CLASS ODE.

WORDS BY DAVID L. WING.

Friends and Classmates now, behind us
Lies the path so long we've trod.
We have reached a golden milestone
On the great highway to God.

Let the sorrows, let the trials,
Which at times we all endure,
Working with the virtue in us,
Make us nobler and more pure.

Much we owe to the kind helpers
Who have shown to us the way.
Actions, and not words, hereafter,
Will, we hope, this debt repay,

We are in this world to labor,
Not a moment for delay;
Forward, mindful of our watchword,
"Virtute ac Labore."
