The meanings get lost
And the teachings get tossed
And you don't know what you're Going to do next.

You wait for the sun
But it never quite comes
Some kind of message
comes through to you.

Some kind of message comes through
and it says to you...

Love when you can
Cry when you have to
Be who you must
That's a part of the plan
Await your arrival
With simple survival
And one day we'll all understand...

It is with great pleasure that the Class of '75 dedicates the 1975 CRUSADER to Miss Elizabeth Houlihan, our yearbook advisor.

Better known as "Miss Betty", she is familiar to all John Bapst students; either for her fine teaching ability, or for her firm belief in the necessity of firm discipline in the library. We take this opportunity to acknowledge her tireless efforts in preparation for commencement exercises, and thank her sincerely.

Mary, paper of your own was a prerequisite!

During the second semester of the Religion Seminar Program, there was a wide variety of fascinating speakers with relevant topics. Among the most popular were Jan Smith, who talked about her home for unwed mothers, Reverend Reuben Lundeen, a local Lutheran pastor, and a panel of representatives from the Counseling Center.

Among the other features, not without merit were: A penitent mass, a visit from many missionaries, and some representatives from March of Dimes.

Plagued all season by inexperience, costly turnovers, and occasionally by inconsistent play, the John Bapst Crusaders suffered through a dismal 2-8 campaign.

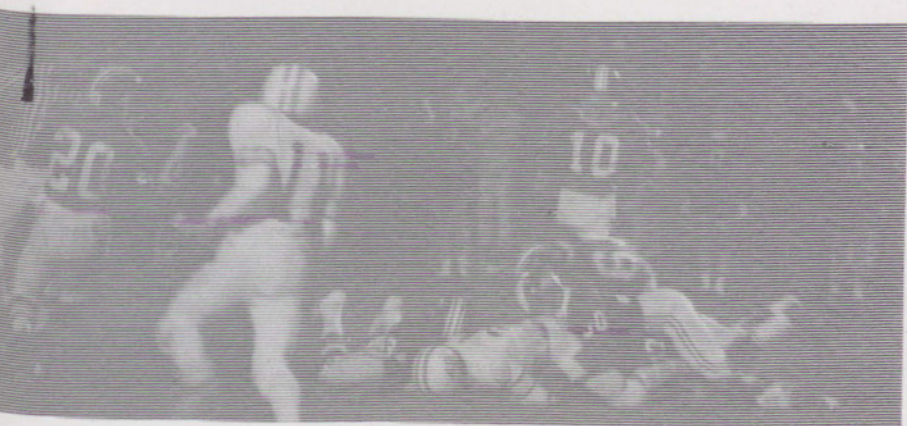

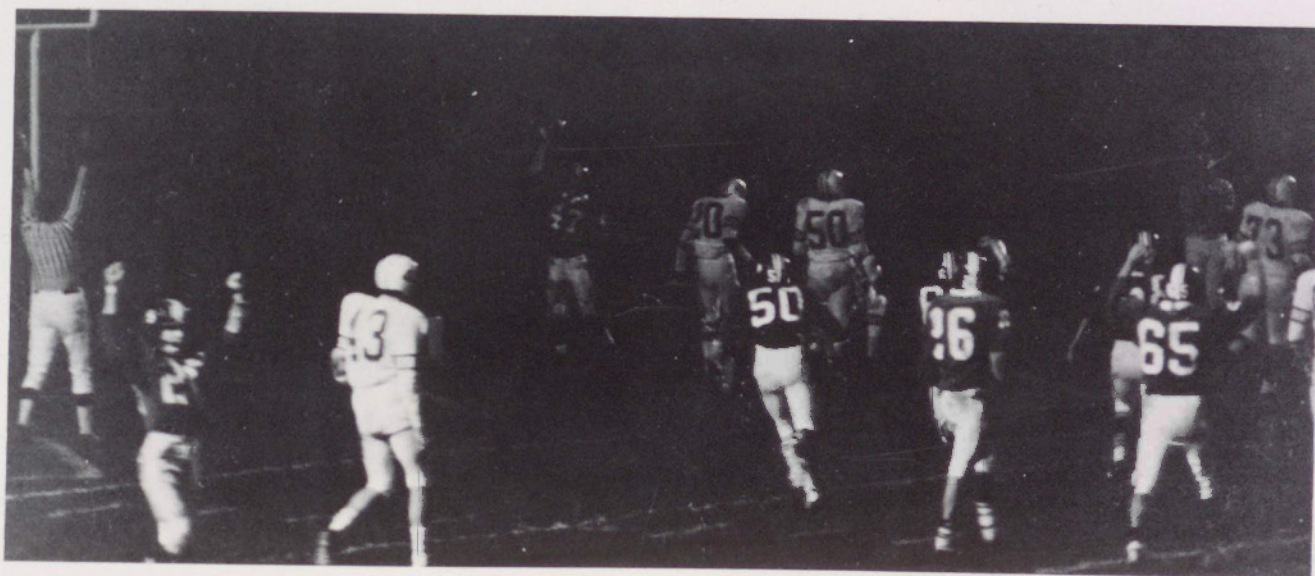

Despite the able coaching of Mr. Bob Brennan and his assistants Mike Connolly, Tom Coyne, and Joe McInnis, the lackluster Crusaders could not overcome the misfortunes that hampered them. Four of the setbacks which they incurred over the course of the season were decided by the margin of a touchdown.

Spearheaded by just eight lettermen, the team did provide at times much excitement for its faithful supporters. The victory that they achieved over a heavily-favored Orono team in a closely contested battle, not only garnered the Crusaders their second win but kept the purple and white's record for Homecoming games unblemished by defeat.

However, the team of 1974-75 will not be remembered so much for their poor record, but for the dedication and courage which they displayed throughout the season in spite of a losing cause. With a nucleus of the team returning, it is hoped that this past season will have laid the groundwork on which future football championships at John Bapst will be built.

Under the tutelage of coaches Danny O'Connell and Fred Morse, the John Bapst track team enjoyed one of its most successful seasons in 1974. As a result of their guidance, the team was inspired to overcome any of the difficult obstacles which they encountered. However, the determination and perseverance which the members of the track team exhibited during the season earned them the winning record which they so rightfully deserved.

The season was highlighted by the qualifying of several members to compete in the state meet at Bowdoin College. Representing the purple and white were Steve Monroe, Glenn Williams, Russ McKenna, Mike Sayko, Kevin Hughes, and Tony Smith. Despite the tough competition, Tony Smith, by way of an admirable performance, placed fourth in the 100 yd. dash for Class C competitors.

The coveted awards of Most Improved and Most Valuable Tracksters were awarded to Steve Monroe and Tony Smith respectively.

PROBLEMS, IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY COLLEGE BOWL CAPTAINS

One of the pleasures of the senior year at John Bapst is a forty-five minute period on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. It is called Problems in Contemporary Society. It is a class which employs economics, political science, and a potpourri of other subjects, to get students involved, even if only mentally, in current events.

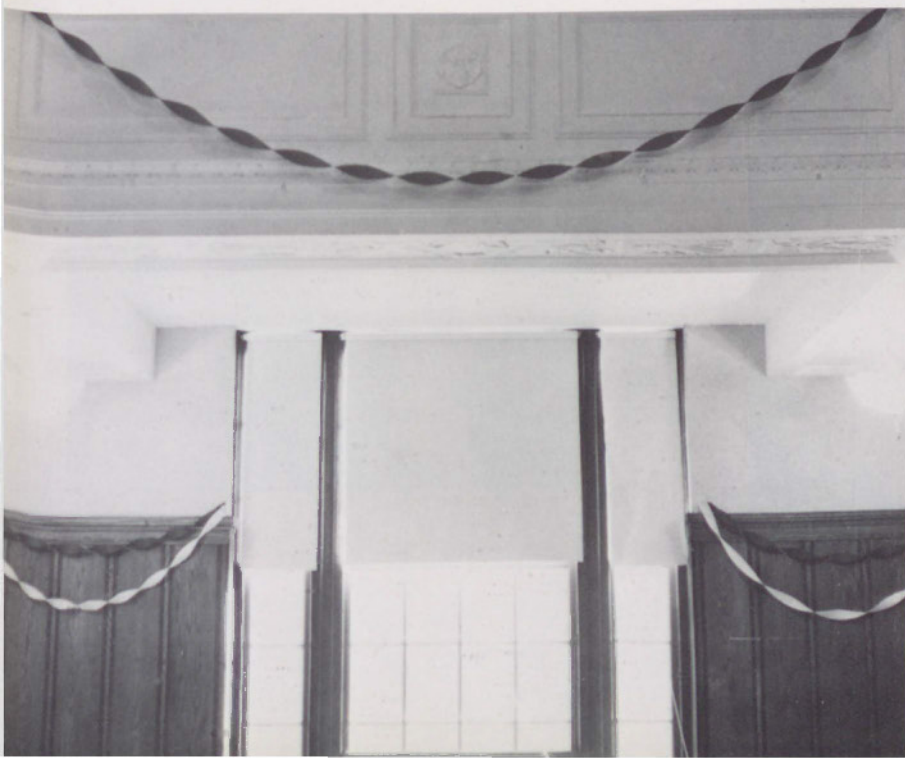

A highlight of the class is its weekly college bowls, which pits students against students in a battle to the end - OOPS! We mean places students in a healthy competitive atmosphere. Can we forget: Matt's disturbing manner of answering? Tom Dee and the fastest arm in the senior class? or "I can't believe Fernald got that one!"? The class was full of quick reflexes, witty elaborations, and extraordinary comebacks (Foster Grants won their third game with a record of 2-11, and set a record doing it.) There will never be an equal as we go on to jobs or college (we hope?). It was great!

SCHOOL

LIFE

Now, whenever one of the children was a little perverse in his movements, refusing to stand or sit in quite the manner Gresham had in mind, he took to spanking it. "Let that teach you a lesson!" he shouted, "Do as you are told! Conform!"

Sidney Carroll

"NO, Jay. We aren't going to change to the Pom Pom PERSONS so that you can join!!!"

Soldiering ... is the coward's art of attacking mercilessly when you are strong, and keeping out of harm's way when you are weak.

George Bernard Shaw

They come
they go they seldom know what they do but they do change
you.

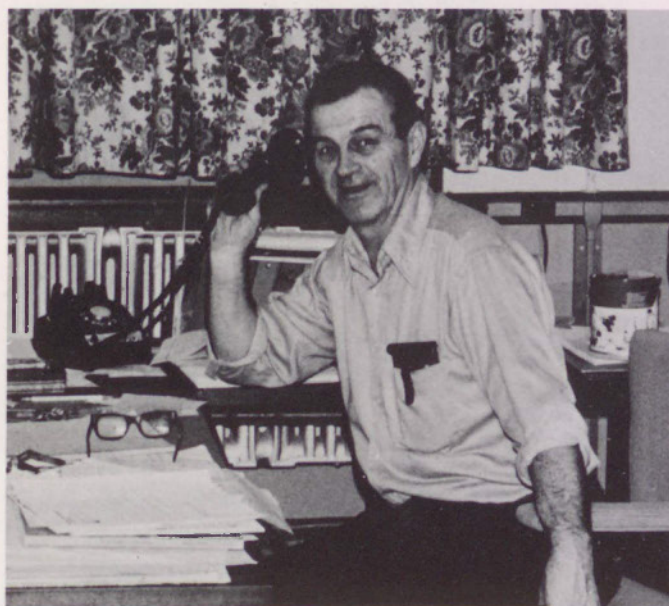

Green

I play it cool
and dig all jive
That's the reason
I stay alive.
My motto,
As I live and learn,
is:
Dig and Be Dug
In return.

Langston Hughes

Greatness, after all, in spite of its name, appears to be not so much a certain size as a certain quality in human lives. It may be present in lives whose range is very small.
Phillips Brooks

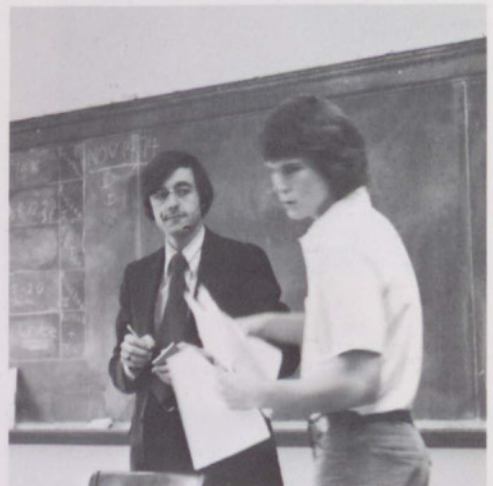

"Now if I could read..."

SMILE WORLD

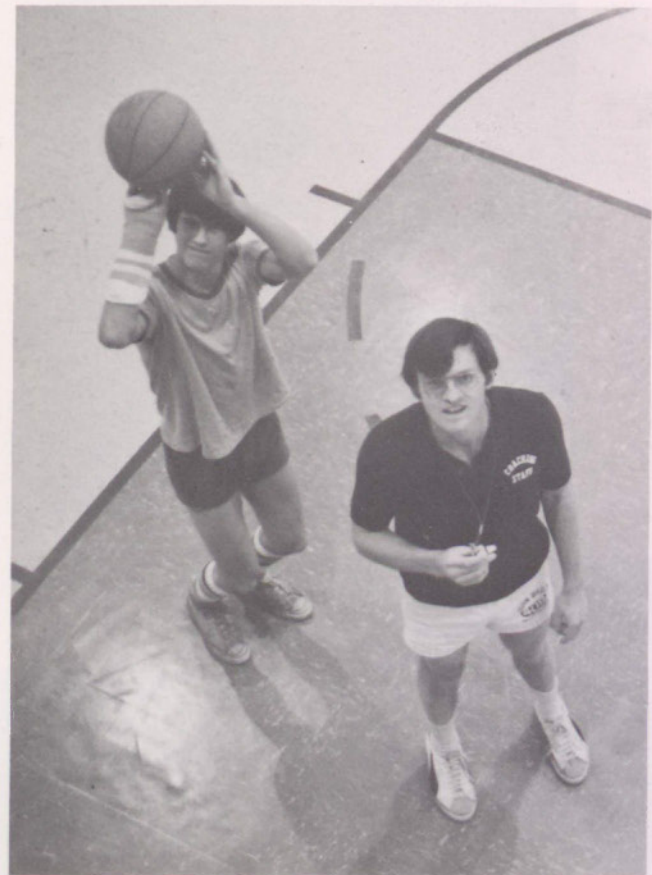

"Bad week for Harvard."

Steve's passing in a paper??

"Mine's in here somewhere!"

The greater part of what my neighbors call good I believe in my soul to be bad, and if I repent of anything, it is very likely to be my good behavior.

Henry David Thoreau

Nature, in her most dazzling aspects or stupendous parts, is but the background and theater of the tragedy of man.

John Marley

To understand oneself is the classic form of consolation; to elude oneself is the romantic.

George Santayana

"Kelly, my love..."

No Diane. One set of June Taylor dancers is enough!

"Oh, is it my fault that this coffee cup is glued to my left hand?"

Madonna ponders the relevance of school.

"Al, how many times must I tell you. No one will notice if your tie is straight, because they will all be looking at the star - ME!"

"Paul, if you take my picture..."

"C'mon, the bell rang 5 min. ago."

"Well, at least I switched hands!"

Julie has a go at being "CHEM
TEACHER FOR A DAY."

Who says that man did not descend
from apes?

"Frankie and Johnnie were lovers..."

Rick shows his rhythm.

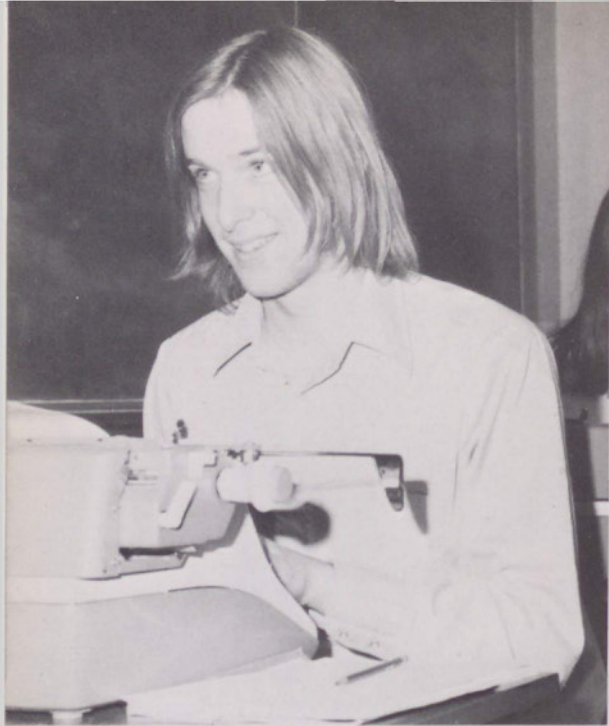

The JB Rockettes do their thing...as only they can!

Ellen sings to illustrate her talent.

Patty Nadeau Winter Carnival Queen

"This is the way we type all day..."

"Aaugh...but Mom it's raining..."

When I think back on all the crap I learned
in high school,

It's a wonder I can think at all

And though my lack of education hasn't hurt
me none

I can read the writing
on the wall.

Paul
Simon

"I don't care what it says. A Daiquiri is NOT made with fruit punch..."

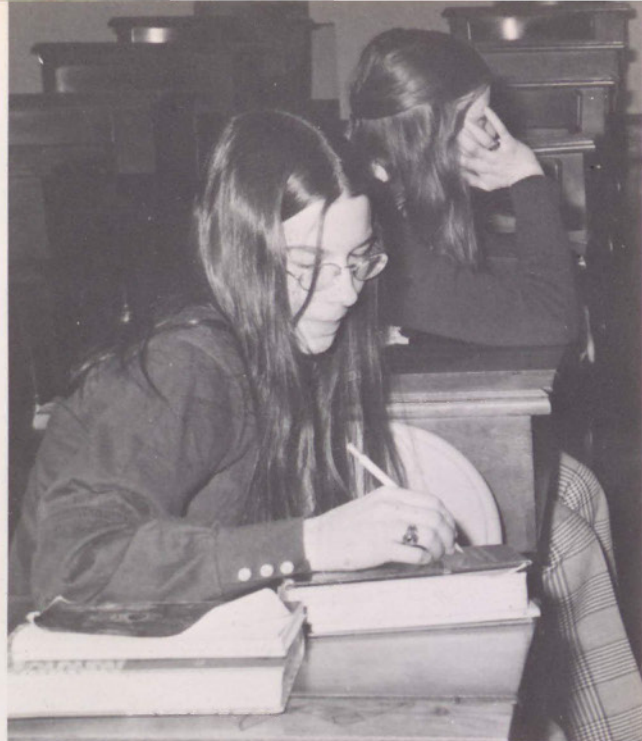

Did someone say "FIRE"?

A Schlitz to go, eh?

But I don't want my picture taken!

Didn't you ever hear of Kotter's sweat hogs?

But how do I put paper in?

Our Grand Banks are all inland!

There are 35 of them.
They cover most of northern,
central and eastern Maine.
They give Maine people and Maine businesses the kind of service that deserves the word "grand." If you haven't seen one of our grand banks,

set course for one today.

As you Graduate...

We at Coles Express offer you our warm congratulations and express our hope that you, too, will participate in the further development of the State of Maine. The fresh ideas, energy and enthusiasm of your youth are vital in creating new opportunities and in helping to make our great State a better place in which to live, work and play.

And here is a sunrise
to set on your sill
The ghosts of the dawn
moving near.
They pass through your sorrow
and leave you quite still...
sitting among souvenirs.
