CLASS ODE.

WORDS BY MARY ELIZABETH CHALMERS.

MUSIC BY ETHEL LOCKHART BABB.

Dear classmates, we are on the shore
Of life's wide restless sea;
Not knowing yet what lies before,
Awaiting you and me.

May these school friendships we have formed
As we have gathered here,
Be ever true and ever warm,
Grow strong from year to year.

As when at eve by parting sun
A glow is left behind,
So may the memory of youth's morn
In every heart be shrined.

And now farewell, dear classmates,
We go our varied ways;
Yet always guided by His love,
Who orders all our days.
