CLASS HYMN,	KATIE E. STEWART
-------------	------------------

To sing our parting hymn we meet,
Our schoolday hours have past;
With hearts so light and steps so free,
We 've labored till the last.

Our teachers kind and classmates dear,
Time's march will ne'er efface
From memory's tablets, but will keep
Each bright and happy face.

Long will we cherish, teachers kind,
Your efforts to impart
True knowledge to each youthful mind,
True culture to each heart.

Oh! may the precepts gathered here,
As years roll on become
The crown of wisdom on our brows,
As life's brief race we run.

Farewell dear teachers, schoolmates, friends;
Farewell the days of yore;
In God's bright home we 'll meet again,
To say "farewell" no more.
