Singing of Class Ode

Class Ode

BY BEATRICE S. DAVIS

MUSIC BY DONALD J. EAMES

On the shores of a country victorious,
We are ready and waiting today
For the transport that crosses the ocean,
To voyage to our own homeland bay.
There all will be greeted with cheering;
While, broken and injured, a few,
Thru the healing of time and of country,
May gain strength in a life that is new.

As we draw near the port of our homeland,
How reluctant we are to set out
On the paths that are not smoothly trodden
But are broken by hollows of doubt!
More easy it is to look backward,
To commune with the comrades we knew,
Hoping each full success may accomplish—
Success that is truly his due.

A light appears bright in the distance!
The glad shout of "Welcome!" is heard;
Then a leap and a bound for the gangway,
To realize the the joy of the word.
Now to start on our paths, some untrodden,
To smooth down the hollows of doubt.
May we enter the Land of Attainment;
May we put things unworthy to rout!
