DEDICATION

We dedicate this issue by
The Class of '62
To Dear Sister Christine Marie
And Brother Linus, too.

You dedicate your lives to us
It's only fair that we Should try in some small measure
to
Let other people see

How much we all appreciate
What you have done for us.
You labor long, untiring
With never any fuss.

We'll aim to follow in your steps
And let our motto be,
With shoulders squared and head
held high,
"For God and for Country"

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR
EDWARD F. WARD

During his years at Saint Mary's, Monsignor Ward has proved himself a zealous servant of Christ, laboring unceasingly for the glory of God. He has maintained a fervent interest in all of our activities at John Bapst, and the class of 1962 wishes to thank him for his loyal support through the years.

VERY REVEREND
JAMES H. KEEGAN

Although he has been the pastor at Saint John's for only a few years, Father Keegan has won the love and devotion of all his parishioners. The Class of 1962 wishes to thank him for his interest and cooperation in all our endeavors.

OTHER FAITHFUL PASTORS WHOSE SERVICES HAVE BEEN GREATLY APPRECIATED BY THE CLASS OF 1962.

Very Reverend Francis J. Nelligan

Our

Faculty

For thirteen consecutive years, Principal Sister Mary Luke has guided the classes of John Bapst High School with sympathy, kindness, and a rare understanding of the youths under her direction. We, the graduating class of 1962, offer her our sincere thanks for her expert leadership and invaluable help.

The Class of 1962 has been very fortunate in having Brother Malcolm as Principal for the last three years. His warm and personal interest in us and John Bapst, and the progressive innovations he has instituted, have won the admiration and cooperation of all.

We, the editors, wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to all who made the Crusader 1962 possible. To the staff, faculty, students, patrons and advertisers, we are most grateful. We extend our heartfelt appreciation to our moderator, Brother Hart, C. F. X., whose help to the staff has been most valuable. To the Class of 1962, we specifically dedicate this edition of The Crusader.

CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is comprised of a certain percentage of junior and senior class girls who exemplify the Society's insignia of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Besides these members, there are also probationers selected from the sophomore class. This year the Honor Society has contributed much to the cultural interests of the school.

DIRIGO BOYS' STATE

Last summer four boys from the present graduating class represented John Bapst at Dirigo Boys' State held at the University of Maine, Orono, Maine. Of the four boys, Robert J. Barrett III was elected Governor, which enabled him to represent the state of Maine at Boys' Nation in Washington, D. C. This distinction was not only to John Bapst but also to Bangor, since he is the first boy to be elected Governor from our city.

DIRIGO GIRLS' STATE

Each year three girls are selected from the junior class to represent John Bapst High School at the annual Girls' State assembly. These girls are introduced to the mechanics of state government for one week at Colby College, Waterville, Maine. The representatives from the 1962 class were Miss Carol Littlefield, Miss Susan Munce, and Miss Mary Smith.

SPEECH CLUB

The ability to speak well is one of the most valuable personal assets one can possess. To fulfill this need is the aim of the Diconian Club, under the direction of Sister Mary Raymond. Besides the program staged at Bapst, the Club's interests range from the Spear Contest, John Bapst Prize Speaking Night, and the University of Maine Speech Festival. Bapst can be proud of the club's achievements.

To supplement the social and scholastic side of a student's life is the purpose of the two sodalities of John Bapst High. Our Lady of Good Council Sodality of the Girls' Department has been especially striving this year to perform the apostolic duties of sodalist. Sister Mary Aquinas is the girls' moderator and has given impetus to the Sodality's program.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is a Kiwanis-sponsored organization for boys of grades ten through twelve. The Club helps develop initiative and leadership and prepare youth for useful citizenship. The Club also serves the school and community. Since the Key Club's inception two years ago, President James Regan has ably led it to a position of distinction at Bapst and in the state. Last year Robert Barrett was elected New England District Treasurer of Key Club International.

STUDENT ACTIVITY COUNCIL

S.A.C. (The Student Activity Council) is perhaps the most popularly accepted of all the newly formed organizations at Bapst this year. Representing the student body in sponsoring the many and sundry activities, S.A.C. has gained momentum with remarkable rapidity. Consisting of delegates from each of the three upper classes, this group has begun a truly fine tradition for its successors.

The girls comprising St. John's and St. Mary's choirs hope that the congregations of both parishes have enjoyed their singing at Mass on Sunday. These students of John Baptist High School, under the able direction of Sister Mary Rose and Sister Mary Pius, respectively, have tried their best to inspire the parishioners to assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass through hymns.

LE CERCLE DE JEANNE D'ARC

With the advance of transportation and the influx of tourists to many foreign countries, the ability to converse in more than one language is a must. It is for this reason, that the French Club was started. Besides learning songs, games, and customs of the French people, this club has sponsored many charitable projects such as clothing donations sent to the needy. Sister Mary Louis is the moderator of Le Cercle de Jeanne d'Arc.

AMERICAN LEGION

AMERICAN LEGION SPEAR CONTEST

Robert J. Barrett, a senior at John Bapst, was successful in winning not only the state and regional American Legion Oratorical Championships, but also the semi-finals for the United States, held on April 9, in Harrisburg, Pa. Bob presented a prepared speech on "Our Constitution - Worth Having, Worth Defending". He was coached by Brother Simeon, C.F.X. On April 12, Bob participated in the finals for the United States in Salt Lake City, Utah, in which he took fourth place in the nation.

SPEAR CONTEST

The Spear Contest was held on April 12, at the University of Maine. Sheila Cassily and James Regan represented John Bapst. Sheila presented "Bud's Fairy Tale", a selection in humorous prose. James presented "Thirty Pieces of Silver", a serious dramatic selection, which won for him entrance into the State Finals. James won 1st place in the finals on April 26 at Lewiston.

NEWSPAPER

Under the able management of Robert Pettit the KNIGHT'S NEWS showed much improvement over past successes. Besides serving as a means of keeping us in touch with news of current school interest, its pages have announced future events and happenings. Not to be ignored, too, is the artistic work of Mike McKenna and Roger Caldwell, which helped brighten the KNIGHT'S format. The picture here represents but a few of those who contributed to the NEWS during the scholastic year.

DEBATING

Although the varsity debators weathered successfully the practice tournaments held at the start of the season, the final accolade went to others. The success of such novice debators as Michael Taber and John Crowley holds hope for the future. Needless to say, the topic under discussion this year brought about many heated discussions, since opinions pro and con have long been burning bright in the coals of federal aid to public school education.

GLEE CLUB

With the combined efforts of Sister Mary Pius and its members, the John Baptist Glee Club has achieved a position of renown for its outstanding music. Numbering among the Club's numerous appearances are the performances for the Holy Name Society, the St. Mary's Parish Council, and the different hospitals throughout the city at Christmas time.

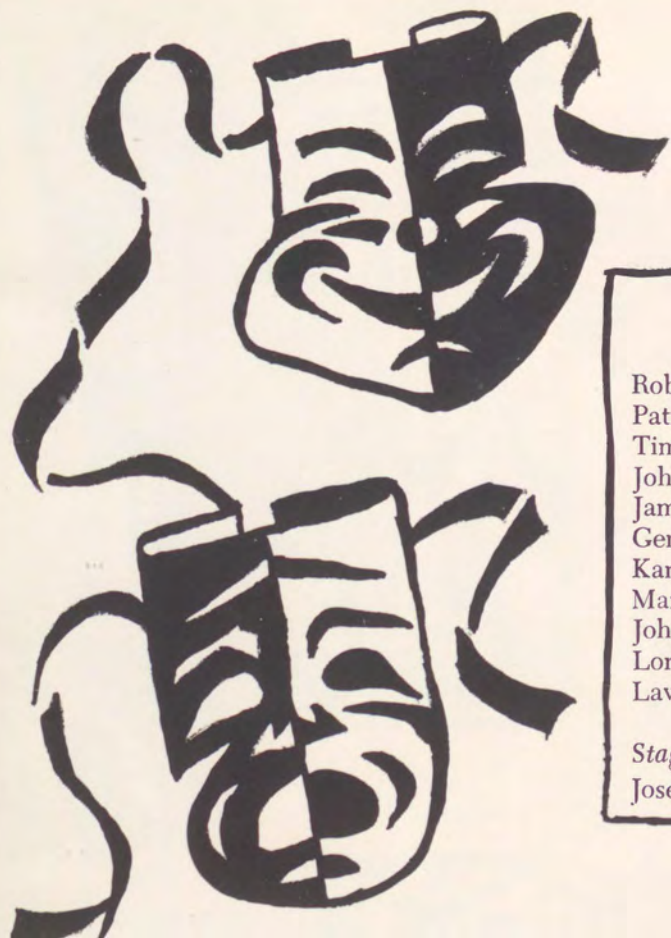

John Dougherty, Joseph Soucy, Charles Gillis, and William Willette stop for a friendly chat with Father Jerry Beck, M. M. between conferences at the student retreat.

The Coronation Dance

The Thanksgiving dance was the gala social event of the fall season. The members of the dance committee worked diligently to make this affair a success. The auditorium was adorned with the traditional festoons, created to furnish the desired atmosphere.

Nat Diamond and his orchestra provided the music for the evening's entertainment.

Fully rested by a half-time intermission and having learned much from the experience of our past mistakes, we entered the field for the final and, what seemed to be the fatal half of the contest. Inspired by the efforts of the faculty, we have been fully confident of the final victory. The junior class of 1962 should feel proud of what it has accomplished this year. Twenty-four stalwart juniors helped contribute to Bapst's successes this year in sports. This, mingled with our academic and social endeavors have made this a momentous year.

Day by day, month by month, our junior year has quickly spent itself. We have all been pleased to survive the onslaughts of Latin, geometry and chemistry. Above all, we have learned to look forward to our final year when we will be on the last step toward graduation and the completion of a stable Catholic education.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class, standing on the threshold of a new year, looks back to re-evaluate its achievements over the past year.

Each girl has participated in at least one of the many spiritual, scholastic, and cultural activities which the school offers.

The Sodality of Our Lady of Good Counsel embraced many members who found much satisfaction in exemplifying Catholic Action.

The newly formed Ad Christum club has attracted many members. The purpose of the club is to gain an insight to the religious life.

Some of the Juniors lent their singing talents to the Glee Club and to St. John's and St. Mary's choirs.

The Speech Club was open to those interested in public speaking.

The French Club was beneficial and entertaining, inasmuch as the members conversed and played games in French.

The coveted honor of admittance to the National Honor Society was bestowed on some of the outstanding Junior girls.

The success of each Club is attributed to the enthusiasm and tireless efforts of the faculty, together with the great spirit manifested by the members.

Class of '64

A sophomore is rather a character. He has just one year of high school behind him and so feels important upon his return to the hallowed halls of learning. True to form, we returned to school in September prepared to lord it over the poor freshmen. Fortunately, after a few days, we became engrossed in what we still had to learn and resumed our proper places as underclassmen. Needless to say, we managed to maintain that high sense of scholarship that keynoted our freshman year.

Our final days as sophomores have been devoted to coping with final examinations and realizing in the process how much we have learned about life in a single year. We are anxious to perfect our new skills and so we take off for our annual vacation just a bit reluctantly. To our amazement our journey through high school is half over!

Exceeding all former classes in size upon entering Bapst as freshmen, this year's sophomores began their tradition of going beyond the usual. Their steadfast attendance at all athletic and social functions has merited them the well deserved recognition as one of the most spirited groups in the school. The outstanding job done this season by the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders is but one example of the great vim and vigor characteristic of the sophomores. Busy with studies and taking advantage of the many extra-curricular activities offered them, members of said class are indeed never quoted as saying that school is boring. Should their great potential continue to develop at its present rate, the class of '64 will be remembered for many years to come.

With the opening of school came the freshmen, groping from one classroom to another and dallying along the corridors. But once through their orientation, these new-comers rallied to the true J.B.H.S. spirit.

They soon made their presence felt and welcomed in the various activities about the school, and also lent their moral support at athletic and social functions. It is evident that these freshmen have "school-spirit plus."

With one year behind them, and the determination to develop their great potential to the utmost, the class of '65 is ready to accept the responsibility of upholding the great traditions of J.B.H.S.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

The present freshman class, the largest in Bapst history, is full of enthusiasm and determination. Its goal is to improve upon the fine record of previous classes, and to set the example for future classes.

A noticeable contribution of the freshmen to the school is the tremendous spirit that it has shown at athletic contests. As spectators at football and basketball games, the freshman class has assisted wholeheartedly in spurring the teams onto victory. As participants, they have shown that they have the ability to perform on varsity, as well as jayvee and freshman Squads. Approximately fifteen freshmen played on the varsity football team. The freshman team had an enviable record of its own, winning five games, losing none, and capturing the conference crown. Not to be outdone, the frosh basketball team completed a 15 and 1 record to nail down the championship:

All efforts have not been directed to athletics as indicated by the many freshmen on the honor roll. Other academic achievements were the numerous contributions to the science fair, representation on the school debating team, and participation in Sodality. Some of the freshmen projects for the Science Fair were selected to represent Bapst at the regional exhibit. Our freshmen debaters have stood shoulder to shoulder with the more experienced debaters of the upper classes.

Social activities also have played an important role in freshman life. They were warmly welcomed to J.B.H.S. at the Freshman Reception, which turned out to be a more pleasant affair than the sophomores had led them to believe. The reception stimulated interest and boosted attendance at dances and other social functions.

The freshman class is grateful to the Brothers for their inspirational leadership and are looking forward to three more fruitful years under their guidance. Under the direction of the Brothers and with their continued enthusiasm, the freshmen hope to carry on the Crusader spirit.

John Bapst Grid Back Launch Quarterback Club

By BLAINE DAVIS

Football followers of John Bapst High School are organizing a new club to help the Crusader grid stock will take a big step upward in the next season. The new coach Ken Perrone, who has been with the team since last year, is launching the newly organized Quarterback Club. It's all part of the young coach's plan to reorganize the school's grid structure.

John Bapst Crusader Whip

Besides the offensive backfield, the Crusaders will raise from the sidelines one and a half times the longest of the State Prisoners. The Crusaders will greet 132 of the largest number for a Bapst pre-season. The Crusaders Class B.

"Response to the Quarterback Club will be to the Crusaders," Perrone said. "Perrone also volunteered growing expenses must be worn out gear response so far has been at its initial."

Baker got off a 63 yard run at the end zone later in the quarter that was called back because of a foul. However, on the next play, Farwell collected a 72 yard dash of the contest. Farwell rushed the point, lost ground stalled, had his second moments later, and threw a 40 yard pass to Baker for a touchdown. The Crusaders started the game with a 14-0 lead. The Crusaders started the game with a 14-0 lead. The Crusaders started the game with a 14-0 lead.

Double Punch

Baker and Farwell exploded for a TD gallops in the opening period. Farwell, on Bapst's first play of the game, ran around the left side for 51 yards to the end zone. After rushing the point, even minutes later, Baker broke loose for another tally. After another tally, Baker broke loose for another tally. After another tally, Baker broke loose for another tally.

The second period saw Rockland's 25 yard pass nullified by a foul, but Baker passed to Baker for 25 yards to the Rockland 14. Thibodeau carried 11 yards and fullback Jim Blake rammed over the line.

Strategy Plans

Freshmen — first row — left to right — R. Walker, L. Jacobs, M. Montoya, G. Palmieri, K. Zuch, D. Giles, G. Coffin, J. Crawford, P. Enman.

Second row: Coach Thompson, E. Vanidestine, G. Scruggs, S. Dwyer, G. Wickett, M. Burke, C. Sullivan, T. Brennan, D. Logan, Brother Cronan.

Third row: P. Clapp, S. Largay, P. Aucoin, J. Beard, E. Hopkins, C. Wickett, A. Ross.

Fourth row: B. Brooks, M. Dalton, P. Brooks, B. Shean, D. Keith, M. Murphy.

Left to right: Coaches Garro, Thompson, Perrone, and Brother Cronan, C.F.X., pose between rounds with those looks of confidence that betray a winning team, both Varsity and Freshman. All realize, though, that more than smiles is needed to outline a winning strategy.

The "Rags to Riches" theme of our football rally exemplifies the whole season at Bapst. A word of thanks to the cheerleaders who kept our spirits high and our shouts clear as the Purple and White packed that "Crusader Punch".

Coaching Conference — Brother Cronan, C.F.X., Thaxter Trafton, Ron Geagan discuss plans for the sport campaign.

Varsity Cheerleaders: left to right: A. Finnegan, Capt., B. Corey, L. Perry, C. Spellman, D. Dixon, S. Munce, P. McClay.

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's a Nicky Carparelli!

Ron Thibodeau has taken lessons from Tinkerbell.

"You put your right hand in, you put your right hand out," says Dick Soucy.

Down in front, please.

"All it takes is finger-tip control," says Jim McGrath.

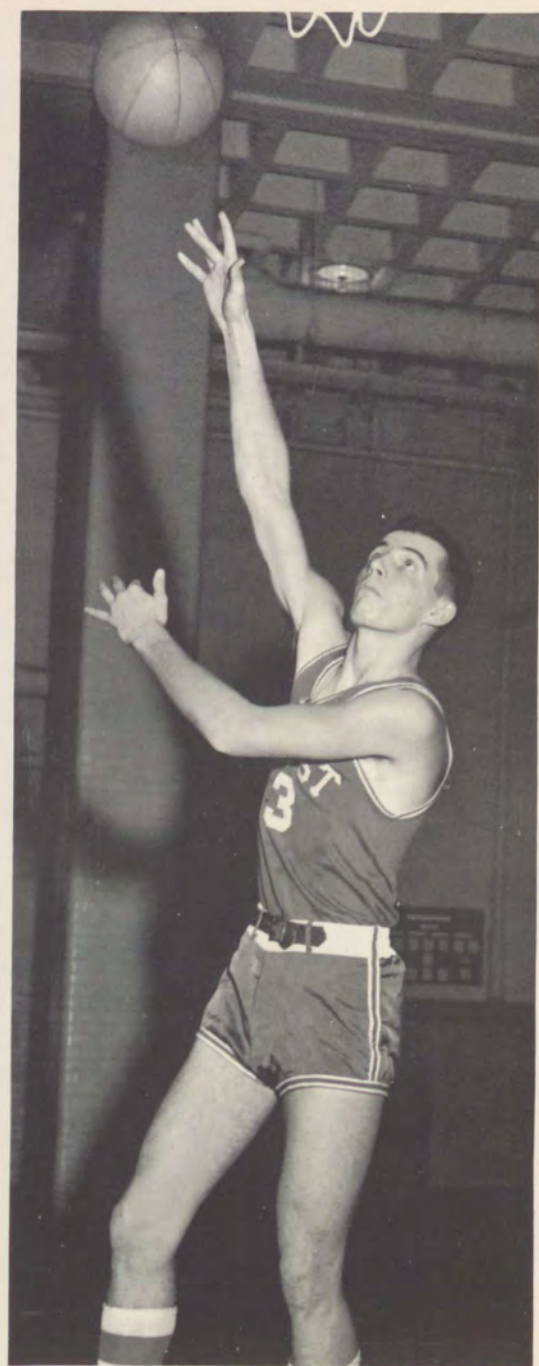

"Who put the cement in my basketball?" says Dick Soucy.

"Hey, boy, you can't do that," says Tom McLaughlin.

"While we've got the ball, let's cut out," cracks Dave O'Connell.

Lean and lanky Jim McGrath shows us how it's done.

Smile Sunshine!

J. V. Cheerleaders: (top clockwise:) Capt. H. Rathbun, S. LeBritton, S. Corey, P. Spellman, P. Pooler, M. Cassily, T. Murtha.

With our J. V.'s we have seen the new look, the look of power of John Bapst. Its mighty engine develops the power of five players as it roars to the finish with Coach Ron Geagan at the wheel. This mighty combination of power developed in the team the desire to win, and that they did. These young Crusaders downed all but 2 of their opponents to close the season with a 12-2 record.

TRAINING

"What happens if I drop this on my toes?" wonders Bob McPherson.

John Lavin and Mike McNally take time out to pose for the photographer. Our only wish is that in passing the baton, John would not stop too often for a quick snapshot. Below, Dick Field is actually lifting a burnt pancake, but he does make it look like the real thing, doesn't he?

Here is proof positive that the coaches at Bapst do more than just instruct the team players in the fine arts of the game. They teach school too.

Novice Tim Rice gets some helpful advice from Coach Geagan.
