SISTER CLAUDE MARIE BISHOP

(July 10, 1933 - April 29, 1972)

Look up, Look up,
There's a world beyond knowing,
The joys and the happiness that aren't even showing.
Tomorrow will break with the breaking of day,
Today and its burdens will be carried away.
So look up, look up,
To a world that's not showing.
It's a promise of beauty we aren't even knowing.

Ralph Parks '72

Each year it has become traditional for the graduating class to dedicate their yearbook to a person who has been both an inspiration and a guide throughout their maturing high school years. And so, in keeping with tradition, the class of '73 wishes to dedicate this yearbook to the memory of Sister Claude Marie.

Many years from now Sister will be remembered as the teacher whose greatest contribution to our class was that she believed in us as individuals, each possessing the unique capability to succeed in life. She will also remain in our memories as one of the most stubborn individuals any of us shall come across again.

Sister Claude Marie was a demanding person, a perfectionist both inside and outside the classroom, a fact which most times lead to resentment. Yet, it was this same driving spirit that pushed us on to discover our talents in all areas of life. Without Sister's extra push, many of us would have given up and become satisfied with ourselves as we were, instead of fighting to become the better people she believed we could be.

Sister Claude Marie once said that we were the class she had always searched for. With us she could become her real self, dropping all protective shields. She believed in a great, hidden potential within the limits of our class and she was determined to put that potential to work.

We now depart from the halls of John Bapst, leaving the following pages as a final testimony to the achievements of the class of 1973. It is with great sorrow to many of us as we go out into the world that Sister Claude Marie will no longer be there to push us on. We must now believe in ourselves as she once believed in us. We can only hope that in the years to come, when we have each found our vocations in life, we will be able to sit back with confidence, sure that Sister would have been proud of us, as would all those who likewise believed in the spirit of our class, taking pride in proving that their faith was not mislaid.

Tri-Captains: Steve Giles, Bob Quirk, Joe Roach.

Pre-season injuries seem to be becoming a part of the John Bapst football team. Key players for the last two years have sustained injuries and dampened some hopes at the beginning of the season. However, the Crusaders overcame their injuries and rebuilt hopes, as they "shut out" Messalonskee to open the season.

Despite two disappointments, Bapst proved to be contenders in the LTC. A fired up Crusader team, bled PURPLE as they challenged their opposition in the rain, mud, cold, and sometimes even sunshine...and WON!

Though the season ended on a sour note, five of "Badman Brennan's Boys" made All * Conference. They were: Mark Higgins (Quarterback), Steve Giles (Guard), Bob Rioux (End), Joe Roach (Center), Bob Quirk (Cornerback).

The '72 season proved to be an exciting one and at times heartbreaking. But to John Bapst, CRUSADERS will always be NUMBER ONE!!!

"Come on Tom, Let's go get 'em!"

Higgins rolls out.

WINTER TRACK

Winter Track had its first season at Bapst this year under Coaches O'Connell and Maley. The team, consisting of: Steve Hughes, Steve Giles, Tom Geaghan, Frank Soucy, Mark Morse, Dan Wellinton, Mike Sayko, Jeff Sawyer, John Moore, Bub Weymouth, Sid Massey--attended six meets taking home points every encounter. Meets were held against local area schools at the University of Maine, early Saturday mornings. Due to such great success and co-operation, Bapst can look forward to a better and hopefully bigger squad next year.

The Varsity Baseball team of 1972 showed vast improvements under the tutelage of Coach Brennan by compiling their first winning season in six years. Their 8-7 was good enough for third place in their division and running till the final week.

Prospects for the '73 season are excellent with seven seniors, Peter Dubay, Bob Quirk, Mike Lamson, Bob Rioux, Jim McInnis, Buddy McPherson, Dan Wellington, and junior Mark Higgins all returning.

The John Bapst Freshman Baseball team competed in the Eastern Maine Freshman league for the first time last season with a partial schedule. Although the team did not win any games it was felt that a great deal was gained. A number of boys on this team should go on to varsity competition. The team was composed of a number of eighth graders that should form a solid nucleus for the next season. The team score keepers were Mary Coughlin and Rachael White.

CRUSADER FIVE

Jerry Hayes
Junior Center

The 1972-1973 basketball team put together the finest season since the '68-'69 team. Under the leadership of new coach, Jesse Bedwell, the Crusaders compiled a 12-6 record which earned the fifth place in the final standings and a tournament spot.

Throughout the regular season the Crusaders won the pressure games when they needed them most. When it looked like we might not make the tournament, the Crusader five pulled off what might be the greatest single game effort ever by a Bapst basketball team. The starting five played every minute of the game with all of them scoring in double figures.

The team was led in scoring by senior guard, Bob Rioux. The board work was done by junior center, Jerry Hayes, and junior forward, Mark Higgins. The remaining two starters, Pete Dubay and Bob Quirk, accounted for themselves with their own excellent playing. Pete led the team in steals and had many double figure scoring nights. Bob Quirk was the floor general, always supplying the good pass for a basket and also scoring in streaks of hot shooting.

The John Bapst team played in the tournament this year for the first time since '68-'69. They played a good game and were on pretty even terms for three quarters before cold shooting finally caught up with them and the Penquis Patriots went on to win by nine points.

The team played a very good season and can be commended for their success. With six players coming back next year, the Crusaders should once again prove themselves strong contenders for Class B Tournament action.

This past winter, the John Bapst Junior Varsity showed a tremendous amount of encouraging potential for the future of John Bapst Basketball. Under the guidance of Coach Dan O'Connell this past season, these young men should prove to be part of another successful varsity season next year.

Under the new and exciting run, gun and crash the boards type of game at John Bapst, the Junior Varsity lived up to that type of game. Out of 18 games played 12 of them were decided in the last quarter with a 1 to 10 point spread being the deciding edge.

The young men who proved to be the success of the basketball building program are: centers, Pat Ryder and Charles Russell. Guards, Joe McInnis, Barry Russell, Joe Mullins, Mat Burke. Forwards, Craig Steeves, Rick Drinin, Bob Holyoke, Joe Gunn, Phil Thomas.

These devoted Junior Varsity players, the unclaimed sportsmen of John Bapst should be congratulated for their hard work. Also managers Mike Sayko, Kevin Hughes, and Jef Russell deserve credit for their long hours of hard work.

This past winter, the Freshmen Basketball team showed encouraging potential for a future John Bapst team. Under the guidance of Coach Onis Beaulieu, these men showed exactly what they could do and applied it to Beaulieu's system.

Even though the Freshmen hadn't scored many victories, the players still faced their opponents with John Bapst pride and sportsmanship. Coach Beaulieu has built a good foundation and hopefully all these men will continue to play for Bapst.

These devoted Freshmen players, the unacclaimed sportsmen of John Bapst, should be congratulated on their long hard work. Also Mike White deserved credit for his long hours of assistance to the team.

Members of the team are: J. Russell, W. Kenney, D. Russell, M. Williams, L. Hardy, K. Hughes, D. Inman, F. Brown, and B. Higgins.

Manager, Mike White.

Although it is an activity which is nearly forgotten throughout the school year, Girls Basketball is still very much a part of school life.

The team is composed of seven Freshmen, three Sophomores, and four Juniors. These girls have devoted their time and energy to the team as Coach Houlihan has.

Even though they have not won many games this season, they are building a strong foundation for a winning team next year.

To Miss Houlihan, "It's not if you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

WINTER CARNIVAL

'1973'

KING and QUEEN

Julie Russell and Mike Giles

This year the John Bapst Winter Carnival witnessed a revival of some sorts. Our Queen, Senior Julie Russell, was accompanied by her King, Senior Mike Giles, a tradition which has been laid aside in past years, and one which the Seniors were unable to resist.

The events of the Carnival week brought out of the woodwork the hidden talent of many students (some who would have been better off left hidden). We are, of course, referring to the class skits, an event the yearbook staff was unable to capture due to a few rolls of bad film.

The Freshmen, who put the most time and effort into the organization of their offerings, surrounded their skits around the theme of "Those Were the Days". Miss Carol Higgins appeared in the role of the typical nun in the typical classroom of yesterday.

The Sophomores and Juniors offered small skits featuring the Hippy dippy weatherman of Junior fame and David Evans as Rip Van Winkel.

The Senior skits were indeed a sight to behold. It was on that eventful night that we witnessed the theatrical debut of such unknowns as: Steve Hughes as Dorothy, Tim Dionne as the good fairy of the North and Tom Geaghan as Mayor of Munchkin land, in their adaptation of the Wizard of Oz. Later in the evening "Kitty Litter" Roach, "Wanita Moon" Geaghan, and "Rossita Stone" Higgins appeared as eligible young women in the Losers' Game.

All in all, the activities of the Winter Carnival provided both fun and entertainment to all who came. We of the yearbook staff once again wish to apologize for failing to successfully cover these momentous events.

Stone by stone. Built in an age, the mad wind's night- work, The frolic architecture of the snow.

FRESHMEN TALENT

Ma Higgins and Pa Bernatche settle down for an evening of memories.

Elvis swings again.

Pa Bernatche seems happy with daughter Kitty.

"Sweet Adeline..."

Freshman flappers flap away.

"I can't believe I'm really doing this?"

"Rock and roll is here to stay.."

"Hi ya there ladies and gents."

"No use in staying alone in your room..."

SOPHOMORE TALENT

Beatrice Vincze captures the attention of all with a Hungarian Folk dance.

Three talented Sophomores do their thing.

Rose Nelson kicks up her heels, while Mary Bernatche and Julie Winkler try to keep in step.

JUNIOR TALENT

It's only Joe Mullins clowning around again.

Only one of Patty Higgins many talents.

Charlie and Sue play a melody of blues.

"Let us entertain you..."

SENIORS TALENT

Senior art.

Testing S-E-N-I-O-R-S.

SENIOR CANDIDATES: Julie Russell and Mike Giles.

"I wanna go home..."

Shaky plays the piano as well as hockey?

Seniors look on as the underclassmen perform.

Bob and John play while the Seniors get the beat.

Who said smoking wasn't allowed in school?

"My body shirt just unsnapped!"

"Maley's distilled rum ain't bad."

The fans were in an uproar!

FACULTY

Casey sneers at the pitcher.

"Strike Five?!"

"For mighty Casey had struck out."

FOR OLD TIMES SAKES

"Peace-Grease".

"Mary & John hatch another idea.

Another Birdbrain deal?

Lots of T. L. C, make the classroom what it is.

"Why did you spill that coke on me?"

Welcome to Mr. Floyds Cont. Society Class College Bowl!

"But, Peggy, there's no water in the pool!"

The essence of Senior intelligence.

"What do you mean I'm strange?"

"That's alright fellas, I think you're sweet!"

"This sure is a fun class."

There is nothing to fear but fear itself... and Mr. Sekera.

"It's just been one of those days."

"We don't know what we're doing either."

"Only 49 days of school left."

A very promising sport at Bapst.

One of Ken Crabs better moods.

A jump between champion egg tossers Cindi Dauphinee and Ray McCann.

Colleen and Steve pose for the camera.

"You have to get into the mood for these things, you know."

HAPPINESS IS:

*The philosophy of faith:
Faith in ourselves;
Faith in others;
Faith in the ability of each person to improve and grow;
Faith in the desire and the capacity of human beings to work out their problems cooperatively;
Faith in the essential decency of man.*

"The advance of Spring Fever."

"99-100 Here I come ready or not. "

"Now listen up. "

"Here it comes! "

"Alright then don't speak! "

THE DISCOVERY

Is my part straight?"

Today I discovered a beam of light.
A warm welcome glow,
In a dark cold night.

Today I discovered a wonderful flower.
It made me feel good,
I had no will to power.

Today I discovered a way to mend,
The feeling of being alone.
Today I discovered a friend

Gloria Maher "73"

Another satisfied

"Now, Diane, we're not that bad!"

Rembrant's workshop?

AN IMPRESSION

Encompassed by a silent cry,
 Enumerated with a sigh,
 He tiredly throws back his head
 Upon his cold and empty bed.
 He dreamt the dreams of happy times,
 Of children singing runic rhymes.
 Closing his eyes unto the night,
 Asleep conquers his worldly sight.
 Six o'clock comes much too soon,
 He'd rather sleep 'till comes the noon;
 But time flies by, he must arise
 And face the day as a far cloud cries.
 He kindly gives to those who seek
 A comforting glance at the end of the week-
 And those who see him may not know,
 At the end of the day, where he wanderlingly goes.
 He goes where few can e'er be found-
 Into a place where thoughts abound.
 Then remembering that weeping willow,
 Once more he sinks into a dampened pillow...

THE MATCH

As I struck the match I thought to myself; What does this make me think of, what is it that is like this little match. And as I thought, it suddenly came to me what it was like.

It was like that of which we call puppy love. I lit the match again, and at first it flickered, then it burst into a beautiful flame of fire, only to slowly die out, and go completely cold. This was truly like puppy love. For at first the two meet and something inside of them flickers. But then as suddenly as the match had burst into proud flame, their "love" bursts into what they thought to be an indestructable flame. But as time goes on, the indestructable flame starts to die out, and then the warmth that each one shared, dies and goes completely cold, to be thrown away, never to be lighted again.

Again I lit another match, this time I compared it to life itself. Two forces come together to make one bright force. As the bright force goes on he builds his life. He knows that someday his life will burn out, but he also prays that no one will exterminate his precious rays of light, before that time comes. But one day some mean, misunderstood, lonely, unwanted person comes, and for his own joy he blows the living life out, and the young man is left in a cold unknown world, to be lost in darkness forever.

Mary Moore "73"

"Charlene, does mom know?"

Was it only four years ago?

"Look mom, no hands!"

But, Denise, Lunch is only 15 minutes away!

Sue is the bright spot of our day.

"That's alright. I was going to take a shower when I got home".

"Oh pooh, they're taking our picture."

No Smoking On School Grounds.

Time sure flies when you're having fun!

"I've never been drunk a day in my life!"

The Sophomores have a "frog", too.

"YOU would think it's funny!"

Three heads are better than one.

"How am I flakey, let Me count the ways..."

"Hi There!"

"Yuck!! Mayonaise!"

"I'm just naturally shy, that's all."

"I Told you not to put this picture in!"

"My brother is the dumb one."

"Don't I look cute?"

"Not egg salad again!"

Sweet contemplations of Mike.

WHITTY, HUGH FRANCIS

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

New England Telephone An equal opportunity employer

Sit down with us

Before you get married, buy a car, go to school, join the army, find a job or simply drop out, drop in at any office of the Merchants Bank and sit down with us for a minute. You're welcome at Merchants. And, we'd like to help you get started, no matter what you're going to do. We have savings accounts, checking accounts, loan accounts, Master Charge accounts — even Trust accounts for those most likely to succeed.

You're welcome at Merchants
