PARTING SONG.

By a Member of the Class.

1. At last our dream has been fulfilled—
The four long years are ended.
Now in a hymn of fond farewell,
Let all our tones be blended.
And ere we part, we'll pledge our faith,
That future care shall never
Efface the memory of the years,
That we have passed together.

CHORUS. Though with this hour our school work ends,
We cannot greet it gaily,
For we must part, and sadly sing
Our vale, triste vale!

2. Together we have climbed the hill,
We've reached the height together,
And friendship's chain which binds us close,
No future time shall sever.
Then heart to heart, and hand in hand,
We'll brave the world before us,
But courage falters while we sing
Our last, our farewell chorus.

CHORUS.

3. Although we gladly hail relief.
From school and school's restraining,
We sadly leave our teachers dear,
And those behind remaining.
O, dear old school! tho' wiser heads,
In future may receive thee,
Yet sadder hearts, at parting hour,
Will never grieve to leave thee!

CHORUS.
