Dedication

During his thirty-two years of service at Bangor High School, Mr. Clarence H. Drisko has earned an enviable reputation as submaster and supervisor of the Industrial Arts Department.

His skill in solving the problems of the daily school routine, and his fairness in dealing with the innumerable excuses of absent and tardy pupils have brought him in contact with our student body in a unique way.

Next year's classes will miss his capable and understanding assistance. It is with a feeling of deep appreciation for his untiring efforts that the 1954 Oracle staff dedicates this sixty-fourth edition of the Bangor High School Oracle to Mr. Clarence H. Drisko.

FOREWORD

A star is the symbol of highest achievement. It is representative of hard work and valuable time spent to obtain a polished product. We have chosen the star as the theme for our yearbook because it portrays our beliefs. Bangor High School is the star of the high schools in Maine. The students of B.H.S. have worked hard to achieve their end—a successful high school career—and each deserves a star for his contribution to the school. Our yearbook is one of the greatest publications in the history of the Oracle. It is the star of yearbooks. As you read the Oracle, we hope that you will be consciously aware of our theme, and that our star will gleam brilliantly for you—a symbol of achievement.

National Honor Society's main project this year was the completion and publishing of a Bangor High handbook, begun by the Society of 1953. The first handbook ever published by B. H. S., it was given to all students in the school and to boys and girls who will be sophomores next year. In years to come the handbook will be given only to sophomores and new students.

Sixteen seniors and fourteen juniors were initiated into the Society at the March assembly, thus bringing the total membership to 41.

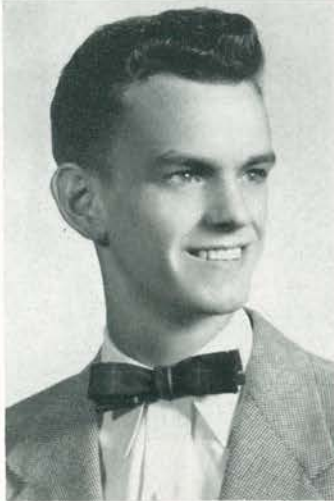

The group's adviser was Miss Ruth Belknap, assisted by Mrs. Gladys Bridges. Officers were Robert Thomas, president; Earle Webster, vice president; Beverly Segal, secretary; and William Cutler, treasurer.

Oracle

The issuing of this year's Oracle concludes the sixty-fourth year of publication.

The subscription campaign, in the form of a stimulating assembly based on a Drag-net theme, got the Oracle-Orascope off to a superb start.

The Oracle Board was directed by Beverly Segal, editor; Kathleen Vickery, assistant editor; and Miss Jessie L. Fraser, adviser. Credit goes to Nadine Leveille who supplied all of the art work in the Oracle.

Let's Get the Facts, Ma'am

Twenty-eight group pictures were taken during the month of March for publication in the June Oracle.

The issuing of a yearbook such as the Oracle is made possible only through the efforts and cooperation of the entire staff—reporters, business staff, artists, typists, photographers, and adviser. Under these conditions, the final product is difficult to surpass.

Orascope

The ninth volume of the Orascope has been published this year by a staff of twenty-seven juniors under the editorship of Ruth Sclair, assistant editorship of Mary Ranlett, and guidance of Miss Jessie L. Fraser, faculty adviser.

Several new features were incorporated during this past year. On the editorial page a cartoon was added, and a new column, the "News Barrel," with a cutting depicting a Ram peering into a barrel was created especially for short, but important, news articles. A follow-up on the TV Poll conducted during the 1952-1953 season showed very nearly the same results, with "I Love Lucy," "Drag-net," and the 21-inch viewing screen still preferred.

With the second of this five-issue volume containing six pages, and with the several changes incorporated, this past year as a whole has been very successful.

Speech and Drama

Bangor High's Speech and Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Browne, is now able to boast another first. For the first time in the twenty-two year history of the State One-Act Play Contest at Bowdoin College, Bangor High School won top honors and was presented a silver cup. The cast then performed at the New England Drama Festival in Sanford, Maine, and was given a rating of "very good."

Gene Carter placed first in the extemporaneous section of the University of Maine Speaking Contest. Gloria Faulkner placed second in the serious division, and Michael Rolnick placed third in the public speaking section.

Other activities which the department sponsored were the annual Junior Exhibition, a three-act play, Ever Since Eve, and the senior play, A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court.

Debate Club

The Debate Club has distinguished itself this year, under the guidance of Mrs. Barbara M. Browne in both local and state-wide competition.

With this year's national high school debate proposition—"Resolved: That the President of the United States Should Be Elected by a Direct Vote of the People"—the club earned the right to compete in the state finals of the Bates Debating League held at Bates College in April, after winning the preliminary contest.

In these preliminary debates Michael Mueller, of the affirmative team, won all first speaker ratings, and in the Bates finals Michael Rolnick, the second member of the affirmative team won all first speaker ratings. Gene Carter and Earle Webster composed the negative team. Bangor High School tied for third place in the Bates League finals.

In the fall Bangor High was host school for the state-wide debate clinic sponsored by the Bates League. Gene Carter won second-place honors in the discussion contest at the clinic.

At the University of Maine Debate Tournament held in March at the University, teams composed of Robert Ginn, Earle Webster, Michael Rolnick, Judith Cantor, Thomas Webster, Michael Mueller, Madalene Gerrish, Larry Cilley, Carl MacDowell, and Paula Pangakis made an excellent showing.

The colorful "Debate Circus" was the first social event of the school year. Officers of the club were President, Jack Meltzer; Vice President, Gene Carter; Secretary-Treasurer, Judith Cantor.

Junior Exhibition 1953

Junior Exhibition 1953 presented an entirely new aspect to both speakers and audience. For the first time in the history of the annual exhibition, all ten speakers received French medals.

The participants, delighting the audience with a cross-section of famous literature which ranged from O'Henry's subtle humor to the stark tragedy of Medea, presented a most enjoyable evening of listening pleasure.

Coached by Miss Mary Hodgson, 1953's finalists were Judith Cantor, whose selection was a cutting from "Belles On Their Toes;" Gene Carter, "Apostrophe to the Ocean;" Marcella Legere, cutting from "Jane Eyre;" Michael Rolnick, "The Curse of Regulus;" Beverly Segal, cutting from "Medea;" Joyce Silver, "Harlem Tragedy;" Paul Skofield, cutting from "David Copperfield;" Barbara Viner, cutting from "The Heiress;" Earle Webster, cutting from "The Happy Time;" and Robert Williams, "Trouble With the Railroad."

Le Cercle Francais

Under the leadership of Mlle. Estelle Beaupré, boys and girls—that is, garçons et jeunes filles!—in Le Cercle Francais learned, through experience, the knack and fun of conversing in French among themselves. At these meetings French was spoken, and French games and songs were played and sung. During a meeting to which John Bapst and Brewer French Clubs were invited Mlle. Beaupré gave a talk accompanied by lovely colored pictures showing scenes and events of her recent trip through the Northwest.

As the Oracle goes to press, announcement has been made of the retirement of Mlle. Beaupré, one of Bangor High's most admired personalities. Students who have profited from Mlle. Beaupré's able teaching will not soon forget her enthusiasm and vigor. Faculty and students alike extend their tribute to the many years of wholehearted service of Mlle. Estelle Beaupré.

Latin Club

The Bangor High School Latin Club had as one of its aims the learning of Roman customs and ideals. Under the direction of Miss Mary L. Copeland, the project was carried out. Sophomores were initiated in October at a solemn Roman style candlelight ceremony.

The club had as its officers for 1953-1954 the following: Consuls—Bettylou Day, Judith Kittredge; Praetor—Ruth Webb; Quaestor—Robert Williams; Aediles—Barbara Boyd, Jacqueline Frost, Madalene Gerrish, Earle Webster; Tribunes—Sandra Adams, Peggyann Bean.

Among its activities were the sponsoring of the "Jolly Joker Casino," a dart game, at All Bangor Night, and the annual spring banquet at which outstanding seniors were awarded the Junior Classical League keys.

Student Council

The school year of 1953-54 has been a big one for the Student Council — full of money-making schemes that really paid off. The first of these was a rummage sale put on to finance a Bangor High handbook, which was edited by the National Honor Society. Encouraged by homeroom competition, students brought in everything from a big stuffed frog to ladies' dresses to make the sale a huge success.

Then came All-Bangor Night, that annual affair in which all school organizations take part, which more than lived up to its reputation. The entertainment was highlighted by "Hero, Save My Daughter!" a pantomime melodrama, put on by the faculty. All proceeds from All-Bangor Night went toward sponsoring a foreign student who will study in B. H. S. next year.

Faculty advisers this year were Miss Marian DuBourdieu and Mr. Richard Klain. Officers were Robert Thomas, president; Gene Carter, vice president; Bettylou Day, secretary; and Judith Kittredge, treasurer.

A Christmas party was held in December, at which everyone exchanged presents and joined in group singing.

At the January meeting, Mr. Bernard Clough of the IBM Company showed a film and explained the operation of the IBM machines.

At the March meeting, Miss Donna Holmes spoke on "Your Voice is You." She gave a demonstration of a recording machine. Also on that program was Mrs. Cassie Loud from the Eastern Beauty Academy, who gave a talk on good grooming.

During the year the group also enjoyed the opportunity of going through the telephone building.

The activities of the Spanish Club this year were numerous. Initiates were taken into the club at the November meeting. A Christmas party, planned with a Spanish theme, was a feature of the December meeting. In January, the club joined with the other two language clubs for the annual international meeting. Mrs. Kenneth Kaligian spoke to the members of both the Spanish and Library Clubs in February and showed slides of Spain. The Spanish and Library Clubs' booth received the prize at All-Bangor Night for the best booth, at which they sold homemade candy. A Spanish fortune teller and game were also a part of the All-Bangor Night Booth. Officers for the year were president, Suzanne Gildart; vice president, Gail Snow; secretary, Frances Zoidis; treasurer, Harold Wheeler. The adviser for the club is Miss Margaret Estes.

The Library Club, under the direction of Miss Paulene Dunn, held its first meeting in October. Officers of the club, elected at the final meeting last year, are president, Leslie Adkins; vice president, Elaine Murray; secretary, Jackie Russell; and treasurer, Ruth Sclair.

The club had a variety of entertaining and educational programs this year, including one in which Miss Marie Thibeau, teacher for the blind, demonstrated writing in Braille.

During "Book Week" the group planned an attractive display depicting a typical living room with a live model reading a book to carry out the theme "Reading is Fun."

At All-Bangor Night the Library Club and Spanish Club combined to create a booth selling homemade candy, and won first prize for the best booth.

Band

The 1953-54 Bangor High School Band consisted of two groups, the marching band and the concert band. The marching band, which accepted anyone who could play a band instrument, played at all the games, parades, and assemblies; the concert band was composed of people who had passed auditions with Mr. Thomas Hill, the director. This band gave its first performance at the annual Spring Concert for music groups on March 12.

The marching band, along with Brewer High School's band, spent an enjoyable and constructive day at the University of Maine in the fall, where they were guest players at the Maine vs. Vermont football game.

The entire band made a fine showing at the Eastern Maine Music Festival in Farmington, both in their audition and in the parade.

The Stetson Rifles made their first showing to the public in 1953-54 in the Armistice Day Parade. The team also performed at the Federal Inspection, during halftime of the Bangor-Berlin, New Hampshire basketball game, and formed a color guard for Senator Joseph McCarthy at his address in Bangor.

Alpha sent members to the Older Boys' Conference and the Model State Legislature. One of its members, Gene Carter, ran for governor of the Legislature.

Earle Webster and Robert Ginn were chosen to represent their club at the newly-organized Teens' Council, a planning board consisting of two members each from Alpha Hi-Y, Beta Hi-Y, Queen City Club, and Sub Deb Club.

At the first meeting of the year a new slate of officers was elected with Webster Clark as president, Charlie Taylor as vice president, and Roy Husson as secretary-treasurer. The B-Club presented a letter recognition assembly, at which certificates and sweaters were presented to letter winners. Late in the year the boys planned and carried out a very successful square dance at the High School. Part of the money earned at this dance was turned over to the foreign student fund.

Varsity Football

This year's Bangor High School football team was a good example of how a green team could be molded into a solid, smooth-working club in a few short weeks. Although the 1953 edition of the Rams did not have so impressive a record as some past clubs, with its 5-3 mark, it was certainly a credit to Bangor High.

The powerful 1952 Bangor club was hard hit by graduation; and as the '53 season opened, Coach "Cy" Perkins found himself in the unhappy position of having only two line holdovers, Charlie Barker, and Bob Legere. With these boys and backfield men Web Clark, Bill Daley, and Pete Taylor as a nucleus, Coach Perkins soon had a strong offensive ball club, with the addition of Vaughn Anthony, Jim Bartlett, Bob Ginn, Tom Larkin, Gordon Richardson, Paul Silsby, Russ Ware, and Ben Welch.

J. V. Football

Under the direction of Coach Bob Wells, the Bangor High J. V. football squad came through the 1953 season with a successful record of six wins and only one setback. The junior Rams opened the season by dropping the two junior highs. The M.C.I. Jayvees were the next to fall, followed closely by Old Town. Fifth Street went down to defeat on the Jayvee's only road game, but Old Town proved to be too much for Bangor and revenged an earlier defeat. This was the only blemish on the Jayvee record as they dumped Garland Street to round out the season on a winning note.

Many of the players showed great promise for the years to come. Captain Bill Hill led a strong line that was aided by Conrad Cleale, Jim Dean, Bob Morin, Don Thomas, Everett George, and Bob Zoidis. The back-field combination of Cal Johnson, Dick Drummond, Hal Ayer, and Wayne Holyoke broke wide open many a game for the Jayvees.

Cross Country

The Ram harriers of 1953 rolled up one of their best seasons in many years by showing a clean slate of victories in regular competition. In the opening meet Coach Vince Cuzzo's charges rolled up a perfect score of 15 points against Hartland and Carmel. In cross country scoring, the team with the fewest points wins. To gain a perfect score of 15, it is necessary for a team to place the first seven runners across the finish line before a single opponent.

Bangor then proceeded to romp over Old Town, took Lee and Ellsworth in a triangular meet, and then trampled the Maine Freshmen by a nearly perfect score. Leading a field of six in the Regional Meet, the Rams closed out the season by dropping Waterville and M. C. I. to the tune of 15 to 48 to 77, another perfect score.

Hampered by bad weather, the Bangor boys placed second to Houlton in the State Meet, their first loss of the season. They revenged this loss in the New England Meet at Boston as they were the first Maine team in the scoring.

The J. V. harriers also had but one blemish on their record, a close loss to Waterville in a triangular meet. Although the Rams will lose several brilliant lettermen this year, there are many fine prospects coming up. Gary Smith, outstanding veteran of two years, will captain the Rams in 1954, and Coach Vince Cuzzo is looking forward to another good season.

Varsity Basketball

Bangor High's basketball squad wound up the 1953-54 season with an excellent record of twelve victories against four losses and gained the sixth slot in the Eastern Maine Class L Tourney. Only three teams were able to beat the Rams this season, while Bangor took decisions from seven victims including double wins over six of the seven.

The Rams opened the season with a 66-56 loss to Old Town, but then took both games on the Aroostook trip—the first time in several years that this happened. The Rams lost to Stearns and also a five point thriller to unbeaten Ellsworth. They then went on a rampage and took ten of the remaining eleven games. That one loss was to Stearns while the wins were doubles against Brewer, Bapst, and Waterville and singles against Old Town, Presque Isle, Houlton, and Berlin, New Hampshire.

This streak carried the Rams into the Eastern Maine Tourney, where they met Old Town in the opener. It was the rubber game of the year for these two clubs and a thriller all the way. The Rams scalped the Indians 61-59 and went on to battle Ellsworth in the second. The Eagles took this one, overpowering the Rams 61-46.

So ended a highly successful year for the Rams. Their startling comeback in the first Ellsworth game to decrease a 21-point deficit to come within 5 points of winning, and the playing of a professional-looking Bangor team in the tourney opener against Old Town were among the high points of the season. The prospect for next year also looks bright for Coach Barry's Rams, as three of this year's starters along with six of the other members of the squad will return next year. Only Captain Dick Russell, Bob Thomas, and Stan Gass are departing, while Danny Drinon, Ronny Boynton, and Charlie Taylor, along with Bob Cimbollek, Bill Daley, John Graham, Alan Schiro, Paul Silsby, and Gunnar Van Aken will be back and should form a strong team for next year.

J. V. Basketball

The 1953-54 edition of the junior hardcourt Rams finished a good season with a mark of eight victories and six defeats.

The main purpose of the J. V. program, other than giving the boys a chance to play against good competition, is to develop material for the following year's varsity squad; and this year's squad produced several excellent prospects. Dave Carlisle, Bob Dudley, Everett George, Bob Morin, and Ziggy Zoidis all looked like good varsity material for next year.

Two of the best games of the year were against class S teams. The Rams dropped a close game to Deer Isle, a semi-finalist in the Eastern Maine Tourney, and in the season's wrap-up took an impressive victory from a strong Beal's team, a team which lost the Eastern Maine S final by only three points to the eventual state champ, Bridgewater.

Baseball

Bangor High's diamond nine started off the year in good form, but then faltered and fell, and at this writing the Rams have a record of two wins and four defeats.

Bangor's prospects for the year looked good at the start of the season. The Rams had returning starters at catcher, third base, and left and center fields. In addition there were several other men back who had seen some service, and a few good sophomores. The hitting and fielding seemed fairly solid; but there was one question mark, and that was pitching. Coach Barry had Ronnie Boynton, Bernie Stevenson, and Clint Van Aken back from last year's squad, but these men had seen only limited service; and they, along with sophomore Dave Carlisle, made up the entire mound staff.

These pitching worries seemed unfounded as the Rams chalked up victories in the two opening games. Ronnie Boynton got credit for both wins, starting against Stearns, and relieving against John Bapst. After these games, however, the Rams started to slide. They lost to Stearns and Ellsworth on successive days, and followed with a loss to Brewer.

Then Bangor dropped the playoff game to Ellsworth by a 9-2 count. At present, that's how it stands. Despite Bangor's record, the pitching has looked good in spots and a timely hit or fielding play could have turned defeat into victory on several occasions.

At the plate, center fielder "Punk" Kelley, a three-year veteran, has led the club with an average just short of .400. Charlie Taylor, the Rams' catcher and Connie Mullaney, the sophomore right fielder, have also come through with some timely blows.

Vaughn Anthony in right field, Jim Bartlett at first, Bill Daley at third, Danny Drinon at short, and Johnny Graham at second, make up the remainder of Bangor's starting nine. With only Anthony, Bartlett, Kelley, and Stevenson being seniors, next year's pastimers should really make themselves felt in local competition.

Third row: William Khoury, Glenn Barrons, Robert Drew, Clint Van Aken, Donald Thomas, Robert Marley, Michael Mueller, Kenneth Lane, Harold Wheeler, Jr., Manager.

Track

The Bangor High track squad closed out its 1954 regular season with one of the best records in recent years. The Rams went undefeated against high school competition, losing only to a pair of college freshman teams. From the way things have shaped up, Bangor is the favorite to take its first state title in many long years.

For the third straight year, the juniors walked off with top honors in the interclass competition. The seniors had to be content with second place, and the sophomores placed third.

The Colby freshmen proved too much for the Rams as they went down on the short end of a 65 to 51 score at Waterville.

Gass, Husson, Jordan, Lane, Pelkey, Silsby, Thomas, Ware, Webster and White all chipped in with wins as they dropped Skowhegan 88 to 29.

Next on the schedule was the Bates Relays where the Rams walked off with top honors with 44 $\frac{3}{4}$ points. The Rams scored in every event.

Even though the Rams lost to a strong Maine Frosh team, their second defeat, they swept the discus and shot put events.

Bangor's next wins were over M. C. I., Waterville, and Winslow. Bob Thomas set a new school record by high jumping 5 feet 8 $\frac{3}{8}$ inches in the Waterville-Winslow-Bangor meet. Thus the B. H. S. Cindermen, coached by Cy Perkins, finished one of the most successful track seasons in recent years.

New members were initiated at that time, and the seven inch chenille B given for three years of three sports at B. H. S., was awarded to Jeannette Bowles, Bettylou Day, Ruth Webb, and Jean Zoidis.

Other council activities included operating concession booth at football games, ushering at basketball games, running a booth at All Bangor Night, and carrying out the girls' athletic program, under the guidance of Miss Mildred McGuire. Officers for 1953-1954 were president, Kathleen Vickery; vice president, Bettylou Day; secretary, Cynthia Searles; and treasurer, Jean Zoidis.

Girls' Hockey

In their first season of play at B. H. S., the scrappy, spirited Sophomore Team defeated the upperclassmen in some close battles to become the proud possessors of the hockey trophy. Led by Captain Marie Ifill, and coached by Bettylou Day, Ruth Webb, and Jean Zoidis, the sophomores fought their way to victory. Members of this team of newcomers included: Captain Marie Ifill, Bonnie Bean, Ann Gallagher, Louise Getchell, Sonja Head, Judith Merrill, Gail Moran, Nancy Nickerson, Carol Stebbins, Ann Thibodeau, Nina Webster, and Martha Zoidis.

The seniors, with Bettylou Day, acting as captain, and Barbara Lindsay, as coach, were much improved from last year, and gave their opponents stiff competition.

Captain Irene Trundy and coaches Jeannette Bowles and Kathleen Vickery sparked the junior players, who showed a great deal of promise as a championship team.

Twenty-two juniors and seniors were named to the All Bangor Hockey Team. This honor is conferred upon the girls who have faithfully attended practice games for at least two seasons. The players and their positions are as follows:

when a hometown player drops in a long-shot, you don't ask him how he holds his hands . . . you just CHEER, and by the same token when Sears hands you high quality at lower prices, you just chuckle over the money you've got left in your pocket and let it go at that. Any quiz kid knows that it's purely a matter of Sears MASS PRODUCTION and Sears MASS DISTRIBUTION
Fire is hot . . . water is wet . . .
and just as obviously at Sears . . .

good quality costs less!
