Youth is the time for adventures of the body, but age for the triumphs of the mind.

DEDICATION

Dr. John J. Fahey

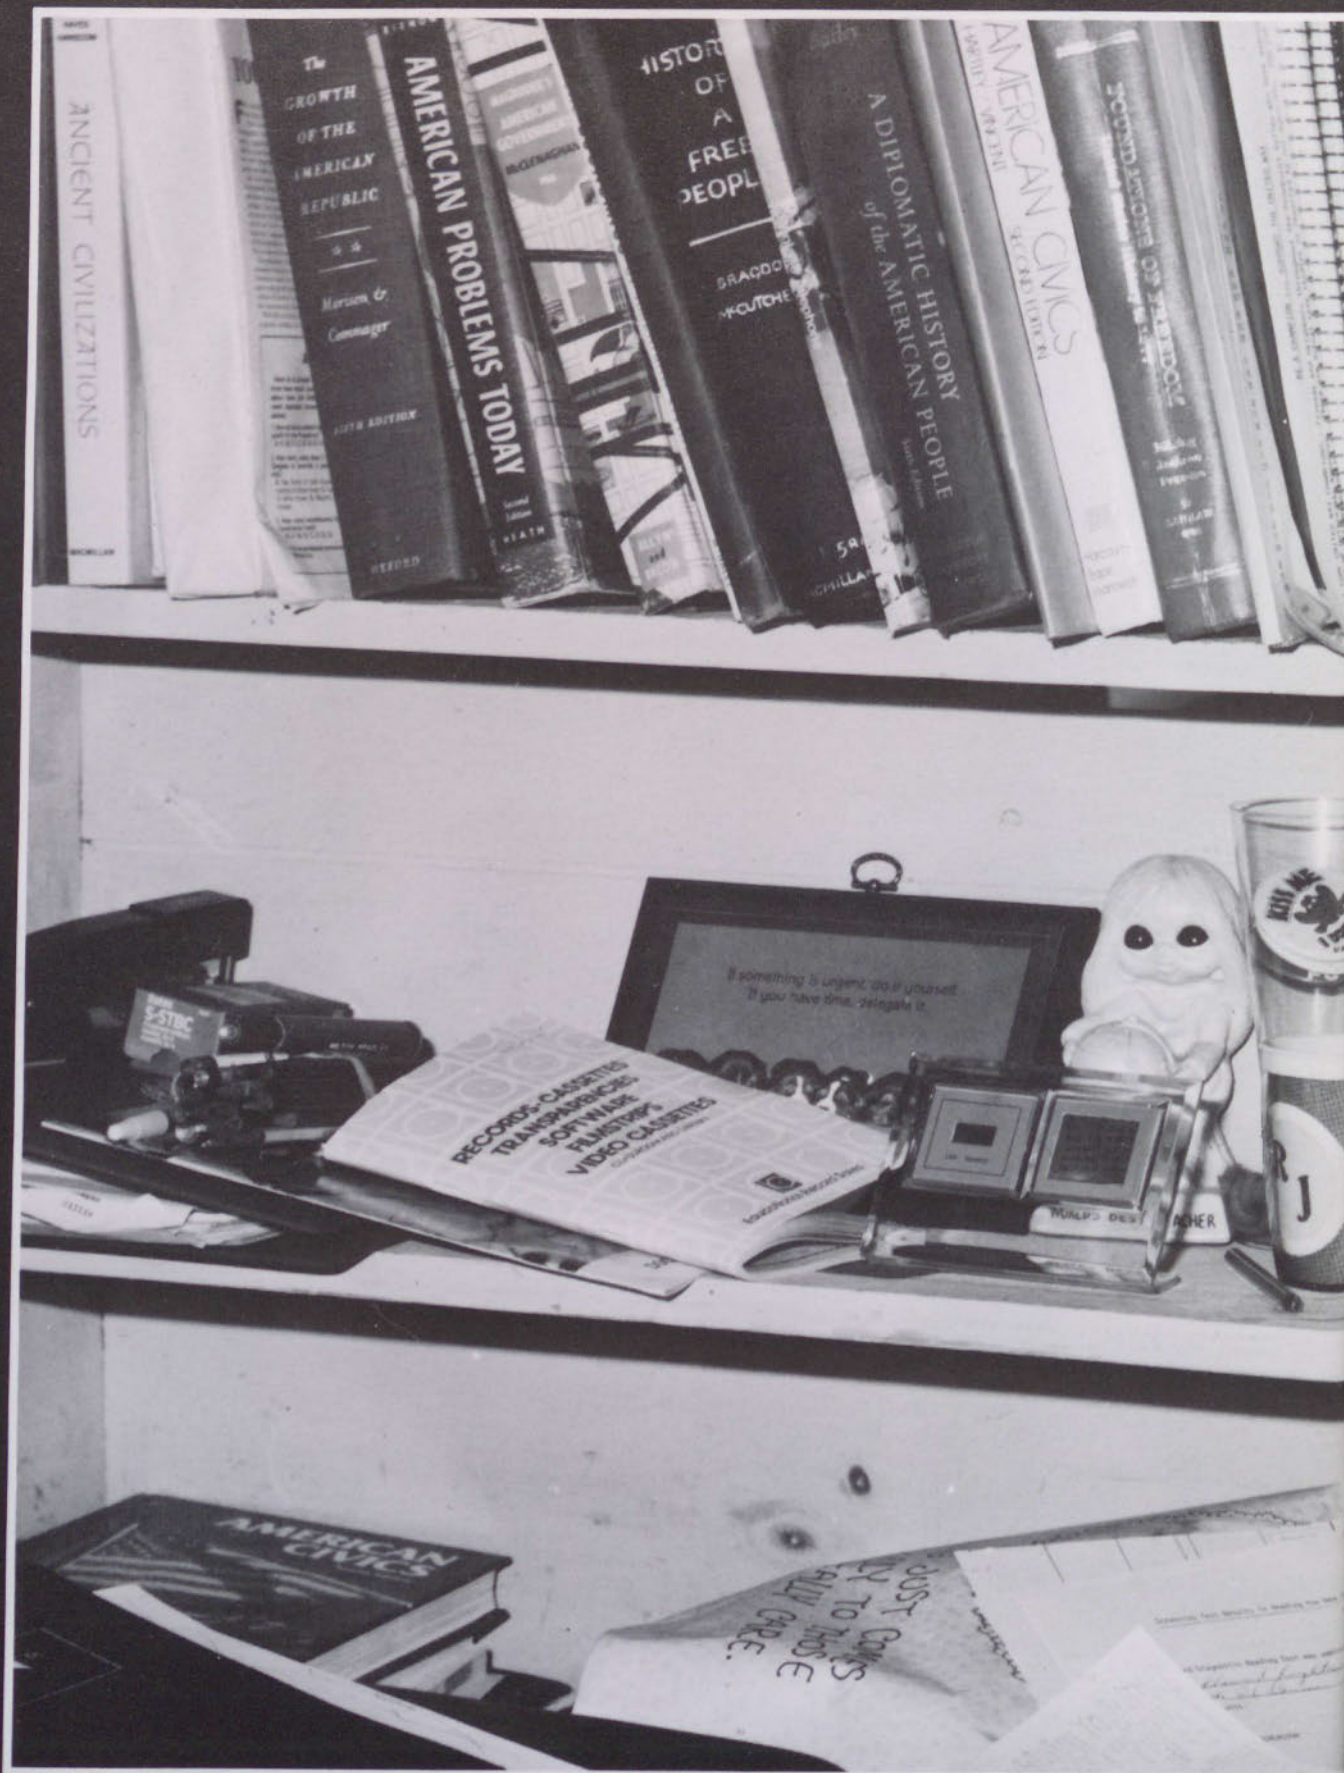

Dr. John J. Fahey came to Bangor High School ten years ago during the 1973-1974 school year. Prior to this, he served as principal for Downeast Elementary School, Director of Special Education for the city of Bangor, and principal for Fourteenth Street School. Throughout his years in the Bangor School System, he has established himself as a man of confidence and candor, a man interested in the future. As principal, he has dedicated himself to the overall betterment of Bangor High School. He is an avid promoter of school spirit and is frequently seen at school-related events. Although Dr. Fahey may not be seen by the student body everyday, his presence is ultimately reflected in the high standards that Bangor High School is noted for statewide. As a man who learns from the past, lives in the present, and looks to the future, we dedicate this 1984 Oracle to you, Dr. Fahey.

Sincerely,
The Class of 1984

In Memoriam

Edward B.
Burrows

1983

In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking to you in the familiar things he touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. He lives on in your life and in the lives of all others that knew him.

Dear Members of the Class of 1984:

"The yearbooks are in!" This familiar cry, usually heard around B.H.S. in late May, had particular interest for you this year. You are seniors and the 1984 ORACLE is your yearbook.

It is an historical record of your high school years. You will, more than you now realize, peruse and ponder over the ORACLE pages for years and years to come. You will remember and struggle to remember!

Each of you has left your mark at Bangor High. Your classroom achievements as well as those in extra-curricular activities are well noted. The faculty will remember you and watch your progress as you continue into new phases of your lives.

We are confident that you will accept new challenges and you will succeed in your struggle toward independence, full maturity, and productive citizenship. We wish you good health and much happiness.

John J. Fahey, Ph.D.

King and Queen — Amy Evans and Todd Ketchum

RAMS ARE WILD TO T

October 11-14 marked Bangor High School's 1983 Homecoming Week. Various events, such as hat and shades day, tourist day, red and white day, Arab day for the seniors, and the election of Homecoming King and Queen, highlighted Spirit Week. All four classes took an active role, especially Friday night during the car parade from BHS to Cameron Field. Despite a Ram loss, we were victorious in rowdiness and spirit.

Freshman Football

A new era began at Bangor High School as we produced yet another outstanding athletic team — the Freshman Rams. The Rams played fantastic football under the enthusiastic leadership of Coach Capehart, and worked hard to obtain an undefeated season, finishing first in the Eastern Maine Freshman League. Girl's Soccer

The Bangor Varsity girls soccer team, under the leadership of first year coach Mark Tordoff, ended the season with a respectable record of 6-7-1. With this record and only four returning seniors, we fought our way to the playoffs. Co-captains Kathy Samways, Martina Solomon, Rhonda Boody, and Becky Jones, were instrumental in helping the 34 enthusiastic girls. Shelley Antone was the team's MVP on offense while Kathy Samways was the MVP for defense. This team was full of new and old talent, with most members returning next year. (Watch out Waterville!)

Boy's Soccer

In spite of only a single win in their fourteen game season, the 1983 soccer team can be commended for their dedication and outstanding effort. Seniors John Andrews, Richard Danforth, and John Segal formed the nucleus of what was largely a young team of juniors and sophomores — over half of whom had never played on an organized team before. With the experience of this year behind the team, those returning should be able to look forward to greater success in the 1984 season.

CROSS COUNTRY

Bangor's Cross Country had a fantastic season, breaking eight school records, and winning an Eastern Maine Championship.

The girl's team, in spite of its youth, set three school records and was the runner-up for the Eastern Maine Championship.

The boy's team with the outstanding performances of Warren Caruso, Barry Batey, Brian Hurst, and Jim England gave our school this year's first Eastern Maine Championship and broke five school records. The freshmen were a positive addition and have provided a good base of future achievement.

Karen Hunter — World Champion

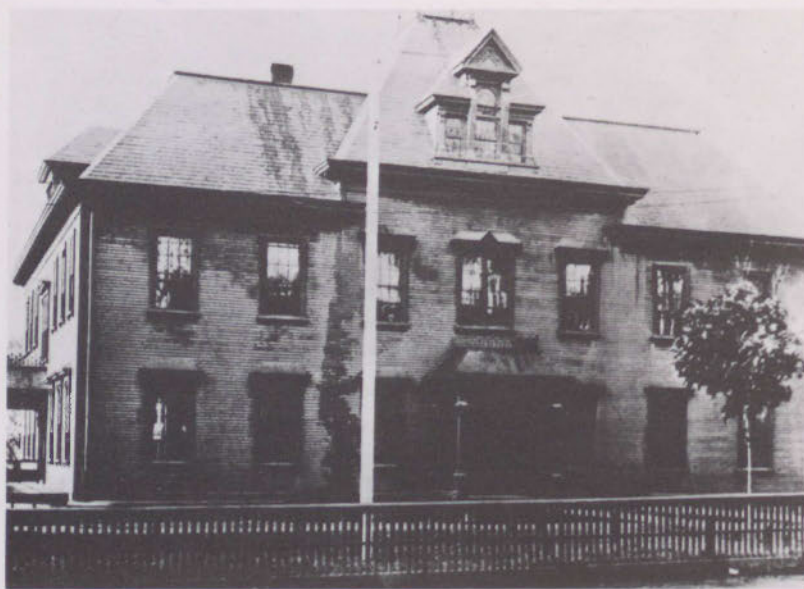

Karen Hunter, a junior at Bangor High, has been skiing on the Sugarloaf Mountain Freestyle team since 1975. In 1983 Karen became the world Junior Freestyle Champion. To obtain this honor she traveled to Europe and competed against many young people from all over the world. The results found Karen as the overall champion with a 1st in ballet and aeriels and a 4th in moguls.

Congratulations Karen — way to show that Bangor Pride.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY BANGOR

Abbott Square Building

Because our current B.H.S. is having its 20th birthday in 1984 we thought it would be interesting to see how it has changed during this century.

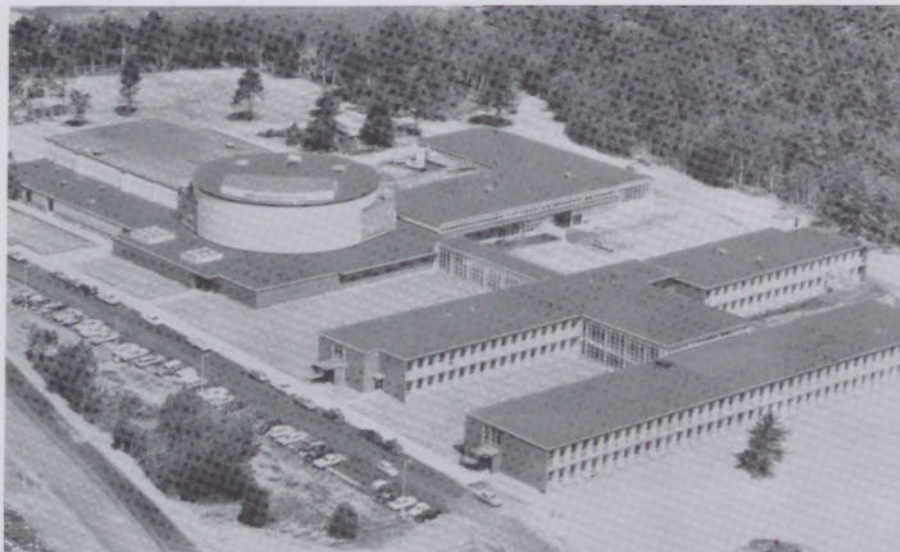

The first picture depicts the Abbott Square building, our earliest photo of Bangor High School. In 1911 the Abbott Square building burned in the Bangor fire. In 1913 the school was relocated on Harlow Street where, for fifty years, it served as the senior learning center. During that period increased enrollment made it necessary to have double sessions; the seniors, juniors, and most sophomores went in the morning; while business sophomores and freshmen went in the afternoon. The demand for a better equipped and more spacious high school now faced the city. For this reason the present structure was built. And thus, ever since 1964, Bangor High has given us learning, friendships, and hope at its outer Broadway location.

Chronology

- Pre-1911 — Abbott Square building
- 1911 — Abbott Square building burned
- 1913 — Bangor High School relocated on Harlow Street
- 1959-1964 — Double sessions
- 1964 — Bangor High relocated on present site
- 1970-1974 — Model Schools Program
- 1983 — Bangor High becomes a four-year high school
- 1983 — "Home of Bangor Rams" sign donated by the Class of 1932

Chronology

- 1769 — Jacob Bussell, first settler
- 1791 — Bangor was incorporated as a town, February 25
- 1815 — Bangor Weekly Register, first newspaper
- 1832 — First covered toll bridge between Bangor and Brewer
- 1834 — Bangor incorporated as a city, February 12
- 1845 — Bangor, one of the first iron steamships running between Boston and Bangor
- 1846 — Big flood in Bangor
- 1870-1890 — Bangor recognized as the largest lumber port in the world
- 1886 — Bangor Salmon Pool inaugurated
- 1889 — "Trolley car" transportation
- 1911 — Bangor's big fire burned 50 acres of business and residential sections
- 1919 — First plane, a U.S. Army Craft, landed in Bangor
- 1937 — "Brady Gang" seized in Bangor
- 1959 — Paul Bunyan statue was erected

150 years ago Bangor was incorporated as a city. Since then, Bangor has become synonymous with spirit, enthusiasm and, most importantly, determination. As Queen City of the East Bangor has changed much over the years. These pictures indicate some of that change. Compare the river view of the 1880s with the current skyline on the cover. The downtown street scenes show not only the changes in buildings and businesses, but activities as well.

Bangor has and will continue to move in a positive direction; as we will . . .

Reflections

*The seasons they go round and round.
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captive on a carousel of time.
We cannot return we can only look
Behind from where we came.
And go round and round and round in the circle game.*

As the class of 1984 entered Bangor High School in the autumn of 1981, we were unsure of what awaited us. Although it was an unknown frontier, we had already begun to explore its borders in ninth grade, by attending football games, basketball games, All Bangor Nite, and various other events. However, now a rush of nervous excitement was building as we prepared to move into our new "home" for the next three years. After the initial introduction to new friends, new courses, and new teachers, we settled down into our own individual routines. The time passed swiftly, and suddenly the dream that appeared so far off became a reality — we had developed into seniors.

Senior year meant taking more SAT's, applying for scholarships, and filling out college and work applications. It meant that we were the leaders; the captains, the editors, and the presidents. Most importantly, perhaps, it meant that we were in our prime.

After three years of struggle and growth we had emerged as one entity, strengthened by our memories and shared experiences of the past, united by our hopes and fears of the future.

Although it is human nature to forget, we will always remember each other, the qualities each of us represent, and the parts of ourselves we were willing to share. In the future, we may be separated by distance or lifestyle, but such physical separations are powerless against the bonds of friendship and the deepness of concern.

A yearbook is a book of memories. Special memories that possess the ability to evoke a smile, a laugh, or even a tear. There are many people to whom I owe the deepest gratitude. Without your help and guidance, the 1984 Oracle would never have been possible.

To my Editors: Karen, Amy, Judy, Bernie, Adele, Paige, Tiffany, Tracy, Jodi, and Joan. Thanks for contributing all your thoughts and ideas. Your hard work and effort made this job much easier. I guess I really want to thank you for just being there. I would never have kept my sanity without you girls. You're the greatest!!

To my Photographer: Jim Rohn. Thanks for putting up with my crazy schedule and for being so patient throughout the endless hours of posing pictures. Good luck next year.

To the Office Staff: Thanks for the use of the intercom and all the support you gave me.

To J. Cole Harris: Thanks for keeping me in line. If it weren't for you, I might have doubled the price of the yearbook. P.S. I'm glad we had your "influence."

To Mr. Salisbury: I realize it was a tough job working with me this year, but thanks for being so patient. It was a good learning experience for both of us — even if we never made a deadline on time!! Thanks for not only being my advisor, but also my friend.

To the Class of 1984: Best Wishes for the future — it's all in your hands.

Always,

Deborah Anne Trotzky

Time goes, you say?

Ah no!

Alas, Time stays, we go.
