Parting Hymn.

Now good-night! Now good-night!
Work is ended with the light;
Golden stars again are beaming,
From the arch of heaven gleaming,
And the moon is smiling bright;
Now good-night! now good-night! now good-night!

Gentle night! Gentle night!
Tasks are ended with the light;
Night, too, soon will quickly leave us,
Dreams that God's bright angels give us,
Hasten on the longest night;
Now good-night! now good-night! now good-night!

Peaceful night! peaceful night!
Joys that made the days so bright,
Shall in dreams not all forsake us
Till a new day shall awake us
In the realms of pure delight,
Now good-night! now good-night! now good-night!
