AWARDING DIPLOMAS AND MEDALS.

SINGING CLASS ODE.

The sands of time have sped their way,
And school days now are o'er.
The years that once we counted long
Are gone forevermore.

Tho' closed behind by golden gates
They'll guide like sunlit skies.
Their impulse like the tenderest breeze
Refreshes 'ere it dies.

The bell which oft our tasks renewed
Will linger but in song;
The scenes of which we all were part
Will to our past belong.

The happy hours we here have spent,
We trust not all in vain,
Could we by wishing call them back
We'd gladly live again.

The prospect lies beyond our ken,
Obeys but His command;
But opportunities of life
Are always close at hand.

Our Master and our duty call,
To guide in all that's done,
May these two always symbolize
The deeds of ninety-one.

Benediction.
