FAREWELL

The time has come when we, the class of '45, must bid farewell to our Alma Mater, John Bapst High. For four pleasant years we have served her to our utmost, and now we must go forth to put into practice what we have learned. We have been privileged to enjoy a good Catholic education. Let us show our gratitude for all that we have received, by going forth courageously into the world to live a good, upright life.

But first we must finish the strenuous job of defeating our nation's enemies. This will not be an easy task, but, guided by the splendid example of former Bapst men now in the service, and fortified by the principles of right living which we have garnered here, we shall be successful.

When the war is over, let us return to civilian life and do our part in bringing peace to a hate-filled world. We, the men of tomorrow, the backbone of this country, must carry more than our share of the burden of preserving freedom and democracy.

Farewell, then, to our school, to the faculty and the students. Let us hope and pray that we shall be worthy representatives of John Bapst High School.

Francis Ryder '45

TO OUR FACULTY

We, the students of John Bapst, have no idea concerning the debt of gratitude we owe our teachers.

This graduating class of '45 will be fortified in this world with the four year knowledge gained in each classroom.

We will be dependent next fall and in the years to come, upon what we have learned here in this high school. Far and above this earthly knowledge, we have gained the intellect to understand our beautiful religion, and the intellect to save our souls. We have been given a Catholic viewpoint on life.

Shamefully enough, we of the girls' department do not realize our indebtedness; or, if we do, it is not often expressed as it should be.

It is only after our high school days are behind us that we fully realize how very much has been done for us.

So to our principal, Sister Mary Callista; and to our teachers, Sister Mary Loyola, Sister Mary Aquinas, Sister Mary Eulalia, Sister Mary Raymond, Sister Mary Pius, Sister Mary Monica, Sister Mary Teresita, Sister Mary Teresa, and Miss Josephine Profita, we wish to extend our humblest appreciation.

Lucy Utterback

WE WHO SAY FAREWELL

So long, Bob! So long, Marge! So long, friends of four happy years! A chapter in our lives has closed and we are about to embark on a new adventure. No more classes, homework, teachers, for most of us. Their job is finished. Our job has just begun. They have taught us the ways and means, the habits and the lessons, to lead and guide us on our course through life. Our departure, sad and happy, is only a beginning. Sadness comes from leaving our former associations and friends behind us; happiness, from the thought of a work well done and completed.

Throughout grammar school and high school, we have wished and waited for this day. At times we found the struggle hard and the goal very far away. But we pushed on, we did not fall by the wayside, and now we can look back on our school years with satisfaction. We have attained our first major goal in life, an education. The sacrifices which loomed so large in the past few years will soon seem trivial along the path ahead. Our high school days will become the happiest days we ever had, carefree and joyous. Studies, worries, scoldings, yes; but also, happiness, learning, the opening up of the world about us, and a realization of our part in that world.

We are sad, yes, to be leaving the joys of school behind us. Only time will give us a proper appreciation of what has been done for us here. The spirit of adventure beckons us now to new worlds to conquer. We are full of life and self-confidence developed in our school years. The road ahead is not an easy one. But heaving to the spiritual and intellectual training we have received will give us the strength and courage to gain both spiritual and temporal success.

Our diploma is not a key to success. It is a mark of work accomplished and a stepping stone to the future. Before us lies the responsibility of young manhood and womanhood. We have been given the material to work with, well-rounded education. We are citizens of a great nation, the United States. The two together set us off on a

SUCCESS OR FAILURE

We have all at one time or another in our lives wished to leave school. This is a common idea among students in their early years of high school. We in high school are now at a sort of cross road marked "Success or Failure". It seems that there are now many attractive opportunities for earning money outside of school. Many boys and girls of high school age have left school to work in war industries. The wages they are receiving are attractive to them and may seem so to us also. But our boys in the services are coming back within a short time and will be ready to take over the jobs they are skilled in. These men and women will be given first choice in post-war work, and those of high school age with unfinished education will be fitted for none but the poorest type of work.

We should all grasp every opportunity for a complete and thorough education. We are now beginning to grow stronger in body and mind. If we fail to fit ourselves in the best way possible now, what can we hope for in the future life of our country. The government that will be in our hands, as voters, taxpayers, and citizens, will become weak, corrupt, and ripe for revolt or domination by another nation.

Are we, the students of today and the leaders of tomorrow, going to be responsible for another war? Of course not! To prevent such a calamity, we can educate ourselves now, to take our place in the world after the war. We can keep in condition, mentally, spiritually, and physically for a better tomorrow. Just remember that proper schooling now is insurance for success in the future.

Richard Drinon '47

flying start in making our lives worthwhile and fruitful. Let us go out and do our part to make this world a better one to live in. It is up to us.

Class Will—Boys

On this day of Our Lord, May 2, nineteen hundred and forty-five, the last will and testament of the Class of '45 of John Bapst High School, Bangor, Maine, was disclosed in the presence of Probate Justice Max Nodifference.

The contents read as follows:

ITEM 1. We the class of '45 do hereby leave the faculty broken-hearted and bequeath to the student body the great name that the class of '45 has made for this school.

ITEM 2. As for our women, those who want them can have them.

ITEM 3. We the class of '45 do hereby give to the individual Juniors of '46 the following:

1. "Duke" Aucoin's excellent list of South Brewer girl friends to John Cassidy.

2. Robert Carroll's Ice Cream business to Alfred Sheehan.

3. John Royal's report card to Fuzzy King as an example.

4. Don Plourde's cigarettes to Brother O'Brien.

5. "Woof" LaForge's gas coupons to "Woody" Mahaney.

6. "Joe" McLellan's "butts" in the basement to "Terry" McAloon.

7. "Bill" Ambrose's loving ability to Virgil King.

8. John Talbot's pool cue to "Bill" Rivers.

9. Porter Elliott's physique and silver voice to "Bill" Booker.

10. "Don" Reardon's long Johns to John King.

11. "Frannie" Ryder's dash to the basement from the typing room to "Fred" Daigle.

12. Everything that belonged to John to Tommie.

13. George Blinn's authority over 3C to "Joe" Rice.

14. Hugh Goodness's Janie to whoever will take care of her and feed her.

15. Lawrence Riley's witty jokes to "Dan" Flanagan.

16. John Ryder's nickname "The Beak" to "Don" Richards.

17. Gerald Soucie's siesta hour to John Mooney.

18. Evan Pelkey's quiet way to Don Rogers.

19. Chick Carlisle's something to some lucky boy.

Class Prophecy of '45—Boys

Time has sped by since the Class of '45 has left the protecting environs of John Bapst, and in twenty years the boys have ventured forth into the world and established themselves as substantial citizens of this noble nation. We are privileged to gaze into the crystal ball and catch fleeting glimpses of the members of the Class of '45 as the future will find them.

WILLIAM AMBROSE, prominent Bangor lawyer, has set aside two weeks each year to visit his former clients who are honor students at Thomaston University, where they are supported by the state.

DONALD AUCOIN, Getchell Brothers' Ice Specialist, has been rewarded for his work in the development of dehydrated ice-cubes.

GEORGE BLINN, noted editor, has raised the circulation of the Bangor Commercial to the largest in the state of Maine. He has even bought new presses and ink.

CHARLES CARLISLE, despite being the leading banker of Bangor, still keeps his money under his mattress. Counting Lincoln heads puts him to sleep faster than counting sheep.

ROBERT CARROLL, Keene's Ice Cream King, will abdicate his position soon, because he says that ice cream is just for kiddies.

PORTER "MELCHIOR" ELLIOTT, plans a singing caravan based on the "Road to Mandalay" which he has made a popular song.

HUGH GOODNESS, City Manager, spent yesterday initiating high school students into the mysteries of city government.

RALPH LA FORGE, head of the Maine Oil Company, is planning to build a second gas station in the busy town of Brewer, even bigger than the one there now.

JOSEPH McLELLAN, famed Bangor matador, who took up the sport to save red points in 1945, is rated the best bull handler in Aroostook County.

EVAN PELKEY, after a fast-starting career in the navy, is now retired and is admiral of a fleet of rowboats at Brewer Lake.

DONALD PLOURDE, noted scientist, is lecturing on "Moonglow on Alternate Tuesdays" at the University of Maine.

DONALD REARDON, teacher of dramatics at Columbia University, plans to come back to his old love, Bangor, on a tour.

LAWRENCE RILEY, popular radio comedian, still floors his extensive audience daily with his all new and original gags.

JOHN ROYAL, All-American gridiron ace, is now coaching Colby to new heights.

FRANCIS RYDER, recently appointed president of the Bangor Hydro-Electric, has donated a revolving electrical cue-ball to Corey's Emporium.

JOHN RYDER, prominent musician and man-about-town, is setting box-office records with his original All Flute Orchestra.

JOHN TALBOT, president of the Maine Central Railroad, runs a private line of old Bangor jitney trolleys in his back yard.

GERALD SOUCIE, recognized as a specialist on sleep and how to do it, while addressing a group of doctors recently, exclaimed, "Sleep is cheap. Just close your eyes and it steals up on you." So saying he closed his eyes and the meeting adjourned.

JOHN TRAINER, one-time Red Sox pitcher, owns and operates his own drugstore and pinball machines now.

Now the crystal ball blurs before our eyes, and once more we return to 1945. The boys are all sitting quietly in their classes with dreamy expressions—Graduation is here!

THE CLASS OF '45 LOSES SIX TO THE SERVICE

Our senior class is unusually small at the present, for many of its members have been called to the service. Even before school opened last September, quite a few of the future seniors joined the armed forces. During this scholastic year the class has lost six already to the colors.

The first to go was Leo Burke, who answered the "Call to the Colors" on December 7, 1944. Beginning his athletic career at Bapst in his second year, Leo was elected captain of the Jayvee basketball team. In the fall of 1943 he captained the junior football team. Last year he was the mainstay of the varsity basketball squad as a reserve forward. In the 1944 football season he alternated at halfback with Gerald King and was the team's kicking expert. He had won a starting berth on the varsity basketball team this year until he received the call to a better job. Leo was a spirited competitor and a fine example of a Bapst student. His cheery smile and winning ways have been missed by his teachers and by his fellow students.

The second to go was Eugene Damien. Modest, reticent Eugene was a steady character, popular with his classmates and with his teachers. He was an admirable student, ranking near the top in his class. In addition, he was a capable and reliable substitute on the varsity football team this year. We wish Eugene the best of everything in the navy. We are sure that he will be a success in everything he undertakes.

The third to leave was Roland La Pointe. Roland was a quiet individual who went about his work with care and thoroughness. Although he did not participate in our athletic program, he gave of his time and energy in support of our teams. We certainly wish him success in his army career.

The fourth to depart was Francis Cawley. Francis came to us in his junior year from Bangor High School. In the short time he was with us he became an ardent supporter of every activity at Bapst. In the 1943 football season he was a flashy, speedy halfback, responsible in no small part for Bapst's fine record that season. In the following basketball season he was an aggressive guard on the Jayvee basketball team. He did not participate in sports this year because of the eight semester rule, but he made up for it by his ardent support of all our teams. We have missed Francis' kindly disposition. We hope that he continues to display those fine qualities of character which he always exhibited at Bapst.

Genial, big-hearted Robert Carney was the next to leave. Surely he did more than his share in the various activities at Bapst. While he was a member of our football team, his offensive and defensive play was something to be admired and imitated. Added to his football prowess was his skill as an actor. He joined the dramatic club this year and gave good account of himself in the play, "The Song of Bernadette" as Bernadette's father. We do wish him the best of luck and we are sure that he will be a success in the aircorps.

The last to depart was Evan Pelkey who was literally whisked away from us without warning. Evan participated in our athletic program a couple of years and showed promise of becoming an outstanding athlete, but he had to work in his last two years. However he made up for it by cooperating fully in whatever other activity he could possibly enter. He was always to be found in plays or minstrel shows put on by his parish or by his school. Needless to say, we shall miss him, for he was one of the most engaging personalities of our class. Good luck to him in whatever work he undertakes with our navy.

John Royal

TO THE SENIORS

We, the members of the junior class, wish to convey to you graduating seniors our best wishes for your success in each and every undertaking. We know that you will show the same high spirit as you did here in all athletic and scholastic activities. We also know that you will carry the John Bapst banner as high and proud as you carried it here.

You have set a fine example for future senior classes to follow. You have always done each and every task assigned to you and you have done it well. You truly have shown the lower classes what they should do and we know they will remember it.

Like passing the baton in a relay race, you departing seniors have given us the assignment of carrying on. We hope we are equal to the task and we will try our best to follow the path you have taken.

SENIOR CLASSICAL GIRLS

MARY BRANGWYNNE
Hampden, Maine

"The noblest mind, the best contentment has"

Cheerleader 1; St. Mary's Choir 4; Glee Club 1; Classical Student 4; St. Mary's Sodality 4; Physical Education 2; First Essayist.

A peaceful, calm and intelligent girl with a refined and delicate appearance, dainty and spotless in all her work and with great prospects of becoming a wonderful nurse. She is a good student, a true sport and a prince of a good gal, being well liked by all who know her. Bon voyage, Mary!

ELEANOR BRENNAN
Bangor, Maine

"Ellie"

Glee Club 2; St. John's Sodality, Prefect; Physical Education 2; St. John's Choir 4.

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance"

An affable, cheerful, likeable lass is "Ellie". An apt and diligent student who is destined to go far. Since she has lived in Bangor and gone to John Baptist she has made hundreds of friends with her inimitable comedy and ever present smile. We expect to see her name in the papers some day and we wish her the best of luck.

JOANNE CASSIDY
Bangor, Maine

"Buzzie"

Dramatic Club, President; St. Mary's Sodality; Physical Education.

"Let us go unto perfection"

Probably no girl graduating from John Baptist is as well prepared to enter college as "Buzzie". Affability and courageousness are qualities prized by all, possessed by few. When present in a woman they spell for her true success. She will go forth equipped with the well wishes of her many admiring friends. Joanne, we bid you God-speed!

THERESE CUSHMAN
Bangor, Maine

"Cush"

St. John's Choir 3; Glee Club 1; St. John's Sodality; General Course 4; Dramatic Club, Secretary; Physical Education 2.

*"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the wisest men."*

Ah, gentle reader let us yet pause a moment while we present to you Cush, from whose lips divine persuasion flows! Conscientious and persevering, her work has been the acme of perfection and she owes her well-deserved success entirely to herself. What more can be said or what more glowing tribute, than that she is a self-made woman?

BARBARA LOFTUS
Bangor, Maine

"Barb"

St. Mary's Sodality 4; Glee Club 2; Classical Student 4; Physical Education 2.

"True as steel, sincere and independent"

It will be a pleasant memory, no doubt, when idle moments overtake you, to think of the days and nights spent in your studies of the laws of human nature at John Baptist. We will watch your achievements in your chosen field after you have left the portals. There is laid up for you a reward of great renown.

SENIOR COMMERCIAL GIRLS

I. Mona Bartlett—Italian sandwiches are the chief delight of this fair-haired senior, but she will eat most anything. Mona doesn't know what she wants to do in the future, but right now she doesn't do too badly in the bookkeeping department. Mona likes just about everybody, and everybody just adores Mona. Luck to you, Mona!

II. Jeannette Caruso is our so-called "pin up" girl for she's forever coming to school with her hair done up in bobby pins. Jeannette is the president of the senior class, and is highly efficient in business work at school. Of course she devotes a fraction of her time to the Army. The lucky girl! Well, Jeannette, I'm sure that you know that wherever you go, the best wishes of the class of '45 will always be with you.

III. Annette Cummings has the heartiest laugh of any of the fairer sex. Although she looks rather cross at times it's nothing to worry about. She's probably thinking hard. Her beauty culture ambition will no doubt bloom into a reality as soon as she gets that diploma.

IV. Dorothy Foley—"Dottie" is our second Joan Davis. Bookkeeping happens to be one of her biggest headaches, but shorthand and typing make up for that. Movies, roller-skating, and football games take up most of her time, but she manages to reserve every Saturday for W. T. Grant Company.

V. Theresa Julian—"Terry". Let's explore "Terry's" not all boring life. Lon MacAllister and Jeanne Crane give her a big thrill and sitting through one of their pictures a second time is really mild for "Terry". Little, soft, and sweet, "Terry" is sure to make a hit with everyone. Undecided as to what she will do after graduation, "Terry" says she thinks she will "stick around for a while."

VI. Mary Jane Healey—"May Jay" is the quiet little Miss of our class. Still, they say "silence is golden". Could be, but I guess "May Jay" prefers to just kid us along because once she really gets going there's no stopping her. Happy as a lark, nothing bothers her but "school" and who can blame her there? She is crazy about Searsport and spends most of her summers there. Wonder what the attraction is?

VII. Rose Kenney—Rose, our little brownette, just dotes on "cokes", goes for anything with hamburger in it, and thinks cheese and egg salad sandwiches are just horrid. Going bowling and to the movies are only two of Rose's delights in life.

CLASSICAL GIRLS

ELIZABETH MACNEIL

Bangor, Maine

St. Mary's Choir 4; St. Mary's Sodality 4; Classical Student 4; Glee Club 2; Dramatic Club; Physical Education 2.

"She is a winsome wee thing, this sweet wee pal o' mine"

Though small of stature, this girl has proved herself large in intellect. Friendship, true and enduring, is her chief characteristic. Now that the parting of the ways is at hand, "Betty" takes with her the deep respect and best wishes of all with whom she has been associated.

YVETTE MARTIN

Bradley, Maine

Classical Student 4; Dramatic Club; Glee Club 1; Physical Education 2.

"To know her is to like her"

In from Bradley a few years ago came likeable, laughable "Mickey". Apparently quiet until you know her, to her friends she is companionable, always in good humor and fertile in clever ideas. Her personality and courteous manner have won many friends for her.

JEAN MATHESON

Bangor, Maine

St. Mary's Sodality 4; Valedictorian; Classical Student 4; Physical Education 2.

"Born for success, she seemed, with grace to win, with heart to hold, with shining gifts that took all eyes."

When one meets a real woman she is prone to admiration. Every student in the class of 1945 admires Jean, who possesses a decidedly pleasant personality, a strong will, and the makeup of a perfect lady. We do not know what she will do when she leaves John Bapst but this much we do know, she'll make good.

ANN MEEHAN

Bangor, Maine

General Course 4; Glee Club 1; Physical Education 2; St. John's Sodality, Vice-Prefect; St. John's Choir 3.

"Let's get where we're going."

Intensely interested in whatever occupation she may be engaged, Ann is an example of aggressive concentration. When she starts out to do a thing, she does it, and it is absolutely useless to attempt to deter her from her purpose. Good luck to you, Ann, and pleasant memories.

THEODORA PARENT

Bangor, Maine

St. Mary's Sodality 4; St. Mary's Choir 2; Classical Student 4; Glee Club 2; Physical Education 2.

"Silent in class and very attentive, Behind such, one finds great incentive."

Teddy as she is known to her provincial contemporaries, needs no introduction. Many a time have we marvelled in silent and dumbstruck awe at the profundity of wisdom which would flow from her lips like magic in answer to some thing we knew nothing about. Good luck, "Teddy", your success is assured.

MARIE PERRY

Bangor, Maine

St. John's Sodality 4; St. John's Choir 3; Physical Education 2; Glee Club 1; Classical Student 4; Dramatic Club.

"The world knows nothing of its greatest women."

Marie is as goodly a girl as ever drank a draught from the fountain of knowledge at John Bapst. Her natural

COMMERCIAL GIRLS

VIII. Julia McCarthy—"Judy" is the name of the "cute kid" with the swell personality. Her ready manner to be of service to others has won the hearts of many. "Judy" practically lives in Green Lake in the warm summer months, and she might easily be called a mermaid. "Judy" just loves ice cream sodas and nice thick juicy steaks, but offer her a potato chip or a French fried potato, and you won't have to offer twice. This swell gal is going places, so be sure you keep your eyes on her.

IX. Joan McGee our little "red head" certainly keeps things humming. She is always telling some tale of interest. She possesses a charming personality and is a very good student—scholastically. Her pleasant smile is heartening and she is always ready for a good laugh. Altogether we think that, no matter where Joan may go, she will always come through with that winning smile.

X. Lucille Michaud—If you see someone racing madly down the school corridors or streets, you can bet it is our sunny little lass, Lucille, or "Mish" as her "close" friends call her. "Mish" is full of pep, vim and vigor, and no amount of work or exercise can keep her down. "Mish" hails from good old Old Town.

XI. Dorothy Murray, a lover of music, is herself a gift to the musical world. She has a marvelous voice for singing for we have heard it many times during our four years at John Bapst. As far as we know now, Dorothy has been given a very special vocation. We all know what it means to you, Dorothy, and we sincerely hope that all your ambitions and hopes will come to a successful end.

XII. Mary Lou Richards—Mary Lou just loves to dance those slow and dreamy tunes, mum! 'Tis kind of fun and, boy, she looks simply super-dupe in an evening gown! No foolin'! Uncertain about the future, Mary Lou will keep on at Viner's where she is a real help as one of the office staff.

XIII. Jane Sargent—Jane is our peppy cheerleader and she certainly lives up to her name. Whenever you feel blue and lowdown, call on Jane and your cares fly out the window in a jiff. At the present Jane hasn't made any plans for the future, but Hugh has her pretty well tied up now, so I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see her as "Mrs." the next time we meet.

XIV. Dorothy Thibodeau, or "Juke Box Dotie" as she is called, is the best jitterbug in the class. She has a personality like honeycomb, talent and ability, together with her charming and jovial manner, keen mind and splendid characteristics, as evidenced by such splendid manifestations of fine friendship and other qualities that she has shown, all indicate that here is a woman who will accomplish great things in the years to come.

MARY AGNES PERRY
Hampden, Maine

St. Mary's Choir 4; St. Mary's Sodality 4; Classical Student 4; Physical Education 2; Orchestra 3; Glee Club 2; Dramatic Club.

"A hearty handshake and a word of cheer."

"Aggie" from the date of our inception as a John Baptist class, has been a prominent figure among us. Possessed of those rarely concurrent attributes of wit, humor, and good nature, "Ag" has so endeared herself to us that one can count her friends by her acquaintances. Earnest and sincere in all her motives and prompt in fulfilling every duty, we can predict naught but success for this accentuated gentlewoman from the country.

MARY JANE PERRY
Hampden, Maine

St. Mary's Sodality 4; St. Mary's Choir 4; Physical Education 2; Classical Student 4; Dramatic Club.

"Her words were few but weighty"

Whatever "Cuz" does, you may depend upon it that she has not acted on impulse. She usually thinks twice, and often thrice, before she leaps. As one of the most popular and best-liked girls of our class, Mary Jane will go forth from the portals of "Old John Baptist" with the best wishes of '45 for success in college.

JACQUELINE POOLER
Bangor, Maine

St. John's Sodality 4; Physical Education 2; Orchestra 2; Classical Student 4; Dramatic Club.

"Shine little Star, shine on."

Here is a student indeed, for her logic is sound, her presentation perfection itself and her manner convincing. A friend among friends, a student among students, and a regular guy in social gatherings. "Jackie" has all the ingredients that are necessary to bring success.

MARY QUINN
Bangor, Maine

St. John's Sodality 4; St. John's Choir 4; Physical Education 2; Orchestra 3; Classical Student; Glee Club 2; Dramatic Club.

"To be or not to be, that's the question."

Well, well, here's our old friend, Mary. During all our career we have not met a better kid than Quinnie, whose winning way won for her a high place in the hearts of her fellow students. The well wishes of the class go with you Mary, old girl, and may our good times together at John Baptist always be pleasant memories.

ROSEMARY RILEY
Bangor, Maine

St. John's Sodality 4; Physical Education 2; Classical Student 4; Dramatic Club.

"Tho her words are numbered she speaks with the wisdom of the prophets."

A hard worker, Rosie has the faculty of making herself indispensable especially so with her classmates. She has excelled in her school work and we say good-bye to her with sincerest wishes.

JANE TESSEO
Bangor, Maine

St. Mary's Sodality; Classical Student 4; Glee Club 1;

Physical Education 2.

"Speech is silver, silence is golden"

Jane is quiet and to some of her classmates may have appeared reserved, but beneath her surface she has a wealth of good-fellowship, and when the occasion arises is a good mixer. Realizing the seriousness of her chosen profession she has given to it ample of her time and effort. This argues well for her future, and she has the best wishes of all for a successful career.

STELLA THERIAULT
South Brewer, Maine

St. John's Choir 2; St. John's Sodality 2; Dramatic Club; Physical Education 2; Classical Student 3; Glee Club 2.

"If you want anything done well, do it yourself."

Such is the maxim of our good friend Stella Theriault. Her general good nature and willingness to please won her the esteem and friendship of her classmates. We have not the slightest doubt but that "Stel" will succeed wherever she wends her way after graduation and can assure her that she leaves with the best wishes of the entire class.

LUCY UTTERBACK
Bangor, Maine

Glee Club 1; St. Mary's Sodality 2; Physical Education 2; Dramatic Club; Classical Student 3.

"For all that faire is, is by nature good."

John Baptist is better for having had "Lu" with us. She came to us from the Garland Street Junior High. Who does not remember with pleasure her cheerful smile and sunny disposition? We have known her to be a good kid and a thorough student. To predict for her success, would be redundancy.

Mary E. Quinn

sweet and pleasing to everybody. If all of her ambitions come true we will see her in a few years conducting a school of dance for "jitterbug minded children."

XV. Joan Veilleux, the girl who likes everything (including biology) except turnip, is none other than Joan of our famous and renowned senior class. Horse-back riding gives Joan a big thrill, and a certain young man—well, I can't quite describe it, but Joan just heaved a big sigh and rolled her eyes. Harry James keeps Joan in good humor, and she hopes someday to really give him a break and let him meet her.

XVI. Ellen Villard is a good natured miss. Also, she has carried off the honors for room 307. She is minus her class ring now, but a new one on a different finger seems to please her taste far better. So to you, Ellen, the class of '45 wishes all the happiness in the world.

XVII. Kathleen Whalen is just "good old Kay" to the girls. Rather quiet but nice, she is as good natured as can be. One other good quality about her is that she never fails to do her homework. That's a virtue, Kay, not a habit, so the girls of room 307 wish you all the happiness in the world for we're certain you deserve it.

CLASS WILLS OF '45

CLASSICAL GIRLS

We, the senior class of 1945, being of unsound mind and under legal age, having no authority but too much nerve, decide to make this our last will and testament.

Lucy Utterback leaves her Friday afternoon, four o'clock view of Castine busses coming into Bangor to Barbara Nelligan and Gwendolyn Jansson.

Mary Jane Perry leaves her little black address book to Alice O'Leary and Betty Ann O'Connor.

Stella Theriault bequeaths her nurse's aid uniform to Jane Pooler.

Marie Perry wills her ability to make excuses in math class to Charlotte Smith.

Jean Matheson gladly leaves her punctuality and daily attendance to Juanita Stanley—to be put into active service.

Mary Brangwynne bequeaths all her used bus tickets to Charlene and Frances Brochu.

Theodora Parent leaves her long fingernails to Pauline Johnson and Dorothy Rankin.

Betty MacNeil leaves her bottle of peroxide, date book and picture gallery to Leona Silver and Joan Davitt.

Mary Quinn leaves her old love letters, complete with blue ribbons, to June Cochran and Ellen Duddy. May they only enjoy them as much as Mary did.

Jane Pooler wills her business ability to Barbara Barton and Daisy Nichols.

Jane Tesseo bequeaths to June Hackett her power of concentration in math class.

Yvette Martin wills her memory of a happy moment in Biology class to Mary Ryder.

Joan Cassidy bequeaths all future interest in Castine to Alice O'Leary and Jean Stockwell.

Barbara Loftus wills her ability to see the funny side of all events to Corinne Bonneau.

Eleanor Brennan leaves her place in St. John's Sodality to Dorinda Connelly.

Rosemary Riley bequeaths her ink-bottle, that everyone else uses, to Madeline Parady.

Witnessed and signed by the class of 1945.

Joan Cassidy, Attorney.

COMMERCIAL GIRLS

Before embarking on the road of life, we, the class of 1945, do will and bequeath the following gifts to the future seniors of next year. It is our belief that if you live up to the example set for you this year by the sophisticated seniors, your last year at John Bapst will be indeed a happy one. First of all, work hard, turn in all assignments, and cause no trouble or worry for any members of the faculty.

Jeanette Caruso's height to Viola St. Germaine.

Mary Lou Richard's slender form to Gloria Luckey.

Joan McGee's popularity with the opposite sex to the Polyot Twins.

Annette Cumming's ability to do shorthand to Cecelia Albert.

Kay Whalen's virtuous looks to Frances Kelly.

Julia McCarthy and Jane Sargent's cheerleader positions to Gertrude Dowe and Frances Ham-mel.

Lucille Michaud's bus ticket to Florence Martin.

Mona Bartlett's diamond to Pauline O'Hearon.

Dorothy Foley's position at Grant's to GERALdine Sproul and Louise McGrath. May the lucky one get it.

Teresa Julian's smart clothes to Elaine Cummings.

Rose Kenney's bobby pins to Inez Comer.

Dorothy Murray's close relations with Sister Monica to Mary Joan Cushman.

Mary Jane Healy's curly locks to Isabel Nevins.

Ellen Villard's Honor Essay to Nadine Peltier.

Dorothy Tibodeau's English speeches to Teresa Gallant.

Therese Cushman's Old Town pals to Helene Cameron, Carolyn Mann, and Rose McNally.

Joanne Veilleux's biology bugs to Shirley Madore.

And, as the last parting gift, I, do will and bequeath to the entire junior class the privilege of using the front stairs at all times on entering and leaving the school. May your motto be, "If at first you get caught, try, try, TRY AGAIN."

Signed and sealed on this fourth day of June, 1945.

Class Prophecies

CLASSICAL PROPHECY

(Author's Note) The documents from which I secured my information regarding this immortal graduating class were unfortunately not quite legible due to their age. If, therefore, there are any errors made it is hoped no relatives will take offense.

The success of the past war world owes much to the young Americans who brought it through its first uncertain years following the war.

For example, let us look upon the young women graduating from John Bapst High School in the year 1945 and see their mighty contributions to this better world. It is June 17 of that year; the school auditorium is filled with spectators who are witnessing another graduation. The graduates are filled with the solemnity of the day; each with courage and fortitude is ready to take up her individual place in the world. The triumphant moment has come when the high school diplomas are distributed.

As each young student comes forward and receives her degree, I shall endeavor to tell you the achievements she has made in this world. Through the veil of years, I see the first outstretched hand receiving the diploma which is her passport into life. It is Marie Perry the once frivolous young girl who became the saintly missionary nun in the wild expanse of India. She is followed by Mary Agnes Perry who today with her husband Admiral Jon Jenkins is maintaining the Maine Maritime Academy at Castine. Next to the platform walks Mary Quinn who in 1947 was chosen "Color Girl" at Annapolis. Vivacious Mary is now staging a "come back." She is followed by Rosemary Riley who in collaboration with Robert Benchley has written many witty books and a wide variety of subjects.

Approaching now is Ann Meehan who recently began writing the biography of that brilliant American woman, Josephine M. Profita. Next is Eleanor Brennan who wrote the currently popular song "I Drawl for You," and who is the composer of a score of other hits. We behold next Mary Jane Perry who writes the scripts for the radio program, "Ed's Other Wife." She is followed by Betty MacNeil Reardon who is running a U. S. O. in New Guinea. Next appears Lucy Utterback who is editing a newspaper column entitled, "My Days at the Bangor House." Here is Theresa Cushman who writes advertising for

COMMERCIAL CLASS PROPHECY

So you think I'm clairvoyant? Well maybe I am. Yes it's getting clearer; it's the year 1975 . . .

Let's look Mary Lou Richards up first. There she is still pounding away on a typewriter at Viner's, only now she wears a ring on the left hand third finger. Sorry, but we haven't time to find out who he is (poor guy). We must hurry on to . . .

Grant's where we find Dorothy Foley still running from the hardware counter to the Men's and Boys' counter.

While we are in Maine we will drop down to Orrington to call at the little red schoolhouse where we find Miss Dorothy Thibodeau, teaching school to all the little Jimmy Pelcher Jrs.

Going to Portland we make a stop at the convent to call on Dorothy Murray, now Mother Superior.

Lucille Michaud is spending her time reading all papers printed in the year 1945 trying to find out just what the "Mid-Night Curfew" was.

We go from Maine to California. We're just in time to see Mona and Ken climbing into their new plane. Oh, they almost forgot Kenneth, Jr.

We return to Bangor and bump right into Jane Sargent and Joan McGee, only they're in a hurry still trying to catch "Hughie" and "Bill".

Ellen Villard is now head bookkeeper at Freese's. Any bookkeeper worried about her "trial balance" should look Ellen up.

What are we doing in Hollywood? Do we know any one here? Why! There's Julia McCarthy, now Mrs. J. McCarron, a great dramatic actress.

Wondering what happened to Rose Kenney and Jeanette Caruso? Well, we'll stop at the "Home for Aged Women". There they sit, Rose still trying to persuade Jeanette to skip out, only now she wants to skip out after "lights out".

There's Kay Whalen writing a book. You know, she became so embarrassed when Dick proposed that she said "No". Oh, yes, the title of the book is, "FOR GOODNESS SAKE DON'T BE BASHFUL".

Annette Cummings is still trying to make up her mind . . . Is it Buddy? Or is it Bobby? Hurry Annette, or you'll die an old maid.

Mary Jane Healy once thought of as "bashful Mary" is touring the world as a guest speaker at the most prominent Women's Clubs.

For our last stop we will return to John Bapst High School. Why, what a surprise, Joan Veilleux teaching Biology!

OUR WORKING GIRLS

Most of our girls are working, so how about taking a tour around town to look them over? Starting at Freese's we find two of our seniors, Ellen Villard and Dot Murray, slaving away in the cash office. The girls are pretty busy and can't stop to talk, so we will have to move on.

Next we cross the street to Grant's, where we find Dot Foley trying to sell a handsome soldier a blue necktie. She is much too interested to be bothered with us. So let's see whom we can find at the Five & Ten. Well, look who's here. Of all people, Annette Cummings trying to run three counters instead of one. And here's Rose McNally down in the back of the store. Rosie takes care of the lost and found department, besides her own counter.

The Cameron sisters, Pat and Helene, are running the candy counter. Connie Kane is also on it at times. That's a pretty good group. Maybe we can get a little candy from them.

Also residing at the Five & Ten are Vivian Gallant, Pauline Sproul, Edwina Lavoie, Barbara Thibeau, and Barbara Hayes.

Now let's see what's going on in the institution of Newberry's. Who's that glamour girl over there? Why, it's Jane Sargent. Jane has been working in the stock room. Excuse, please. She puts her time in there. And here's Mona Bartlett, trying on some of the new hats that just arrived. Yes, Mona, I think Ken will like that hat.

Upstairs on cosmetics are Pat McClay and Pat Loftus. That new shade of lipstick is very becoming to you, girls.

And here are some more seniors. Jane Tesseo and Yvette Martin, on glassware. Now, don't break all those dishes, girls.

Barbara Nelligan is on the lunch counter, and also included in Newberry's, Inc., are Dot McGee, Joan Duddy and Alice Perry.

Going down the street we land in Warren's and there is Judy McCarthy playing hostess to all the customers. Judy tells us that Theresa Julian and Mary Lou Richards are working in an office. Good luck to you, girls.

Want to buy a pair of shoes? There's Shirley Madore in the Triangle. Think we could get a pair without a stamp?

Maybe Carolyn Mann and Eleanor Polyott will give us a free ticket to the Park Theatre.

Barbara Loftus, Joan Cushman and Ellen Duddy are soda-jerkers in the drug stores, while Marie Perry is working at the A. & P.

A PICTURE

God, let me paint a picture
Of your nature all in tune;
Of the silvery showers in April;
Of the daffodils in June;
Of the dew drops in the morning;
Of the golden sun at noon;
Of the fluffy clouds all floating high
While the yellow daisy breathes a sigh;
Of the huge sun shining down
On many fields burnt and brown;
Of a pansy clothed in a velvet gown
Holding her head with great renown;
Of a rose all blushing pink and red;
Of a river flowing in its bed;
Of a small brook so it will lie
Where a crooked road goes passing by;
Of mountains of purple hue,
Against the sky of cobalt blue;
Of the beauty of lightning in the darkened summer skies;
Of the majestic ocean while the tides fall and rise;
Of forests of stately pines
Where a lonely path usually winds,
While down below there runs a stream
The essence of a poet's dream.
If you would help me do these things
I would be grateful, King of Kings.

the radio, "Have You Tried a Raleigh Lately?" Now before us is Mrs. Francis Flagg nee Joan Cassidy who is well on her way to her goal of twelve children. She is followed by Yvette Martin the world famous orator whose talents are heard far and near. Next is Stella Theriault who has written a book denouncing Emily Post entitled, "Etiquette versus Stella T—."

Ah, now approaches the Valedictorian, Jean Matheson, Ph.D., who is Dean of Women at the newly established University of Shangra La. She is followed by Jackie Pooler who is the ski expert at Sun Valley. Next is Mary Brangwynne who has opened an exclusive sanatorium in the Hampden Hills called, "Sleep of the Deep Rest Home." She is followed by Jane Tesseo who is head nurse at the "Sleep of the Deep Rest Home." She is responsible for putting them deep into sleep. Next is Barbara Loftus. "Oh, sister, how your beads do rattle." And oh, yes, last but not least is Theodora Parent the officers' delight in the PX at Dow Field.

CAREERS

CLASSICAL CAREERS

I suppose everyone is wondering just what the senior classicals plan to do in the near future.

Joan Cassidy will seek further honors at Rosemont College.

Mary Brangwynne in starched uniform will smooth a fevered brow at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Barbara Loftus will seek further knowledge, but at present has not decided just which school she will attend.

Betty MacNeil has aspirations toward an out of state college, and has for a choice LaSalle Jr. of Massachusetts.

Yvette Martin will look very professional in her uniform at St. Mary's Hospital in Lewiston; and Jean Matheson will, no doubt, be as clever in her studies at St. Elizabeth's as she was at John Baptist.

Marie Perry hopes to be at the U. of M. majoring in Chemistry with teaching as her goal.

Rosemary Riley will further her Catholic education at Regis.

Mary Jane Perry will enter New Rochelle College in September.

Therese Cushman seems to choose telegraphy as her vocation and wishes to remain in the state of Maine.

Mary Quinn will trip along the halls of Trinity in Washington.

Mary Agnes Perry prefers to attend a Junior college, and it seems that it is going to be LaSalle Jr. of Massachusetts.

Lucy Utterback has her plans set for the U. of M. with an eye to the U. of Columbia later on.

Jackie Pooler will major in one of her favorite subjects, "History", at Westbrook Jr. College.

Eleanor Brennan will look very nice in her white uniform at St. Vincent's in New York.

Stella Theriault plans on being a very good student nurse at the Sisters of Mercy Hospital.

Ann Meehan intends to enter cadet nursing, but is undecided as to which hospital she will enter.

Jane Tesseo's goal is the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston.

Theodora Parent has her eyes on the 5-year nursing course at the University of Maine.

Betty MacNeil

COMMERCIAL CAREERS

After graduation the Senior Commercial Class plans to do the following:

Jane Sargent to continue work at J. J. Newberry's until the war ends, and then, O My Goodness.

Mona Bartlett plans to be a June bride but she doesn't say what year.

Teresa Julian doesn't say what she plans to do for work, probably she'll be employed as stenographer for the Central Furniture Company. Unless she meets Joe.

Joan McGee is planning to attend Beal's Business school next fall.

Annette Cuminnings will also be a student at Beal's Business school next fall but will continue work at F. W. Woolworth's until then.

Ellen Villard plans to enter the Waves. I'm wondering if it's the traveling she's interested in.

Dorothy Foley says she'd like to work at the telephone building. So if the operator gives you the wrong number you'll know it's Dottie.

Mary Lou Richards is going to travel, California being her destination.

Kay Whalen is planning on marriage when the war ends. The lucky guy's name is Dick.

Jeanette Caruso doesn't say what she wants to do, only wait for Whitie.

Joan Veilleux will also be a telephone operator so if you're given the wrong number it can also be Joan.

Rose Kenney is another who says she's going to wait for a certain guy named Clayton.

Julia McCarthy is going to be a telephone operator until Jimmie comes home.

Lucille Michaud, who will continue to live in Old Town, plans to get a position in Bangor.

Mary Jane Healy is going to be a student at the Maine School of Commerce.

Dorothy Murray is planning to enter the convent.

OUR WORKING GIRLS

Just one more stop for today. Let's go down to Bass Park to see Jeannette Caruso. No Jeannette isn't playing there. She is known as teacher to all the children.

That winds up our tour for today. I hope you enjoyed it and will come along with us some other day.

SCHOOL NEWS

V-E DAY AT BAPST

Victory in Europe at last! Such an exclamation was voiced by one and all of us Bapst students. On that eventful V-E Day, we assembled in the auditorium to attend a program previously arranged for this occasion. At first we prayed in unison to thank God for bringing the European war to a victorious end.

Then Ernest Henley's famous piece "Invictus" was rendered by Porter Elliott and graciously appreciated by all. Afterwards the girls' glee club sang a patriotic song especially suited to the occasion. Ivan Lancaster followed with a patriotic recitation with which he had previously taken second place in the Spear Contest. Following this, Brother Samuel gave a summary of the terrible European War, enabling us to know how grateful we should be to Divine providence for ending this terrible conflict; and how we should continue to storm Heaven with continued prayers to hasten the day of victory in the Pacific.

The following day the entire student body was present at St. John's Church to listen to an inspiring sermon by Father MacFarlane, followed by Rosary and Litanies recited in thanksgiving.

V-E Day observances came to a close the next day with Holy Mass and Benediction at St. John's Church, again attended by the students and faculty. On this day, the Blessed Sacrament was exposed for veneration on the altar all day. All were urged to visit the church continuously during the day.

Thus did we observe V-E day. For us it was a day of rejoicing, but primarily it was one of prayerful thanksgiving. Let us follow the suggestions of the authorities in the government and constantly pray to God that the victory over Japan will come in the near future, so that all of our relatives and friends may come home to us, and that we may once again enjoy the benefits of peace.

TWO STUDENTS CALLED TO THEIR ETERNAL REWARD DURING PAST SCHOOL YEAR

Twice during the past school year, the entire faculty and student body was shocked to hear of the sudden deaths of our fellow students, Victor Mayo and Henry Currier.

Victor Mayo, a member of the Junior Academic class, met his death due to a hunting accident November 1st.

Henry Currier, a Freshman Academic student, died March 27 after only a few hours' illness.

Although the deaths of these boys were untimely, in the sense that they were in the prime of youth, we are sure that through God's great mercy, and through the many prayers offered for the repose of their souls, they have reached their eternal reward.

While we remember these boys in our prayers, let us also remember that death strikes suddenly and without warning, and take heed that our souls are prepared at all times to face our Maker.

HONOR PARTS AWARDED TO OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

In every graduating class a few students stand out above the others for their scholarship and application to study during their four years in high school. This year's classes are no exception. In the Boys' Department, John Royal, Hugh Goodness, and Donald Aucoin showed the way for their fellow members. The leaders and winners in the Girls' Department are Elizabeth Jean Matheson, Mary Brangwynne, and Ellen Villard. These students have proved themselves eminently worthy of the honors bestowed on them. They have proved to be a credit to their parents and their teachers. Each one receives the acclaim of the student body to whom they have set such a shining example.

FOOTBALL SQUAD ENJOYS BANQUET

A testimonial banquet was held at the Penobscot Exchange Hotel on November 20, 1944, for the members of 1944's successful football squad. Brother Denis Joseph, toastmaster, opened the program by giving full praise to Brothers Martinian and Raymond for their aid as assistant coaches. Brother Medard, coach, praised the fine spirit displayed by the boys all season. John Royal, captain, gave a brief report of the games played. Brother Samuel, principal, congratulated the boys and their coach on their fine sportsmanship.

The entire faculty of Brothers attended the banquet. Also present were, Fathers Manette and Lappin from St. Mary's parish, and Fathers Carlson and MacFarlane from St. John's. The cheerleaders, Julia McCarthy, Ellen Polyot, Jane Sargent, Mary Brangwynne, and Marie Perry, also attended, as did the members of the ticket staff.

After the meal and talks, the assembled guests were shown football movies of the highlights of the best games of recent years.

PARTY HELD FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF BASKETBALL TEAM

During the Easter holidays, an informal party was held in the boys' assembly room of John Bapst for the enjoyment of the members of the basketball team, as honor guests, the cheerleaders, and the members of the ticket and refreshment staffs for athletics.

Sister Eulalia of the girls' department attractively decorated the room with banners and crepe in a real festive manner. Small tables were arranged around the room, booth style, and refreshments were plentifully supplied. Music was furnished by a loudspeaker. Games, prizes, dancing, and laughter made the party the most successful one of the year.

ATHLETIC AWARDS PRESENTED AT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

In appreciation of their efforts in giving Bapst two of its best teams in years in football and basketball, the following boys were presented the major letters they earned for their playing by Brother Samuel, Principal, and Brother Medard, Director of Athletics.

Football—Major awards: John Royal, captain, James McCarron, Leo Burke (in the army), Donald Reardon, Joseph McLellan, Eugene Damien, William Booker, Charles Carlisle, Alphonse Desrosiers, Hugh Goodness, John Elliott, Richard Martin, Gerald King, John Hickson, and Donald McCann.

Basketball—Major awards: John Ryder, captain, John Mooney, John Hickson, Thomas Trainer, Richard Drinon, John Elliott, Joseph McLellan, John Trainer, William Booker, and John Royal. Minor awards: Robert Brangwynne, George Drinon, and Terrence McAloon.

All of the members of the basketball team were also presented with Tournament medals. These medals were presented to the contesting teams by the Maine Principals Association. All teams selected for tournament play received these medals.

dents took over the city government on May 14, Jean acted as City Solicitor. The subject of her graduation address will be "The Polish Issue".

The Salutatorian, John Royal, has been very active in all walks of student activities, including debating, public speaking and sports. He captained the football team this past year, and has also won his letter in basketball, and is a member of the baseball team. He was City Clerk on Good Citizenship Day.

Mary E. Brangwynne, the first essayist, is the treasurer of the senior class, and was one of the cheerleaders. On May 14, she took the place of the City Health Nurse. Her essay will be entitled "The Dumbarton Oaks Peace Program".

Hugh G. Goodness, the second essayist, was elected City Manager on May 14. He is a letter man in football and baseball. His essay will be "The Security Council".

The third essayist is Ellen Villard, a member of the Girls' Glee Club. Her essay deals with "The Economic and Social Councils".

Donald E. Aucoin, the fourth essayist, was the winner of the Gold Medal in Commercial subjects. He was a manager in athletics and active in intramural sports. The subject of his essay is "The Bretton Woods Monetary Proposals".

At the same time as the above named were named as graduation speakers, the medal winners were also announced. Elizabeth Jean Matheson and John Royal won the Gold Medals for general excellence in the Academic Course. Ellen Villard and Donald Aucoin won the Gold Medal for general excellence in the Commercial subjects. Finally, Joan Cassidy and John Royal were awarded the Gold Medals for excellence in Christian Doctrine for their four years.

STUDENTS HAVE ANNUAL RETREAT

On April 26, 1945, the student body of John Bapst participated in a retreat given under the spiritual guidance of Rev. W. F. McGinnis, C. S. C. of the Holy Ghost Fathers in the school auditorium. During the four days in which the retreat was held the students assisted at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Through the morning sessions they heard talks given by Father McGinnis.

The aims of this retreat and others that will follow are to give the boys and girls a chance to know God better, also to straighten out any questions or problems that might confront them.

In these times when the world is so mixed up, the retreat is a valuable aid to the spiritual development of youth, the youth that some day will take their place in running the affairs of this country.

IVAN LANCASTER WINS THIRD PLACE IN SPEAR CONTEST

The annual Spear Speaking Contest was held in Brewer High School this year, with Mr. A. Pillsbury, principal of Brewer, as master of ceremonies. Robert Whittier of Bangor High School won the contest, with his rendition of "Anything Can Happen". Second place went to Alvah Hutchinson of Stonington High School. Third place went to Ivan Lancaster '48, who delivered "The Barber of Seville". A great deal of credit is due to Ivan for his splendid showing. Most of those competing (fourteen in all) were upper-classmen, while Ivan is a freshman. We can expect great things from Ivan in his future years as a public speaker.

FASHIONS AT BAPST

It looks like skirts and button cardigans or "sloppy" pullovers are all the go for winter wear at John Bapst.

Report card day brings the more dress-up look. Maybe a new dress; of course, no frills. Just simply tailored in a flattering color.

With Spring come the cotton dresses. Seersucker suits and one and two-piece dresses in stripes, plaids, and checks. The seasonal

BAPST DEBATING CLUB BEGINS INTER-SCHOLASTIC COMPETITION

After a lapse of several years, John Bapst once more represented in inter-scholastic debating contests as a member of the Penobscot Valley Conference. We are in hopes that this scholastic activity will continue to gain in popularity with the students, and will remain an essential part of the school program.

As was to be expected from an inexperienced group, our teams won no championships this year. However, despite the lack of experience, the members of the teams showed great promise of a bright future.

The following students made up the debating society: Affirmative, Porter Elliott '45, Francis Daily '47, William Ryan '47, Ivan Lancaster '48, Rose McNally '46; Negative, John Royal '45, William Ambrose '45, David Goggin '47, Edward Talbot '47, and Charlene Brochu '46. The two teams were coached by Brother Samuel and Brother Dennis Joseph respectively. It was principally due to their tireless efforts that the teams were as successful as they were. When we look at the roster of names we can readily see that only three members of the team will be lost by graduation.

The schools debated were all in the Penobscot Valley Conference, Brewer, Bucksport, Orono, Ellsworth, and Old Town. Each team, the Affirmative, and the Negative, debated once each with the above schools.

The following debaters received medals for their distinguished service: William Ambrose, John Royal, Porter Elliott, William Ryan, and Charlene Brochu. The entire team was tendered a banquet at the Penobscot Hotel in April.

School Activities

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Besides all the Dramatic club social events and sport parties, there were many other social activities in the school during the current year.

The freshmen boys started the social whirl by giving a wonderful party for the freshmen girls. The party began about seven-thirty and lasted until eleven. The boys had just about everything for the girls. There were sandwiches, cakes, cookies, candy, ice cream and coke. The boys' assembly hall was very artistically decorated, and showed many hours of hard work and planning. There was music, dancing, singing and games, and the boys distributed cute little bids and green and red paper hats.

Several months later the freshmen girls returned this party, and they also had sandwiches, cake, cookies, candy, coke and ice cream. The boys and girls danced, played games, sang, and everyone had a very delightful time. The assembly hall was decorated in red, white and blue, and the favors consisted of Indian hats. The bids were very pretty; they were blue suede with gay flags on the covers.

Miss Profita's sophomore speech class also had a very nice party. Besides the usual music, refreshments, and games, a program was presented by various members of the class. The girls' assembly hall was filled with cheer and laughter for this unusually successful social.

After the football season there was a dance held in the school auditorium in honor of the football squad. During intermission the players were given their awards. The dance bids for this affair were in the shape of footballs.

The seniors gave the juniors a formal Junior Prom. There were four girl candidates for queen, and four boy candidates for king. These candidates were Gwen Jansson, Jane Pooler, Eleanor Polyot, Carolyn Mann, George Gross, John Mooney, Bill Booker and John McCarthy. During intermission John Mooney and Gwen Jansson were crowned king and queen of the prom. The king and queen sat on their throne on the stage with their attendants during the first waltz after intermission. The queen was presented a colonial bouquet and the king a white boutonniere.

There is not much time left in the school year, but the seniors are still looking forward to the senior dance and to a senior banquet. These will bring to an end the social events of the year.

STUDENTS OF BAPST TAKE OVER DUTIES OF CITY MANAGEMENT

On May 14, the students of John Bapst took over the duties of the various offices and departments of the city government of Bangor. The object of this procedure was to acquaint the students more intimately with the functions of the city government. In filling these offices the students carried out the election and choosing of officials among themselves in the same manner in which a public election is held. Regular ballots were prepared, and the voting was done in secret as in ordinary elections. The elected students then appointed public officials to the various appointive offices.

On the day chosen, May 14, the students selected reported to the various public offices where they were met by the regular officials. For the rest of the day the students assumed the duties of the public offices under the guidance of regular officials, whom they accompanied throughout the day in the performance of their duties.

The choosing of offices from the student body was begun by the unanimous selection of John Royal as City Clerk. He then received the petitions of those students desiring to be on the City Council, and the nominations were placed on the ballots. A regular election was held and the following students were elected to the City Council: Charles Carlisle, Robert Carney, Rose Kenney, Yvette Martin, Joseph McLellan, Mary Jane Perry, Donald Reardon, John Ryder and Jane Tesseo. Robert Carney was "caught in the draft" before May 14, and Donald Plourde was chosen in his place.

The newly elected City Council then met and chose students to fill in the appointive positions in the city government.

SHUBERT ALLEY

(Editor's note: For our review of Shubert Alley we are reprinting the story that appeared in the Bangor Daily News on May 17, 1945.)

The John Bapst high school Dramatic club presented Shubert Alley to an enthusiastic audience last night at the John Bapst auditorium. Under the capable directorship of Miss Josephine M. Profita, a member of the faculty of the girls' department, the Mel Dinnelli play in prologue and seven scenes, "A Play for Women," by an all-girl cast, dramatically portrays a young girl's faith in her own future, her gratitude to those who unfairly thwarted her ambition temporarily. It was the resounding triumph of goodness and honesty over captious characters, petty jealousies and human faults to which all are prey and to which many succumb.

OUR HELP IN THE WAR EFFORT

Do not let it be said that the senior Classical girls of John Bapst High School lack the ambition to do their part toward the ending of this war. For instance, several weeks ago we had a clothing drive in which 850 pounds of clothing for the allied nations were collected by the school and donated to the parish donation.

The organizations that the senior girls represent are: nurses' aide, filter center, civilian air patrol and U. S. O.

The nurses' aides help at the Eastern Maine General Hospital, and from all reports they help out quite a bit. They take temperatures, pulses, help clean the kitchen and wards, bring in wash basins and towels, and feed the helpless ones. The ones who do this are: Lucy Utterback, Betty MacNeil, Joanne Cassidy, Mary Jane Perry, Stella Theriault, Mary Quinn, seniors; Gwen Jansson, Jane Pooler, juniors; Mary Lou Pooler, Eileen Ambrose, and Helen Quinn, sophomores.

The filter center work is taken over by Lucy Utterback, Joanne Cassidy, and Mary Jane Perry.

Marie Perry is the only senior in the Civilian Air Patrol, but there are others from the different classes.

Our U. S. O. group of seniors who volunteer to keep the Catholic books and magazines at the club in order are: Yvette Martin, Jacqueline Pooler, Stella Theriault, Betty MacNeil, Lucy Utterback, and Mary Quinn.

On a person-to-person survey we found out that every girl in the classical room has bought war bonds and stamps, has collected old newspapers and used fats, writes to at least one boy in the service, and remembers to pray for all our servicemen every day.

pated, the realization of what it is like to be a "big shot" for a day. It also gave them practical and valuable knowledge of how our city is managed.

OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL SODALITY

On October 16, 1945, Our Lady of Good Counsel Sodality held its first business meeting of the year. New officers were elected. They were as follows:

Prefect—Eleanor M. Brennan
Vice Prefect—Anne Meehan
Secretary—Jacqueline Pooler
Treasurer—Marie Perry

All business meetings during the current year were held in the girls' assembly hall. A Spiritual meeting was held monthly in St. John's Church.

Many projects were planned during the current year, all of which were accomplished.

Nearly 80 new Sodalists were received into the Sodality during this year.

My thanks, and the thanks of all the Sodalists, go to our Moderator, Sister Callista, and to our Spiritual Director, Father McFarlane. Under their guidance the Sodality experienced a most successful year.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Club officers were elected on October 11, the second meeting, and they were the following:

President—Joan Cassidy
Vice President—Jane Pooler
Secretary—Theresa Cushman
Treasurer—Helen Quinn

A constitution was drawn up and the first John Bapst dramatic club was off to an official start.

Just to show that nothing was too difficult for us to undertake, our first presentation was "The Song of Bernadette". This took place on December 13 and surpassed all expectations to be an overwhelming success. Hats off to our coach, Miss Profita.

The next club undertaking was a formal dance held in the John Bapst Auditorium. The "Drama Prom" was a huge success, attended by seventy couples with music by the Southernaires. The hall was attractively decorated with blue and white, the club colors, and chairs and tables were placed about the room cabaret style.

Two one-act plays were put on at the church reunions by the dramatic club. On February 9 members of the club went to the University of Maine to see the "Imaginary Invalid" and on March 9 to see "Nine Girls"; and that completed our activities until after Easter.

During Easter week try-outs were held for "Shubert Alley" the next dramatic club play to be presented. It has an all girl cast of nineteen members and will have taken place by the time we go to press.

On Friday, April 20, a barn social was held at the Essex Street Grange for members of the club and their escorts. Transportation was provided by trucks and everyone was dressed in genuine country style.

All dramatic club activities have been successful this year. Miss Profita is responsible for this. She has helped us form a club which has added enjoyment to our senior year. Our hope is that the ones who will follow in our footsteps will have as much pleasure in the dramatic club as we did.

Joan Cassidy

The Chris of Joan Cassidy is very reminiscent of her starring role as Bernadette in The Song of Bernadette, as played by the John Bapst high school Dramatic club last December before an awed audience.

Miss Ellen Duddy, as the self-sacrificing sister Fay, was very natural in her part. She was the mother in The Song of Bernadette and she continues her role as the one who sacrifices everything for others. Therese Cushman is the traditional scheming step-mother and she is very convincing. Mary Lou Pooler, the wise-cracking actress, who works in a department store between engagements, leaves no doubt as to her ability. Gwendolyn Jansson, Alice O'Leary, Eileen Ambrose and Katherine Flanagan carry on in their own inimitable fashion, as tried and true friends. Betty MacNeil, Corinne Bonneau and Stella Theriault are quite a trio in Miss Cassidy's rise to the top. Lucy Utterback and Joan O'Connor contribute their support from opposite angles. Mary Agnes Perry, Mary Quinn, Mary Jane Perry, Helen Quinn, Charlene Brochu and Marie Perry are realistic portrayals of the just and unjust.

The dramatis personae, under Miss Profita's direction, was professional in their various interpretations. Too much credit cannot be bestowed on Miss Profita for her selection of characters, costumes and general lighting effects. A startling innovation, entirely Miss Profita's idea, was a revolving stage. The revolutions were noiseless and there were audible oh's and ah's from the enthralled audience as the different settings presented themselves after practically no waiting.

CHILDREN OF MARY SODALITY

St. Mary's Parish

One of the most eventful activities of the average American Catholic girl is the Sodality. All over the United States we find different sodalities honoring Our Blessed Mother.

St. Mary's Sodalists have contributed their share with another successful year behind them. Under the skillful and unique direction of our Moderator, Sister Mary Pius, this year has been a happy and successful one. We are deeply appreciative of her untiring efforts which made the following projects successful ones.

Triduum preceding Our Lady's Birthday, September 8. This was especially for the Junior Sodalists to ask her blessing on their efforts and to bless the school year.

The Holy Hour of September 24, Mercy Day, was the finale of a Novena made for our boys in the Service of the country.

The general Spiritual Meeting of the Sodality was held on the third Sunday of each month. The Little Office of the Blessed Mother and five decades of the Rosary were said on these occasions. The inspiring talks given by our Spiritual Director, Reverend John F. Nelligan, at these meetings were aids to increase personal holiness and a spur to Catholic Action.

October found the Sodalists active in a drive for the Family Rosary pledge. One hundred and sixty-seven families pledged themselves to the daily recitation of the Rosary for the duration that "God, in His mercy, through the intercession of the Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, will protect our loved ones in the armed forces of the United States, bless our country and bring us to a just and lasting peace." Through this month we also carried out the project of a living Rosary.

The "Meet the Saints" social had many consulting the lives of the Saints as to the customs, manners and dress of the particular saint that they were to represent. Bette Ann Davis carried off first prize. She impersonated St. Therese, the Little Flower of Jesus.

A triduum preceded All Saint's Day.

Again we were asked to do our share for the success of the Reunion. We had three socials and our booth was able to turn in its greatest quota in a number of years.

Many of our Sodality members have given their services in helping the war effort by becoming members of the Red Cross and Nurses Aide Committees.

At Thanksgiving we all contributed generously to filling and distributing baskets to the poor and needy.

A select choir sang the carols at the City Farm at Christmas time.

Daily Mass, Holy Communion and frequent visits were advocated during the Lenten Season.

The last social event up to the publishing of this paper was the commemoration of World-Wide Sodality Day. This was a joint affair of the Married Ladies' Sodality and the Children of Mary. The members of both organizations received Holy Communion at the 8:15 Mass. A Communion breakfast, at which Reverend E. Fitzgerald was the guest speaker, was held at St. Mary's Hall. The pastor, Rev. J. F. Nelligan, also spoke briefly at this affair. A beautiful shrine of Mary, adorned with flowers and candles was erected on the center of the stage.

Daily Mass and Devotions in honor of Mary was held during this month closing with the usual impressive ceremony of the Crowning of the Statue of our Lady.

Sodality activities have been especially interesting this year and in closing we again thank our Moderator. Also, it is only appropriate that we mention our former Moderator, Sister Mary Dolorosa, and extend thanks for her past years of service with our Sodality.

The Year in Sports

FOOTBALL SEASON IS VERY SUCCESSFUL

When football rolled around last fall 50 candidates reported to Broadway park in answer to Brother Medard's call. The majority of the candidates were as green as grass, but with plenty of hard work under the careful guiding hands of Brother Medard, with the aid of Brother Martinian, line coach, a hard-hitting, smoothly-working team was whipped into shape.

The Crusaders turned out one of their best teams in years this season, chalking five wins against two defeats and one tie. The fighting Irish toppled Orono, Bangor, Skowhegan, Brewer, and Higgins, bowing to Old Town and Stearns, while they fought a scoreless tie with Fairfield.

Bapst 0 - - - - Old Town 33

In the opening game of the season, lack of experience seemed to be the fate of the Crusaders as they bowed to the veteran team of Old Town High.

Bapst 33 - - - - Orono 0

In their first home game the Crusaders had little trouble trouncing Orono High by the tune of 33-0. It was in this game that many of the reserves proved to be good athletes.

Bapst 13 - - - - Stearns 14

The Crusaders dropped their second game, a heartbreaker, to Stearns High, in the final minutes of the game. The Crusaders led up until the last five minutes of play.

Bapst 13 - - - - Bangor 12

In their annual battle, waged on the rain-soaked Garland Street field, the Crusaders proved their worth by defeating the Bangor Rams for the first time in eleven years.

In the opening minutes Bangor recovered a fumble to score the first touchdown of the day. But the Fighting Irish took over the ball and never once lost it until they scored one minute before the half ended.

The second half was a repetition of the first. The Rams intercepted a pass and raced the ball over the goal for their second touchdown. From

THE FOOTBALL SQUAD IN REVIEW

One may have seen the spirit that characterized this year's team, the will to win against all odds, and the will to play clean, no matter what. This spirit was infused in the team by their Coach Brother Medard. Day in and day out he worked with the team and helped them to go through such a fine season. He trained the backfield and ends. The fine ball handling that you saw was due to his fine work.

Brother Martinian, line coach, assisted Brother Medard, and when you saw that powerful line move, you could see that they were well coached.

Dick Martin was the starting center. Dick, backing up the line on defense, tackled with driving power the opposing backs as they started through an opening. On the offense he played like a veteran although this was his first year as center.

The guards were Don Reardon, and Alphonse Derosiers. These men really opened holes for the backs. On defense they played in the other team's backfield all day long, sending the opponents reeling towards their own goal. "Brute" Elliott and "Bonesy" McCann, the tackles, let the opposing backs bounce off them and then shoved them back ten or twenty yards. There were not many teams that tried to send a play through them the second time.

The ends were Bill Booker and Captain John Royal. These ends kept the opposing backs running inside and on many occasions hit them far behind the line of scrimmage. Sometimes they tried their skill at running and passing and did a fairly good job.

The man who ran the team was little Jackie Ryder. His brilliant quarterbacking sent the team over the opponents' goal on many occasions. On defense his tackles were something to watch and admire.

The halfbacks were Jimmy McCarron and Jerry King. These boys went big guns for the team and ripped off numerous long gains. On defense they were terrific. Viciously they tackled here on the game was played in mid-field, until with less than five minutes left to go the Crusaders found themselves on their own 7-yard line. But the Irish, determined to win, let out with a sudden burst of power and drove the length of the field to score. Hickson bucked the line for the extra point and the game.

Bapst 13 - - - - - Skowhegan 0

The Crusaders had a little too much power for the Skowhegan Indians in a fierce struggle played at Garland Street Field.

Bapst 0 - - - - - Fairfield 0

In an "even-steven" game played between the midfield stripes, our Crusaders and the Lawrence High Bull Dogs battled out a nothing to nothing tie.

Bapst 13 - - - - - Brewer 6

In one of the cleanest games of football ever witnessed in Bangor, the Bapstmen toppled the hard fighting team of Brewer. In this game not even one penalty was called on either team.

Bapst 6 - - - - - Higgins 0

In a hard fought game played on the cold windswept fields of Garland Street, the two teams struggled back and forth for three periods. Finally "Jake" King returned a punt 70 yards for the only score of the game.

their opponents and kept them from getting too far.

Block Hickson, the fullback, was the passer and plunger. He played a leading role in every game. Time after time he carried the ball for a first down when it was needed. His punts kept Bapst out of danger on numerous occasions when it seemed that the other team would score.

Hugh Goodness substituted for either guard and capably filled the assigned spot.

Chick Carlisle subbed at center. He went in there and played a good brand of ball every time.

Eugene Damien was substitute tackle. It was his recovery of a fumble that set up one of the Bapst touchdowns in the Skowhegan game. He was deadly on both offense and defense.

Joe McLellan who was substitute end, once filled the job of right half when the other halfbacks were on the injured list.

Leo Burke, now in the service, was substitute back and drop-kicking specialist. He could run as well as the first string backs and alternated at left half with King.

CRUSADERS HAVE SUCCESSFUL SEASON IN BASKETBALL

The outlook for basketball for the 1944-45 season was far from bright. No regulars were present from the previous year. Brother Canice had the job of building an entirely new ball club from the ground up. How well he succeeded is shown by the season's record. Our green club lost a heartbreaker to the powerful Waterville Panthers, 43 to 41 in the last second of play, after leading all the way. The mythical Bangor-Brewer championship is also ours, by dint of twin victories over both of those clubs. Although our wins and losses were divided evenly at twelve each, we were invited to the Eastern Maine Tournament, to lose there to Guilford by four points. As it was, we lost only three games all season by more than four points.

For next year we will have for certain, Tommy Trainer, Dick Drinon, George Drinon, Robert Brangwynne and Terence McAloon, while the draft will decide the status of Johnny Mooney, Bill Booker, and "Block" Hickson. Only Ryder, McLellan, and J. Trainer will be lost by graduation.

JAYVEE BASKETBALL TEAM PILES UP IMPRESSIVE RECORD

The Junior Varsity squad had a very good season this year, rolling up fifteen wins as against five losses. All of the defeats were heartbreakers by only a few points. The team was entirely made up of Freshmen and Sophomores. The club visibly improved as the season advanced, and with the addition of "Tucker" McAloon, made life miserable for its opponents. The success of the team and the players' ability to absorb good coaching point to continued and even better varsity teams in the future.

The scrappy Jayvees were under the capable guidance of Brother Raymond, who worked very hard with the boys, and was directly responsible for their success. Brother Raymond, before coming here, had coached varsity basketball in New York state.

The team was as follows: "Tucker" McAloon, Bob Nelligan, Jack Perry, James Cahill, James Abbott, John Mooney, Tommy Geaghan, Tom MacNeil, Jack Rogan, Bill Clarke, John Lynch, David Goggin, Freddy Brennan, and James Murray.

CRUSADER HOOP SQUAD

Front Row, left to right: John Elliott, John Hickson, Thomas Trainer, John Ryder (Captain), John Mooney, Richard Drinon, John Royal.

Jack Ryder, ace guard and captain, was the outstanding defensive man on the team. He held down some of the best scorers in the state. Ably and efficiently he kept up the pep of the team.

Big and rugged "Block" Hickson was one of the most consistent scorers on the team. Always he could be countered on to score in every game. It was his deadly eye that beat Stearns in a sudden death period. "Block" sunk quite a few baskets from away out.

Johnny Mooney, all-Maine center, was the scoring artist of the team. When Johnny got under the basket he just could not be stopped. Old Town found that out when he swished in 25 points against them.

Little Tommy Trainer broke into the starting lineup after three or four games had already been played. Tommy just could not miss. He dropped them in from any angle. He had by far the best eye on the team. Also there was not a man on the team who could compare with him in dribbling.

Dick Drinon, along with Tommy made up the forward wall. Dick was dubbed by many Bapst followers with the name "Dead-Eye Dick." With his left hand he tossed them in from anywhere and everywhere. Dick has a great future in basketball. He is a natural if there ever was one.

Bill Booker, substitute, was the highest jumper on the squad. Bill started a few games. In them he really showed his stuff. With his height he really helped the team to win.

Johnny Elliott amazed many teams with his deadly accurate unorthodox one hand shot. Johnny saw a great deal of action and performed very well.

John Trainer was not on the squad the first part of the season because of studies. When he did come out he helped the whole team by his ability to score.

Joe McLellan was another excellent substitute. Joe could really play ball and was an expert ball handler. He was also a good scorer.

John Royal, one of the team's most capable substitutes, was used in many of the bigger games. He showed great ability throughout the year.

Robert Brangwynne, another mighty mite, was another dead eye. He ran his opponents to death when he entered the fray.

Terry McAloon was another good substitute. His chief asset was being good on defense. However "Red" could flip them in when he got the chance.

George Drinon was an excellent ball player and ball handler. He had a very tricky one hand shot. George could always get a few points when he was sent in.

CRUSADER PASTIMERS

 Second Row: Hugh Goodness, Robert Moran, John Perry, William Rice, George Drinon, Joseph McLellan.

VARSITY BASEBALL REVIVED AFTER TEN-YEAR LAPSE

After a lapse of ten years, Bapst is once more sponsoring a varsity baseball team. Despite war conditions, the situation for varsity baseball was favorable and the sport was lifted out of the intramural stage, where it has been kept alive for the past years. The Penobscot Valley Conference teams and Bangor High will furnish the opposition, and new uniforms were obtained for the players.

Early in April twenty-five boys reported at Newbury Street to Brother Medard for the first practice session. The material was mostly green and Brother Medard and the boys worked hard to get a smooth working combination. Eighteen boys are on the squad at present.

At the time this went to press, two games had been played, one a loss to Brewer, 9-2, the other a win over Old Town, 3-2. Johnny Trainer, a southpaw, pitched both games, and allowed a total of four hits. He was not charged with the loss of the Brewer game, as he left the game in the seventh with a sore arm. Two games since then have been postponed due to bad weather, one of them with Bangor being postponed on May 11 because of a heavy snowfall! The other opponent on our schedule is Orono High School, making eight games in all.

On the mound for the Crusaders in most games will be Johnny Trainer, who has shown great improvement and bids fair to becoming a consistent shutout artist. He has developed good control, and has plenty of speed, and should go places. Two more hurlers on the staff who will see action this year are "Rock" Pooler, a righthander, with speed and a nice hook, and Dick Drinon, another southpaw. During the season, Pooler will alternate between the mound and third base, due to his hitting ability.

FIVE ACES WIN INTRAMURAL TOURNEY FINALS—RED SOX TAKE LEAGUE TITLE

Led by "Blockie" Hickson, the Five Aces clinched the finals of the Intramural basketball tourney from the Browns of Johnny Mooney, by a score of 27-21. The Browns took an early lead and led at the half 16-7. In the second half the Five Aces suddenly came to life, and went on a twenty point rampage, while holding the Browns to five, to clinch the title. Mooney and MacNeil stood out with Hickson for the Five Aces, while Johnny Mooney, varsity ace, was high scorer for the Browns with 16 points.

In the consolation game, the Pirates nosed out the Braves 34-30. It was a tight and hard fought game with the score being 18-17 in favor of the Pirates at halftime. John "Gridiron" Royal and "Snookie" Pooler sparked the winners, while Tom Geaghan stood out for the losers.

In the regular Intramural League, the Red Sox, led by Dick Drinon, ended on top with 7 wins and no losses. The eight teams taking part in the league games were composed mostly of inexperienced players, with some varsity and jay-vee talent. The team captains were members of the varsity squad. Several good prospects for next year's teams were uncovered in the games.

Medals were awarded to the members of the Five Aces and the Red Sox for winning their respective competitions. Johnny Mooney won the high scoring medal with 167 points, averaging 24 to a game. Dick Drinon was a close second with 161 points. The Most Valuable Player award went to Jack Perry, who well deserved the award for his fine play and sportsmanship.

Brothers Canice, Raymond and Medard deserve a lot of praise for depriving themselves of their free time in order that the boys might enjoy the games.

The line-ups of the teams were as follows:

Red Sox—Dick Drinon, captain, John Perry, Reggie McManus, Dave Goggin, and Francis Foley.

Five Aces—John Hickson, captain, Francis Flanagan, John Mooney, Robert Williams, Alfred Winslow, John Carney, and Thomas MacNeil.

Braves—Bob Brangwynne, captain, Tom Geaghan, John Rogan, Ivan Lancaster, John Talbot, and James Abbott.

Thirty-two

Browns—Johnny Mooney, captain, Bill Clarke, James Cahill, Arthur Perry, Fred Brennan, Robert Trainer, and John Cox.

Pirates—John Royal, captain, Ronald Pooler, Alfred Sheehan, Harold Dowe, Jimmy Jameson, and Francis Hackett.

Cardinals—George Drinon, captain, John McAloon, Bill Rice, Alfred Paschal, John Moran, and Francis King.

St. Mary's—Tommy Drinon, John Cushing, Robert Higgins, Francis Matson, Robert Violette, George MacNeil.

St. John's—Thomas Gallant, William Thibodeau, Eugene Lamb, Gregory Pooler, William Mackenzie, and G. Smith.

BASEBALL

"Blockie" Hickson is handling the catching duties, with George Blinn and Lawrence Riley ready to step into his shoes. Johnny Mooney seems to have clinched the first base berth over Tucker McAloon and Joe McLellan, who are pressing him for the job. The second sack is all sewed up by Tommy Trainer, good fielder and steady hitter. George Drinon will fill in at third base when "Rock" Pooler takes over the mound duties. Eddie Black capably fills in the short-stop duties.

The starting outfield consists of Jack Perry in left, a good hitter; "Butch" Brangwynne in center, a sweet fielder and long ball hitter, and Hugh Goodness in right, a steady hitter. Backing these up are John Royal, Robert Moran, Bill Rice, George Bouchard, Francis Boyle, and William Drouin.

With little experience, the Crusaders are expected to have some difficulties this year, but indications from the first two games are that nobody had better underestimate them.

Royal: "But, Brother, I don't believe I deserve a zero."

Brother: "That's true, John, but it's the lowest mark I can give."

Pelkey, an usher: "How far down do you wish to sit."

Alice: "All the way."

Elliott: "Did they take an X-ray of Joe's jaw at the hospital?"

Goodness: "Yes, but they got a moving picture."

She: "I've changed my mind."

Talbot: "Good, does it work better now?"

"I suppose you think I'm a perfect idiot."

"Oh, none of us is perfect."

* * *

Junior: "I want to know how long girls should be courted."

Senior: "Oh, the same way as short ones."

Brother: "And so we find that X equals zero."

Wally: "All that work for nothing."

"Would you give some money to help the Old Ladies' Home?"

"Yes, but what are they doing out on a night like this?"

* * *

"Pardon me, mister, but you wouldn't want to see an old man walk the streets all night, would you?"

"It might be interesting to watch, but I haven't the time."

"I hear your wife came from a fine old family."

"Came, nothing. She brought it with her."

* * *

Did Don Reardon ask to be taken to the restaurant for some of the track meet he heard so much about?

* * *

Billy: "Ah, sweetheart, I would face death for you."

Joan: "Then why did you scamper away when that big dog ran after us?"

Billy: "Ah, my dear, it wasn't dead."

Bob C's Mother: "So Robert is very original in school?"

Brother: "Yes, even his spelling is original."

Brother: "Lawrence, what was Washington's Farewell Address?"

Larry: "Heaven."

Aucoin: "What was the most you got out of your car?"

LaForge: "Six times in half a mile."

Blinn: "What did the ocean say to the airplane?"

Soucie: "Nothing, it just waved."

Chick: "Say, Wally, what's that book you're reading?"

Wally: "What Twenty Million Girls Want."

Chick: "Yeah? Lemme see if they spell my name right."

F. Ryder: "Gosh, I need five bucks and I don't know where to get it."

Trainer: "I'm glad of that. I was afraid that you thought you could get it from me."

* * *

J. Ryder: "Say, you're not a bad looking girl."

Mary: "Oh, you'd say that even if you didn't think so."

Ryder: "And you'd think so, even if I didn't say so."

There was a young fellow from Wheeling
Endowed with such delicate feeling,

When he read on the door,

"Don't spit on the floor."

He jumped up and spit on the ceiling.
