The Man and the Woman of the Year of '66. . .

Become. . .

The Grads of '67

We at Bapst like to think that every issue of the Crusader that rolls off the presses is somehow a special issue. But those of us who have worked on the '67 issue know that it is more special than usual for it marks the passing of our "Bapst generation". And indeed these years have been colorful, intense, sometimes bewildering but utterly invaluable. Some say that we are not merely a new generation but a new kind of generation, armed as we are by science and the knowledge explosion with more tools with which to choose our life patterns than we can always use. All this knowledge, then, presents us with our challenge which makes us realize our place is in the world knowing for a fact that we like it here-then making the one more effort, doing the one more something to help make it a very nice place to be.

Part of the challenge too, of this Bapst generation, is to realize that, our America is finer than its headlines. Yes, we, too, can get deathly sick at heart-reading in almost any issue of any newspaper of mob violence, murders, cowards screaming that they won't fight for their country, courts pampering criminals, teen-age animals! But our Bapst generation has been taught to look beyond the screaming headlines and see the finest fighting men in the world, proud to wear their U.S. uniform, proud to represent us well around the world, millions of parents doing their often unglamorous jobs of running homes economically and raising their children to be decent citizens. This we know is America going about its business quietly- and we know that's pretty wonderful.

Indeed the very phrase "the passing of a generation" turns us to the past- tempts us with nostalgia- summons the mellow reminiscences of "how things used to be" and how we have shared in that uniquely intimately relationship between school and student- the bitter and the beautiful things that have happened over the past four years.

But to reminisce solely, it seems, is to deny our essential spirit and an important aspect of the Crusader. We are interested in these past four years and, no doubt, will continue to glance back for the revelations and insights we can find in them. But we are more interested in the future. And while we do honour the past in this publication we find ourselves more and more looking to the future and unmistakably on the side of the future.

We do not go along with the comfortable position of condemning change and longing for "things as they were". Some philosophers, scholars, novelists, and yes - even teachers - have learned to excel in the curious art of offering sinuous analyses of everything that is wrong with mankind without a word about how we might have things better. And we take delight in rejecting this automatic pessimism. We, then, turn toward the future with open perceptions and feelings. The large dangers do not prevent us from looking for the even larger opportunities. We firmly believe that if world peace, elimination of human misery and consequently increasing personal fulfillment are possible- and they are- then ways can be worked out to move toward them.

We know that the future is a kind of "happening" where we are offered one startling new gift after the other. And while these might not fit in the old boxes and may come with strange wrappings, yet we welcome them and actually anticipate the unknown world of tomorrow.

On this adventure we look back with gratitude- forward with the faith that we have in the knowledge that the LIGHT has come into the world and is still with us- showing us how to reveal ourselves and become increasingly and meaningfully involved in our world.

And so in presenting the '67 Crusader we show our esteem for the past and our exhilarating concern for the future. Here, then, are the men and women to match the mountains.

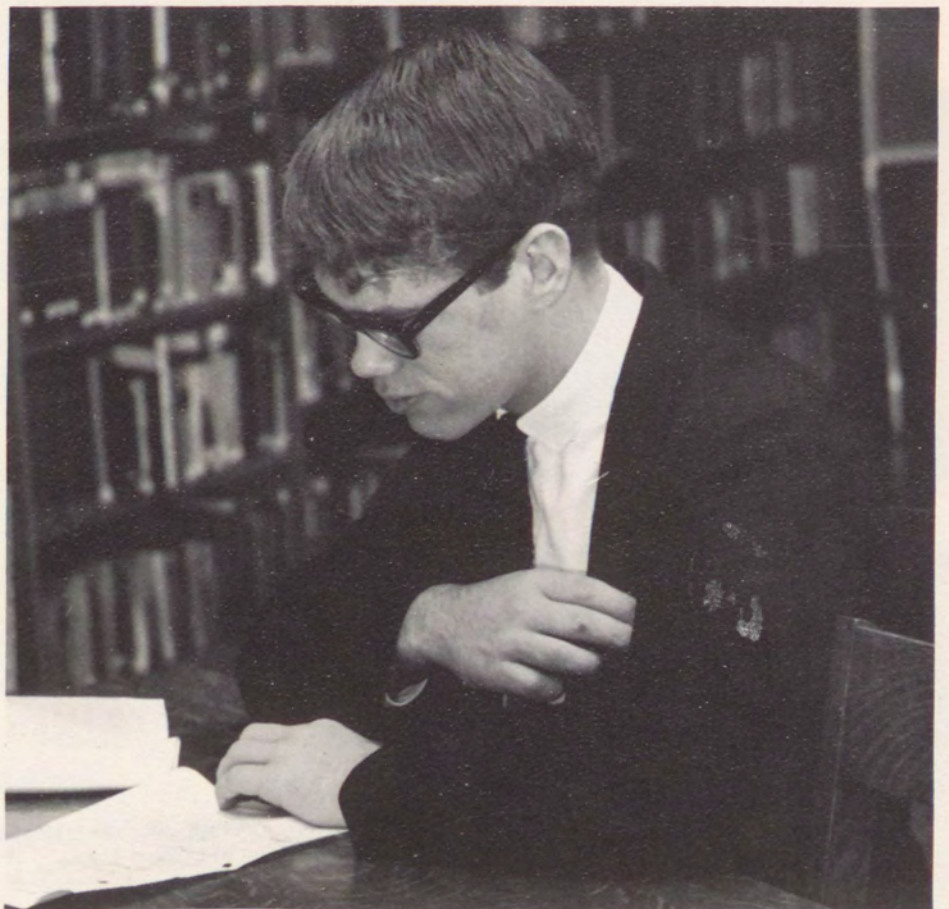

Our interest is in the future because we are going to spend the rest of our lives there.

Our job here is to convert boys and girls into men and women. It seems to us that this is best accomplished by treating Baptist students as men and women, both as regards scholarship and social responsibility.

Brother Callistus

Principals with principles! Those are our two principals here at John Bapst, Sister Mary Pius and Brother Gordon, CFX. Through the joint effort of capable administrators, Bapst was awarded final accreditation from the N.E.A.S.S.C. this year.

It is the duty of the entire faculty and especially the principals to encourage high scholastic attainment. One such goal was achieved this year when Anne Desjardins was named a finalist in the National Merit Program, and received a substantial scholarship. Below, the girl's principal is presenting Anne with her certificate.

For To

Our involvement centers around the "world" and its "happenings". Our world is speaking to us in a different way-a way in which it has never spoken before. It's presenting things-challenges, really-in a different way it never could have before. Our task is to respond and find out the "whys" and then to build a better world.

At the Day's End

While a great deal of our involvement each day is concerned with the common place and even the trivial, we are well aware of the larger issues and the more important needs and most especially of the NEED TO KNOW. This is precisely why we are involved today for tomorrow. This is our basic and ultimate challenge and, hopefully, we are making an adequate and corresponding response to this challenge.

Both today, as students, and for all the predictable tomorrows we must be constantly plucking from every source we can-facts- and then acquire the ability to interpret these facts accurately, for they are what will ultimately guide our decisions.

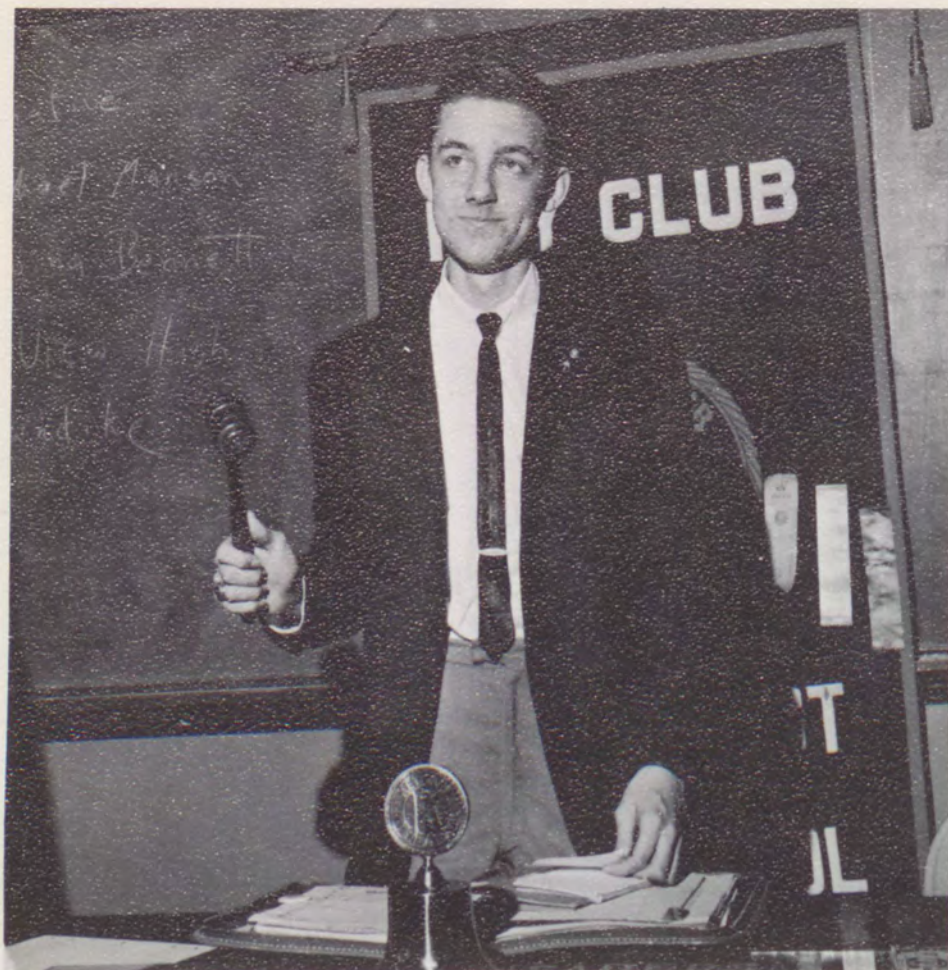

Trivial Tasks

Some of these facts we get from our newspapers, T.V., or even from conversations with our peers but for the most part we garner them from the best source available to us—the BAPST FACULTY who have made us totally conscious of the NEED TO KNOW.

I profess not talking: only this Let each man do his best.

In the activities provided here each student is able to develop his talents. The activities, clubs, committies, or societies, offer something for everyone. A hobby may be explored to new horizons, the mind may be stimulated, the creative talents improved, or sheer enjoyment derived.

From a humble beginning, only six years ago, the Key Club of John Bapst High School has grown to be a most integral part of the school and community which it serves. The 1966-67 Key Club, through the cooperation of all its members, has maintained its superb reputation of service.

Glee Club

THE SOUND OF MUSIC: The John Baptist Glee Club, under the direction of Sister M. Pius, has entertained various organizations with interesting arrangements of old and new tunes. It is impossible to name all the girls in the Glee Club, but it must be said that each has a "song in her heart" which she carries to everyone who listens.

Latin Club

STUDIUM DISCENDI: Sister Luanus can be justly proud of her Latin Club. Its exhibits are always educational and interesting and its members enthusiastic as they await the Nationwide APSL test.

Sodality

A LIGHT FOR THE DARK-NESS: The sodality, or Christian Action Group, is responsible for encouraging vocations and Christ-like actions in the school. Moderated by Sister Mary Jeanne, It did a commendable job in attaining this goal.

Math Club

QUEEN(S) OF SCIENCES: To stimulate the mind, a math club was formed in which the girls try to solve difficult mathematical problems and play games with numbers.

Art Club

ARS GRATIA ARTIS: The Art club, in attempting to arouse interest in this fascination hobby, has produced some skillful artists. Perhaps they were dormant Michaelangelos, who knows?

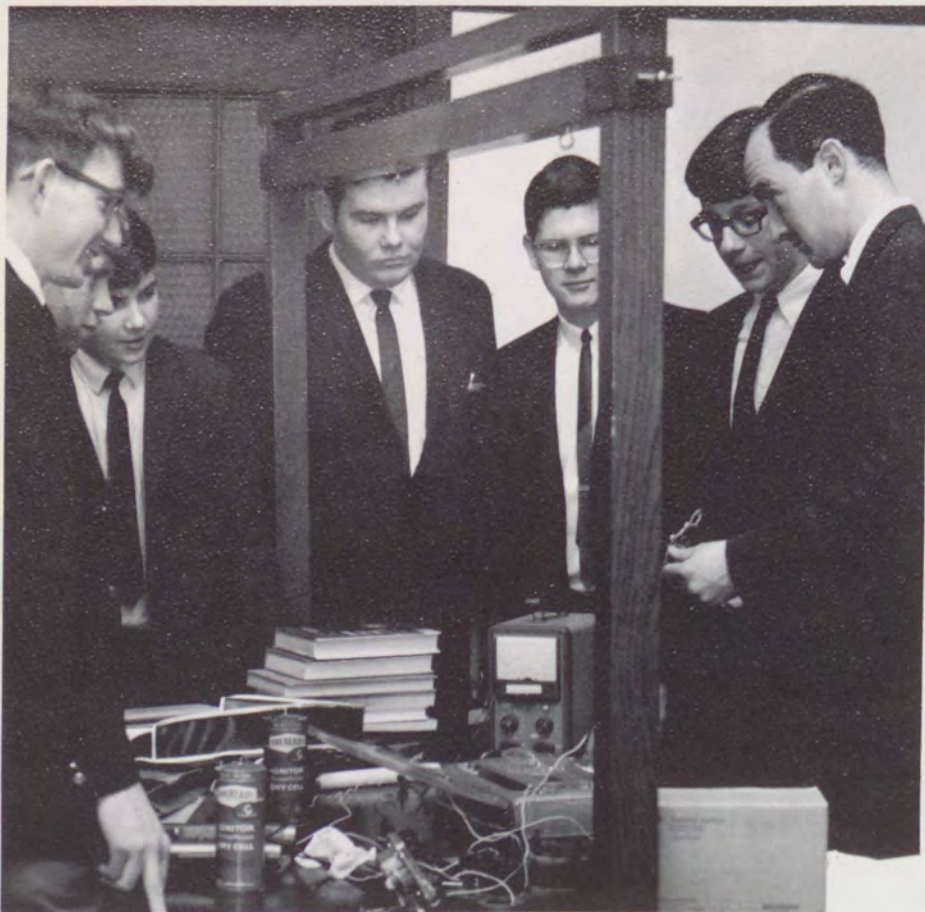

Cheerleaders

"Oh! When the boys of John Bapst fall in line," can the cheerleaders of Bapst be far behind? How true that is! At every Bapst game, the spirited cheerleaders were present, even if not in uniform. Those girls who back the teams so faithfully as cheerleaders deserve a great deal of credit for their ever present support. Sometimes the fans were unresponsive, but the cheerleaders never faltered in their enthusiasm.

Radio Club

Formed this year under the able leadership of Mr. Cassily with assistance from Brother Gordon, the radio club had as its purpose the extending to all interested students the chance to become skilled Ham Radio operators. After a slow start, it blossomed into one of the more active clubs in the school, with members gaining great pleasure in working towards Operator's License.

Certificates

This year the Maine Teachers' Association awarded certificates of excellence to seven Baptist boys in recognition of their achievement on the Merit Scholarship Test.

Prize Speaking

This year's Prize Speaking was held on April 14. Eleven representatives from the Junior Class delivered thought provoking and entertaining speeches ranging from serious talks on Sur-Realism to humorous skits on Twentieth Century Politics.

Boys' Retreat

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of holy week the boys attended retreat exercises. Father Tyrcotte capably directed the various activities. Each day was highlighted by the participation of the entire student body in the Liturgical Sacrifice.

Father's talks were valuable because of their timely information. Each instruction period left the students with a meaningful message.

High School- four years devoted to the development of the whole student. Here at John Bapst we do not limit ourselves to intellectual and spiritual development, but include social development also. The most prevalent social activity is, of course, the dances. At these dances, which are held regularly, the students are given the opportunity to meet other students, to become better acquainted with their classmates, and to exercise the social graces which they have learned.

Key Club Dance

"The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" is the title to a goldie-oldie record. But, there is an error here! At Bapst, we have only one sweetheart, Cathy Rogan, the Key Club Sweetheart of 1966-67. At a dance held in November, the students selected blond-haired Cathy to represent the feminine side of the Key Club. Cathy was the senior candidate. Representing the junior class was Sue Aucoin, while the sophomores chose Frances Clough as their class representative.

Thanksgiving

Think! What reminds you of Thanksgiving? Turkeys and Pilgrims? Nope! Snoopy jumping into a pile of crepe paper leaves! The SAC Social Committee broke away from the usual hum-drum Thanksgiving decorations to produce a unique theme for the dance and also, unintentionally, to discover a mascot for the senior class, Peanuts! and his friends. The Thanksgiving Dance was as much a success this year as it has been in the past and we all hope it will continue so in the future.

Prom

Outside, the world was cold, but inside, amid a mass of "falling" snowflakes, giant snowmen, and over-sized snowballs, the atmosphere was warm. The 1966 Snowball Prom, with Nat Diamond's Orchestra providing the music, was small in attendance, but large on enjoyment.

Sac Dance

St. Patrick's Day this year was more than "a great day for the Irish", it was a great day for everyone who attended the SAC Dance featuring the "Jesters". Decorated with green streamers and shamrocks, the auditorium was given that truly Irish look. The "Jesters" singing, dancing, and clowning as only they can, carried everyone present to a wonderland of fun and music.

Victorious Campaign

Led by Coach Ken Perrone, the Crusaders succeeded in winning six games while losing only three. Although upset in their first game by Skowhegan, the Purple and White showed their determination by upending their next three foes: Old Town, Madison, and M.C.I. A loss to a fired-up Belfast team spurred the team to consecutive victories over Rockland, Gardiner, and favored Winslow. In a hard well fought game the favored Crusaders lost to arch-rival, Brewer. Disappointing as the loss to Brewer was the team had a truly successful season. Records were set by: Larry Rioux, and Jim Dionne. The team extended the longest home winning streak in the school's history by two games.

The outlook for next year's team is good, as Coach Perrone has several lettermen returning. The entire backfield of the 1967 Crusaders will have started on occasion in the past year. Several linemen will be returning and the defense will be bolstered by returning veterans. Led by Captains Mike Gould, John Richards, and Donnie Coffin, the Purple and White should continue the winning tradition established by the fighting teams of the past six years.

The school congratulates the team on a fine season!

Determination and Dexterity

Brian Shaboski lowers his shoulder and drives to pick up the extra yardage.

Mike Boynton rounds Bangor's end for a large gain in round-robin play.

Make a Winning Crusader

The entire team showed fine spirit and dedication. Some members by exceptional achievement deserve individual mention. Though the Crusaders were not first in conference standings, they did lead the league in placing players on the Pine Tree All-Star team. A total of twelve boys received special distinction. Jim Dionne, Cary Gillis, John Reed, and Larry Rioux made the first team and Terry Brennan, John Richard, Brian Shaboski, Ralph Shannon, Danny O'Connell, Mike McGinley, Mike Boynton, and Donnie Coffin received honorable mention. Also cited for special honor should be next years team captains, Mike Gould, John Richard, and Donnie Coffin. It is hoped that the fine example set by these boys will serve as an inspiration to the future players of John Bapst.

As Coaches Perrone and Brennan look on in dismay, Mike Gould's touchdown vs. Brewer is called back.

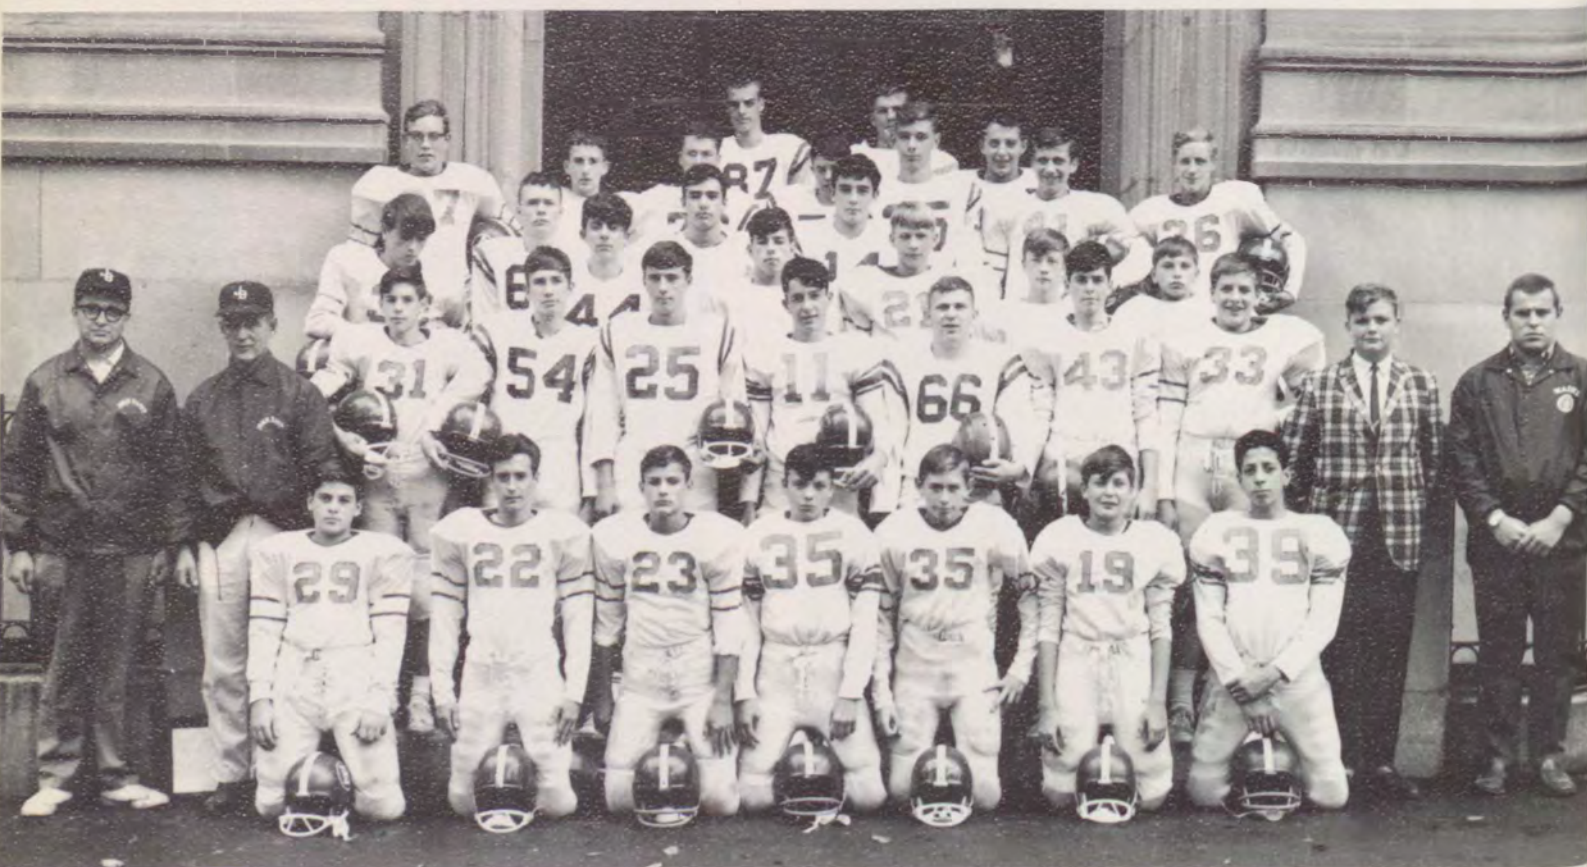

Mike Gould bursts through the line and into the open for a huge gain.

Coach Ron Geagan's roundballers showed flashes of brilliance during a 19 game schedule, but were unable to perform consistently. The Crusaders wound up 8-11 on the season and placed 11th in Eastern Maine. Showing a potent offense, the Crusaders stumbling block proved to be defense. Led by the scoring of Bob Bolduc and Brian Shaboski the purple and white averaged 69.9 points a game. With returning lettermen Tom Tennett, Charles Greer, and Sam Estey the outlook for next year is bright.

The Bapst cagers were led by Coach Ron Geagan and captained by Bob Bolduc and Russ Farrar. Bolduc's consistently high scoring contributed to many of these "flashes of brilliance", while Farrar's steady defensive play complemented Bolduc's flashy offensive play. In his second year as head coach, Mr. Geagan again showed that he does have the ability to get the most out of his players. And Ron does look forward to a brighter future.

Henry Sockbeson showed great potential in leading the rebounders with a 15 per game average, while Claude Rioux led the JVs in the scoring with an 18 point per game production. His fine shooting was matched by Jon Beausang who also was an excellent rebounder.

With this hustling little ball club and the veterans from this year's varsity club, we can look forward to Bapst's return to the Eastern Maine LL Tournament in the very near future.

More elusive tactics from Karen Hopkins?

Guided by Co-Captains Jacki Hodgins and Marilyn Rice, on the court, and "Bud" McDonough, on the bench, the female flurries of John Bapst hit the basketball floor with force to earn a 10-6 record and second place in the P.V.C. The hours of strenuous practice were well worth the effort, as any one of the "flurries" will readily agree. With each game, there was an increase in interest from both the student body and the faculty.

Why is everyone so happy? We're winning, of course!

Key Klub Kapers

On March 17 this year a long awaited basketball game between the "School Staff Shooters" (SSS) and the "Key Klub Kagers" (KKK) took place in our gym. This sports' spectacular of the year was a hard-fought game all the way. The Kagers dominated the game in the beginning but the Shooters came back and dominated the game at the end, when it was most important. The experience of the Staff Shooters out-matched the youthfulness of the Key Klub Kagers when the final score turned out to be 71-52. The game was kept under control by referees, Mr. Floyd and Bouncy Searway.

Cindermen's Story

The 1966 track team from John Bapst produced an abundance of individual and team effort. Though the record may not show it, the Crusaders gave an excellent account of themselves in all meets. At the Penobscot Valley Conference Track Meet, the Purple and White finished third out of seven teams.

Outstanding efforts were produced by two miler Paul Aucoin, milers Bill Giles and Terry Brennan, 880-yarder Rick Castillo, and sprinters Rick Doll, Gus Ciano, and Mike McPherson, along with jumpers Lenny Miragliuolo, Mike Morse, and Jack Roberts, and weight men Gerald Desjardin, and Bob Sheehan.

Crusaders Capture 3rd Consecutive Conference Crown

Led by captains Ron Soucie and Leo Higgins, the Bapst baseball team hustled its way to its 3rd PVC crown in as many years. In his first year as head coach, Bob Gaboury produced a team which, traditional to the Crusader name, was known and feared for its hustle on the bases and in the field. Soucie, who capped off his most successful varsity season by being drafted by the Baltimore Orioles, led the pitching staff, picking up his seventh and eighth no-hitters for John Bapst. Higgins was responsible for "driving-in" the winning or tying run in several games. With several returning lettermen from the '66 team, the outlook for '67 is bright.

Coach Gaboury receives the trophy for winning the Penobscot Valley Conference Championship from Jackie Hodgins at the Fall SAC Assembly.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer
as carefully
as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
