DEDICATION

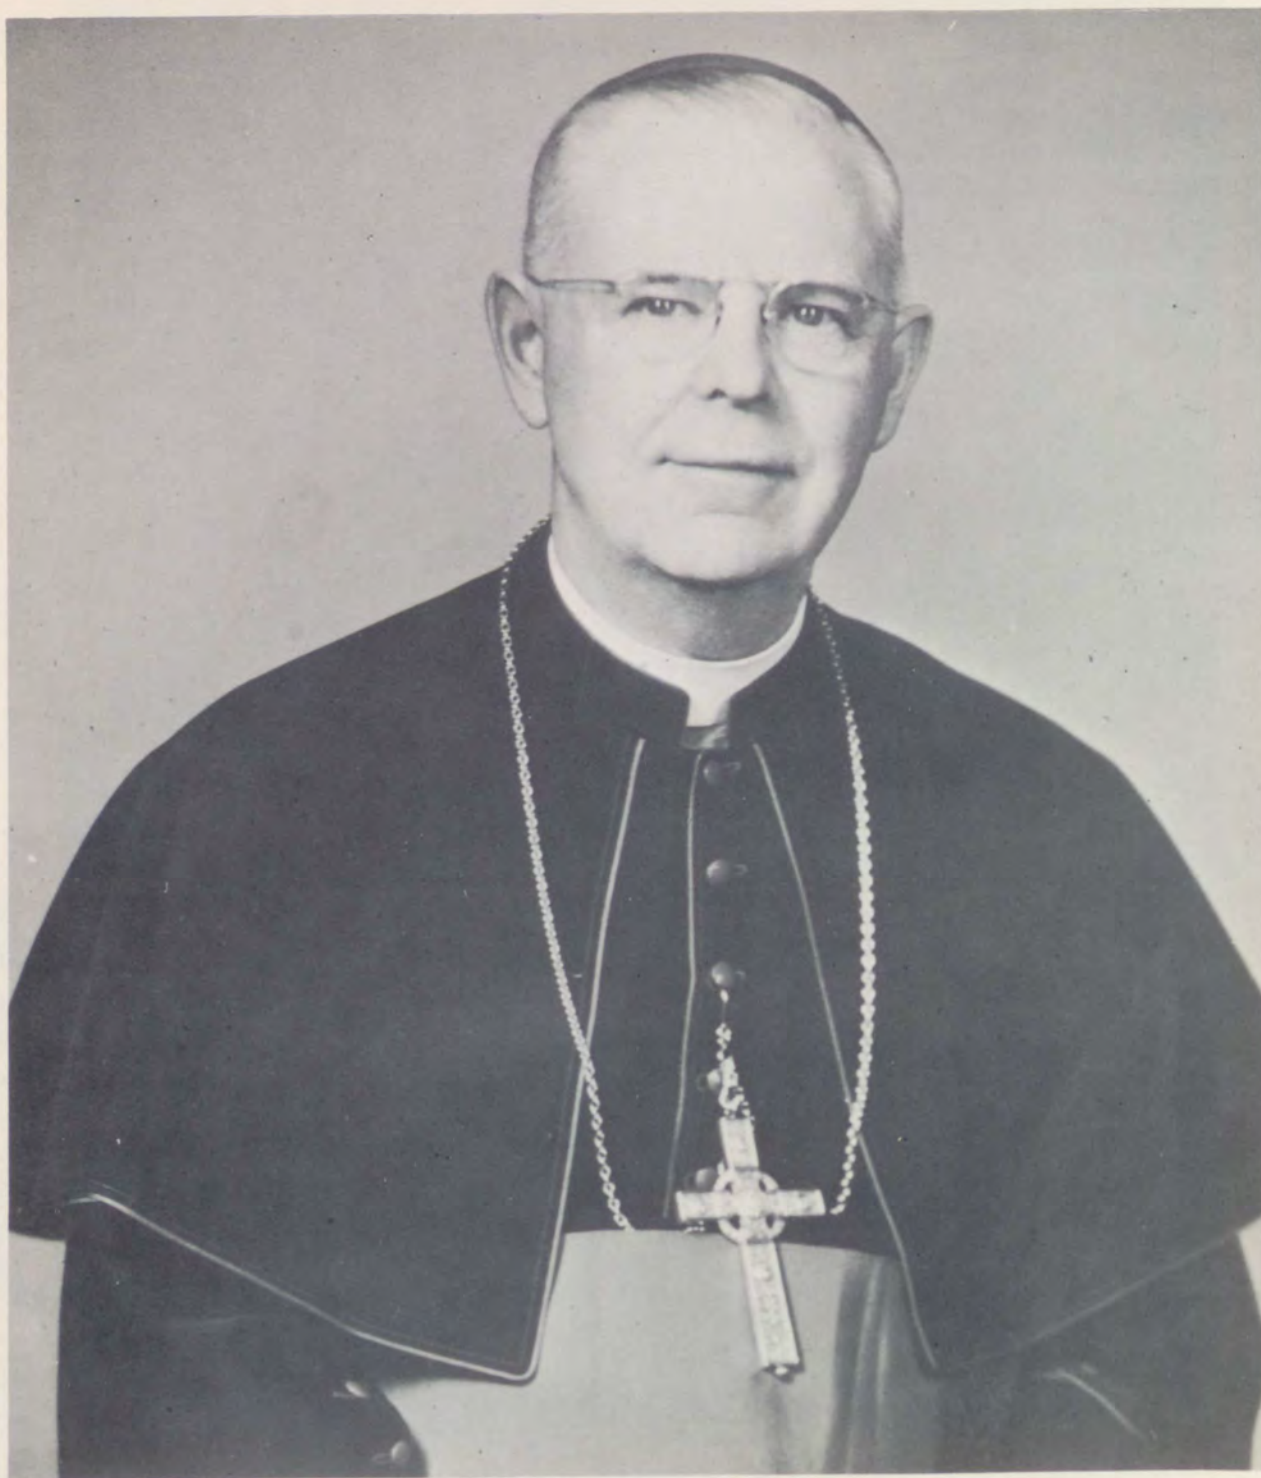

you are
"a cool guy".
The flippant term
masks respect-
but never fear,
Brother in Christ
though you are,
he remains unawed
by your garb.
The solemn smile

as the sign of friendship and authority.
The look of him
when speaking of you
has me thinking
I have missed
something valued.
I have missed
"a cool guy".

ANNE SPRUCE

His Holiness Pope Paul VI

Most Reverend Daniel J. Feeney, D.D.

Through crises and hardships the Church in Maine has never faltered, owing to the constancy and sanctity of her bishops with whom she has been gifted. Catholics in Maine today are honored in having as their ecclesiastical leader, His Excellency, the Most Reverend Daniel J. Feeney, D.D.,

Bishop of Portland.

We, the Class of 1965 of John Bapst High School, with great pride look to a true shepherd and follower of Jesus Christ, Bishop Feeney, present leader of the Catholics of Maine.

*All the days of my youth
 I shall bless you,
 Gentle artists of a soul.
 From the day of our first meeting
 I have not ceased to find
 Some truth and joy to fill my mind.
 The subtle shades of twilight
 Drifting near a silent river,
 Little motes of dust
 Caught in a shaft of sunlight*

*Contain a hidden world,
 And love cannot be bound
 By precise equations--
 This learning makes the mind
 A better place
 To keep the soul
 And gives Divinity
 A reason to rejoice.*

*From its outset,
The road seems long
for this arduous journey-
But one who passed this way
Before
Has told me this..*

*No sooner have you made
Your first advance
Than half the task is done.
And looking back, you wonder
Where did the road begin?
As you slow your footsteps
And halting, mark your place
Behold
The journey's end.*

*Truth, seated on a steed called Courage,
Rides the angry night,
Holding aloft a cross-marked shield,
Decked in armor white.*

*The victory he seeks is knowledge,
A force to sway men's minds..
The pall of ignorance is deep
And little light he finds.*

*Yet onward, onward drives the knight
And upward, upward pounds the steed.
Can feeble human effort
Fulfill the boundless need?
Follow fast this gallant Truth--
Fail not the challenge heaven-made!
This is the task appointed youth--
To be and strive, to forge the great crusade!*

Capers

With a single mighty voice
We have raised the cry.. Victory! Victory!
Onward, we urge the the team--
Mount the wave of glory
And ride its surging crest.
In defeat or mastery we know
Whose lot is best.

We have been both
The conqueror and the conquered,
Thus we understand the need to be Proud in defeat,
Humble in victory,
Offering to the foe our hand,
Stepping forth to greet
Opposers as friends,
With dignity, as men.

Senior Review--

Football 1964

The Crusaders opened the season with a 25-0 whitewashing of Rockland. Up front, heading the defensive charge were Paul McPherson, Hank Raab and Chuck Bolduc. Tim Wakely and Gary Scruggs opened huge holes in the offensive line to aid Ron Soucie as he tallied 18 points.

Victim number two was Winslow as the purple machine, led by Mike McPherson, who tallied two touchdowns, and by the great end play of John Samways, rolled to a 25-6 score.

The Crusaders, led by the fierce lineplay of Tim Marcoulier, Dennis Kiah, Ed Thorne and Leo Higgins and the great defensive work of Tim Brennan, Grover Coffin and Marsh Soldati, blasted M.C.I., 25-0.

The Old Town Indians were scalped next by a 41-0 margin as the Crusaders held them to a -15 yards. Great line play by Phil Aucoin, Ron Goody, Steve Burrill, and Bob Sekera, paved the way for win number 4 as Grover Coffin and Ken Zuch each tallied twice.

In a rough ball game, the Crusaders, led by Hal Cammack, John Heuer, and Chuck Bolduc, edged the Belfast Lions, 14-0. Skowhegan proved to be another test for the Crusaders, but with Tim Marcoulier and Gary Scruggs ripping holes up front on offensive and Phil Gallant and Hank Raab blasting through on defense, the Crusaders outlasted the Indians, 26-20.

Game number seven featured unbeaten Fairfield opposing unbeaten Bapst. It was truly one of the finest games of the year. Ken Zuch was outstanding both offensively as well as defensively. Gary Palmieri engineered the final drive and the only score of the ball game as the Crusaders took win number seven in a hard-fought 6-0 victory.

Gardiner fell next as the purple wave smothered the Tigers, 27-6. Ken Zuch ran wild scoring three times, while the line was led by Tim Wakely, Larry Willette and Steve Burrill. The win gave the Crusaders the Pine Tree Conference and their 14th straight league win.

After thirteen years of frustration, the Crusaders beat Brewer for win number nine and the school's first state title. It was truly a team effort all the way with Bill Brooks the extra point, providing the margin of victory.

We did it! We did it! I really think we did it!

The many trophies displayed here are a symbol of all that has gone into the winning of these awards. It has taken more than the traditional "blood, sweat and tears" to make the 1965 Bapst football team what it is. It has taken a spirit, an esprit de corps, unmatched by any team in the state, unmatched by any coach in the state. What better way to pictorialize the struggles of the season, its triumphs, its jubilation than by this apparently "static" representation, this cold assemblage to which so much throbbing life has contributed in the making.

Behind The Scenes

Every school is dependent upon its cheerleaders and ushers to execute satisfactorily all that goes into the behind-the-scene organization of a game. To our ushers we are indebted for their cooperation and patience in their dealings with our fans. To our cheerleaders we likewise give thanks for their constant efforts to pep up the team and the school spirit, especially when victory was not ours.

Sweetheart

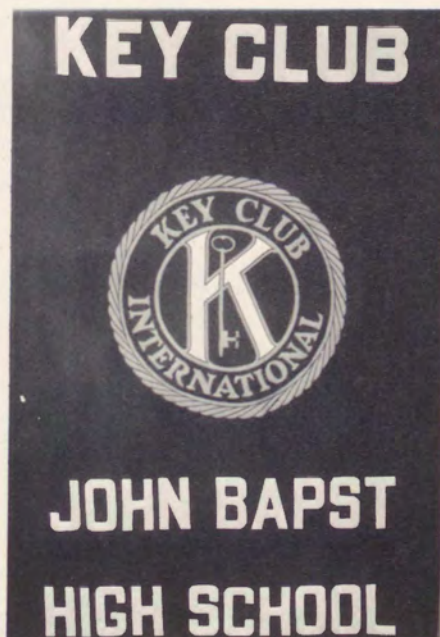

This year's Key Club Sweetheart epitomizes the graciousness and warmheartedness with which the Key Clubbers of John Bapst perform their voluntary services to the school, and community. With the passage of each year the faculty and student body of John Bapst come to realize their dependence upon the Key Clubbers to fulfill efficiently those functions so necessary for the perfect execution of all activities, be they making the auditorium ready for CYO dances, school assemblies, local community projects; selling refreshments at these meetings; working with the local Kiwanis in its many charitable exercises. All of these acts of kindness, though small in apparent effect, have a greater effect upon the individual involved in them--they help develop those characteristics which make a man say, "We serve," throughout his life. DONNA MCINNIS represents this and much more to the key Clubbers of John Bapst.

Junior candidate, Pam McManus.

Soph. candidate, Ricci Mayo.

Ellen Veilleux, '63-64 Sweetheart, hotfoots it to the stage to pass on her crown.

Key Club President, Tim Brennan, does the honors.

Snowball Prom

??

It's a safe guess that Jeannette Estey feels more secure in the presence of this cool Yule man than with her dance escort.

Billy Kelly has a moment to face the camera, even though his date must share in the honors.

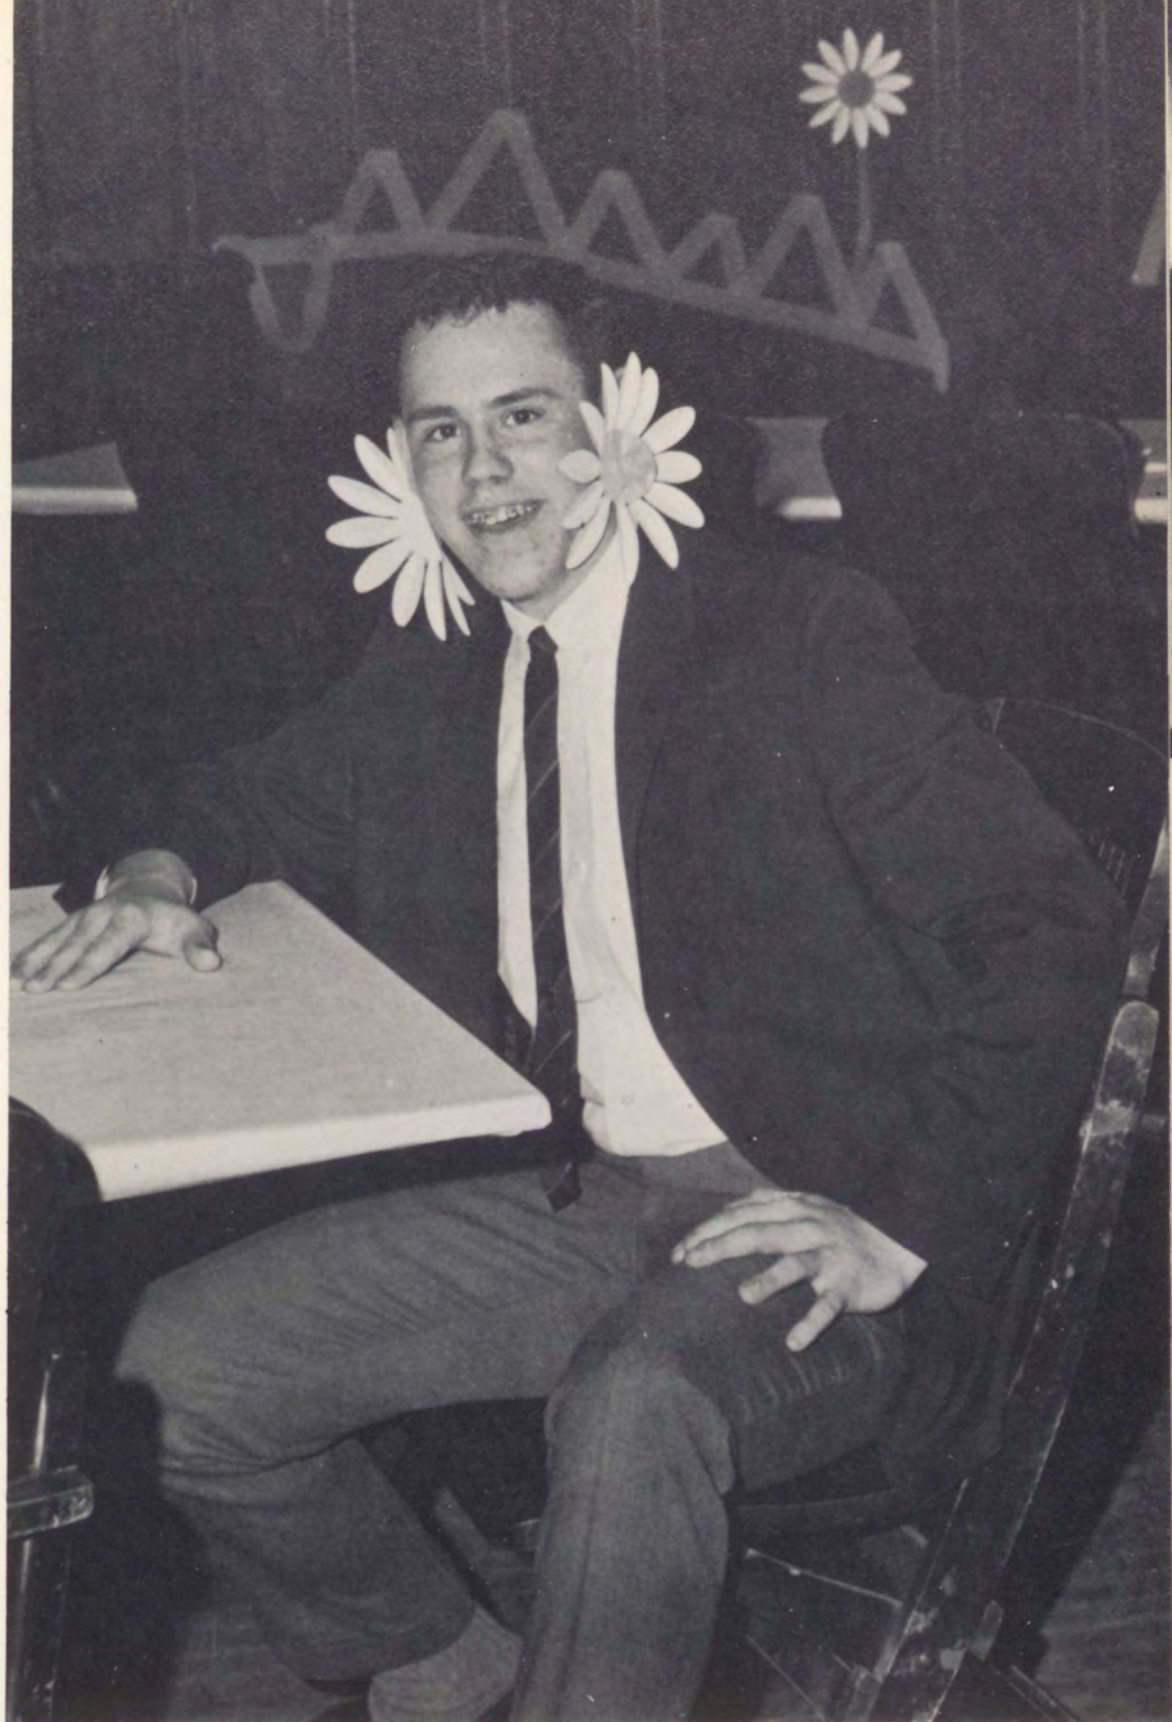

The eyes of all focus on the center of attention at the right. Bob Sheehan must be looking at something else a little more startling, or is he just too serious?

EASTER

1964

John Heuer sports his own version of the pugilist's "cauliflower ears", while he provides his entourage with much vocal amusement.

Jim Manchester tells tales of the sea to Ellen Veilleux.

Senior Prom

1964

Richard Crowe and Cynthia Lambert pose near the light house.

The Senior Prom, May 1964, was an outstanding success in all ways, especially since the class of 1965 was present. As we bring this section to a close, we must thank those students who have taken an active role in planning and decorating the auditorium for these gala affairs. They are the unsung heroes of the dance floor.

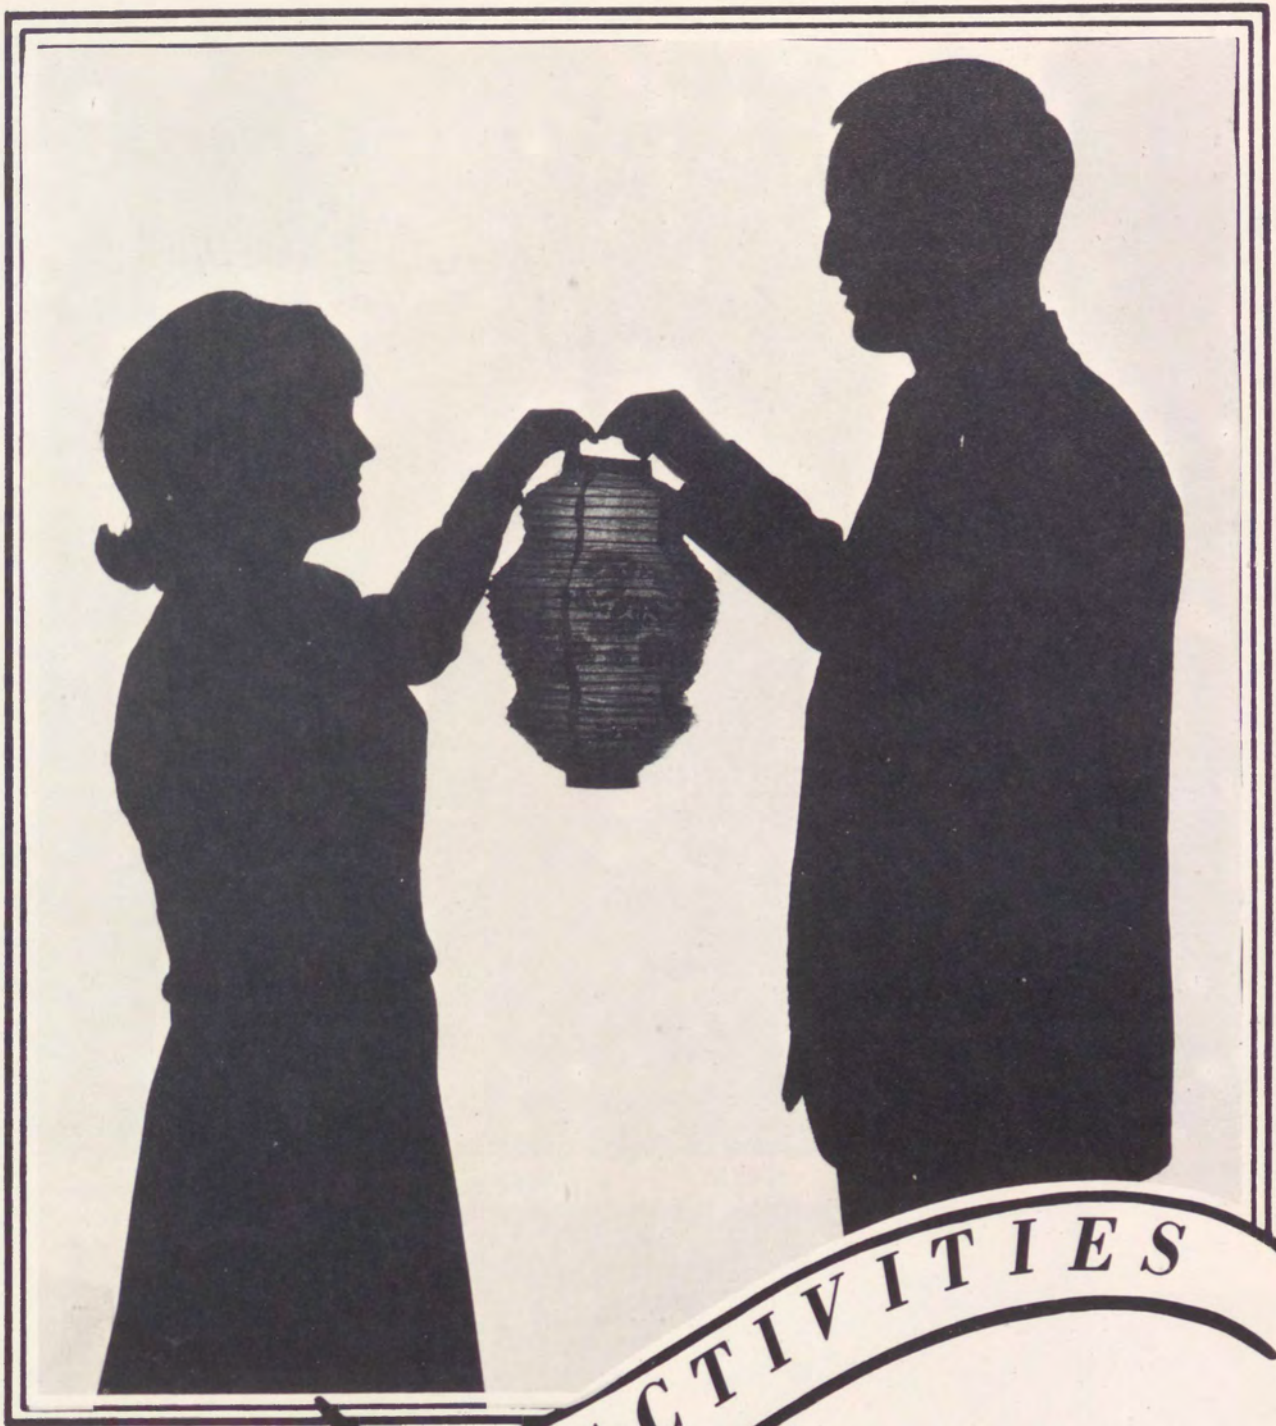

*The higher life is sought here,
And deeper insight there--
The challenge of a foreign tongue
And lilting voices.
The art of impersonation. . . .
The fervent ardor of the leaders,
The eager following,
And laggards stumbling--
Assent and dissent,
"Aye" and "nay",*

*Ever after,
It seems,
The same and yet so changed.
They come
And go
And pass,
Perhaps the better,
Perhaps not,
For these varied pastimes
So loosely termed Activities.*

Working for the school yearbook is, perhaps, one of the most unnoticed activities in the school. No one realizes more than those involved in it how much time is actually spent working, sometimes frustratingly, for hours on page designs and editorial assignments. To all who worked so hard and so well their moderator says "Thank you!"

Science is making its breakthrough at Bapst with a new club for those really interested in what's going on--the moon! Tim Paul and Gerald Shaw really know what they are doing!

Budding Scientists

Mr. Cassily, moderator of the newly-formed Science Club.

Jim Soucy, president of the Club, explains his science fair project.

Madeleine Martin and Cynthia Murray are happily on their way to school, while Carol McDonald and Cheryl Libby cut out paper dolls in the Hansen kitchen.

Mary Lou Robinson reads a paper on the Eastern Rite churches during last year's sodality-sponsored Eastern Rite Mass at St. Mary's, Bangor.

Approach

To

Understanding

Part of the Sodality project for Mike Nelson's cell has been an information rack in the school library.

Sodality Officers: Constance Rideout, K. Bryce, Dottie Fitzpatrick, Sister Mary Jean, Moderator, look with a smile to a successful future.

Larry Willette, Jim Corey, Brother Stanislaus, Brother Hart, James Manchester, Dick Myshrrall, all have a more somber outlook to the future.

Last year's Eastern Rite Mass celebrated by Father Casimir Malloy, OSB, of St. Anselm's, Manchester, New Hampshire, was the project for our Sodalities which pooled their talents to make our Eastern brethren better understood by all.

Debating

Under Brother Stanislaus' tutelage debating has become an intermural affair. Perhaps the feminine touch will put the proper finish on the well-trained crop of varsity and novice debators that are knocking at the doors of opportunity--the opportunity of meeting boys and girls.

The New Look

What a gaaay soul he is!

Varsity debaters: seated, left: Francie Sheehan, Brother Stanislaus (moderator), Peggy Bobalek. Standing, left:

John Sullivan, Dick Flanigan, John Dyer, Mike Taber, Dick Myshrall, Frank Murray.

Another meeting of great minds occurs as Brother Jeremias trades glances with the effervescent president of the Key Club, Tim Brennan.

Take Me To Your

Scholarship is to the student what a state title is to the athlete. Recognition of qualities other than athletic is usually slow where the numbers who can attain it are limited and find themselves outnumbered by those pursuing excellence in other fields. Leadership is noted in other ways than by being chosen captain of a team. We acknowledge both scholarship and leadership on these pages.

Garry Speirs and Hank Raab, both recipients of letters of commendation from the Merit Scholarship Examination Board.

To A Tireless Booster Peter Bosse has evinced more generosity and spirit in his support of the John Bapst Crusader over the past four years that it would not be fitting to bring this yearbook to a close without a final work of thanks to him for his unparalleled labors in the annual Patron and Sponsor drive to which his contributions have been the largest. In addition to his footwork in campaigning for the annual he has worked with the staff in compiling records and tallying amounts of our funds collected through the drive.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

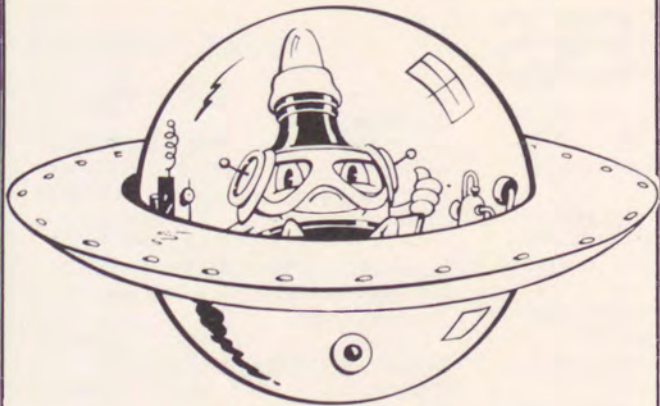

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
