FOREWORD

"Better to be small and shine
Than large and cast a shadow."

Meet Joe Sharpe, a familiar figure at Bangor High School. He's the kind of person that people call a "good kid" or a "nice guy." Joe turns up at All Bangor Nite, goes to all the games, and gets his homework done most of the time. Once he was a Student Council representative.

Joe's not an athletic hero, class president, nor a top scholar; but he is the manager of the football team. His friends can count on him to help them struggle through Junior Ex. and to lend them a dime when they're down to their last four cents.

Joe "shines" with his own individuality. He and other students like him are the ones who really make up a high school class.

"I'm Joe Sharpe, Bangor High School student. The Oracle Staff has used parts of my scrapbook to introduce various sections of the yearbook. I've spent three years at B. H. S. and it has certainly been busy and interesting . . . as well as educational!"

Dick Shaw picks up a tip from the Coach as Whit Russell watches team progress.

Mr. Cuozzo offers a little advice on Joe Raymond's drawing.

MR. CUOZZO AT WORK

Mr. Gerald Covert "talks track" with Coach Cuozzo.

Mr. Cuozzo's boys hear from Mr. Perkins that the clock beat them around the track.

Joking with the team, the Coach displays a broad grin.

G. VINCENT CUOZZO

DEDICATION

The one hundredth victory of G. Vincent Cuozzo's cross-country team in the fall of 1960 was a milestone in a long, dedicated teaching career. For fifteen years, spurred on by his warm encouragement and enthusiasm, Mr. Cuozzo's track and cross-country teams have won meets against stiff competition.

After graduating from B.H.S., Mr. Cuozzo became a track star during his four years at the University of Maine. There he received his B.S. degree in mechanical engineering and his Master's degree in Education. In 1939 he joined the faculty of B.H.S., teaching mechanical drawing. His teaching career, however, was interrupted by his term of service in the Air Force during World War II. Returning to Bangor High, he began his work with the cross-country team.

After seventeen years of service, G. Vincent Cuozzo holds the position of acting head of the Industrial Arts and Home Economics Department. His drafting students have won statewide awards. Two years ago, he instituted a special class in mechanical drawing for seniors. In 1960 Mr. Cuozzo represented Bangor Schools at the Technifax Corporation Seminar, whose purpose was to promote visual education.

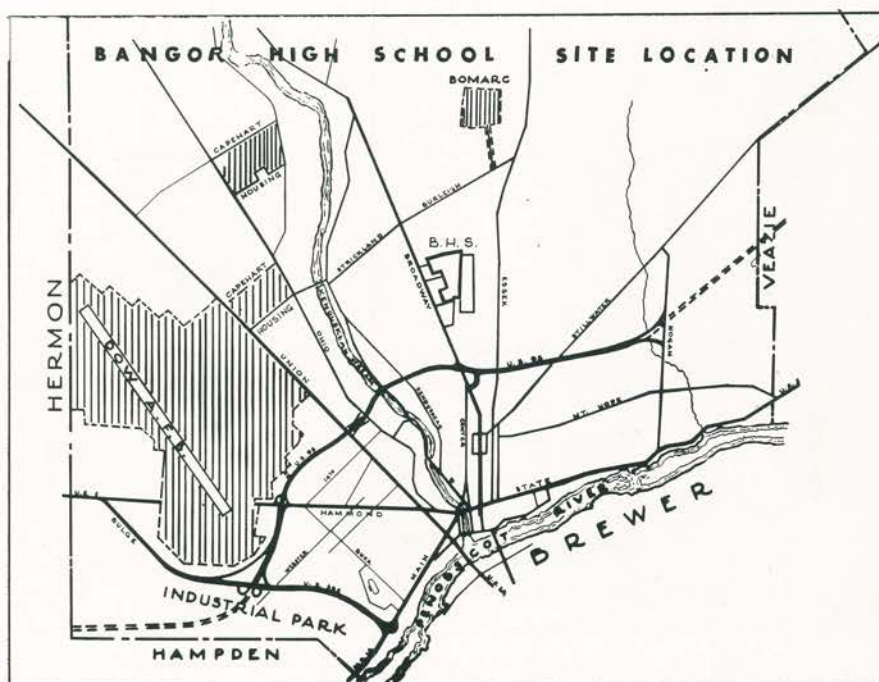

To you, Mr. Cuozzo, because of your unflagging efforts both in sports and in the classroom, we dedicate the 1961 Oracle.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE BOARD

The American Field Service Board was organized under the guidance of Mrs. Mildred Judy. Mr. Perham Amsden, Student Council adviser, also gave a helping hand. The student chairman was Jane Dunn.

Among the activities of the A.F.S. Board was an assembly starring students from the Board. At this assembly, Gerardo Bogarin, popular exchange student from Costa Rica, spoke to the student body for the first time.

A tag day was held in the spring. Student volunteers collected approximately six hundred dollars so that B.H.S. can defray the expenses of a foreign exchange student next year.

The Board tried to follow the A.F.S. motto, "Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the land; then, and only then, shall ye have peace."

GERARDO BOGARIN

Gerardo always finds time to entertain the youngest of his American family, Mary Kellogg.

Gerardo Bogarin, the quiet mannered senior from Costa Rica, made his home with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kellogg and family. Studying hard to overcome the language barrier, he averaged "B" work in his classes. As he understood the language better, he became closer to everyone at B.H.S.

In sports, Gerardo has a natural skill for running, but, because he was not used to a cold climate, he encountered difficulty on the cross country team. However, he braved the elements to become an enthusiastic skier. He quickly developed a spectator interest in football and basketball games where he was seen sporting his Alpha Hi-Y jacket.

Gerardo's stay in Bangor served a two-fold purpose. He not only gained appreciation for a different way of life, but he also taught his friends much about his own country, giving them a deeper respect for their Latin American neighbors.

Gerardo faces the camera with Jane Dunn, student chairman of A.F.S., and Mrs. Mildred Judy, faculty adviser.

SENIOR COUNCIL

The newly formed Senior Council is made up of representatives from each senior homeroom and is headed by the Senior Class Officers. The advisers to the Council are Miss Nancy Gentile and Mr. Robert Foster.

The Council sponsored a record hop for the Senior Class to help defray costs of graduation. In this way the members hoped to eliminate the need for class dues.

Councilmen assist the treasurer in the collection of money for graduation caps and gowns and serve on various committees for graduation.

"Haveyng a good time," Al McClure and Linda Havey add to the success of the Senior Council Dance.

SENIOR PLAY

Was Karen Andre innocent or guilty? That was the question in everyone's mind at the presentation of Bangor High's Senior Play, "The Night of January 16th."

This play was different from most theatrical murder trials in that the jury was chosen from the audience, and the witnesses were seated in various places throughout the audience.

Karen Andre, the defendant, was found "not guilty" at the first performance and "guilty" at the second.

The members of the cast were Fred Allen, John Bragg, Jon Dauphinee, Stephen Gottlieb, Sally Higgins, Bruce Hutchinson, Lois Ingeneri, George Parke, Robert Peters, Fred Pierce, William Shubert, Susan Stone, Helen Trowbridge, and Yvonne Westbrook. Those having non-speaking parts were Angela Aloupis, Louis Bohan, Jane Dunn, Linda Havey, Roger Lothrop, Neil Martin, and David Titus.

"Where were YOU the night of January 16th?" Fred Allen demands of Bonnie Silver.

ORACLE (ART)

B. H. S. SCHOLARS

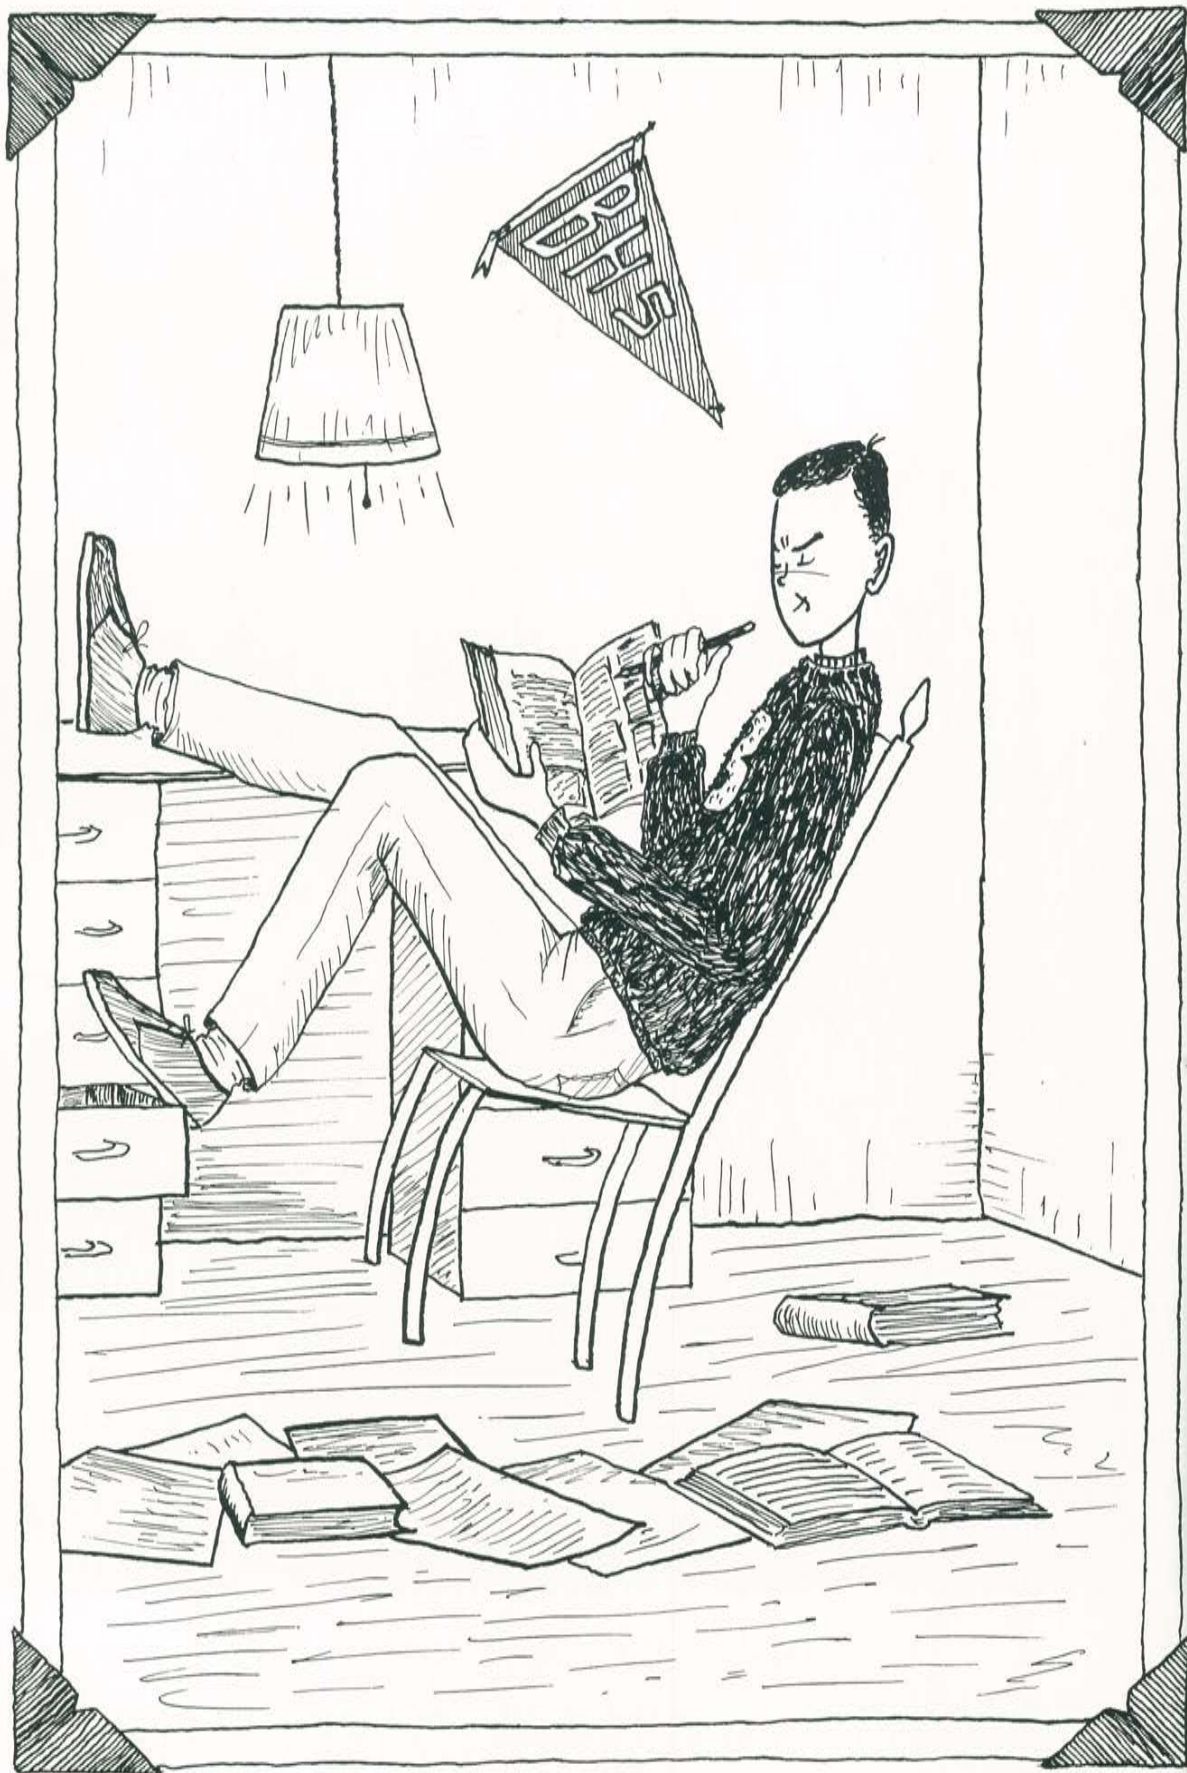

Top to Bottom: Theodore Jellison, Charles Varney, Barbara Snow, Nancy Pearson, Lynda Gaillard, Pamela Trojanoski, Crystal Mayo, Toby Slep, Helen Trowbridge.

Being named a Bangor High School Scholar is the highest honor in scholarship that B.H.S. awards. To win this honor, a student must receive a rank of 85 or better in every major subject for five consecutive semesters. A very small percentage of the graduating class ever reaches the status of B.H.S. Scholars. Those who were successful this year were Lynda Gaillard, Theodore Jellison, Crystal Mayo, Nancy Pearson, Toby Slep, Barbara Snow, Helen Trowbridge, Pamela Trojanoski, Charles Varney.

MISS BANGOR-BREWER

UNDER CLASSMEN

"I must say that there were times when I wondered if I would ever graduate, but I finally decided that school wasn't so bad after all, and I should just relax and enjoy it."

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Class of "62" could be labeled "The Class Most Likely to Succeed." Chosen as Junior Class officers were Whitfield Russell, president; Kathryn Kazmierczak, vice-president; Sandra Larlee, secretary; and Elizabeth Trowbridge, treasurer.

A junior girls' basketball team tied for first place with two sophomore teams. The players on the junior team were captain Carolyn Bacon, Judith Drummond, Shanna Gillespie, Sandra Larlee, Maureen Leach, Kathryn Little, Joan Melin, Eileen O'Brien, and Joan Stowers. The coaches were Pamela Perkins and Geraldine Simpson.

Joan Melin and Joan Raymond were initiated into the Girls' Athletic Honor Council.

The Class did an excellent job on Junior Exhibition night. The Exhibition speakers were Marie Adams, Andrea Eaton, Jeffrey Gass, Miles Horner, Donald McLemore, Paul O'Brien, Jane Silver, Jordan Shubert, Elizabeth Trowbridge, and Sheldon White.

The two junior actors who participated in the award winning One Act Play were Donald McLemore and Alan Sollien. Mary Bamford, Rebecca Benoit, and Pamela Barrows helped with the costumes; and Elizabeth Trowbridge and Jeffrey Gass did the set design.

Four girls—Andrea Eaton, Beth Fellows, Sandra Larlee, and Marjorie Todtman—were selected to attend Dirigo Girls' State. Their alternates were Miles Horner, Eileen O'Brien, Janet Robertson, and Jane Silver.

Boys chosen to attend Dirigo Boys' State were Whitfield Russell, Jordan Shubert, Paul Smith, David Staples, and Sheldon White.

Junior members of the Debate Club were Randolph Ayoub, Charles Brown, and Richard Chady. Charles Brown and Henry Goodstein won honors by tying for first place with Old Town in the John Bapst Novice Debate Tournament.

Steven Godsoe, Paul Newman, Leroy Patterson, William Pidgeon, John Predaris, Whitfield Russell, James Smith, Ronald Stratton, and Gordon Titcomb all played on the B.H.S. Varsity Basketball team.

Chosen to sing in the All State Chorus were Mark Kinney, Peggy Nason, Eric Stover, and Robert Wetzler. Peter Fergus, James Greene, Eileen Grossman, Anne Lewis, May McChesney, Nancy McKinney, Marjorie Todtman, and Cheryl Weymouth were members of the group chosen to represent B.H.S. in the All State Band and Orchestra.

Prominent members of the R.O.T.C. were Richard Leland, Donald McLemore, and Robert Mills. Wayne Hanson and Carl Morrison competed in meets with the Boys' Rifle Team.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Once again the class of "63" elected Charles Kelley as President. They also elected John Pilgrim, vice-president; Priscilla O'Brien, secretary; and Richard Frye, treasurer.

A large number of sophomores were chosen to participate in the All-State Festival. Representing B.H.S. at Madison were Joellyn Cohen, Gretchen Goodwin, Judith Higgins, and Sandra London, orchestra; Frances Brountas, Colleen Geagan, Stana Goddard, and Shirley Gotlieb, chorus; and Austin Griffin, band.

Jill Barry, sophomore March of Dimes Queen, was chosen captain of the J.V. Cheerleaders; Joellyn Cohen and Faye Mixer were chosen as substitute Varsity Cheerleaders.

Carol Larlee and Andrea Libby were invited to become members of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council. The girls were initiated during an assembly which explained the aims of the Council.

A lively year for girls' basketball was climaxed when two sophomore teams tied with one junior team for first place. The three teams each won four games and lost one. Members of the sophomore Red team were Captain Carol Larlee, Judith Higgins, Judith Kellogg, Rachel Lait, Barbara McEvoy, Karen McGuire, Sandra Olson, and Jane Rice. Sharon Dauphinee was the coach. Members of the rival White team were Captain Donna Pfeifer, Ann Cole, Rebecca Connor, Leslie Fitzpatrick, Earleen Leighton, Andrea Libby, Evelyn Modery, and Lorraine Rollins. Their coaches were Barbara Furrow and Carolyn Mower.

Sophomore novice debaters were William Bianchini, Ann Dresner, Nancy Edwards, Henry Goodstein, Laurie Hunt, Darby Larkin, and Gail Segal. Nancy Edwards and Darby Larkin won honors at the John Bapst Novice Debate Tournament.

Henry Goodstein attended the University of Maine Speech Festival, and Charles Kelley conducted an assembly for the band.

Members of the Rifle Team were Ronald Goddard, Calvin Knaide, Anthony Neves, Robert Patterson, Richard Pearson, and Michael Runnells.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman Class has had many activities and has accomplished much in its first year at Bangor High School.

It was led by four able officers: President Jeri Brown, Vice-President James Brickel, Secretary Jennifer DeLaCruz, and Treasurer Sally Stewart. These four worked well with their adviser, Mr. Gerald Ballinger, in managing class affairs and organizing activities.

The Class sponsored a "Sadie Hawkins" Dance held in April in the school auditorium. The "L'il Abner" theme was carried through with decorations of "Dogpatch" characters.

Many freshmen students have contributed considerable time to the Music Department. The Freshman Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, practiced regularly on Monday mornings. The chorus presented the Christmas concert in December and sang in the Freshman Talent Assembly in May. They also participated in the All-City Music Festival held at the Bangor auditorium in May. The six freshmen composing the Girls' Double Trio were Cynthia Hathaway and Marguerite Mabee, sopranos; Myrna Eastman and Jeri Brown, second sopranos; and Beverly Kronus and Marsha

Warren, altos. Five talented students were elected to attend the All-State Music Festival. Richard Sawyer was a member of the chorus and Marguerite Mabee, Diana Royce, William Shepard, and Susan Shubert played in the orchestra.

The Student Council representatives were Jeri Brown, Daniel Fields, Beverly Kronus, Elizabeth Mincher, Sally Stewart, and Stephanie Winkeller.

The Freshman Basketball Team brought laurels to their class this season. The boys, coached by Mr. Roger Miles, defeated the skillful Brewer team to win the Eastern Maine Freshman League Basketball Championship. The five starters were Rod Watson, James Richards, Brian O'Donnell, Paul MacLeod, and Thomas Bohan. The whole team played hard and won a handsome trophy to add to the B.H.S. trophy case.

The Freshman Cheerleaders were a vigorous group of six girls with enough school spirit for sixteen. They made their own uniforms and cheered the basketball team at many games. The girls were Captain Anne Godfrey, Donna Ayer, Jennifer DeLaCruz, Myrna Eastman, Cynthia Hathaway, and Cynthia Johnson.

The Freshman Football team had great school spirit and should be congratulated for its fine effort.

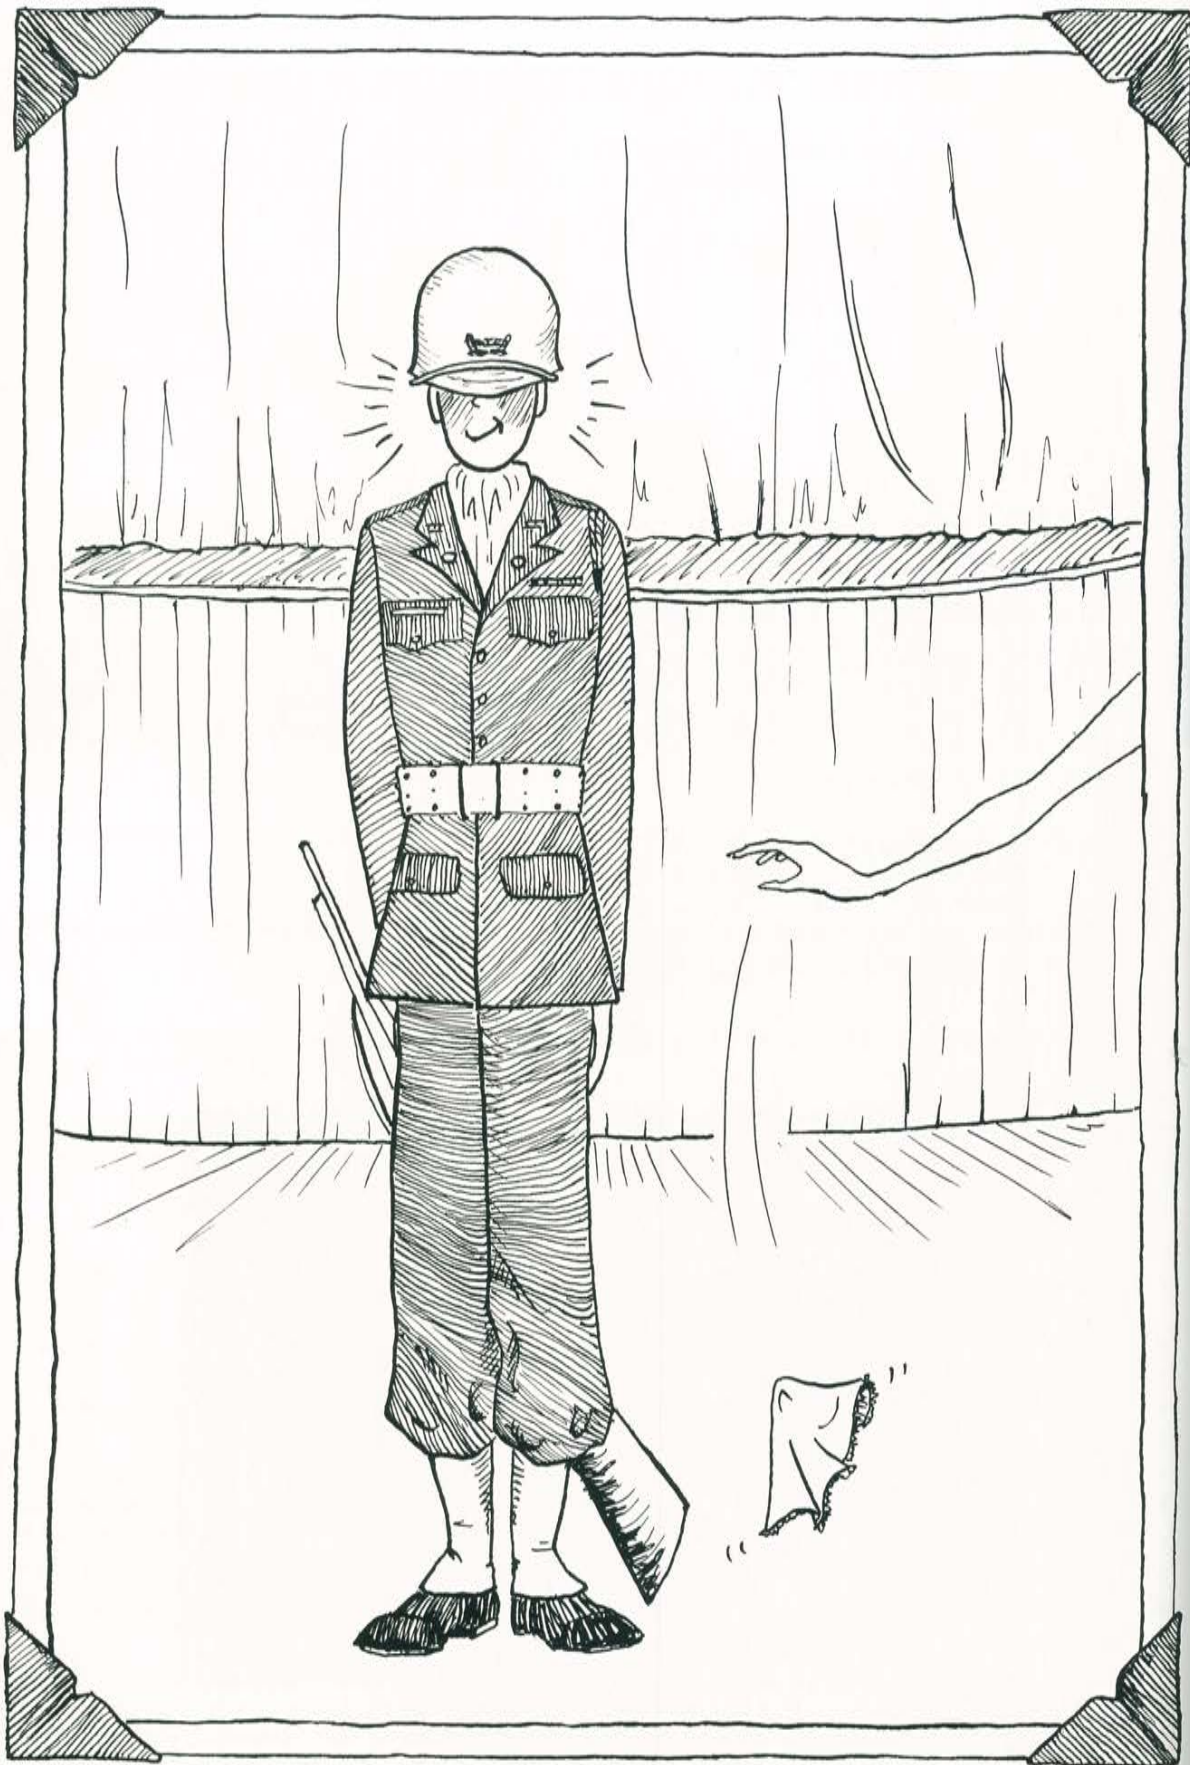

Track and baseball were spring sports. The coaches discovered some new athletic possibilities from these games.

A brown-haired, blue-eyed freshman represented her class as the candidate for "March of Dimes Queen." She was pretty Elizabeth Mincher.

The Class has been busy and resourceful in spite of the topsy-turvy school hours. They will be welcomed to the morning session next year.

ACTIVITIES

"Some clubs went out with the old schedule, but I certainly have not been at a loss for things to do! My school life has been so filled with practices, meetings, and rehearsals that it was hard to find enough time to sleep and study. I enjoyed the extra-curricular activities, though, and I even managed to learn something new in the bargain!"

Pamela Trojanoski, William Shubert, and Crystal Mayo deliver a sneak preview of a Valentine sing-o-gram.

The Bangor High School Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1930. Members must possess qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, and must maintain an average rank of 85 or better. Initiation of members takes place at an annual assembly held in May.

As a project this year, the Society welcomed newcomers to Bangor High School by showing them around the school. On Valentine's Day, the Society delivered valentines and sing-o-grams to the students and teachers in their homerooms.

The officers of the National Honor Society were Helen Trowbridge, president; Toby Slep, vice-president; Alan McClure, secretary; and Pamela Trojanoski, treasurer. Members were Lynda Gaillard, Sally Higgins, Theodore Jellison, Crystal Mayo, Jeanne Noyes, Nancy Pearson, William Shubert, Mary Swenson, and Daniel Wightman.

 Third row: Stephanie Winkeller, Sally Stewart, Jill Barry, Kathy Kazmierczak, Carol Larlee, Elizabeth Trowbridge, Joellyn Cohen, Jeri Brown, Beverly Kronus.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of President Neil Martin the Student Council has had a busy year. Council-sponsored record hops were much more successful this year than ever before.

The Council voted to help clubs who have little or no money when their members want to take trips for competition with other schools.

A survey of the popularity of dress-up days was taken. Since the student body voted to continue them, the Council decided to make the last Friday in every month official dress-up day.

Bangor High was well represented at the Student Council Convention in Blue Hill. Nine delegates attended. They were Lynda Gaillard, Neil Martin, and Alan McClure, seniors; Robert Mills and Jordan Shubert, juniors; Jane Gaillard, sophomore; and Daniel Fields, Sally Stewart, and Dolores Pearson, freshmen.

All Bangor Nite was held in May. Over fifteen groups participated, helping to make the evening a success.

Officers were Neil Martin, president; Robert Mills, vice-president; Lois Ingeneri, secretary; and Jane Dunn, treasurer.

President Martin conducts a weekly Student Council meeting.

SPEECH-DRAMA

SPEECH DRAMA SPEAKERS

Left to right: Yvonne Westbrook, Jane Dunn, Fred Allen, Judith Smith, Suzanne Stone.

B.H.S. speakers and actors, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Browne, won more acclaim. In November, the Senior Class produced the court-room drama, "The Night of January 16." Later in the season Yvonne Westbrook brought honors to the school by winning the Sleepers' Talent Contest, which offered a scholarship of eight hundred dollars. In the State-wide "Voice of Democracy" Contest, Suzanne Stone took second place with an original essay. Sue was also runner-up in the Girls' Division of the Spear Speaking Contest. In the Boys' Division, Fred Allen won first place and represented Bangor in the State Finals. Seven students participated in the Maine Speech Festival held at the University of Maine. They were Fred Allen, Charles Brown, Jane Dunn, Henry Goodstein, Susan McGinley, Suzanne Stone, and Elizabeth Trowbridge.

The Speech Drama Department also presented assemblies at the high school and at Garland Street Junior High School and provided programs for numerous clubs in the Bangor area.

At the Maine Speech Festival, Bangor High School students won more superior ratings than any other competing school. Students who won gold medals for superior ratings were Susan McGinley, poetry reading; Elizabeth Trowbridge, humorous reading; Suzanne Stone, serious reading; and Fred Allen, oratory.

Fred Allen won the top honor in the boys' division of the State Spear Speaking contest.

ONE ACT PLAY

This started out as a card game!

The Cast and Crew of the one-act play, Gigi, had an extremely rewarding year. After winning the Sectional Competition at Brewer, the play went to the Regional Competition at Millinocket. Winning this contest gave the cast a chance to compete in the State Finals at Bowdoin College, where they were awarded second place.

At the State Finals, the play was one of two chosen to represent Maine in the New England Drama Festival held in Newton, Massachusetts.

At this contest the play received the highest rating and Lois Ingeneri was chosen an All New England actress.

The members of the Gigi cast were Fred Allen, Lois Ingeneri, Donald McLemore, Bernice Silver, Norma Smith, and Alan Sollien.

The members of the backstage crew, which was directed by Susan McGinley, were Mary Bamford, Pamela Barrows, Rebecca Benoit, Diane Cuozzo, Jeffrey Gass, Beverly Harri- man, Richard Naugler, Robert Peters, Elizabeth Trowbridge, and Helen Trowbridge.

Poor Aunt Alicia has another one of her headaches!

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Second row: Mr. Robert Jones, Darby Larkin, Georgianna Ellis, Francis Brountas, Jane Hassen, Jane Harri- man, Elizabeth Buckley, Karen McGuire, Barbara Mandlebaum, Milton Richardson, Miss Ruth Belknap.

Third row: Priscilla Fernald, Ann Cole, Rachel Lait, Bruce Hutchinson, Judith Stone, James Lufkin, Mary Lou O'Brien, Yvonne Westbrooke.

Absent when picture was taken: George MacDonald, Charles Pilgrim.

The Future Teachers' Club started with a very successful membership drive. Thirty new students took the Future Teachers' pledge.

Programs have consisted of speakers from several different fields of teaching, reports from members on various teachers' colleges, and a visit to the Old Town F.T.A. at which a movie was shown regarding the problems a teacher faces.

The highlight of the year was practice teaching by students themselves in the Ban- gor Schools.

The officers for the year were Crystal Mayo, President; Pamela Trojanoski, Vice- President; Loretta Demaso, Secretary; and Peggy Nason, Treasurer.

The advisers were Miss Ruth Belknap and Mr. Robert Jones.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, performed at the Christmas Concert, the Christmas Assembly, and the All-City Festival.

The most outstanding performance of the season was a combined concert with the Bangor Symphony Orchestra. The audience was delighted as the Chorus, accompanied by the orchestra, expertly handled such selections as "The Heavens Are Telling" and "The Voice of Freedom."

Fourteen members from the four choruses were chosen to represent Bangor High School at the All-State Music Festival, which was held in Madison, Maine. They were Frances Brontas, Fletcher Carter, Colleen Geagan, Stana Goddard, Shirley Gotlieb, Mark Kinney, Peggy Nason, Joseph Raymond, Richard Sawyer, Norma Smith, Eric Stover, Pamela Trojanoski, Helen Trowbridge, and Robert Wetzler.

 Fourth row: Joellyn Cohen, Marjorie Todtman, Catherine Furrow, Sandra Williamson, Janis Goodwin, Martha Smith, Peggy Nason, Beth Fellows, Roslyn Striar.

Because of the large turn-out of girls for the choruses this year, a separate Girls' Chorus was formed under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey. The girls were accompanied by Rebecca Merrill and Sonia Foster. Consisting of sophomores and juniors, this chorus performed at the annual Christmas Concert and the All-City Festival, offering selections of remarkable quality.

BOYS' CHORUS

The Boys' Chorus won enthusiastic applause at the Christmas Concert and the All-City Festival. Mrs. Myrle Coffey directed the singers who were accompanied by Andrea Eaton.

A Boys' Quartet, composed of Fletcher Carter, Thomas Green, Mark Kinney, and Joseph Raymond sang at several civic functions.

"Forward March!"

The Bangor High School Band performs at the Garland Street Jr. High field.

BAND

The band has presented music at many school and civic functions, marched in several parades, and played at football and basketball games. The band also has entertained the Penobscot Teachers' Association, the Music Parents' Association, and the audience at the Inter-city Concert. The constant support and encouragement given by both Mr. M. Manning Atherton, director, and the Music Parents' Association have helped to make the year a success.

David Dunham, clarinet player, had the distinction of playing with the All Eastern Orchestra at the Music Educators' National Conference in Washington, D. C.

Bangor High School and the citizens of Bangor may be proud of the fine reputation their band has established and maintained through the years at the All State Music Festival.

Attending the band members' All State Music Festival were Parker Denaco, David Dunham, Peter Fergus, Sonia Foster, James Greene, Austin Griffith, and Lewis Perkins.

James Lufkin, drum major, leads the Bangor High School Band.

ORCHESTRA

Third row: Judith Higgins, Margaret Libby, Jeanne Noyes, Norma Smith, Donald Brown, Alton Sabin, William Shepard, Beth McLean, Nancy McKenney, Susan Shubert.

The orchestra was composed of musicians selected through auditions conducted by Mrs. Marion McKenney and Mr. Manning Atherton, co-directors. The members participated in an exchange concert with Farmington, Maine, in the spring. They made several other public appearances, including Junior Exhibition, the Inter-city Concert, and Baccalaureate Exercises. Bangor High School is especially proud of Jeanne Noyes who had the honor of playing with the All Eastern Orchestra at the Music Educators' National Conference in Washington, D. C.

Those who attended the All State Music Festival in Madison, Maine, were Stephen Alpert, Joellyn Cohen, Rebecca Connor, Ann Downing, Gretchen Goodwin, Eileen Grossman, Judith Higgins, Peggy Mabee, May McChesney, Nancy McKenney, Jeanne Noyes, Diana Royce, William Shepard, Susan Shubert, Marjorie Todtman, Jeanne Violette, and Cheryl Weymouth.

Standing: Donald McLemore, Sheldon White, Alan Sollien, Paul O'Brian, Jeffrey Gass.

On March 24, the Class of 1962 presented the annual Junior Exhibition. The speakers and the Junior Chorus marched into the auditorium to the strains of The March from "Scipio" by Handel. The speakers and their selections were as follows: Jeffrey Gass, "The Kingdom of Fear"; Marie Adams, cutting from "The Elephant's Child"; Jordon Shubert, cutting from "Barefoot Boy with Cheek"; Andrea Eaton, "Such Is Your Heritage"; Donald McLemore, cutting from "Green Pastures"; Janice Silver, cutting from "Miss Quis"; Sheldon White, cutting from "Take the Witness"; Leslie Miles Horner, cutting from "The Waltz"; Paul O'Brien, "President Kennedy's Inaugural Address"; and Elizabeth Trowbridge, cutting from "Arsenic and Old Lace."

A French Medal was awarded to each speaker by Principal Dana Simmons.

The Junior Chorus sang "While We're Young" and "No Hiding Place."

The speakers were coached by Mrs. Barbara M. Browne. The Chorus was under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, and the orchestra was conducted by Miss Marion McKenney and Mr. M. Manning Atherton.

DEBATE CLUB (VARSITY)

Standing: Mr. Richard Sibb, Richard Chady, William Bianchini, Randolph Ayoub, Laurie Hunt.

DEBATE CLUB

Under the guidance of Mr. Richard Sibb, adviser, the B.H.S. Debaters followed a tight schedule. Varsity and novice teams participated in rounds held at Orono High School, Old Town High School, and the University of Maine Debate Tournament, as well as in practice rounds held among the teams of the club.

Bangor tied for first place with Old Town in the John Bapst Novice Tournament.

In the ten rounds away from school, Bangor received fifteen first speaker ratings. Henry Goodstein received the most, six; Bernice Silver and Richard Chady tied for second place with three each.

The Club's annual banquet was held in May.

SAFETY COUNCIL

The B.H.S. Safety Council met weekly with Mr. Lloyd B. Rhodes as adviser. The officers were President Nancy Pearson, Vice-President Jeffrey Gass, Secretary Sunny Netemeyer, and Treasurer Katherine Kazmierczak.

The aim of the Council was to promote traffic safety. The Council arranged for marking a cross walk in front of the school, posting the Safety Bulletin Board, and putting the safety slogans on the daily bulletin.

Next year the members will again give out milk cartons full of sand to aid drivers in emergencies during the winter weather.

In April, a Safety Conference was held in Augusta. Those attending from B.H.S. were Beth Fellows, John Furbish, Basil Robbins, and Marjorie Todtman.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization whose goals are to promote family unity, promote good will at home and abroad, and interpret the value of home economics.

On United Nations' Day, the F.H.A. sponsored an International Tasting Buffet for faculty and students.

A Home Economics Career Week was held in the fall. Mrs. Inga MacKellar, Associate Professor at the University of Maine, was the featured speaker at a special meeting.

At Christmas and on Valentine's Day, the girls gave parties for the children at the Elm Street Opportunity School.

The Bangor Chapter was one of the two chapters in this district chosen by Dixie Lee Brown, North Atlantic Regional Vice-President, to participate in her state wide survey on the value of home economics.

The club officers are President Kathleen Price, Vice-President Georgianna Ellis, Secretary Sharon Sloat, Treasurer Beverly Connor, Historian Carole Allyn, Reporter Jane Harriman, Recreation Chairman Beverly Harriman, and Point Committee Chairman Helen Pomeroy. Mrs. Ronald K. Devine is the adviser.

N. C. O. CLUB

The N. C. O. Club has been very active this year. They carried through a project which was started last year, making a regimental crest. They not only finished the design and sent it to Washington D. C. for approval, but also raised most of the money to pay for crests for the entire regiment.

The club, under the direction of President Jordan Shubert, Vice-President Randy Cockrum, and Secretary-Treasurer Richard Chady, has also assisted the Officers' Club in the production of the ROTC yearbook.

S. F. C. James Redmond and excellent marksmen of the Boys' Rifle Club including Gary Runnells, Theodore Jellison, and George Parke have had a good season.

They competed in the Pine Tree Postal League, and fired several shoulder to shoulder matches, one of which was in Boston. Gary Runnells, a senior, won the Pine Tree League Junior N.R.A. Gallery Shooting Championship.

The officers for this year were President Gary Runnells, Vice-President Carl Morrison, and Secretary-Treasurer Theodore Jellison.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM

This year's Girls' Rifle Team has established an enviable record not equaled by any team of the past.

Under the direction of S.F.C. James Redmond, the team competed with boys of the class B Pine Tree League. They placed second in the state.

The officers for the year were President Pamela Perkins, Vice-President Toby Slep, Secretary Betty Stimpson, Treasurer Sharon Beede.

The "B" Club is an honorary group composed of boys who have fulfilled the requirements of their respective varsity sports and received varsity letters.

The athletic association certifies all letter winners and presents a "B" sweater to the first year lettermen. For each additional letter in a different sport, a white stripe is added.

Membership in the "B" Club is the goal of all sports-minded boys who attend B. H. S.

Bangor High's first competitive swim team enjoyed a successful season. Coach Barry Twitchell led the team on to a 4-4 record. The captain of the team was Fred Pierce, and the co-captain was Robert Gooding. The B.H.S. swim team won sixth place in the Maine Interscholastic Championship meet.

The high scorers for the varsity team were Fred Pierce, John Gooding, Edward Bulmer, Paul Higgins, and Thomas Dorsky.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach Gerald Hodge and new line coach James Cutler led the 1960 Rams to a 7-1-1 season mark.

The ground attack was led this year by halfbacks Dick Shaw and Leroy Patterson. The speedy line made the necessary blocks and tackles to make an air tight defense. The season record was good enough to land the Rams third place in the state.

The opening game of the season was played against Rumford. The Rams won 19-6 to please a home crowd of over 3,000 enthusiastic fans. The only loss of the season was handed to the team by the Deering eleven of Portland.

The climax of the season was the game with Brewer. For the third successive year, the Rams beat Brewer to capture the inter-city championship. With good pass protection from the line, the backs were able to run the final score to 33-0.

 Absent when picture was taken: David Jarvis, Kenneth Maher.

J. V. FOOTBALL

The J.V.'s were coached this year by Norman "Cy" Perkins. Mr. Perkins' fine leadership and training program enabled many of the J.V. players to transfer to the Varsity squad. Since most players were moved to the Varsity squad, there was no picture taken of the team.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Coach Roger Miles' Freshman team finished the 1960-61 season with a 2-4 mark. Although winning only 2 games, the freshmen gained valuable experience to use on the J.V. and Varsity teams in the future. Team members this year were David Batron, James Black, Roger Carignan, James Chestnut, Theodore Gramlich, Joseph Gruber, Joseph Hammond, John Heath, manager Jordan Kobritz, Co-Captain Paul MacLeod, Victor Malmgrin, Richard Mooney, Jerome Nolan, Co-Captain Brian O'Donnell, Edward Okishoff, Stephen Philbrick, Charles Reddick, James Richard, Robert Schinck, Robert Slamin, Leroy Sutherland, Sheldon Tozier, Rodney Watson, and Michael Weston.

CROSS COUNTRY

 Second row: Assistant Manager Richard Frye, David Staples, Harry Hasey, Allan Parker, Dale Mosher, John Furbish, and Alton Sabin.
 Absent when picture was taken: Whitfield Russell, Deane Stern, and Thomas Vanidestine.

Cross country is a sport which combines the three most important running skills—speed, endurance, and determination. It requires weeks of practice sessions which consist of three mile “jaunts” for endurance and half mile sprints to get into perfect shape. The boys must be able to cover between two and three miles at top speed regardless of weather or track conditions.

The Rams' Cross Country team set a very good record for the 1960 season with seven wins and three losses. The J. V.'s posted a total of three wins and one loss.

Letter winners for the season were Captain Frank Bettencourt, Alan McClure, Allan Parker, Joseph Raymond, James Smith, Joseph Demaso, John Furbish, Harry Hasey, and Alton Sabin.

The team brought Coach G. Vincent Cuzzo the 100th victory of his coaching career.

1-2-3-kick, 1-2-3 . . .

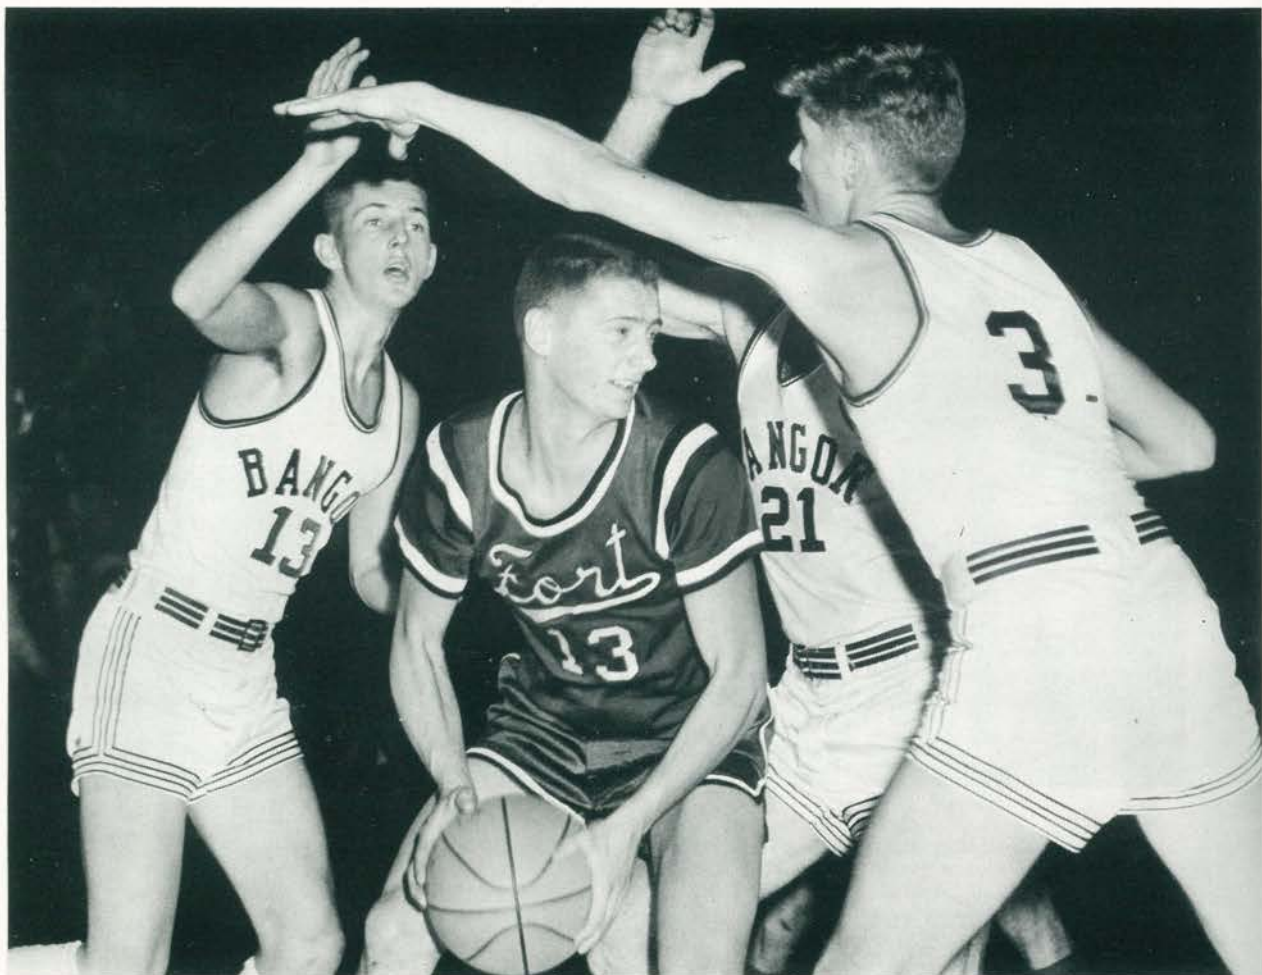

After finishing the 1960 season with seven wins, Coach Frederick "Red" Barry brought the Rams back to a 12-7 mark to end a season of fine basketball.

Unlike previous seasons, the Rams won several of their early games to spark enthusiasm in the minds of many a loyal Bangor fan.

Leroy Patterson was high scorer for the season, averaging 19 points a game. Dick Shaw and Leroy Patterson provided the bulk of the rebounding strength for the Rams.

John Predaris, along with Ronny Stratton and Al McClure, supplied much of the necessary ball handling to keep the team snapping.

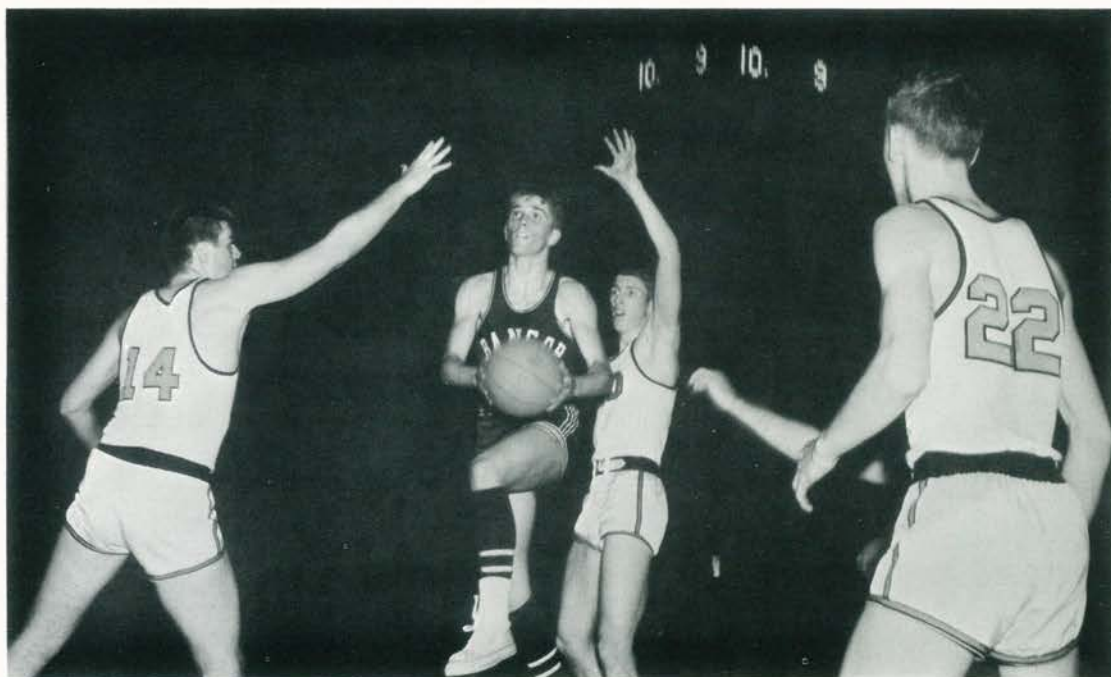

Providing the balance of the squad were Steven Godsoe, James Smith, Paul Newman, Billy Pidgeon, Garland Strang, Gordon Titcomb, and Whitfield Russell.

Tight defense! Billy Pigeon, Dick Shaw, and Ronnie Stratton seem to have their opponent bottled up.

The center of attraction seems to be the ball.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Varsity Cheerleaders, under the leadership of Captain Joanne Higgins, have enthusiastically supported the football and basketball teams throughout the year. From rallies in the B. H. S. gym to the big games in the Bangor Auditorium, they have generated pep and school spirit. During Chirstmas vacation the girls supported Harvard College in the Down-east Classic, sponsored by the Bangor Daily News. The group has been under the direction of Miss Margaret Ricci.

"The Rams are ahead, and we're walking on air!"

Now we've got the team that's really neat,

And Bangor Jayvees can't be beat.

J — A — Y — V — E — E — S

Bangor Jayvees can't be beat!

This is one of the familiar cheers of the J. V. cheerleaders. The Cheerleaders, led by Janet Robertson, started the cheering at all home games throughout the basketball season, as the J. V. games always preceded the varsity games.

Their adviser, Miss Margaret Ricci, supervised cheering practice every week at the Dorothy Memorial Hall.

J. V. Captain Janet Robertson and Varsity Captain Joanne Higgins discuss new cheers with Miss Ricci.

 Second row: Toby Slep, Sharon McCaughey, May McChesney, Janet McEachern, Sandra Larlee, Pamela Perkins, Joan Melin, Peggy Nason.
 Third row: Susan McGinley, Carolyn Mower, Beverly Harriman, Sharon Morrill, Joan Raymond, Andrea Libby, Carole Larlee.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC HONOR COUNCIL

The symbol of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council (G. A. H. C.) is the familiar red armband worn every Thursday by members of the council. The purpose of the Council is to develop character and to promote interest in athletics for the girls at B.H.S.

Under the direction of the adviser, Miss Mildred McGuire, and officers, President Sharon Dauphinee, Vice-President Joan Bartlett, Secretary Beth McLean, and Treasurer Crystal Mayo, the club members held cupcake sales, ran the concessions at football games, and sponsored a booth at All-Bangor Nite.

G. A. H. C. members pay for awards which are presented for participation in girls sports and hold a banquet each spring for all girls interested in sports.

New members are taken in at the hockey party, which is held in the spring, and at the annual assembly in February. The new members were as follows: seniors, Beverly Harriman and Geraldine Simpson; juniors, Joan Melin and Joan Raymond, and sophomores, Carol Larlee and Andrea Libby.

All members must possess qualities of scholarship, leadership, dependability, and good sportsmanship. Membership in the Council is the highest athletic honor any girl can receive at Bangor High School.

GIRLS' OFFICIALS CLUB

A basketball game cannot be played without timers, scorers, and officials. To supply this need the Girls' Officials Club was formed.

The club consists of eleven girls who have passed a written examination over all rules and current rule changes. Mrs. Betty Solorzano, the official referee, is assisted by the girls in all scoring, timing, and officiating of intramural games.

An award system has been set up whereby first-year members receive a pin, second-year members a silver basketball, and third-year members a gold basketball. Girls who received the highest award are Joan Bartlett, Sharon Dauphinee, Barbara Furrow, and Geraldine Simpson. The club adviser is Miss Mildred McGuire.

Second row: Shann Gillespie, Donna Pfeifer, Rachel Lait, Sharon Dauphinee, Geraldine Simpson.

ALL-BANGOR FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

Second row: Joan Melin, Mary LaChance, Rebecca Benoit, Marjorie Todtman, and Sandra Larlee.

Third row: Geraldine Simpson, Barbara Furrow, Carolyn Mower, Sharon McCaughey, and Beverly Harriman.

The hockey season was exciting this year because the juniors won each game they played. Members of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council watched the games closely and then elected twenty girls from the Junior and Senior Classes for the All-Bangor Hockey Team. The team was composed of the following seniors: Captain Sharon Dauphinee, Barbara Furrow, Beverly Harriman, Jane Harriman, Crystal Mayo, Sharon McCaughey, Beth McLean, Patricia Mills, Carolyn Mower, Kathleen Price, Geraldine Simpson, and Norma Smith.

The juniors were Rebecca Benoit, Mary LaChance, Sandra Larlee, May McChesney, Joan Melin, Peggy Nason, Suzanne Sargent, and Marjorie Todtman.

The games were supervised by Miss Mildred McGuire and officiated by Mrs. Betty Solorzano. Each team was coached by one or two members of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council. Coaches for this year were Sharon Dauphinee, Barbara Furrow, Crystal Mayo, Beth McLean, and Carolyn Mower. The hockey manager was Sharon Dauphinee; the assistant manager was Peggy Nason.

Second row: Carolyn Mower, Sharon Dauphinee, Pamela Perkins, Barbara Furrow.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

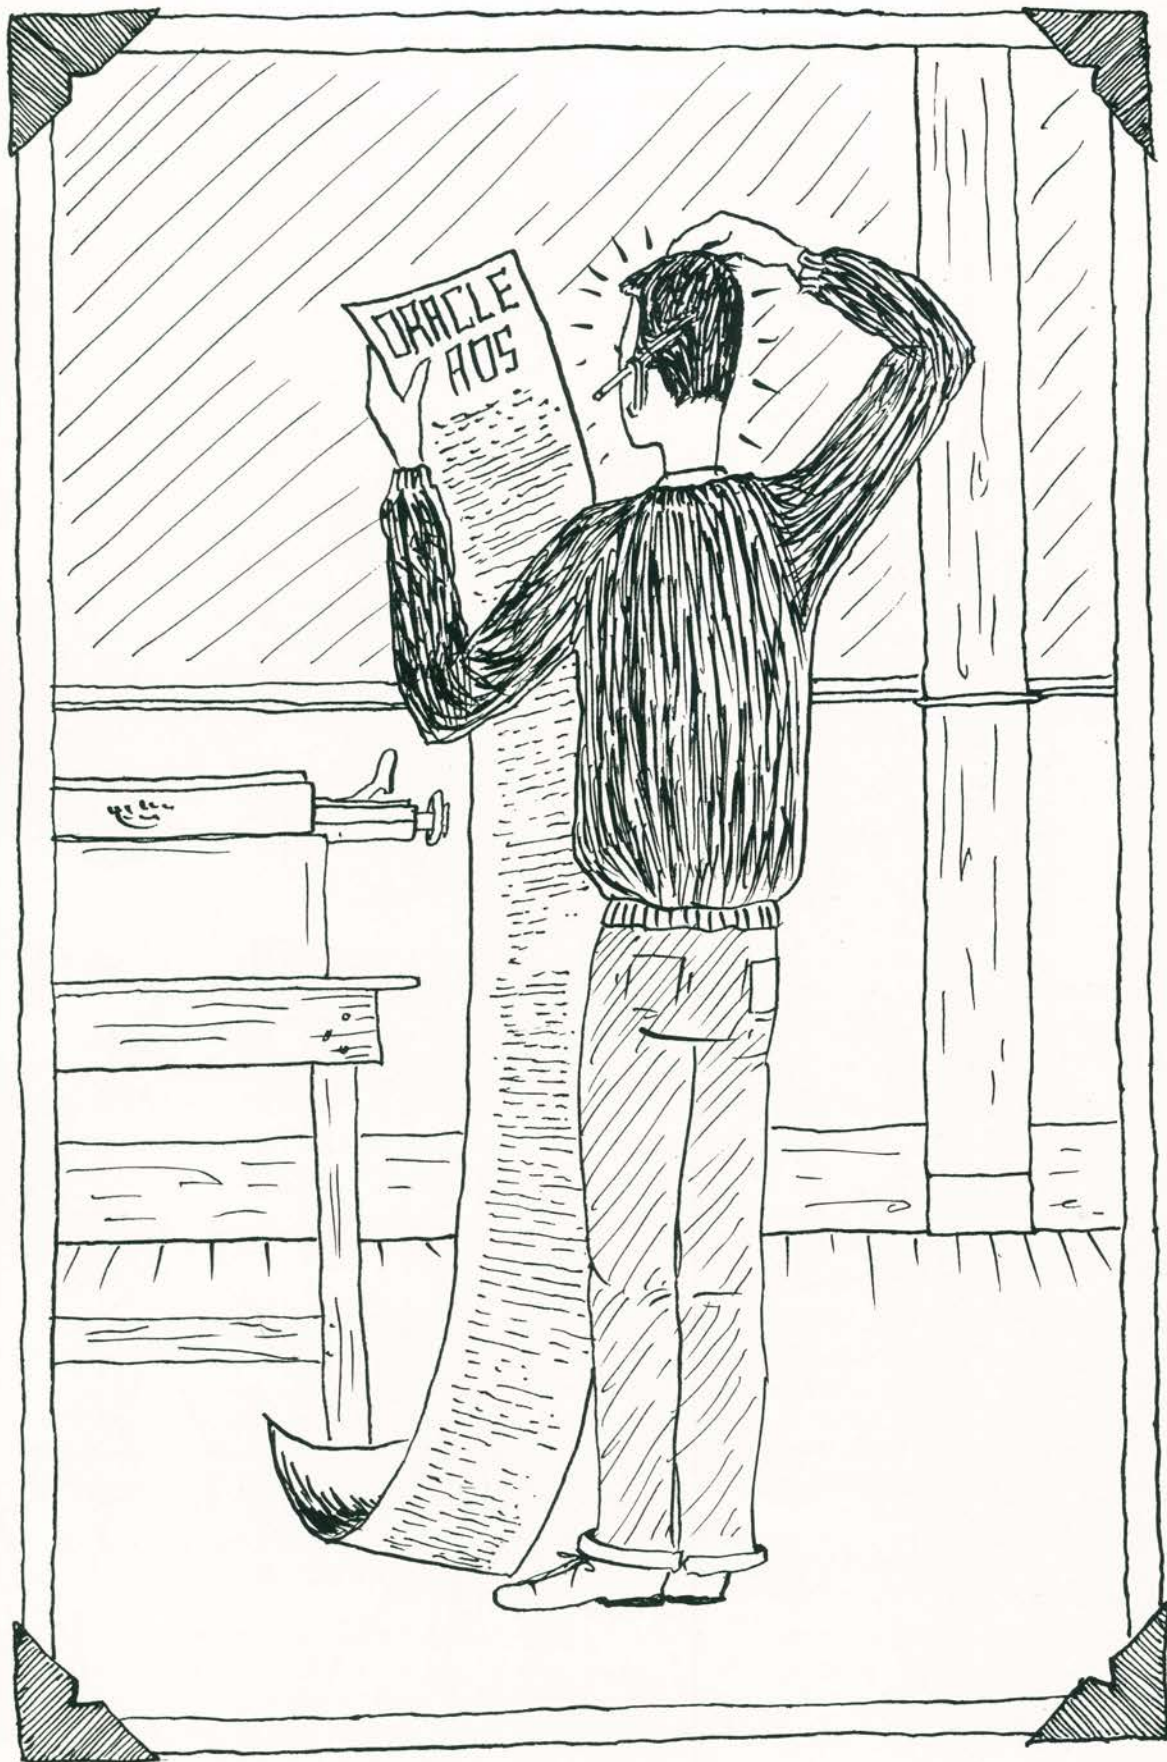

Many girls participate in the intramural basketball program, which is supervised by Miss Mildred McGuire.

The co-captains for the senior team were Pamela Perkins and Geraldine Simpson. The Junior Green captain was Pamela Perkins. Jane Harriman coached the Junior Red team and its co-captains were Peggy Nason and Janet McEachern.

The sophomore players of the Sophomore Red team were coached by Sharon Dauphinee, and their captain was Carol Larlee. The Sophomore Green team had one captain, Donna Pfeifer, and three coaches—Barbara Furrow, May McChesney, and Carolyn Mower.

The games were officiated by Mrs. Betty Solovzano.

ADS

"It's been fun and a little hectic working on the Oracle this year. The advertising took a lot of footwork, but it was worth it! The city Merchants and businessmen, who were very friendly and co-operative, supported generously the Oracle advertising campaign. Why don't you plan to support them?"
