The fund, bequeathed in 1920, is "for the purpose of purchasing books . . . and no part . . . for the erection or repair of any building or to purchase real estate". It is one of the several funds enjoyed by the Bangor Public Library. See page 5 of this report for descriptions of all. The bookplate was designed and engraved by Sidney Lawton Smith in 1921. It is one of seven bookplates by Smith and two by Elisha Brown Bird used in Bangor Public Library books in grateful memory of the donors of funds.

Origin, Organization and Endowments

Under terms of the will of Hon. Samuel F. Hersey, who died in 1875, the city of Bangor was left a certain part of his estate, to become available in 1900 as a fund whose income should be used "for the promotion of education, the health and good morals of the citizens." The sum of $100,000 was accepted by the City in 1882 in full of all claims against the Hersey estate, and the City Government voted to use the entire sum for the establishment of a public library. The management of the legacy was entrusted to a board of five members, known as the "Trustees of the Income of the Hersey Fund," which now consists of the City Treasurer, ex-officio, and four citizens, one or more appointed biennially by the City Council to serve for terms of six years.

These Trustees agreed with the Bangor Mechanic Association, which had for many years maintained a library and reading room for its members, to combine interests and establish the Bangor Public Library, with the 20,000 volumes of the Mechanic Association as a nucleus, and the $12,000 of its invested funds and the $100,000 Hersey Fund as endowments. The Trustees of the Income of the Hersey Fund and four representatives chosen annually by the Bangor Mechanic Association constitute the Board of Managers of the Bangor Public Library.

When in 1893 the question of erecting a library building began to be agitated, the Board of Managers was incorporated under State law as the "Trustees of the Bangor Public Library" with power to acquire and hold real estate; the personnel of the two bodies being the same but their functions quite distinct.

The Bangor Mechanic Association, which was founded in 1828, maintains its organization, holds an annual meeting the second Tuesday in January and the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer elected at that time serve as members of the Board of Managers of the Bangor Public Library. The Association also administers funds, the income of which it pays to the Board of Managers of the Bangor Public Library, as follows: The Mechanic Association Fund of $12,000, used for upkeep, and the Edward Ellison Fund of $10,000. The Edward Ellison Fund, bequeathed in 1918 by Mary Harris Ellison Curran (Mrs. Nicholas F. Curran), Librarian from 1888 to 1913, in memory of her father, is "for the purchase of books, other than works of fiction" of which only one copy is to be bought and that "may never be taken from the Library."

The Trustees of the Bangor Public Library administer funds with a principal of $834,923.86, as follows, and use them in accordance with the terms of the bequests or gifts:

The John F. Patten Fund of $4,000 bequeathed by Grace D. Patten (Mrs. John F. Patten) in 1900 in memory of her husband, augmented by a $2,000 bequest of Thomas Upham Coe in 1927, the income of both for "the purchase of books to make, or help make, entire some important department of the Library," now used for books on the fine arts.

The Luther H. Peirce Fund of $75,000, bequeathed in 1915, the income for "the purchase of books or for any other purposes within the walls of said Library Building," now used for operating expenses, which is a part of

The Trustees Fund of $208,193.20, the balance being an invested fund of which the income only is now used, and that for operating expenses.

The Frederick W. Hill and Marianne Hill Fund of $580,998.66, bequeathed in 1920, "for the purpose of purchasing books . . . and no part . . . for the erection or repair of any building, or to purchase real estate."

The Stodder Fund of $39,732, bequeathed in 1924 by George T. Stodder, "for the purchase of books, except that no fiction which has not been published two years at date of purchase shall be bought."

Report of the Librarian

To the Board of Managers of the Bangor Public Library:

The outstanding fact of the statistics for 1939 is that our circulation of 415,723 volumes issued for home use is 4% greater than our previous record year, 1933, and 7% greater than 1938, our second largest year.

The gain was in all departments. It, therefore, represents a trend rather than some unusual development in one department. The 1933 peak, shared by libraries throughout the Americas and Britain, was attributed to increased leisure time because of the depression. The 1939 figure cannot have the same cause.

PEOPLE READ MORE

There was no significant gain in the number of users of the Library. The same people read more, that is all. Their increased reading meant more work for us, but only as some of the increase is because we did that more work better, got more of the right books, and made the books we had better known and easier to get can we take credit in having shared the accomplishment with the readers.

WE TELL WHAT WE HAVE

We worked all the time at doing our job better. Staff meetings, begun in May, were held weekly, the emphasis being on avoidance of mistakes and upon increased knowledge of our own resources. More copies than ever of the most popular novels were bought. The number of children's story periods was increased from 51 to 60. Saturday evening hours were added for the children's room. Thirty-two broadcasts over WABI and 39 other book talks were given by the librarian and six other staff members. Newspaper articles, both by members of our staff and by the editors and staff writers of the "Bangor Daily Commercial" and "Bangor Daily News" to whom, with WABI, we are most grateful, kept the public informed of every activity of the Library. It is a fact first realized by many citizens in 1939, though it has long been so, that the Library maintains collections not only in its Harlow Street building, Music Branch, and Forest Avenue Church Deposit, but also in 186 other locations.

We told more clubs that our lecture hall and historical room are free for free public meetings of an educational, literary, or scientific nature. More clubs made use of that knowledge, holding 146 public meetings in one or another of our rooms. We encouraged organizations to hold or sponsor exhibits here. Four exhibits were arranged by the Library; ten, by other organizations. We conducted 92 classes, with a total attendance of 2,505, in the use of the Library. We lent books not only over the desk in Bangor, but by mail to 142 individuals and 33 libraries in 109 other cities and towns. All this makes Bangor more favorably known.

THE BOOKS ARE HERE

Our book stock increased to 204,928, which means 7.13 books per capita, a figure probably unequalled anywhere in the country. Our losses are gratifyingly small, showing not only that our system is good, but also fine public appreciation of Bangor's unusual library privileges. Losses from all causes (lent and neither recovered nor paid for, missing, contagion, and fire and/or water) amounted only to 492, about one tenth of one percent of use, or two tenths of one percent of stock. Weeding of the collection and the sale and gift to other libraries of volumes not essential here did something to postpone the not-far-distant day when we shall need more room for book storage. Continual moving of books by an NYA employee, of whose work we are appreciative, enabled us to make the best use of our limited space. Fortunately the choral music, which bulks large in our accession figures, takes less space, both because of its size and because it is steadily in use, than the corresponding number of books would do.

WE KEEP COSTS LOW

We added 13,465 items and withdrew 3,998 during the year, making a net gain of 9,202. The net cost of those bought, $25,288.66, was paid wholly from trust-fund income. In 1938 8,812 items were acquired, those bought costing $27,847.44. Every economy and service in buying was sought, but that has always been true. The reduction in cost is because choral music, which bulked large in the acquisition figure, costs less than a corresponding number of books.

GIFTS

All gifts to the Library were acknowledged individually. They were numerous statistically, totalling 6,309 items, many of them publicity pamphlets and magazine numbers, useful, but whose utility quickly passes. There were no gifts of funds. Some proffered or tentative gifts of books already represented here by other copies or not needed because they were obsolete were declined. Gifts of books, pamphlets, and magazines to the total of 1,133 were found sufficiently valuable to justify cost of cataloging and adding to the permanent collection.

EQUIPMENT

Our equipment was improved by the acquisition of 555 movable steel shelves for the bookstacks. Three extremely old typewriters and one adding machine were replaced. The lecture hall was refinished with a paint that can be washed and equipped, through the ingenuity of our janitor, with adjustable rods, for the easier hanging of displays. The pressure reducing valve on the water system wore out and was replaced. The building and all equipment was kept in good repair.

Full statistics for the year 1939 are found on pages 16 to 24 of the appendices to this report.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS FELIX RANLETT, Librarian.
