee players.

The cheerleaders this year were very enthusiastic and should be praised for their wonderful job of cheering the jayvee basketball team. The girls were well organized and showed a great deal of spirit.

J.V. Cheerleaders take over as varsity squad bows out with Capt. Debbie Munce receiving recognition for service from Mrs. Hammons.

The advisers of the squad this year were Mrs. Louise Hammons and Mrs. Rubena Pressey. This year's captain was Donna Benoit.

Jacqueline Graham, Ada Hersey, Janice Weymouth.
Absent: Constance Beverly, Sandra Reynolds.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

B.H.S. had its first girls' cheerleading squad of any type in 1936. At that time the girls were very active and did cartwheels and other acrobatic stunts.

From 1936 on, B.H.S. has always had a very active group of cheerleaders. The girls have always worn wine and white uniforms.

This year the cheerleaders have really done a terrific job of cheering the Rams to victory. Bangor could really be proud of the cheerleaders in Boston when they were cheering the Rams in the New England Finals.

The captain of the cheerleaders this year was Deborah Munce. The advisers this year were Mrs. Louise Hammons and Mrs. Rubena Pressey.

Middle row: Sandra Conners, Mary Lee Grant, Betty Gallison, Linda Frost, Nancy Conners, Sharon Dauphinee, Sharon Parker.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC HONOR COUNCIL

The G.A.H.C. successfully completed the year with its annual banquet at the Oronoka. Any girl who participated in after-school sports was invited. The nine-sport chenille B's, which are awarded to those seniors who have faithfully played all after school sports for all three years, were awarded to Carol Bradbury, Priscilla Butler, Alberta Caler, Regina Crook, Linda Frost, Ada Hersey, Sally Hill, Barbara Jordan, Nancy Todtman, and Ann Van De Bogert.

G. A. H. C. members started off the year by coaching field hockey. All senior members coached one of the three teams. The Hockey Party wound up a successful season. Four girls were initiated into G. A. H. C.

In February an assembly was presented. Following the history of the Council and the traditional ritual, Sandra Conners, Sharon Dauphinee, Elizabeth Gallison, and Judith Sudds were taken into the Council.

As the basketball season began, senior members were again coaching. All members assisted with the scoring and timing of the tournament games.

All G.A.H.C. activities were under the direction of Miss Mildred McGuire, adviser, and officers: Sally Hill, president; Barbara Jordan, vice-president; Regina Crook, secretary; and Ann Van De Bogert, treasurer.

Back row: Esther Katen, Linda Woods, Joan Bartlett.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL OFFICIALS' CLUB

All girls who have officiated the basketball games are members of the Officials' Club. At each of the twelve meetings new rules were explained by Miss Mildred McGuire, adviser. Before officiating in the tournament, each girl is required to pass an examination over the Officials' Rule Book. The members receive practice by officiating during gym classes. The girls assisted Mrs. Betty Solorzano with the officiating, scoring, and timing during the tournament.

HONORARY ALL-BANGOR FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

Second row: Janice Jordan, Sharon Nason, Jill Lyons, Sally Hill, Sally Weatherbee, Priscilla Butler, Johanna Hunt.
Third row: Nancy Connors, Paula Rolsky, Norma Patterson, Ada Hersey, Roberta Rankin, Mary Girvan, JoAnn Peakes.
Absent: Nancy Todtman.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

The talented senior team won the interclass championship after many difficult and exciting games. All of the teams displayed excellent sportsmanship and athletic ability. The winning team was coached by Sally Hill and captained by Ann Van De Bogert. Members of the winning team were Carol Bradbury, Priscilla Butler, Regina Crook, Linda Frost, Sandra Gass, Ada Hersey, Sally Hill, Johanna Hunt, Barbara Jordan, Jill Lyons, Sharon Nason, Janice Newcomb, Joanne Robertson, Maxine Staples, Nancy Todtman, Ann Van De Bogert, and Sally Weatherbee.

The sophomore and junior teams both deserve credit for their outstanding teamwork. The sophomore team was coached by Regina Crook, Sharon Parker, and Maxine Staples. Sharon Dauphinee was the captain. Paula Rolsky was elected captain of the junior team, and Carol Bradbury, Johanna Hunt, and Barbara Jordan assisted as coaches.

The final results were

Seniors	3-1

At the annual hockey party fourteen seniors and eight juniors were elected to the Honorary All-Bangor Field Hockey Team, the highest honor that a field hockey player may receive at Bangor High School. This honor is awarded to those who have faithfully participated in field hockey for two years.

BASKETBALL CHAMPS — SENIOR RED TEAM

Back row: Margaret Farnham, Ada Hersey, Sharon Nason, Alberta Caler.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

(Senior Red—Champions)

The Senior Red team beat the Senior White team in a thrilling game that climaxed the basketball season and made the Senior Red team champions. The defeat of the Senior Red team would have meant a tie for first place.

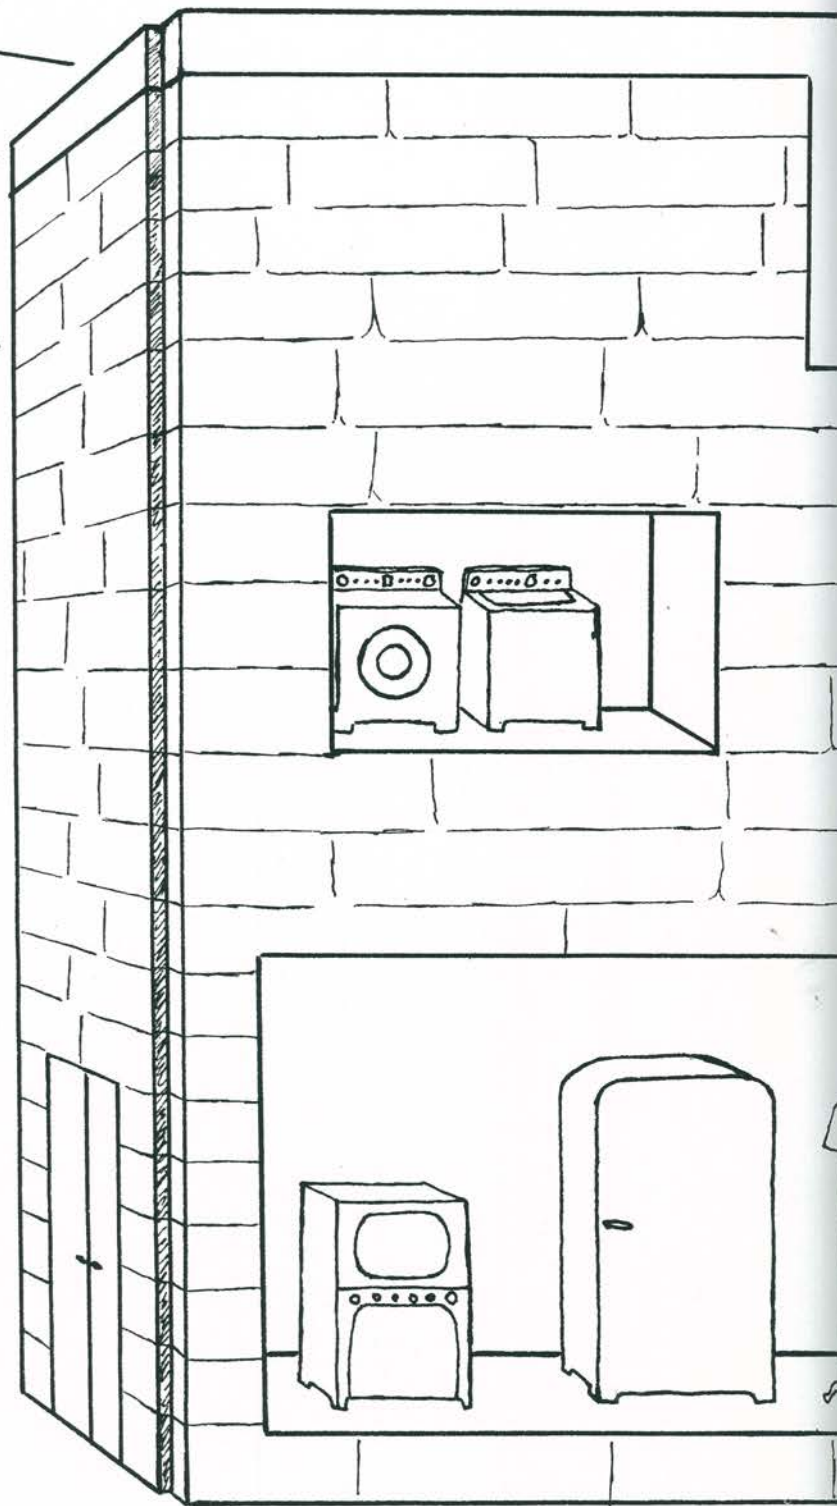

The Senior Red team was led to victory by its captain, Elizabeth Gallison. Other players include Alberta Caler, Ann Crosby, Margaret Farnham, Linda Frost, Ada Hersey, Johanna Hunt, Sharon Nason, and Marilyn Townsend.

The Junior Blue team finished in second place. Coached by Sharon Parker and Sharon Nason and captained by Janice Jordan, this team showed great promise for next year.

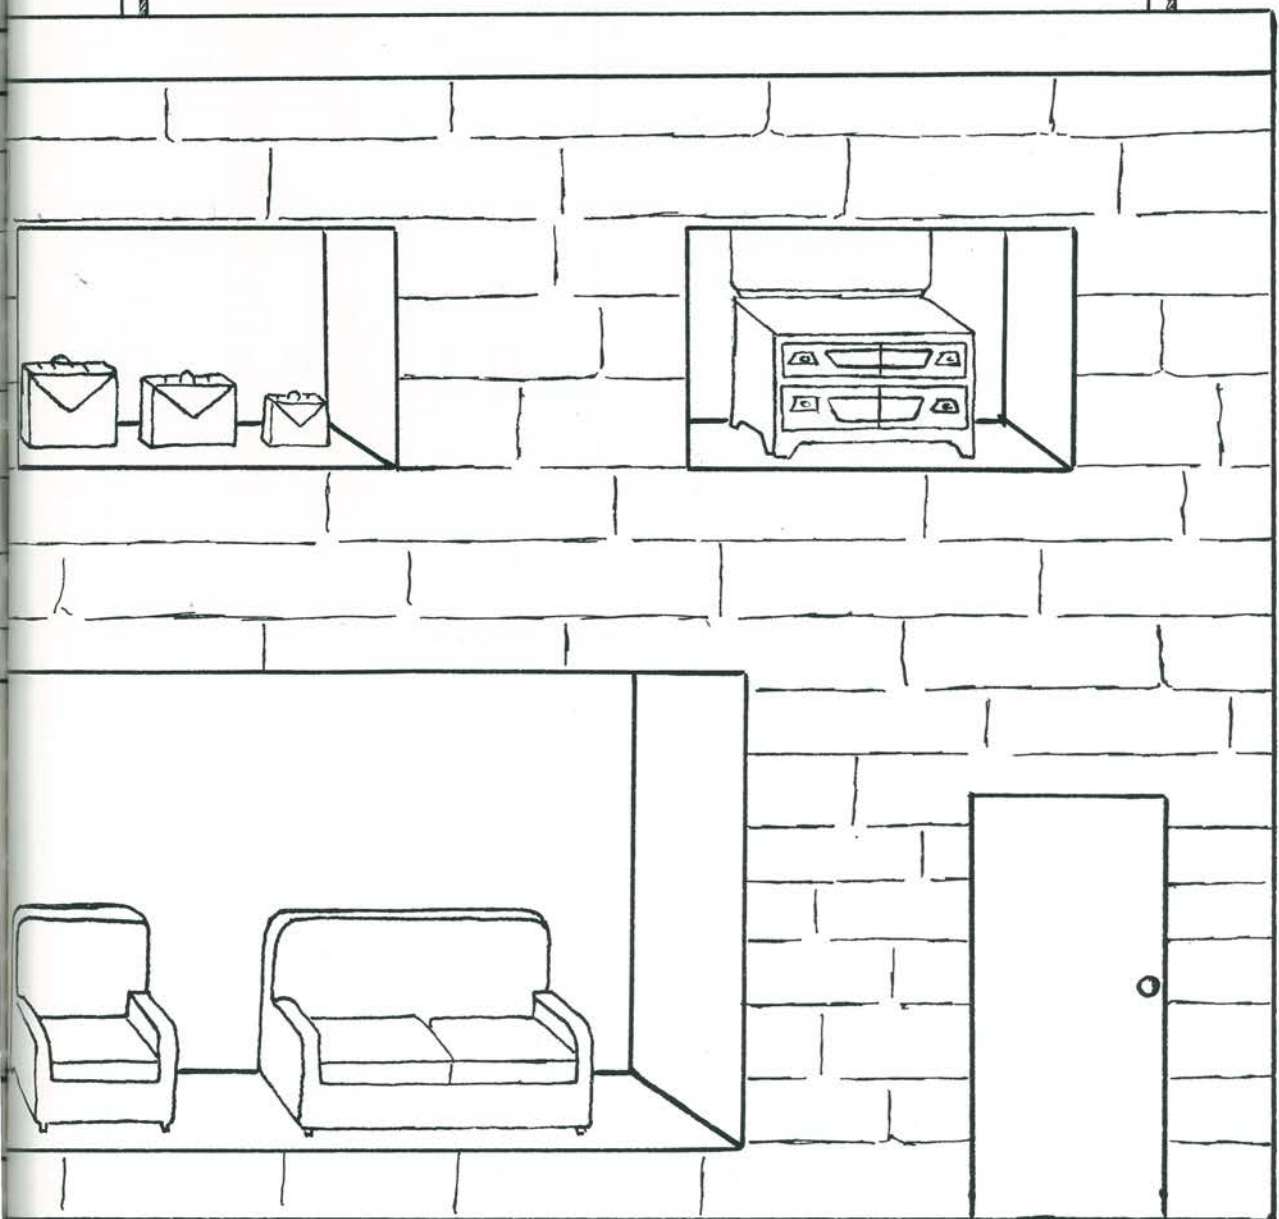

There was a tie for third place. The Senior White team and the Sophomore White team were the placemates. The Senior White team was aided by Sharon Parker, captain; the Sophomore White team was successfully coached by Carol Bradbury, Barbara Jordan, and Ann Van De Bogert. Rose Baldwin was elected captain.

There was a great deal of competition during the season with a large number of participants.

Awards were presented to each player May 12, 1959, at the Girls' Athletic Honor Council Banquet held at the Oronoka Restaurant.

IN APPRECIATION

We and the entire Oracle staff thank the following people without whose cooperation this yearbook would not have been possible:

The administration, for constant cooperation and whole-hearted support.

The faculty and students of B. H. S. for their cooperation in meeting picture schedules and in providing necessary information.

The Bangor Daily News for several sports pictures.

Mr. F. Norman Webb and Mr. Carroll Hall for photographic services.

Mr. L. Felix Ranlett, librarian, the Bangor Public Library, for several pictures of Old Bangor.

The advertisers and subscribers for financial support.

Furbush-Roberts Printing Company, publishers, for outstanding service.

Jackson Studios for group pictures.

Raymond Dauphinee for invaluable help in the art work.

Everyone who in any way has made the publication of this yearbook possible.
