SINGING CLASS HYMN.

CLASS HYMN.

Words and Music by WILLIAM F. HOLDEN.

Dear classmates, we have gathered here
To sing our last farewell;
Fond memories in future years
Will on these moments dwell.

As we look back upon these days
Amid life's toil and cheer;
May each be strengthened by the good
Imparted to us here.

We offer thanks to those whose care
Has helped us on our way,
Well may our thoughts be turned to them
In gratitude to-day.

As we go forward step by step,
May truth with us abide;
Along the upward path of life
Let honor be our guide.

Farewell! when partings are all o'er,
Dear Class of "Eighty Seven,"
May we in glad re-union meet
Amid the bliss of Heaven.
