CLASS ODE '98

WORDS BY ARCHIE D. MORRISON.

MUSIC BY EDWARD W. LARSEN.

Wafted by the gentle zephyrs
Comes a message soft and low,
That our schooldays here are ended
And our separate ways we go ;
Wafted on each undulation,
Comes that message soft and low.

Comes in accents stern yet kindly,
Bidding us to say adieu
To our school-life, to our class-mates,
To our teachers tried and true ;—
Moving us in kindly measures
That to all we say adieu.

Though the coming days look darker
For the brightness of the past,
Not for that would we be troubled
Nor should that a shadow cast ;
For our watchword " More Beyond Us "
Keeps the brightness of the past —

Keeps its brightness like a halo
Glorious, golden, full of light,
Shining outward, onward, upward,
As a beacon to the sight ;
Filling us with hope and gladness
By its mellow, golden light.
