ORACLE 70

I celebrate myself and sing myself,
And what I assume you shall assume,
For every atom belonging to me as well belongs to you.
I loaf and invite my soul; I / / I / /
I lean and loaf at my ease observing a spear of summer grass.

Dana M. Simmons

After eleven years as principal of Bangor High School, Mr. Simmons is retiring this June.

Coming from Rumford, Maine in the summer of 1959, he became the principal of Bangor High School when the school was on double sessions at Harlow Street. Five years later the new school was built and the single session was re-established.

Through his guidance, Bangor High School has grown to its present proportions and status where students are proud to be graduates. In the fall of 1968, with the best interests of the students in mind, Mr. Simmons initiated and introduced to the faculty and students a new approach toward education – the Model Schools program.

We, the student body, wish to express our thanks to Mr. Simmons and wish him many happy years of retirement.

MODEL SCHOOLS PROGRAM

The 1970's have been described by many as the "decade of change." We are told that we can expect these changes to make themselves known in every facet of our lives. In order to continue to achieve its objectives of an educated populace, education in our schools must also change. Our educational system must meet the needs of the student body, and this education must be meaningful to the students that it serves. In September, 1970, Bangor High School will make an attempt to meet the needs of her students. A student is going to be offered a new and totally different learning experience. Instead of being a member of a class exposed five periods a day, five days a week, to whatever is prepared for the rest of the class, he himself is the focal point. Whatever he achieves begins with him. Whatever learning is accomplished is not accomplished by a class in which the individual student may or may not be an active participating member; it is accomplished by the student doing his own reading, making his own experiments, completing his own projects, and taking his own tests at his own pace.

Informing incoming freshmen of MSP

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL

Steve Coutts, Sr. Class Pres.

The seniors of 1970 have created a new kind of spirit at BHS sparked by vitality, determination, and creation of new ideas. Led by diligent and determined officers, the Senior Class Council guided us through an exciting and memorable year.

Beth Wood, Sec; Ted McClellan, treas.; Bob MacMannis, V. Pres.

The Class of 1970 is a very outgoing class with many members participating in numerous activities. Seniors express their talent in various sports, dramatics, and music. Many have also displayed their academic achievements by being selected as All Bangor Scholars and National Honor Society Members. A.F.S., Student Council, and Yearbook have provided our seniors with an indepth look into our school.

Junior Class Council

The Junior Class Council members hope all of you had a good 69-70 year at Bangor High School, and wish for your great success in this young decade.

Our first major event was our Winter Carnival; "Frosted Fantasy". Due to lack of snow, the outside events had to be canceled, but the indoor activities proved to be a success. The highlight of the day was the dance that night featuring the Bob River Band, which was concluded with the crowning of Scott Ames and Cindy Strout as King and Queen.

Pres. Jeff Hammond, Treas. Denise Gass, Sec. Beth Snyder, Vice-Pres. Arthur Newhall.

SOPHOMORE

CLASS OF '72

Despite the slow start the sophomores had this year, the class council was confident that the sophomores would "come on strong" and have a great year. Even the upperclassmen scorns didn't keep the sophomores from joining the football, basketball, cross country, chorus, and other important school organizations. If we keep producing, this could be the greatest class.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Brit Svoboda
Student Council President

The Student Council is the center of all the student body's activities. Through working together on various committees the members learn the true meaning of accepting responsibilities and learning to lead. The ultimate goal, however, is to get the student body involved. The council's success has depended upon the enthusiasm and cooperation of the students and faculty.

SCIENCE SEMINAR SOCIETY

The Seminar Society is a group attempting to bring new ideas and concepts to the surface which heretofore would not have been discussed. No restrictions are placed on student "imagineering" in the belief that today's thoughts become tomorrow's reality. The club has been involved in a continuing research study of aquatic biology with one group specializing in marine biology at a coastal site while the other is doing a systematic study of a nearby fresh water pond. This is a club that is going places and doing things, managing to come out a little more knowledgeable, a little more open-minded, and a little more free.

FTA

Under the guidance of Mrs. Charlotte Haskell, the FTA Club meets on the second Wednesday of every month in the library. The purpose of this club is to increase interest in, and to become better acquainted with, the teaching profession.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross country was started at Bangor High in the fall of 1938. Only a few boys made up this first squad. Since then, the squads have grown to 30 or 35 boys annually. Cross country running requires a combination of courage, desire and stamina. The usual distance that the runners cover is about two and one-half miles and is run in about fourteen minutes.

The 1969 squad started its season in fine style with four lettermen and a few experienced runners. Bangor won its first four meets this past fall and then had to settle for a second or third in the next 7 multiple team meets. It qualified for the state meet and finished in eleventh place among an original field of 32 class "L" schools.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Mr. Woodcock, Dept. Head

Mr. Abbott

The English teachers envision a new English program that will divide the content material into various specialty courses, many of which will be offered on an elective basis. In addition, the future will see an English program in which the student will become more individually engaged in the process; i.e., he will more and more be called upon to learn by DOING, rather than merely by listening.

As this would indicate, the English teacher at Bangor High will find himself playing a markedly different role in the future. Planning for an adjustment to this new role has required this year and will require in the future much individual and group effort. Hopefully, the "new look" that emerges will be embodied in a program that will better meet the needs of tomorrow's citizens.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

The Hallowed Halls of B.H.S.
are echoing this year –
And down the ramps to B-wing
this is what you hear –
“Have you done the unipac on cells?”
“I’ll take the test today!” –
“I really dig the way we learn
in this exciting way.”
That unipac in chemistry was something really great
we haven’t blown the lab up yet
but still it’s not too late –
I just let loose my guinea pig;
She’s going to have a ball
Did you see my little hamster
running down the hall?
And so it goes, the whole day thru
exciting things take place
When you take the ramp to B-wing
where Science rules the race –
To really be a part of this course
join the happy scene–
Sign up next year and
you’ll find out, excitement is our theme.

Excitement, change and involvement is the central guiding light of the science department this year. In this, the year before MSP, the science department has been experimenting in many fields in an attempt to make it easier and more practical to switch next year.

This is the place to come if you are interested in any phase of science and with the new program being offered and departures being made from the traditional classroom. It could well mean you might be lost in B – wing for a week.

This has been a year for change, it has been a year in which, we in the science department have evaluated our progress and made attempts to more students involved in more projects because they want to, not because they are forced to.

So we offer all you who choose
a choice to really shine.
Come join the crowds
who made the choice
Who knows what you will find?
At least don’t let the ugly doubts
that you may entertain
keep you from our B-wing ramp
Come join our little game

The Social Studies Department for the school year 1969-1970, has been experimenting with a variety of approaches to education. The decision to experiment preceded the Model School's Program, however as the year progressed, the activities were designed to lead up to it. The essence of this year of experimentation; first, a change in approach toward the material — last year it meant mastery of facts, this year understanding concepts and analytical skills development; second, a change in approach to the use of student class time — last year it meant class five times a week, this year large group motivational presentations, small group discussions, audio-visual presentations, and directed study but individually done.

PRACTICAL ARTS

The Practical Arts Course is a work study course for students who plan to go to work upon their graduation from high school. The course is planned so that the students may earn the academic credits necessary for graduation and at the same time receive experience in the work world. To accomplish this, the sophomores take a full course of study in Grade ten. Juniors spend part of each school day employed in the school in various job capacities. For this work they receive a regular hourly wage. Seniors are in class only two periods a day and the remainder of each day is spent working in the community. When an employer asks a graduate of the PRA course, "Have you had any experience?", our students can reply, "Yes!"

THE LIBRARY

Mrs. Henderson

The library is one of the most popular rooms in the school. Students frequent it to read magazines, work on research papers, check out books, study and socialize. The librarians, Miss Pauline Dunn and Mrs. Mary Ann Henderson, are always ready to answer questions or help a puzzled student. The Bangor Public Library supplies the school with 15,000 books, plus many magazines.

PEOPLE WE NEED

The Cafeteria staff provides hot, nourishing lunches. Those who prefer a cold lunch are able to take advantage of the wide selection provided in the a la carte line.

Through all hours of the busy school day and sometimes at night, you may stroll around the school and see the custodians cleaning desks, walls, and floors in the building or outside the building performing the work necessary to keep the trees and grounds surrounding the school beautiful.

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste and learn what peace there may be in silence.
. . . Speak your truth quietly and clearly;
and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant;
they, too, have their story.
. . . If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter:
For always there will be greater and lesser
persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.
Keep interested in your career, however humble;
it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery.
But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection.
Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Senior Thesis

I. Thoughts about the hereafter

(or . . . Is there a life after graduation?)

Seriously, graduation isn't the end, you know. It's just the beginning. And it could be the beginning of one of the most challenging and fulfilling times of your life. At New England Telephone.

It could be, that is, if you want a job with a challenge as big as your ambition. We need people at New England Telephone — all kinds. People who are sincerely interested in the future.

And who are looking for more from their job than just work!

Your starting salary is good and you get automatic raises.

You don't need experience! Your advancement is tailored to your talents. And you get excellent fringe benefits.

II. See your Guidance Counselor

She'll tell you when and where you can apply for an interview to find out what the "hereafter's" like at

Do you want your son to grow up to be a shake man?

Shake man. Window man. Wrap man. Grill man. Bun man. These are some of the jobs filled by the 21-thousand high school and college men who work full or part-time for McDonald's. Working as a skilled team, these young men make and sell an incredible nearly 2 million hamburgers every day, not to mention shakes and fish sandwiches and orders of French Fries numbering in the hundreds of thousands.

We don't know if the skills learned by the young men will help them become better doctors and lawyers—although their association with McDonald's certainly has some bearing on their ability to pursue professional careers in the first place. The fact may be that a good bun man makes a better doctor than a non-bun man. Who knows? Then again, maybe some of the young men will become McDonald's operators, even owners. Whatever happens, it's a leadpipe cinch that being able to make a good hamburger never hurt anyone.

McDonald's[®] is your kind of place.
