MUSIC BY KATHARINE H. CLARK

This June brings the hour of our triumph—
The star of our lives at its height—
The end of our four years together,
For the links must be severed to-night.
Sweet memories will always be cherished
Of the years we have spent side by side,
Yet dearer the ties of our friendship,
As the last moments here swiftly glide.

We would fain spend our lives 'mid the splendor
That June scatters wide o'er the earth
But life has her work for us ever;
Each deed will be proof of our worth.
May our vision of service grow brighter,
Fulfilled be each hope that is born!
For deeds and not dreams lead to victory,
Achieved with the glory of morn.

To-night every heart is o'erflowing
With joy intermingled with tears.
May the pleasure that crowns our achievement
Still gleam thru the shadow of years!
The moment has come for our parting,
Our paths turn to left and to right;
So to teachers and classmates we're leaving,
We tender our farewell to-night.
