The ancients
Sagely shake their heads,
Whispering the wisdom of the ages.

They guess how heedless
Is the swift passage of time,
How fleet are the footsteps.

The ancients
Smile, for they know a secret;
Old and new will forever touch and mingle
In the eternity of a single life.

B. H. S. building in downtown Bangor closes as a high school after fifty years of service.

Bangor High School Moves To New Broadway Site

"One life, — a little gleam of time between two Eternities."

Fifty years ago, in the autumn of 1913, Bangor High School opened its doors at 183 Harlow Street. The life of this B. H. S. building as a center of learning has spanned half a century in the whirling excitement of our modern world. In the classrooms, at club meetings, during athletic contests—how many thousands of young people have been prepared to meet adult life by the spirit of Bangor High School!

Yet, Time will not wait for the students of Bangor High School, nor will it return to what has been. Even as the Graduating Class of 1964 leaves Bangor High behind, the other classes eagerly make plans to enter a new and superbly equipped building in which to continue their studies. Although Time may change the appearance and the location of the B. H. S. building, the friendly spirit of Bangor High School will continue to lead its students toward their life in the future.

Maine People Share Grief Of Nation

Bangor High School displays a tribute to the memory of President Kennedy.

Since President John F. Kennedy had visited the University of Maine on October 19, 1963, the people of Maine felt closer to him. Bangor High School shared this closeness, for the B.H.S. Band had played at the university on the occasion of his visit. It was as if, by meeting him face to face, Maine citizens had come to consider the President a personal friend. When the news of his assassination reached Maine, the reaction of the state was perhaps more profound because of this feeling.

B.H.S. students demonstrated how much President Kennedy was admired when a group of them produced a booklet in tribute to the late president. President Kennedy captured the interest and attention of young people everywhere during his term of office. His vitality and enthusiasm communicated itself especially to the nation's youth, who felt a kinship between themselves and the President. His death caused a real sense of loss among young Americans.

Mrs. Janice M. Burton

One of the most loved and respected teachers of the Bangor High School faculty is to retire from the teaching profession at the end of the school year. The Oracle staff therefore dedicates the 1964 Oracle to Mrs. Janice M. Burton, head of the Business Education Department, with sincere appreciation for the help that she has given to so many B.H.S. students.

Mrs. Burton has taught her students the rules of the business world, providing them with the tools they need to make their way in adult life. The 1964 Oracle joins her many students in proffering a grateful "thank you" for all that she has done.

Mr. Simmons Heads Administration For Harlow Street High School's Last Year

As the opening of the new high school approaches and as the enrollment continues to increase, the administration is faced with many problems. Besides the regular headaches of arranging classes to fit classrooms and students to fit into study halls, Mr. Simmons with his able staff has had to plan new programs of study for the new school.

The Administration office, working in conjunction with the Guidance Department has completed many transcripts and sent them on to a great number of colleges and universities for those students who are applying for entrance. The administration is the part of the school that keeps this institution running smoothly.

Guidance Department Seeks To Aid Students

Through batteries of tests and personal counseling, the Guidance Department has helped the students of Bangor High School to fulfill another year in their education.

This meant helping the underclassmen to decide on their courses, giving advice on all types of problems, and administering the National Merit Scholarship Examinations and the Preparatory Scholastic Aptitude Tests. Mr. Ballenger, Freshman Counselor, Mr. Coco, Sophomore Counselor, and Mrs. Pressey, Junior Counselor, labored long and hard to see that each student was placed in a program suited to his talents and abilities.

Mr. Klain, Senior Counselor, has been instrumental in helping seniors with their college admissions or job placements. Each year he has vast numbers of records to go through and volumes of recommendations to write.

The Guidance Department is made more efficient through the untiring efforts of its secretary, Mrs. Inforati. These devoted people form a team which makes this school a better place in which to learn.

Mr. Eaton and Mr. McIntosh Work To Improve School System

To insure the smooth running of the Bangor School System, Mr. Wendell Eaton and Mr. Alvah McIntosh have been especially busy this year. In addition to his regular duties as School Superintendent, Mr. Eaton has been working with the School Board in planning the new high school and in improving Bangor's Department of Education. Mr. McIntosh and the Curriculum Committee, which he heads, have been promoting several new programs, such as the eighth grade oral French classes. An additional task for Mr. McIntosh, is helping the department heads in selecting educational materials.

The new high school will welcome the sophomore, junior, and senior classes when it opens next fall for the school year. The freshman class will be accommodated in the old building at 183 Harlow Street. The Harlow Street building will continue to provide offices for Mr. Eaton, Mr. McIntosh, and their staffs. Working with Mr. Dana M. Simmons, Bangor High School principal, and department heads, Mr. Eaton and Mr. McIntosh have provided a vastly expanded curriculum for the new school. The periods of the school day will vary in length to adapt to the subject being taught. The Bangor School Department has been released from rigid accreditation standards in order to try out this new system of scheduling. In addition, a wealth of new courses have been added as electives for next year's students.

The School Board meets to discuss the new high school. Members are Dr. Edward C. Porter, Mr. James E. Halkett, Mr. Milford F. Cohen, Chairman; Mrs. Charles G. Brountas, and Dr. Richard A. Gaillard.

School Board Becomes Prominent in Civic Affairs

Since the City of Bangor has been planning for a new high school, the School Board has taken an increasingly prominent place in civic affairs. Many students do not realize how important the School Board really is, not only as a committee that plans for new schools, but also as a working organization that acts as a liaison between the school department and the people of the city.

The School Board carries a great deal of responsibility. All school policy for the Bangor

School System must be set by its members. Through the untiring efforts of this committee the Bangor schools are run in an efficient and orderly manner. With the School Building Committee and the City Council, the School Board has put forth extra effort to prepare the new high school for occupancy in the fall of 1964. As the students of Bangor High begin classes in a new high school next year, they should remember that this committee is largely responsible for the modern classrooms and facilities.

English Dept. Prepares Students For Future

English is a universal language. Wherever one goes, English is always of great importance. It is imperative, therefore, that a high school have a very good English department in order to equip its students for the future.

Under the direction of Mr. Wallace Woodcock, the Bangor High School English Department prepares its students successfully. With a good foundation in grammar and Shakespeare gained in the freshman year, students have an excellent base for American literature, which is taken up in the sophomore year. In the junior year the English department gives a detailed course in English literature and then, in the senior year, gives a comprehensive course in world literature.

English usage, spelling, and vocabulary are stressed all four years as well as a fundamental knowledge of the great literary masterpieces, past and present. The excellence of the Bangor High School English Department has enabled many students to take advanced courses in English in their freshman year at several colleges and universities. The department tries to give every student at Bangor High School a program that is fitted to his needs, not only for the present, but also for the future.

Voluntary Reading Program Helps Students Help Themselves

Participants in the B.H.S. developmental reading program aim to increase their speed and comprehension. Those taking the reading program are juniors from all tracks; many are college-bound students seeking to improve the fundamental skills. Under a systematic program of instruction, presented by Mrs. Charlotte Haskell, Reading Supervisor, the students work to improve their study habits, note taking, vocabulary, and reading skills.

The reading program is voluntary and does not require homework. The students taking the non-credit course give up two study periods each week.

The Reading Department is well equipped with multi-level materials such as S. R. A. Laboratories, the Literature Sample, Tactics in Reading, and Book Series. In addition, individual students using the Reading Accelerator work at their own pace to increase their reading rates.

Music and Speech Departments Provide Cultural Benefits

Bangor High School's fine arts program offers many opportunities to students in the fields of music and speech.

During the past year, Mr. Atherton has been instructing his Music Appreciation students in the fundamental history and structure of music. Through the use of textbooks and recordings, his students become acquainted with great composers and their works.

With Mr. Atherton's help, many students compile their own Listening Libraries, made up of recordings by composers from Bach and Handel to such contemporary artists as Peter, Paul, and Mary and the Dave Brubeck Quartet.

Mrs. Coffey directs all choral and vocal groups at Bangor High School. During the past year, her choruses have sung for school functions, and her mixed chorus sung for the Penobscot County Teachers' Convention.

Speech students gain poise and skill in speaking before a group through the presentations of speeches and cuttings. Mrs. Browne emphasizes interpretation in public speaking, and her students are afforded many opportunities to express themselves through pantomimes and demonstrations.

Bonnie Colpitts demonstrates ski equipment to Mrs. Browne's speech class.

Language Department Combines Work and Pleasure

As communication with other people acquires increased importance, more and more students study foreign languages. To meet the needs of these students, the language department is rapidly expanding; the instructors are including not only oral and written language in their teaching, but are also stressing the histories and cultures of other lands.

Third year French students reaped the reward of long hours spent in study when they attended Moliere's Les Precieuses Ridicules, a play performed by the French seminary students from the Oblate Seminary in Bar Harbor. Every other year many second and third year French students spend a week-end in Quebec improving their language skills and enjoying the sights of a French-speaking city.

As Spanish students progress from the fundamentals of reading to advanced Spanish literature, they learn the difference between a serape and a toca, a poncho and a sombrero, and a fiesta and a siesta. Spanish students this year have been particularly fortunate to be able to work and talk with Jose Aguilar, Bangor High School's foreign exchange student from Lima, Peru.

Latin students are often surprised to learn that they use a form of Latin whenever they speak an English sentence. They learn vocabulary and grammar and discover that Caesar was an author as well as a general. Third and fourth year Latin students learn to appreciate the writings of Cicero and Virgil.

Language students must work diligently to master the principles of speaking, writing, and comprehending a foreign tongue. They increase their understanding of foreign culture and find pleasure in working on Ides of March projects, making Spanish pinatas or French posters, singing folk songs, or following in the footsteps of Emile.

Social Studies Department Highlights Class Discussion

In the Social Studies Department, students are encouraged by the teachers to express their opinions on world events; the students are also taught how to evaluate current situations in terms of past history. The social studies program at B.H.S. is by no means restricted to any single period of time in history. Ancient, medieval, and modern history all give the student a clear understanding of past and present happenings.

Classes in government and economics offer the student an understanding of political processes in many nations of the world, including the United States. Mr. Roland MacLeod, public relations officer for a local bank, lectured to economics classes about the Federal Reserve System. Mrs. Elizabeth Force, who spoke in the senior lecture series, held an open discussion with the students in the Foundation of American Freedoms class.

This year has proved to be a highly progressive one for the history, Problems of Democracy, and civics classes. Several classes conducted student opinion polls on current controversial issues. The world becomes more meaningful to the student who gains essential knowledge provided by the Social Studies Department at Bangor High School.

Douglas Stafford
Department Head

Keeping pace with developments and discoveries in the world of the scientific, Bangor High offers students a selection of courses in science: biology, chemistry, physics, earth science, and general science. Experiments in the laboratories, conducted as part of certain courses, enable the student to prove scientific concepts for himself and enrich his understanding.

The annual Science Fair, in which each science student is required to enter a project, took place in March. Fourteen participants were selected to represent Bangor High School at the regional contest which was held in Millinocket. The following students received honors at the regionals and attended the State Science Fair at Bates College, Lewiston: Joy Bergquist, Kendall Carlisle, Eric Flack, Linda Hedrick, Richard LaRhette, and Ardis Mayo.

In the new high school, present courses will be supplemented by a course in physical science, a basic study of the physical world, and by advanced biology, a course in which specialized areas of the subject can be considered in depth. Besides these courses offered at Bangor High School, qualified students may pursue science courses at the University of Maine.

Importance Of Math Stressed At B. H. S.

The Age of Technology stresses the importance of mathematics in scientific fields, in the business world, and in all aspects of daily life. At Bangor High School the math department is preparing its students to meet these challenges.

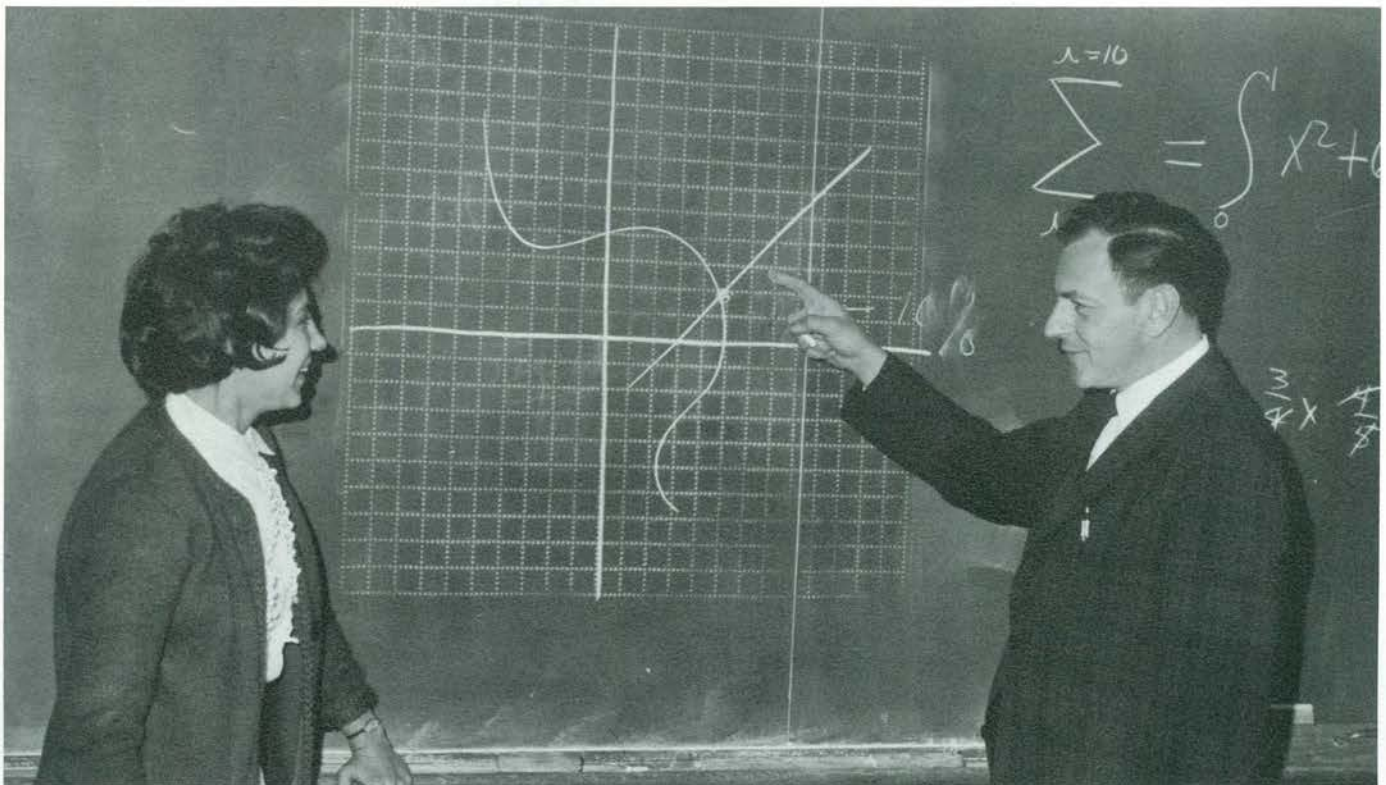

Students in non-college preparatory programs take courses in Consumer, Business, and General Mathematics. Algebra and geometry are required subjects for students who plan to go on to higher education; many college-bound students take advantage of the programs offered in advanced math and calculus.

Last year, an experimental method of self-teaching was introduced for the first time, and was found to be very successful. The TEMAC system is now in its second year at B.H.S., and both the calculus and afternoon algebra class have benefited from the new concept of instruction.

For the first time next year Bangor High students who plan to major in mathematics or who are interested in math may qualify to take mathematics courses at the University of Maine.

Business Education Prepares Students for the Future

The business course at Bangor High School is divided into two different areas. There is the secretarial course, which is based on shorthand and transcription, and the clerical course, which stresses salesmanship and management. Both of these courses include typing, general office practice, bookkeeping, filing, and the operation of business machines.

Learning proper etiquette is especially important for students who plan to enter a business career; therefore, students participating in the business course are taught how to dress, act, and use the telephone properly.

In order to obtain first-hand experience so they will be better prepared to enter the business world, many students have jobs at different business establishments in Bangor, and some have jobs in the various offices of Bangor High School.

Industrial Arts Develops Skills

Constructing useful or decorative articles requires a skill which the student in the industrial arts program develops through the use of machines and various hand tools. The carpenter, electrician, draftsman, and metal worker have become vital links in the modern world of industry. Through the industrial arts program at Bangor High School, the student is prepared for any one of these fields by competent and experienced teachers who devote themselves to instructing him in the basic and the advanced industrial skills.

The woodworking and metal shop classes provide the student with the experience of working with machinery to produce various products. He soon gains a knowledge of the functions of each machine he operates.

Obtaining a skill through the use of drawing instruments is the goal of the student of mechanical drawing. One soon realizes the importance of this branch of industrial arts when one observes the mechanics of this field in architecture and engineering.

The purpose of electronics lab is to give the student essential knowledge in electrical applications. Here the student begins with the simple series circuit, and works up to the complicated systems of television and radio.

At Bangor High School the industrial arts program continues to be a valuable one. This is a key part of the student's training which will be most beneficial to him in future years.

Home Economics Develops Future Homemakers

Home Economics is basically the study of home and family living. The home economics program at Bangor High School is centered on several areas of home living; personal and family relationships, child care and development, housing and home furnishings, home management and consumer buying, foods and nutrition, clothing and textiles, and family health and safety.

The units are presented through class discussions, reading, films, demonstrations, and actual experiences inside and outside of school. Through this course, students are learning today the practices that will guide their lives tomorrow.

"Earn While You Learn" Stressed by Distributive Education

The Distributive Education course helps students earn while they learn the fundamentals of the selling of goods and the services of retailing, wholesaling, and service organization.

Students are qualified to enter this program when they have reached the age of sixteen and meet certain requirements. They attend school for four class periods in the morning, and then work part-time at a business establishment in the city during the afternoon. In this way, the students are gaining experience in the fields which are of particular interest to them.

Librarians Work Hard To Help Students

Those students who have worked in the library know what a tremendous job it is for anyone to keep track of the workings of a library. More goes on than just signing out books and checking them off when they are returned (on time or late!). It is the job of the librarian to keep track of all types of new books. She must read reviews and articles on new publications to determine whether a particular book would be suitable for the school library. New magazines are constantly coming forth, and these must be surveyed to determine their content and suitability.

The shelves themselves must be kept in good order. As those who have "read stacks" know, one misplaced book can cause a huge headache. A librarian must be a wealth of knowledge; she must be able to put her finger on information of all types at a moment's notice.

Here at Bangor High School the librarians are not only doing all these things, but they also train students to do them.

Core Curriculum Program To Be Expanded

John R. Peterson
Core Curriculum

The Core Curriculum program at Bangor High School is now three years old. Teachers and faculty feel that much progress has been made with this very important part of the school program. Fundamentally, the Core Curriculum is set up to help students with basic skills in which they may be deficient. Mr. Peterson has had his Core Curriculum classes in the afternoons, and has done many things with his group. Earlier in the year the class went to the City Hall to learn about local government. They also went to hear speakers on each of the three major faiths discuss their church and beliefs.

This modern program at Bangor High School will be greatly expanded next year. Plans are now in the making for a program in which students would begin a work-experience schedule during their junior year. In the senior year students would be receiving credit for working at specific jobs and still be coming to school for a minimum of formal teaching. Bangor High School is progressive to have such an up to date and far-reaching excellent program as this.

The special class of Bangor High School is now in its second year. This is a program designed to meet the scholastic needs of the less academically talented students. In conjunction with their school work they are also trained and placed in an actual job situation. The whole program is directed to turn out productive and contributing citizens to any community.

Driver Education Promotes Safety

For most people, the automobile is the most commonly used method of transportation. This is probably the main reason why driver education is such a popular course at Bangor High School. One of the main objectives of driver education is to help future motorists develop a sound attitude toward driving. The minimum requirements for this course are thirty hours of classroom work and six hours of actual driving.

R. O. T. C. Department Develops Student Leadership

In December, 1963, the Reserve Officer Training Corps celebrated the 102nd anniversary of military instruction for male students at Bangor High School. The objectives of the present-day three-year program of instruction are to prepare the young citizen for possible future military service by the presentation of basic military science. The department intends to develop the traits of leadership and self-discipline in the cadet through practical exercises in leadership and drill training.

Each cadet participates in three hours of training a week with the Army Instructor's goal being to develop and identify leadership potential. The aspiring cadet leader is given his basic concept of leadership requirements in the sophomore year and then personal guidance of the class instructor in the junior and senior years to assist him in self improvement leading toward command of cadet units.

Students having an interest in weapons firing may participate in the two 22 calibre rifle teams sponsored by the Instructor Group. The group also sponsors a girls' drill team and a cadet drill team for public and school demonstrations as part of the department's extra-curricular program. The R.O.T.C. department and cadets sponsor the annual Military Ball as well.

This year the department welcomes a new commander, Major Walter C. Franzen. Major Franzen has come to Bangor High School from Viet Nam.

Physical Education Leads Students To Improved Well-Being

The Physical Education Department of Bangor High School has been carrying on an extensive program of physical training this year. The department believes that all students should be sound of body as well as of mind. To further this ideal, the physical education program is designed to help each student explore his own physical resources and to improve his general health. Physical training and good health in high school will be valuable assets during the years to come.

The boys in physical education classes are given two physical fitness tests each year, one in the fall and one in the spring. These tests are designed to measure the improvement of each individual over the course of the year. Weight training has been an integral part of the curriculum, also. The girls are also given physical fitness tests and spend quite a bit of time on gymnastics. Girls' sports include basketball, field hockey, volleyball, track, soft ball, and tennis.

The Physical Education Department is also concerned with teaching basic physical skills to the students. Therefore an effort is made to teach each student the basics of the more popular sports, such as football (for boys), basketball, volleyball, and track. Both boys and girls participate in square dancing, which is an important part of the course, for it helps the student improve his co-ordination and quick thinking.

Custodians Keep Physical Plant Running Smoothly

How many times have students come into the high school after a vacation to see the floors of the corridors polished, old desk tops replaced, and broken lockers fixed? How many times have they stopped to thank the men that do these things? How many times have they even stopped to think how these things came to be?

Bangor High School owes a great deal to its custodians. The physical plant of the high school is much larger than most people would believe, and every bit of this plant has to be cleaned, repaired, painted, replaced, and generally kept in operative condition. Few students know the jobs our custodians have to do. Just this spring all the light switches in all the corridors had to be replaced, and it was up to the custodians to see that it was done. This is just one minor example of the endless number of tasks that await them every morning.

The custodians have kept the high school clean and in good repair for many years without many thanks or praises, but the Oracle wants them to know that they are appreciated and that without them this school would not be so pleasant a place to learn as it is.

Cafeteria Aids Students And Faculty

Food! Now there is something that every Bangor High School student understands. When it comes to lunch break time, hundreds of starving students line up at various lunch counters throughout the building to partake of that day's fresh assortment of snacks.

Behind all of this are two women in the cafeteria downstairs who prepare the food to go to the lunch counters, and who make delicious sandwiches. All the food must be sorted and placed in the right containers for distribution during the last part of fourth period each day.

Not only do students benefit from the cafeteria but so do almost all the teachers. What would half of the faculty at Bangor High School do without the gallons and gallons of coffee that are prepared each day? The cafeteria is the only place in the school that teachers (and students) can get a drink of water. Without the cafeteria there would be no place for teachers to get together to swap gossip over their fourteenth cup of coffee. And all this food and coffee is made by the two "women in white" in the cafeteria.

And a time for all things;
A time for great things
And a time for small things.*

Student Council Strives to Improve School Spirit

"Hurrray for the Rams!" This saying might well serve as a slogan for the Bangor High School Student Council which concentrated on improving school spirit during the 1963-1964 school year.

The school spirit committee, under the leadership of vice-president Paul Shapero, made posters to create student awareness of B. H. S. activities. As the annual pre-Brewer game bonfire rally was rained out, the committee sponsored a successful combination dance and rally in the high school auditorium. The committee also selected freshmen Coralee Gerrish and Mary Hillman as "Rams" to cheer at this season's basketball games.

Other fund-raising activities include All-Bangor Night, sale of buttons and pins at the football and basketball games, and the sale of Bangor High School book covers. The council also sponsored regular dress-up days.

The Student Council presented exchange students Ulricke Pfeifer and José Aguilar with Bangor High School class rings at the American Field Service assembly held in February. Ricky and José were also given the chance to telephone their homes at Christmas at the expense of the Student Council.

The Student Council is under the leadership of President Danny Field; Vice President, Paul Shapero; Secretary, Susan Ames; Treasurer, Steve Dorsky; and adviser, Mr. Robert Jones.

B. H. S. Acts as Host to National Student Council Convention

Bangor High School, in cooperation with the University of Maine, will be host to the 28th National Student Council Conference, held June 28 through July 2, 1964. The theme of the conference is, "The Student Council-Democracy in Action."

Honorary Chairman for the event is Mr. Dana Simmons. Miss Ellen Mullaney serves as General Conference Chairman, and Mr. C. Robert Jones is the Conference Co-Chairman. Frederick Mark Whittaker was elected President of the National Association of the Student Councils, and he and Daniel Field, president of the B. H. S. Student Council, are acting as student co-chairmen for the conference.

During the course of the five general sessions held at the University of Maine, the Honorable John H. Reed, Governor of Maine; Dr. Lloyd Elliott, President of the U. of M.; Count Raban

Mark Whittaker
National President

Grat Adelmann, member North American Treaty Alliance Education Commission; Dr. Frederick W. Whittaker, President of the Bangor Theological Seminary and Mr. George E. Mathes, principal, Morey Junior High School, Denver, Colorado, will deliver addresses to the conference. Frederick Mark Whittaker will preside at each of these sessions, and will give an address entitled "Freedom is Not Free" at the opening General Session.

Entertainment for the event will include performances by B.H.S. choral groups under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, Brewer High School and Hermon High School music groups, a presentation of B.H.S.'s One-Act play, Alice in Wonderland at the Hauck Auditorium, U. of M., the Old Town High Jazz Band, a dance routine by B.H.S.'s dance group, and the Highlanders from Hampden Academy. A field trip to Mt. Desert Island, a lobster bake and a square dance are also being planned as part of the entertainment.

A special convention issue of the Bangor High School Orascope will be presented to the delegates and to the sponsors.

National Honor Society Upholds Standards

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character—these are the qualities which light the torch that is the symbol of the National Honor Society. The select number of juniors and seniors who become N. H. S. members have proved their ability by maintaining a cumulative average of 85 per cent or better, by being approved by a committee of teachers, and by participating in school activities.

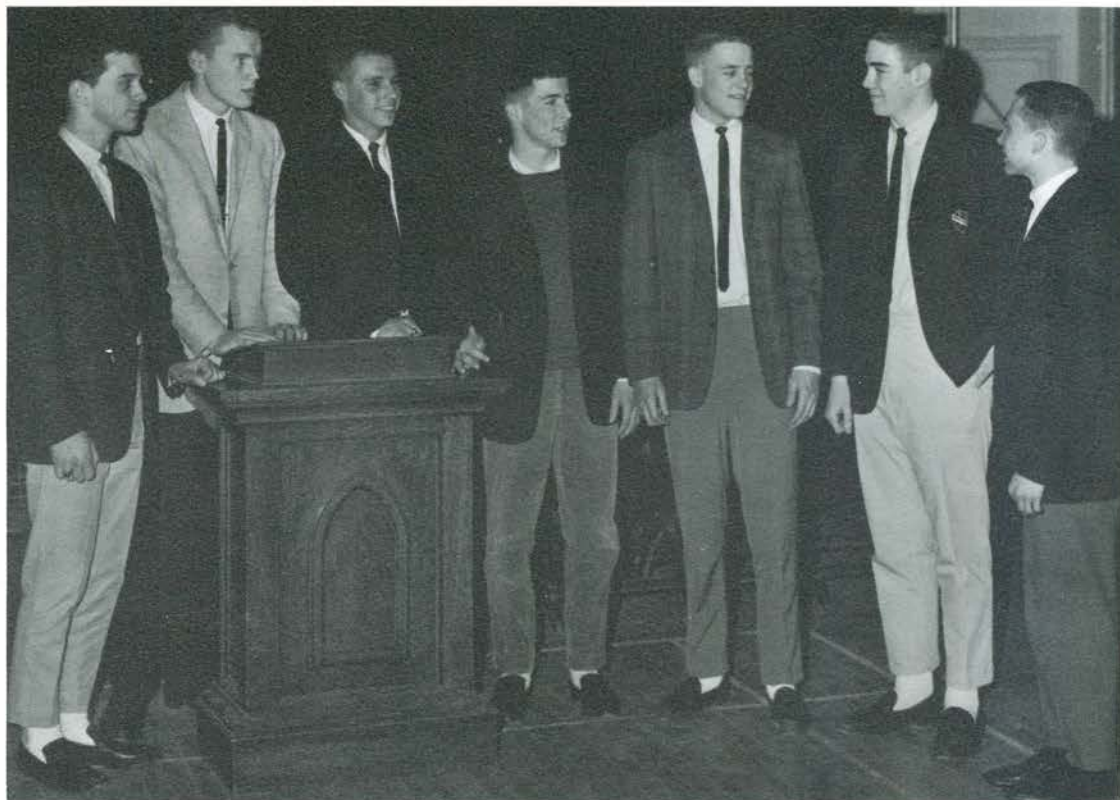

One of the greatest honors a student may receive in his high school career is election to the National Honor Society. The announcement of new members and their formal induction formed a major part of the annual Recognition Day assembly in May.

National Honor Society members this year served as courtesy guides to parents during the annual Open House, provided information to visitors to B.H.S., and sold tickets on behalf of the faculty to the "Cabaret Fantastique." The N.H.S. Valentine Delivery Service played the part of Cupid to a record number of B.H.S. students on Saint Valentine's Day. Bangor High School's chapter of the National Honor Society has functioned efficiently under the leadership of Mark T. Smith, president; Joan Emery, vice president; Trudy Nelson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Viola Woodward, adviser.

National Honor Society member Jeanne Amnotte introduces to Bangor High School's foreign exchange students, Ricky Pfeifer and José Aguilar, the American custom of sending valentines.

Delegates to Boys' State and Girls' State Selected

Dirigo delegates to Boys' State and Girls' State have the opportunity to participate as self-governing citizens in a mock state which is an exact replica of the Maine state government. The students are informed about the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities of American citizenship so that they may understand and participate in the functioning of their government. The boys and girls are selected for Dirigo on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, courage, honesty, cooperation, and physical fitness. Dirigo is sponsored each year by the American Legion.

The delegates to Boys' State are Richard Downes, Frederick Emery, David Gautschi, Wesley Marsh, and Paul Shapero. The alternates are Ronald Hicks and Dennis Shubert. Myra McEwen, Esa Jane Rapaport, and Susan Sederquist are the delegates to Girls' State. Their alternates are Connie Coffin, Betty Coulton, and Kathy Knight.

A. F. S. Helps Promote International Good Will

Student Council Vice President, Paul Shapero, presents B.H.S. rings to foreign exchange students Ricky Pfeifer and José Aguilar.

"Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the world. Then and only then shall we have peace." Using this motto as a guideline, the Bangor High School American Field Service has spent another year promoting good will among nations. By exchanging students and consequently, ideas, customs, and information, the A.F.S. Board hopes to bring the world closer together to live in a friendlier co-existence.

Over one hundred A.F.S. members have helped raise the seven hundred dollars necessary to bring a foreign student to Bangor High. Attractive stationery with the school seal was sold just before Christmas in an effort to attain this goal. Penny Day every Wednesday also helped raise money. On this day containers were passed out in every homeroom. Students contributed as many pennies as they wanted. Average weekly receipts totaled about twenty-two dollars.

Under the auspices of the American Field Service Board, Bangor High School welcomed two foreign students this year. Ulricke Pfeifer, a nineteen-year-old Austrian girl, spent her year in Bangor with Mr. and Mrs. David Wittner. Mr. and Mrs. Milford Cohen's foster son was José Aguilar, who is from Lima, Peru. Both students gave an account of their experiences in America at the annual A.F.S. assembly. Ricki wore her native Austrian costume of a dress and apron, and José looked colorful in his Peruvian serape.

Dressed in a silk kimono, Susan Shubert talked on Japan at the A.F.S. assembly. Susan had been selected as a recipient of an American Field Service Scholarship and had spent the summer before her senior year in Japan. This year junior Richard Downes is a semi-finalist to spend the summer in South America.

In May, the American Field Service culminated its activities with a party for its members. A.F.S. students from the area were invited, and the evening was spent informally exchanging ideas.

Susan Shubert and Roberta Stern were co-chairmen of the A.F.S. Chapter. Mrs. Louise Hammons served as adviser.

Debate Club Earns Recognition

With a new adviser, Mr. Rex Smith of the English Department, the Debate Club has been very busy this year. It has participated in several practice debates with local schools in preparation for various tournaments. This year's topic was: Resolved: That Social Security benefits should be extended to include complete medical care.

Two teams from the club entered the University of Maine Tournament in December. The team of Donald Goodridge and David Gautschi received certificates of achievement. The Debate Club survived elimination rounds in Brewer in March. Consequently, Bangor was one of five schools in Eastern Maine whose debates qualified for the Bates League. Two teams received certificates of recognition for debating in the Bates Tournament. The teams were those of David Gautschi, Peter McEvoy; and Susanne Averill, Esa-Jane Rapaport.

President Donald Goodridge led the Debate Club this year. He was assisted by Norman Carlisle, vice-president; Ann Carlton, secretary; and Marc Owen, treasurer.

Orascope Keeps Students Well Informed

This has been a year of change for Bangor High School's newspaper, the Orascope. The staff, usually mainly composed of juniors, now has representatives from the sophomore class. This innovation gives the reader a more thorough reporting of all the events taking place around Bangor High.

The front page of the Orascope received a face-lifting this year. Major changes in format such as the shifting of the position of the banner added to its eye appeal and readability. The Skeleton Closet, the News Barrel, and Corridor Conversation, familiar features to Orascope readers, were retained.

Along with the regular staff, Adviser Miss Jessie L. Fraser, Editor Constance Coffin, Associate Editor Richard Downes, and Student Adviser Dorothy Gaillard have devoted much time to making the Orascope the interesting and informative newspaper it is.

Orascope staff members Brenda Hess and Lynn Porter sort out newspapers for distribution.

Judy and Joy Bergquist practice their harmony to the accompaniment of Jim MacDonald and Wayne Mosher.

“Up and Down Broadway” Offers Fun and Talent

“Let us entertain you! Come have fun, spend your money and see Bangor High’s greatest talent—all under the same roof!” This announcement heralded an evening of enjoyment offered by the Student Council’s All-Bangor Night, held in April.

General chairman Janet Elliott and adviser Robert C. Jones carried out an “Up and Down Broadway” theme through a variety of booths and a stage show featuring B.H.S. performers. The booths offered everything from a pizza parlor to fortune telling, each sponsored by a school club or organization. Vicki Storey headed an industrious committee in charge of decorations and booths, while William J. P. Nadeau was director of the stage show.

Wesley Marsh emceed the evening of high-class entertainment at the exclusive “21 Club,” the first of three scenes. Performers aspiring to roles in director Mark Whittaker’s up-coming musicale, displayed their talents in a try-out session, climaxed by the “Telephone Hour” number from Bye, Bye, Birdie.

The trip “Up and Down Broadway” ended in a beatnik coffee house, where a barefooted Bill Nadeau introduced folk singing groups and a poet who read original material from a paper bag scroll. Finale of the production was a hootenanny, combining talent from all three scenes.

“The Telephone Hour” from Bye, Bye Birdie comes to B.H.S. as All-Bangor Night performers rehearse for the stage production.

Business Club Sponsors

Trips and Speakers

Under the guidance of Mrs. Janice Burton and Miss Charlotte Turner, a new club was formed at Bangor High School this year. The recently organized Business Club has proved to be an active organization. Meeting monthly throughout the school year, it has sponsored many speakers and planned various trips for its members.

Noteworthy speakers have been Mr. Richard Brooks, Miss Elsie Davies, and Mrs. Janet Libby. Mr. Brooks, Assistant Manager of the Bangor Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, gave an informative talk on the "General Needs for Life Insurance" and the "Kinds of Life Insurance." Miss Elsie Davies and Mrs. Libby, past and present president respectively of the Bangor Business and Professional Women's Club, talked about their club work.

The Business Club toured the King Cole Potato Chip Factory. They also visited the New England Telephone Company and saw how the vast system of communication worked.

Presiding at the meetings of the Business Club was William McLaughlin. Nancy Raymond served as vice-president, Carol Robinson as secretary, and Louis Arasate as treasurer.

Beverly Warren, Kay Gearhart, and William McLaughlin enter a meeting of the Business Club.

As she waits on Vince West and other customers, Rebecca Jones still finds time to eat an ice-cream.

Students Help At B. H. S.

Students working on lunch counters help lunch breaks run smoothly. Their duties include carrying lunches to and from the cafeteria, making sandwiches, and selling snacks during lunch break. The lunch counter assistants show a remarkable amount of patience as they concentrate on giving the correct change and satisfying the lines of hungry students.

The main task of the library assistants this year has been to help the librarians, Miss Paulene Dunn and Mrs. Elizabeth Chaplin order the 5,000 books needed for the new school. The work has involved many hours of typing, transferring, and cataloging. In addition, the girls work at the reference desk, check out and shelve books, check library permits, and deliver overdue notices.

F T A Attends State Conference

Members of Bangor High School's Future Teachers of America Club felt that they were actually on their way to becoming teachers when they attended the Conference of Future Teachers of the Pine Tree State. The group and one of their advisers, Mrs. Charlotte Haskell, traveled in March by bus to the Rockland District High School for the conference. After registering at Rockland, the members attended an opening session and were introduced to the idea of "Team Teaching" by Dr. David R. Fink of the University of Maine. This event was followed by a diversified selection of group discussions which were conducted by experienced teachers.

To celebrate Teaching Career Week, the F.T.A. made attractive posters and presented corsages and boutonnieres to B.H.S. teachers. The eye-catching posters displayed throughout the halls pointed out the rewards of the teaching profession. The thoughtfulness of the future teachers in presenting flowers brought renewed spirit to the faculty.

The purpose of the Marion A. Du Bourdieu Chapter of the Future Teachers of America Club is to help prospective teachers learn more about careers in the field of education. Under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Chaplin and Mrs. Charlotte Haskell, the club has enjoyed many interesting and informative programs. Among the highlights of the year have been talks by Miss Marion Du Bourdieu, a former mathematics teacher for whom the club was named, and by Mr. M. Manning Atherton, director of music in the Bangor Public Schools. Mr. Salvatore Coco, freshman counselor, spoke to the group about the role of the guidance department in meeting student needs.

The officers for the 1963-1964 year were Jeanne Amnotte, president; Joel Silverberg, vice-president; Suzanne Averill, secretary; Mark Smith, treasurer; and Deborah Stockson, historian.

The annual observation teaching project gave depth to the F.T.A. program. The club members had an opportunity to gain first-hand knowledge of teaching. The students spent two afternoons a week during March in assigned classrooms of local schools where they observed educational methods and worked with the pupils at the teachers' request.

B.H.S. band keeps tabs on basketball game's progress.

Band Enlivens School Spirit

A big white sousaphone displaying the maroon initials BHS is the unmistakable insignia of the Bangor High School Band at each home game. Under the leadership of director M. Manning Atherton and drum major John Haskell, the band presents such favorite marches as "Washington Post," "March of Lorraine," and "Stars and Stripes Forever." From intricate formations on the football field and from its customary bleacher section at the basketball games, the band set thousands of feet tapping as it played during halftime.

Practice paid off this year as the band was able to present "Festival Prelude" and "March Processional" at the All-City Music Festival. The band has added much to school spirit during the Schoolboy Basketball Tournament games in which Bangor's team was a contestant. A journey to Portland gave the band an opportunity to show off its musical ability at the Bangor-Deering football game. Individual members were chosen to represent Bangor in the area band which provided music for the Downeast Classic in December along with high school band members from Old Town, Orono, Brewer and Bucksport.

"Little Rhapsody In Blue," by Gershwin, highlighted the band's performance at the Pops Concert; in addition, a special dance band was well received at its debut during this appearance of the BHS music groups. The band added its rhythm and melody to the Veterans' Day Parade, the Memorial Day Parade, and to Band Day at the University of Maine. One of the most memorable experiences for this year's Bangor High School Band was the privilege of playing for the late President John F. Kennedy during his visit to the University of Maine in October.

Orchestra Provides Local Entertainment

Under the direction of M. Manning Atherton and Miss Marian McKenney, the Bangor High orchestra presented numerous programs of musical entertainment throughout the year. At Junior Exhibition the group played the "March from Scipio," which has become a tradition at that event. Other performances included the Christmas Concert, the Pops Concert, and the All-City Music Festival.

Rehearsals were held for upperclassmen every Tuesday afternoon, and for freshmen on Friday mornings. The combined group met for practice in Dorothy Memorial Hall every Wednesday evening. Thirty-nine B.H.S. orchestra members found the reward for their practice in being selected to take part in the All-State Music Festival.

B. H. S. Students Selected for All-State

Thirty-nine Bangor High School students were selected to attend the All-State Music Festival at Lewiston in April. Three groups—band, orchestra, and chorus—presented afternoon and evening performances to large audiences of music lovers from all parts of the state. Miss Marian McKenney of the Bangor Music Department was the All-State general chairman.

Well-known conductors led Maine's most talented high school musicians and singers in a combination of both light and classical selections. Dr.

Nathan Gottschalk from the Hartt College of Music of the University of Hartford conducted the orchestra, which played works written by such famous composers as Handel and Schubert. The band, directed by Harry Begian, who is Director of Bands at the Cass Technical High School in Detroit, Michigan, played the music of Sousa and Stravinsky. George M. Gilbert, choral conductor at East Orange High School, New Jersey, directed the chorus, which sang works by Mozart and Wagner.

Mixed Chorus Serves School and Community

Under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, the Mixed Chorus performed on various occasions. The group, consisting of more than a hundred boys and girls, participated in all music programs of the past year. At the Christmas Concert the chorus presented three numbers: "The Heavens Are Telling," a chorus by Haydn, "Wolcum Yole," a modern song by Benjamin Britten, and the traditional "Hallelujah Chorus." They entertained the audience at the Pops Concert with selections from "The Music Man," and a song from "Cinderella," with the title "A Dream Is a Wish Your Heart Makes." The group also presented various numbers at the Teachers' Convention in Brewer, participated in the All-City Music Festival, and arranged an exchange concert with Dover-Foxcroft. The chorus was accompanied throughout the year by James Flood and John Haskell.

A group of six girls and four boys, selected from the Mixed Chorus by Mrs. Coffey, formed the Triple Mixed Quartet. The small group performed on various occasions. At the Christmas Assembly they presented three numbers, among which especially the traditional American folksong "We Wish You a Merry Christmas" was a great attraction.

The group was asked to perform for various local organizations including the Rotary Club, the Retired Teachers of Bangor, and the Athene

Club. At the meetings they presented numbers including "O Sing Your Song," a modern anthem, "I Hear a Voice A'Prayin'," a Negro spiritual, "Willow Wind", an American folksong, and the well known song, "When the Saints Go Marching In", in a surprising new arrangement. In March the group entertained the audience at the Pops Concert, a program put on by the various music groups for the students' parents. At this occasion the girls performed with selections from "South Pacific." The chorus also participated in the All-City Music Festival taking place in May.

Mrs. Myrle Coffey directed the chorus, accompanied throughout the year by Susan Sederquist. Out of the chorus Mrs. Coffey selected a group of seven girls forming a Girls' Ensemble. Boys' Chorus and Girls' Ensemble Prove Delightful Addition to Music Program

A group of eighteen dedicated singers, the Boys' Chorus, formed one of the main attractions of every musical evening. The chorus originated from the wish of the boys to have a chorus of their own. Under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, this group sacrificed part of their Friday afternoons for special rehearsals at Dorothy Memorial Hall.

The pleasant results of these rehearsals were evident at the traditional Christmas assembly, where the choruses sang among other numbers the well-known song "Jingle Bells" in a new arrangement.

At the March Pops Concert, a program put on by the music groups of Bangor High, the chorus entertained the audience with three numbers, "Do, Lord," a modern spiritual; "Arkansas Traveler," an American folksong; and "I Wish I Was," another traditional American song.

James Flood and John Haskell accompanied the chorus throughout the year on the piano. The Girls' Ensemble, a selected group of seven girls, formed another music group, entertaining on various occasions.

Freshmen Make Their Mark Through Song

A group of about eighty freshman boys and girls formed the Freshman Chorus which entertained the audience together with other music groups on various occasions. This chorus is reserved for freshmen. It gives them an opportunity to acquire experience in group singing, and experience that will help them for the coming years in Girls' Chorus and Mixed Chorus.

This year the groups performed at the Christmas Assembly where they presented three numbers—one of them was the old American folk song "Danny Boy."

At the Pops Concert the chorus sang three songs, "Exodus", the title song of the picture with the same title; and two gay songs, "Russian Picnic," and "Hayride."

The group also took part in the All-City music Festival in May. Mrs. Myrle Coffey directed the chorus, which was accompanied through out the year by Marjorie Griffin.

"Alice" Rated Excellent in New England Festival

The Speech-Drama Department brought to the stage this year a colorful bit of fantasia which thoroughly delighted audiences at each performance. Lewis Carroll's nonsensical tale of a little girl's dreamworld, "Alice in Wonderland," adapted for the stage by Eva LaGallienne and Florida Friebus, won top honors in the sectional contest at Old Town on March 17 and the regional contest at the University of Maine on March 25. "Alice" vied for the state championship on April 11 at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, winning first place over six other presentations. Judy Maunder, who portrayed the White Rabbit, gained recognition as best actress in this contest. The state champions represented Maine in the New England Drama Festival, held at Middlebury Union High School, Middlebury, Vermont, on April 24 and 25.

The cast of "Alice in Wonderland," directed by Mrs. Barbara M. Browne and Herbert P. Billett, is as follows: Pages, Vicki Daigle and Jane Simpson; Alice, Robin Houston; White Rabbit, Judy Maunder; Rose, Janet Elliott; Two of Spades, Dan Field; Hearts, Dick Sawyer, Donald Blair, Sharyn Torbert, Charlotte Crabtree; Clubs, Donald Goodridge, Josh Cutler; Knave of Hearts, William Cohen; Queen of Hearts, Vickie Gordon; King of Hearts, William J. P. Nadeau; White Chess Queen, Trudy Nelson; Red Chess Queen, Bonnie Colpitts; Mad Hatter, Marc Owen. Dick Sawyer served as stage manager and technical director. Mary Wescott was the costume mistress, and Patricia Bristow was the property mistress for the production.

R. O. T. C. Offers Varied Activities to Interested Cadets

Bangor High School is one of the selected few high schools in the United States to sponsor a Reserve Officers' Training Corps. To the student who takes advantage of this training, many doors are opened. The interested cadet will study military organization and customs, first aid, modern weapons, small unit tactics, map and aerial photograph reading, methods of instruction, and many other areas of practical value. The rifle teams, drill teams, and familiarization programs offer further experiences to the cadet.

The ROTC cadet also has the satisfaction of assuming responsibility early in his training. He learns basic military procedures during the first years of study, then takes the responsibility of leadership, and teaches during succeeding years. He plans and directs unit training, makes decisions on matters relating to personnel and discipline, and assumes command responsibilities. Young men in business executive training must wait years to exercise this type of authority. It is this combination of a competent teaching staff, enthusiastic and experienced cadet officers, and an interested Cadet Corps which makes the Bangor High School Reserve Officers' Training program a source of pride for the high school and the community.

Stetsons and Stetsonettes Entertain Public

During the past year the Stetson Rifles have been under the command of Cadet Lt. William Evans and MSgt. Donald Corning. The Stetsons have been practicing twice weekly since the start of the school year in order to be prepared for the various functions at which the team performs. This year the Stetsons have taken part in the half time activities at the basketball games, and have furnished a firing squad for the Memorial Day Ceremonies, as well as taking an active part in the parade. During Armed Forces Week the team was quite active. In May the team traveled to Fort Devens, Massachusetts, in order to take part in a drill competition to signify the start of Armed Forces Week; they have also performed for the general public at Dow AFB. During the National Student Council Convention to be hosted by BHS in June, the Stetson Rifles will furnish the color guard for the representatives of the fifty states expected at the Convention.

Stetsonettes Share Part in Performances

Each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon the Union Street Armory echoed with the sound of the marching feet of the Bangor High School Stetsonettes. As a result of their diligent work, the team gave several fine performances at basketball games and during parades.

After entertaining the Waterville High School Drill Team in Bangor, the Stetsonettes traveled to Waterville to participate in the half-time activities at the Waterville-Bangor basketball game. Officers elected for the year were Marsha Warren, president; Barbara Sproul, vice-president; Bonnie Colpitts, secretary-treasurer. The adviser was Major Walter C. Franzen.

Bangor Rifle Team Wins Wide Acclaim

Under the direction of MSgt. Albion L. Kenney, the Boys' "A" Rifle Team has recently added three more trophies to the Ram showcase. This fall the "A-1" team captured the 13th Army Corps Minuteman Trophy, marking the third consecutive year that Bangor has won this award. At the New England Junior Gallery Rifle Championship in Boston, the team of Robert Slamin, Chad Creamer, Michael Wickware, and Carl Sanborn defeated four other Maine teams to win the state championship. The rifle team went on to place fifth out of thirty in New England competition. The "A-2" team of John Dugan, William Golightly, Robert Smith, Thomas Barnes, Mark Bastey, Michael Bassi, Thomas Chase, and James Lamb won the first place trophy in the third division of the Pine Tree Postal League. Members of the "A" team who placed second in the first division of the Pine Tree include Edward Porter, Gregory Geagan, and James Cratty.

"B" Team has Bright Future

"B" team started the year with twenty-four possible candidates. Because of transfers to Supplement "A" team and eliminations, the team settled down to sixteen members. This year, for the first time, The Pine Tree League had a prone division. "B" team, firing in this Postal League, completed the League as winners of the prone division, with a score of seven wins in seven matches. The Rifle team of Brewer High School gave the team their closest win. Bangor won over Brewer by two points. According to the team coach, Sgt. Alfred Sudsbury, the coming year will see several "B" team members advancing to "A" team.

Girls' Team Gives Boys Competition

Under the direction of MSgt. Donald E. Corning, who is now in his fourth year with the Bangor High School military department, the Girls' Rifle Club has had a very successful year. The girls hold third place in the state Pine Tree League after defeating several boys' teams.

In March, at the first match of the Hampden Rifle Association, first place in the Girls' Division was taken by the team consisting of Kay Gearhart, Gail Morrison, and co-captains Dawn Alexander and Susan Strang.

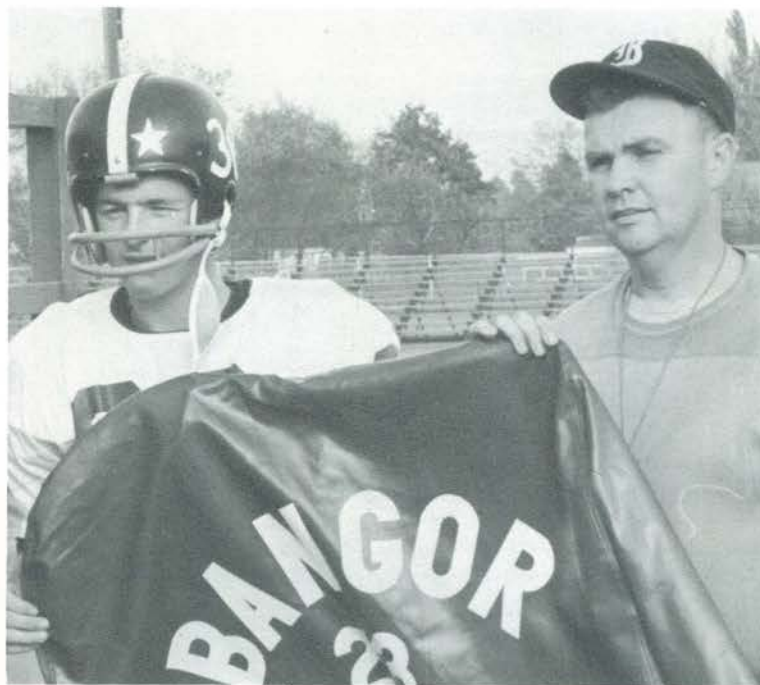

This year's officers were Susan Strang, president; Dawn Alexander, vice-president; and Terry Tyler, secretary-treasurer.

Bangor Places Second in the State

Coach Hodge and R. Newman anticipate the next play.

Bangor's fighting Rams fielded a crack team for the 1964 season. Co-captains Paul MacLeod and Rod Watson led the Rams to an impressive 8-2 record.

The team first showed its colors in an overwhelming 51-0 victory over Rumford. The mighty Rams returned for another unmarred win as they upset Waterville with a 25-0 score. Thornton was the first team to score against Bangor; nonetheless BHS racked up its third win, 25-12. Edward Little lost to the Rams 6-21. A 19-0 victory over Biddeford concluded Bangor's five game winning streak. Its first loss was sustained to Deering in a 12-0 defeat. Bangor once more succumbed, this time to Lewiston 7-33. The Rams won their next two games, toppling Sanford 33-0 and Cony 33-0. In their last encounter the Rams defeated Brewer 19-2.

Coach Gerald Hodge was awarded a plaque by the Maine Coaches Association which named him outstanding coach of 1963.

Rams Come Up To Bat

Coach Ralph Baxter's baseball club fielded a spirited team for the 1964 season. Veterans Brian O'Donnell, second baseman Mike Black, and catcher Rob Newman well compensated for the loss of four outstanding 1963 players.

Newcomers Dave Himes and Bruce Moore, plus an outstanding group of sophomores, displayed potential in pre-season practice.

The administration expressed confidence in the team by donating new uniforms and new field bases. Student support was indicated by attendance at the fifteen scheduled games.

Coach Baxter, who began spring practice while snow remained on the ground, held high hopes for a successful 1964 season.

Barrymen Finish The Season With A Rush

Coach Red Barry's hoopsters finished with a 13-7 record before bowing out in the semi-finals of the Eastern Maine Class LL Schoolboy Basketball Tournament. The Rams were plagued by injuries as the season was drawing to a close, but they still made a fine showing.

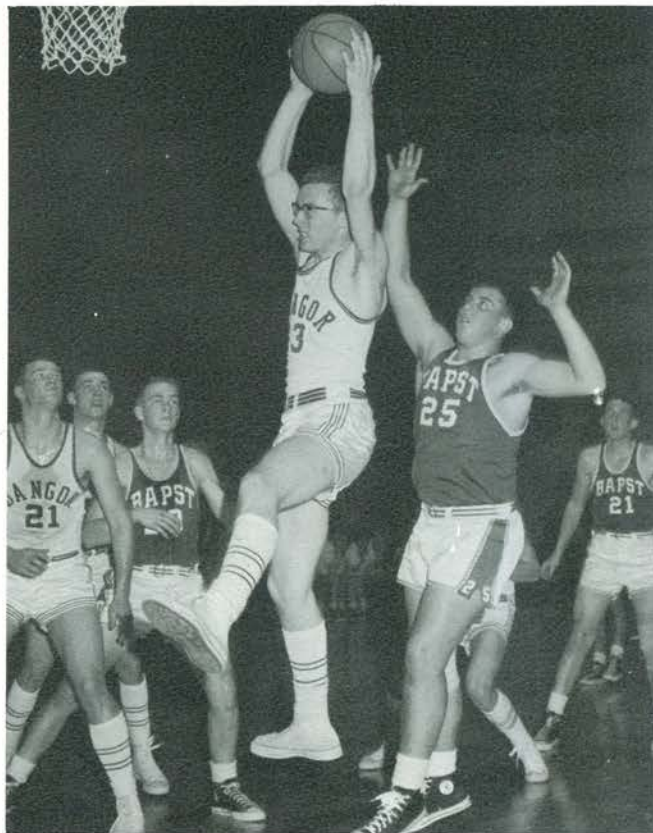

Although center Rod Watson, guards Brian O'Donnell and Larry Godsoe, and forward Mike Black will be lost through graduation, next year's team will have the experience of juniors Buz Brewster, Dick Downes, Jim Nelson, Rob Newman, and Carl Goggins, and sophomores Dick Cole, Bob Magee, and Jock McKernan.

Coach Barry's boys made the season nearly perfect with twin killings over Brewer and John Bapst. The most tense game for the boys was the four-overtime win over Bapst.

With the help of Assistant Coach Gordon Smith and managers Dick Webster and John Murray, the Rams provided an exciting season for B.H.S. fans.

Jock McKernan up for two!

Dick Downes pulls down a big one!

Come to me, you little rascal!

Junior Varsity and Frosh Teams Chalk Up Another Impressive Season

The 1963-64 edition of the Jayvees concluded an successful year under Coach Arthur Miles. The baby Rams competed against other Jayvee teams and some "M" and "S" teams.

The boys, who will try to crack the varsity line-up next season, showed poise and hustle. It was through this desire that many victories were won. Coach Miles' boys were led by many individuals with almost every member of the squad starting at one time during the season.

The B.H.S. Frosh team finished the season with a 7-5 record. Coach Edward Gott was very proud of his outstanding team because of their double win over John Bapst's Frosh and because the boys also made a fine showing in the Eastern Maine Freshman League as runners up. Besides playing many freshmen teams, they played the J.V.'s once.

Bangor Mermen Are State Champions

Bangor swimmers, with a 10-0 record, captured the State and Interscholastic championships. The Rams first showed their strength against Edward Little, breaking five school records and setting the state schoolboy 100-yard medley relay record. The Cheverus match was one of the most exciting in Maine schoolboy swimming. The turning point of the meet occurred when Fred McAlary placed second behind Phil Emery.

Hebron Academy lodged a threat against the Rams, but relay strength and depth of talent on the Bangor squad defeated the opponents. The medley team established a pool record, and Joe Constantine, Rick Dorsky, Phil Emery and Chip Rice set a state schoolboy record. Final meets against the Bowdoin Frosh, South Portland and Falmouth were easily won.

The state championship, determined at Portland, was highlighted by a neck and neck race between the Bangor and Portland relay teams. Bangor edged out its opponent by .2 of a second. Fred McAlary took a third place in the 200-yard freestyle. Phil Emery retained his freestyle sprint championship by winning the 50-yard freestyle event. Chip Rice took the medley and butterfly events, establishing records in both. He was the only double winner in the meet. Dick Klain and Steve Abbott placed second and third in the diving competition. Joe Constantine led all the way in the backstroke to capture that event. Chuck Schuetz, in a close race, finished second in the 100-yard breaststroke. The team was coached by Mr. Phil Lucas.

Cross-Country Takes 4th In The State

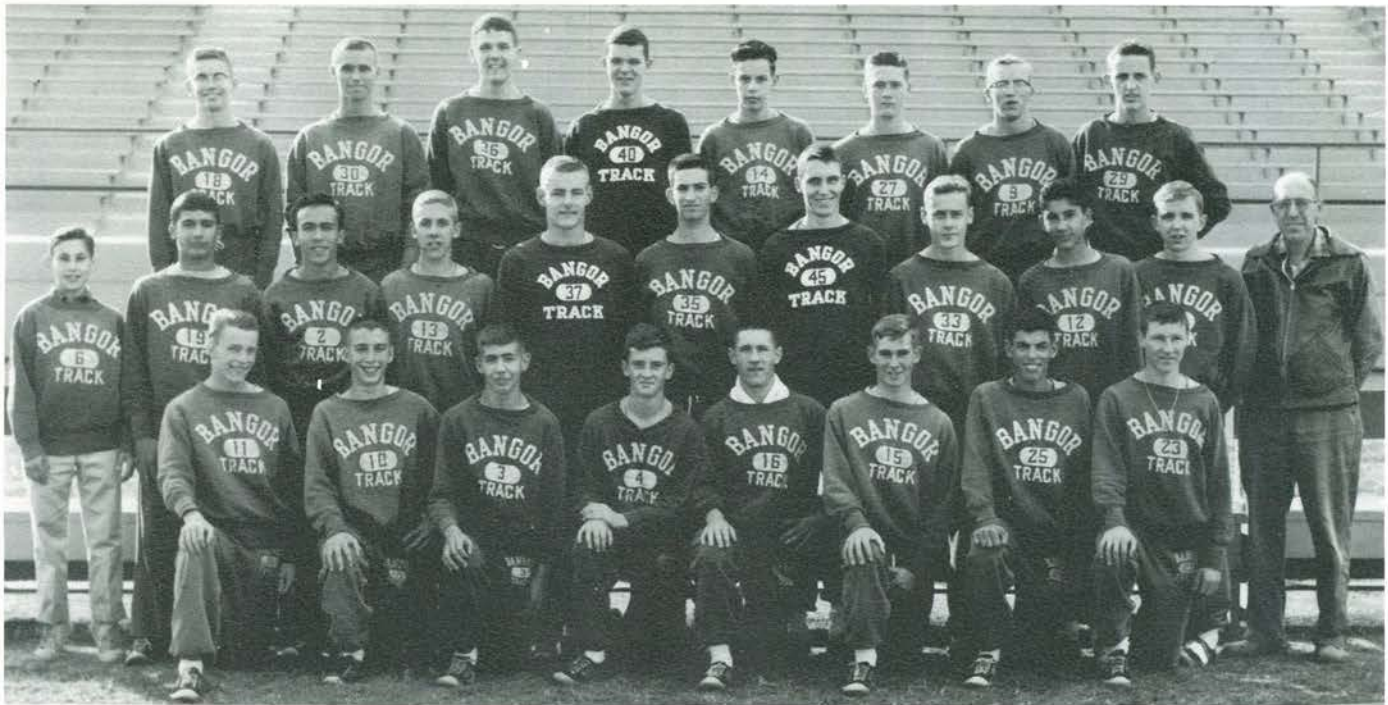

Bangor Dalers, starting with only two lettermen, finished their season placing fourth in the state meet held at the University of Maine. Larry Doble, Rick Bronson, and Mike Bassi finished among the first twenty runners of the 200 man race.

Prior to the state meet, Bangor's varsity had a 7-3 meet record. At the regional meet at the University of Maine, Bangor placed second against strong teams from Old Town, Presque Isle, Lee Academy, Houlton, and Waterville. Bangor pace setter Larry Doble, placed first in this 2½ mile endurance test. The J.V. team had a 5-1 meet record in 1963. Three of their 6 meets were perfect scores. George Osler, George Brountas, Ron Hicks, and Robin Smith, were the strong runners of the team. All of them ran some varsity meets this year, and are possibilities for their letters next year.

Mr. G. Vincent Cuozzo has been coaching the B.H.S. Cross-Country team since its inception in 1941. In his twenty-two years as coach he has produced many fine teams. This year's team gained perfect scores in five of its meets. A perfect score is 15 points, which is the maximum number of points obtainable. To get a perfect score, a team must have five of its seven runners finishing in the first five places of the meet.

Athletes Serve School

Each Friday many of the outstanding athletes of Bangor High can be seen wearing their maroon and white "B" sweaters. In order to receive a "B" sweater and thus be a member of the B-Club, a boy must prove himself proficient in one of the six varsity sports. The six sports are football, cross country, swimming, basketball, track, and baseball.

With Mr. Frederick Barry as adviser, the B-Club has undertaken several projects. This year B-Club members ushered at the football and basketball games. The first school dance of the year was sponsored by the B-Club. The club also has several of its members monitoring in the halls to lessen the normal confusion arising from changing classes.

The officers for the year are Larry Godsoe, president; Louis Arasate, vice-president; and Richard Webster, secretary-treasurer.

Girls' Basketball Has Large Turnout

Enthusiasm was contagious as more than a hundred and forty girls went out for basketball. Because of the large turnout, the girls were divided into two leagues with six teams in each league.

The girls elected captains, and teams were chosen. Each team played a complete round robin within their league, and then an All-Star team was chosen from each league for a play-off. The games began on January eighth and continued through the middle of February.

Joan Jordan amassed the greatest number of points during all the games, and Carolyn Nevins placed a close second. Dee Wood's team won first place in the play-offs.

The captains for the year were Kathy Atwood, Georgette Barrows, Judy Bradford, Connie Coffin, Vickie Daigle, Judy Howard, Marion Jenkins, Mary Jenkins, Linda Keyser, Sylvia Maurer, Marilyn Ornstein, and Dee Wood. The manager for the basketball season was Joan Jordan.

New Girls' Sports Provide Challenge

Girls' Sports at Bangor High School have taken a new turn. Mrs. Diann Perkins, gym teacher for the AM session, has introduced many new ideas and instilled high ambitions for the development of girls' athletics at BHS. Although the traditional games of basketball and volleyball are still being played by the girls, new sports have been added. The girls have also experimented with the ropes and have participated in many track and field events.

An extensive program of gymnastics has been undertaken. The girls tried their skill on the horse, even and uneven parallel bars, balance beam, and performed floor exercises and tumbling.

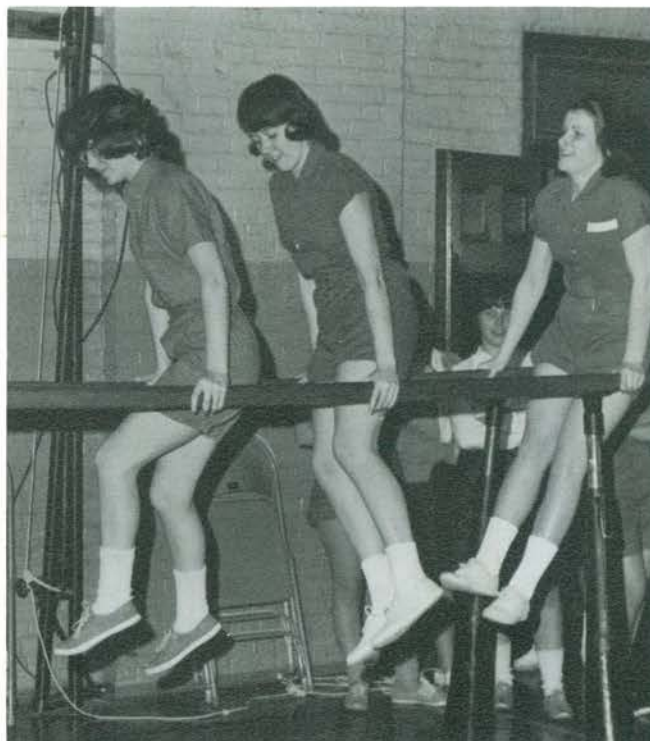

Several times groups of girls journeyed to the University of Maine for exhibitions and clinics. During April a gymnastic competition was held at the University of Maine. Three girls from Bangor High won their events and went on to compete at Gorham. The girls were Vicki Daigle with floor exercises, Pat Towle on the uneven parallel bars, and Beth Higgins on the balance beam.

"Up and over!" as Marion Jenkins and Louise Cratty jump the hurdles in gym class.

When the whistle blows, Ardis Mayo and Donna Pulk are off to a fast start on the sprint.

Judy Allen, Marie Gallison, and Linda Hedrick take their turns at walking the parallel bars.

G. A. H. C. Sparks Sports

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council is to develop a better type of athletics at Bangor High School. The first girls' sport of the season was field hockey, played at Little City Park. Because of inclement weather, only preliminary practices were held.

More than one hundred girls participated in the girls' basketball program. The games were jointly officiated by members of the council and by volunteers who were willing to learn the rules governing the game.

The honor council sponsored a cupcake sale to earn money for the purchase of awards presented to each girl after she completes a sport. Girls who possess the qualities of sportsmanship, athletic ability, respect, leadership, and scholarship are considered for membership in the council.

In March an awards program was held, and each girl received an award for playing basketball. At the conclusion of the program, six juniors and seniors were taken into the council according to the traditional ceremony. In May the girls who participated in volleyball and gymnastics received their awards. A banquet was held, and ten sophomore and junior girls were taken into the council. The quota of twenty-eight members is now complete.

Mrs. Diann Perkins advised the council and added several ideas for the improvement of girls' athletics. The council is enlarging the program so that in the near future the girls will be able to participate in track events and swimming.

The Girls' Athletic Honor Council officers for the year were Susan Shubert, president; Peggy Mabee, vice-president; Jaciel Bateman, secretary; and Ruth LaChance, treasurer.

B.H.S. girls' foul shooting champion, Joan Laliberte, practices for the regional contest held at the University of Maine.

Jayvees Spark Pre-Game Enthusiasm

In October, 1963, more than fifty sophomore and junior girls competed for the eight places on the Jayvee cheering squad. The captain of the Jayvees, Vicki Daigle, was elected in the preceding March.

With the help of Mrs. Diann Perkins, adviser, the Jayvees were able to add several new cheers to their collection. The encouragement and stamina of the Jayvee cheerleaders spurred the team on and sparked student enthusiasm.

The Jayvee cheerleaders traveled to Old Town, Brewer, and Waterville during the basketball season. In addition to cheering at the preliminary Jayvee games, the Jayvees joined the varsity cheerleaders in pre-game cheers.

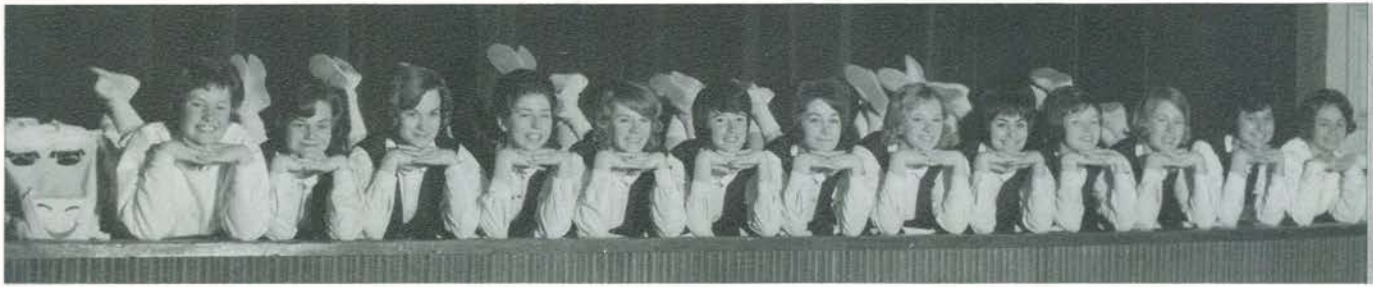

To earn money for their awards and the megaphone necklaces, the Jayvees joined the Varsity cheerleaders in supporting the school dances following the basketball games.

Cheerleaders Pep Up School Spirit

Under the leadership of Kathie Callahan, captain, the Bangor High School varsity cheerleaders were instrumental in promoting school spirit. Although many of the football games were nearly rained out, the cheerleaders rallied the team to an excellent eight to two record.

On Band Day the cheerleaders traveled to the University of Maine to help the B.H.S. Band present "Dr. Ben Crazy." They also took trips to Deering and Waterville to cheer on the mighty Rams. At the Downeast Basketball Classics the Varsity Cheerleaders sparked the Bowdoin team to victory.

During the regular basketball season, freshmen Coralee Gerrish and Mary Hillman brought on the cheers with their unique Ram outfits. Sue Ames, co-captain, also led the cheerleaders at several of the games. Mrs. Diann Perkins served as adviser to the cheerleaders.

"Sink it, sink it, sink it in!" is the battle cry of the high spirited varsity cheerleaders.

Supported by a full house, the cheerleaders and Rams spark school spirit.

And say which grain will grow and which will not."*

John Williams uses his lunch break to make a telephone call.

Freshmen wait for doors to open at the beginning of the afternoon session.

Virgil Carmichael and Scott Minnich study Elizabethan dwellings in English class.

Freshmen Show Promise

Freshmen this year have the distinction of being the last class to attend Bangor High in the afternoon. The class, although confronted with the problems of adjusting to a new high school life, has shown itself to be a strong one. President Peter Gautschi, who was elected first vice-president of the Eastern Division of Maine of Student Councils, vice-president Tom Sawyer, secretary Susan Farwell, and treasurer Judy Files, have led the class through its first high school year.

A group of freshmen, formed from the school spirit committee, have been a valuable part of the class, making posters for various purposes, and working toward the National Student Council Convention. The group sent skits around to afternoon homerooms, encouraging freshmen to volunteer to house Student Council representatives.

The freshman class sponsored a "Welcome-to-Bangor High" dance in October with Phillip Downes and Peter Gautschi as disc jockeys. A Sadie Hawkins dance was held in March, with Phillip Downes, Tom Emery, and Richard Haney as the disc jockeys.

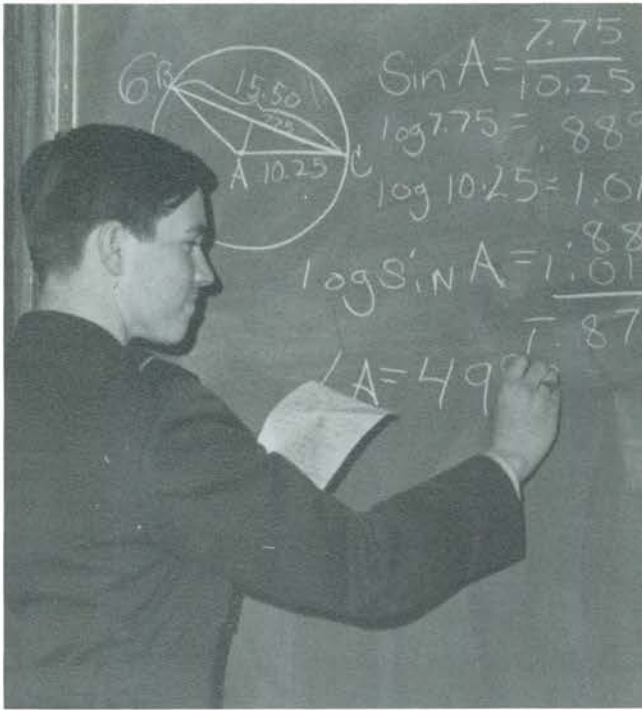

The class shows skill in sports, with Gene Bragdon, Peter Gautschi, David McLeod, Michael McNamara, Michael Nelson, and Tom Sawyer each having earned two sports letters.

Sophomores Make Valuable Contributions

This year's sophomore class has proved to be a very energetic one, making valuable contributions in music, sports, academic achievement, drama, and other aspects of school life. A group of five sophomore girls, Martha Eaton, Judy Files, Marianne Mills, Nancy Moulaison, and Peggy Sawyer, who call themselves the "Crickets," sang on many occasions, including the sophomore class hootenanny and All-Bangor Night. John Haskell, who is very active in nearly every school music group, is pianist for the Crickets.

The class has furnished great strength in various sports. On the swim team, Richard Klain, Barry Goldstein, and Steve Dorsky have been assets. Richard Cole and Robert Magee strengthen the basketball team, while Wayne Mosher, Tom Bennett, and Steve Abbott provided the football team with support.

In the field of drama the sophomore class was well represented by Marc Owen and Joshua Cutler. As the Mad Hatter and the Four of Clubs respectively, they contributed their share to Bangor High's prize winning one-act play, "Alice in Wonderland."

As an indication of their scholastic ability, 15.3 percent of the morning sophomores and 17.3 per cent of the afternoon sophomores were listed on the first semester honor roll. The class is handicapped by its division into morning and afternoon, but under the leadership of its officers: Lynne Porter, president; Steve Emery, vice-president; Donna Bridges, secretary; and Pat Webster, treasurer, the sophomore class has shown itself to be truly an outstanding one.

Outstanding Students Strengthen Class of 1965

Led by its officers: Richard Downes, president; Susan Sederquist, vice-president; Constance Coffin, secretary; and Deborah Rathbun, treasurer, the class of 1965 has produced many outstanding students. Richard Downes is active in basketball and, with James Nelson and Robert Newman, is one of next year's football team's tri-captains. Joseph Constantine, Steve Dorsky, and Fred McAlary show outstanding promise on the swim team. The vice-president of the Bangor High Student Council, Paul Shapero, is also a member of the junior class. Donald Goodridge was elected president of the debate team. Two juniors, William Cohen and Bonnie Wittner are hosts to Bangor High's exchange students, Jose Aguilar and Ulrike Pfeifer.

Near the beginning of the basketball season, the junior class sponsored a dance. At Christmas members of the class bought gifts for Dennis Stubbs, a junior who is confined to a wheelchair at his home in Kenduskeag. William Nadeau, who has shown himself to be an accomplished actor, directed the stage show for All-Bangor Night. Joyann Berquist and Eric Flack, both of whom are strong members of the chorus, did well with their science fair project, as did Ardis Mayo, who is also an addition to both band and orchestra. Constance Coffin, as editor of the school newspaper Orascope, was aided by a staff composed mainly of juniors.

The class has individual distinction and over-all strength which make it worthy to begin the tradition of being the first class to be graduated from the new high school on Broadway.

B. H. S. Seniors Attend College

B.H.S. can boast of an enterprising class of seniors. Two members of the class, Jane Longo and Michael Newton, found themselves college-bound at the completion of their junior year as early decision students. Jane attends the University of Maine, and Mike is enrolled at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

Linda Boynton, David Cowan, Jordan Kobritz, Robin Houston, Barbara Kominsky, Don Mitchell, Jr., Susan Shubert, and Samuel Wyman took basic college courses at the U. of M. in addition to their regular academic studies at B.H.S. These courses offered actual credit toward a degree for students entering college after the completion of their senior year.

The Senior Lecture Series, spearheaded by Philip Gonyar, Social Studies Department Head, dealt with the general topic "What America Promises," a comprehensive survey of modern-day America. Of the many seniors who attended the 1963-1964 Senior Lecture Series, sixty-six were eligible for credit upon the completion of a quality paper.

Merit Scholars Announced

Bangor High School was honored this year by having seven of its seniors receive recognition from the National Merit Scholarship Foundation. Dorothy Gaillard, Roger Carignan, and Rodney Watson received letters of commendation; while Jeanne Amnotte, Mark Smith, Joan Emery, and Joel Silverberg were announced as Finalists. Diana Royce received the high distinction of being awarded a National Merit Scholarship, putting her among a chosen few in the nation-wide program.

Outstanding Seniors Gain Recognition

At the Scholarship recognition assembly held in May, ten Bangor High School Scholars were announced. This award for high academic achievement is earned by only a small percentage of the senior class. To be named a B.H.S. Scholar, a student must have attained a rank of 85 or above in each major subject for five consecutive semesters. The 1964 Scholars are Jeanne Amnotte, Chadwick Creamer, Joan Emery, Elizabeth Mincher, Diana Royce, Joel Silverberg, Mark Smith, Roberta Stern, Susan Strang, and Carol Wartluft.

This year's graduation speakers include Daniel Field, senior essayist, Jeanne Amnotte, senior essayist, and Mark Smith, parting address.

Other gifted seniors have been awarded honors in different fields, including scholarships for many at institutions of higher learning. In addition, the following received awards: Joan Emery, the D.A.R. award in good citizenship; Rhonda Kobritz, the Future Homemakers award; and Mark Whittaker, President of the N.A.S.C.

Oracle Encompasses School Year

Beginning with a successful subscription campaign highlighted by its own folk-singing group, the Three O's, the Oracle staff continually worked to make this year's publication outstanding by supplementing old ideas with new vitality. After choosing a theme focusing on "Time," the staff decided to have the cover feature a maroon background instead of the traditional white. When Miss Jessie Fraser announced the combining of the R.O.T.C. Yearbook with the Oracle to form a more complete and interesting book, the staff was sure it was on the road to success.

Early in the year, after the staff appointments were made, the members began to mold themselves into a functioning unit under the guidance and instruction of their adviser, Miss Jessie Fraser. Photographers were on hand at all school functions to provide the yearbook with a wide selection of pictures as the staff began preliminary planning of pages. With the passing of many weeks, pictures were matched with captions and identifications; and copy, once approved, took its place on the pica sheets. One by one the pages were sent to the printers and, as the press started to roll, another Oracle was in the making.

Class of 1964 Ends Fifty Years of Tradition

Realizing their distinction of representing the last class that will graduate from the hallowed halls presently housing Bangor High School, the Senior Council strived diligently to attain the class unity and spirit possessed by previous graduating classes. Beginning with the collection of class dues and ending with the execution of a successful Senior Week, the class officers worked closely with their fellow class members and their adviser, Mr. Raymond Thibodeau.

Measuring for caps and gowns, sponsoring a school dance, and participating in All-Bangor Night were all on their busy agenda. As a final proof of their interest in the continuation of the fine traditions of B.H.S., the Senior Council appropriated seventy-five dollars to purchase a gift for the new high school from the class of 1964.

B.H.S. cheerleaders test-drive a 1964 Scout at the International Harvester Company.

WE'RE HEADQUARTERS FOR THE SCOUT—64

America's new work or play wonder! The Scout is a whole new idea in low-cost transportation. It's a hardtop pickup that hauls good-sized loads one minute—the next, it's an open-air runabout that carries three passengers in the front and more in the rear. Optional all-wheel drive makes it an off-road workhorse, too. An optional Travel-Top converts it into a town delivery. But no matter where the Scout goes, a thrifty new INTERNATIONAL four-cylinder Comanche engine saves on gas and oil.

Times have changed

Many of the advancements we all take for granted today weren't even known to us a few years ago. That's progress! But remember there's one thing that doesn't change — it's Merrill Trust's interest in helping young people with their banking needs. Whether you're starting a career or continuing your education, you're invited to make us your bank for every banking service.
