GLYNN & REYNOLDS, BOOKSELLERS and STATIONERS,

OF INTEREST TO ALL.

If there is a blessing to be prized above all others it is the enjoyment of perfect health; but this, unfortunately, under the influence of modern civilization, is the exception rather than the rule. Late hours, irregularity of habits, excess in eating and drinking, the indulgence in the use of improper articles of food and drink, and at equally improper occasions, together with unwholesome air and lack of sufficient exercise, form the basis of nearly all the ills that the human body is heir to. And all these ills can be traced, directly or indirectly, to the impoverished condition of the blood, and for the cure of which we don't imagine there is a remedy in the market possessing more sterling curative properties than the True "L. F." Atwood's Bitters. This is an old and standard remedy, known as one of the greatest blood purifiers ever invented, and in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness, kidney complaints, headache, loss of appetite, general debility, etc., its effects will be far beyond the expectations of the user. This truly wonderful medicine enriches and strengthens the blood, gives tone and vigor to the whole system, and the glow of health, elastic step and buoyant spirits give ample evidence of its beneficial effects. Owing to the great success these bitters have had since their introduction to the public, the make-up, label, etc., have been counterfeited by unprincipled parties, hoping to deceive innocent buyers, therefore we caution all of our readers who desire to procure the right article, to be sure and observe the copyrighted label and patented trade-mark "L. F." which will be found on the true bitters. All others are frauds, with none of the great and beneficial effects to be obtained from the use of the true article.—Portland paper.

The following figures show the large increase of names since our last edition :
