THE JOHN BAPST ANNUAL—1958

Volume XXVIII

... there was tumult and a shouting—and then a great calm ...

BANGOR
BANGOR, ME

Furbush-Roberts Printing Company, Inc.

Every part of this book is reserved. It is reserved to all those who have participated in the school year 1957-1958, to those who may pick it up nostalgically in years to come, to all the memories it may evoke directly or indirectly of auld lang syne. Anyone may quote freely from it—all possessors should look upon it fondly. If it retains its newness of appearance too long, to some extent it will have been a failure. May the book become somewhat shabby from years of handling, while the days it recalls always gleam anew.

To the Reader

THERE IS AN OLD AND VENERABLE CUSTOM, MUCH LESS OBSERVED NOW THAN IN FORMER YEARS, THAT THE author of a book write a few lines to his "dear reader" in which he rambled about on some point or other, sometimes justified his work, occasionally presented his apologia. We eagerly availed ourselves of this privilege in order to elaborate on some points that we would like to have evident.

Caught up as we are in a "New World," we decided to "face lift" our Annual. This is no reflection on the past. The name BAPSTONIAN, which identified our Annual for years, is an old and highly revered one. The substitution of THE CRUSADER will undoubtedly cause some pain (and comment) from alumnae and alumni. We offer no apology, however—though the Girls' Department may not look kindly upon what looks like a "steal" of the name of the school paper—for over the years the name The Crusaders has become synonymous with school activities to such an extent that it seemed logical to us to replace the name of our Annual. Strong agitation on this point in recent years crystallized us in this decision.

In keeping with the idea of change, we also completely revised the face of the cover. A great deal of consideration went into the new arrangement. We hope that you will receive the design approvingly. As originally projected, the arrangement and coloring seemed both handsome and symbolic. Naturally we retained the crusader impression and our highly respected school colors of purple and white. Even the gold overtone has a significance. We used it in the sentiment of our title: "Golden Days, in the happy sunshine of our youth . . ." During our years at JOHN BAPST we have risen with the crest of a wave of high spirit and morale evident in the students. We hope THE CRUSADER exhales some of this spirit in cover and pages.

We could hardly take leave of the "old" without reference to it. We quote the commentary from the last BAPSTONIAN. It's borrowed, and though the thought is ancient it is ever new:

"This is some of the story of one of the 'green years,' years when we seized of life with both hands. There will be no others like these. We cannot return. Hurriedly we save a trace here, there for later days, when spring 'the tears that are born of time.' Now we have no wish to stop, no means of stopping. Forgotten brief sorrows in our eager reaching to a gleaming tomorrow. See here in these pages faces, names, events that made one green year greener."

In the pages that follow you see the results of an experimental treatment of portions of our Annual. The procedure was slow—and in some cases painful. We do feel that we made a start, however. When it was all over we saw that our labor in some specific cases brought forth a monster. Perfection—though it is no trifle—is made up of trifles. Where we failed, we ask your indulgence; and if our errors spark those who follow to a better piece of work we shall feel that we have contributed in some part to our guiding principle: "Bapst is best!" always, and in all things.

As we leave JOHN BAPST, fortified in our faith and conscious of our mature obligations, we give a brief directive to our successors: "It is not the places that grace men, but men the places."

DEDICATION

The John Bapst Senior Class of 1958, joyfully and yet regretfully concluding an epoch in their lives that will always remain tender, and wishing to pay tribute to a man who they feel has helped immensely to engender these somewhat contrary feelings of joy and sadness, dedicate this issue of THE CRUSADER to Brother Evangelus, C.F.X., feeling there is much truth in the words of Agesilaus "that it is not the places that grace men, but men the places."

MONSIGNOR EDWARD WARD

Monsignor Ward, our beloved pastor of St. Mary's Parish, graduated from Holy Cross College in Worcester. He was ordained four years later in 1928 at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, Maryland. He served as a curate at St. Joseph's Parish in Portland for four years. In 1932 he was appointed to the staff of Cheverus High School where he was director of Athletics. From 1932 to 1942, his summers were occupied with his position as director of Camp Gregory for boys. He became Rector of the Cathedral staff in Portland in 1943, and remained there until he came to Bangor in 1950.

Thirty years a priest this year, Monsignor Ward is truly a zealous servant of Christ. In his work at St. Mary's, he has won the love and devotion of all his parishioners. Forever busy with the many activities of his Parish, he labors unceasingly for the Glory of God. As busy as he is, he still finds time to preside as spiritual director of the Bangor district of the Maine Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. Monsignor Ward has always maintained a fervent interest in all of our activities at John Bapst too, and the class of "58" wishes to thank him for his loyal support through the years.

MONSIGNOR THOMAS NELLIGAN

Monsignor Nelligan was one of the very founders of John Bapst. He has always promoted our many activities, and has proved to be a loyal friend and a holy advisor. He has displayed fervent interest in both the spiritual and scholastic standards of our high school. Even though he has been physically incapacitated for quite some years now, his keen intelligence and sharp wit surpass those of many men much younger in years. John Bapst has long been his pride and joy, and he is constantly concerned for our welfare. With the zealous devotion of the Good Shepherd, Monsignor Nelligan continues to watch over his flock through his assistants. During his many years of priestly service he has shown himself to be an exemplary model of Christ in his great humility and charity. As a devoted servant of Our Lord, he has always given of himself, unsparingly, in his many parish duties. We students of John Bapst will always be grateful to him both for the part he played in the construction of our school, and his perpetual concern for the welfare of its students through the years.

SISTER MARY LUKE

Sister Mary Luke, our principal, has been both helper and confidant in our formative years at John Bapst High School. Our gratitude to this woman who has dedicated herself to God is most deep and sincere. She has labored selflessly and untiringly in our service in order to create worthy citizens with firm Catholic principles to guide and protect them in whatever the future may bring.

Her example alone has been an inspiration to us in spiritual matters. By her enthusiasm and warm personal interest in each student she has imparted many of her ideals to us whose greatest hope is someday to attain her high standards of honesty and loyalty.

We, the class of '58, pay grateful tribute to her for the long and tedious hours she has devoted to our development in all phases of education. By her lessons we can confidently expect the path to our eternal goal to be made clearer, if not easier.

Our greatest desire for the future is one of much happiness and success to this zealous servant of God who has labored so unstintingly in her duties and that she may be amply rewarded for a job well done.

BROTHER EVANGELUS, C. F. X.

Another year under the able leadership and guidance of our principal, Brother Evangelus, has resulted in many innovations which have been of benefit to the entire student body. His keen sense of humor and wise understanding have gained him the friendship and respect of all those under his supervision. At our pre-game rallies his rousing and morale building speeches inspired the rise of the name of Bapst in all our athletic competitions and various other activities. While the name of Bapst continues on the rise, the deep religious spirit of Brother Evangelus has influenced the students to do their utmost to justify his confidence in us as representatives of our school. With his untiring efforts, he has given his all in directing and instructing us in spiritual and scholastic matters. His utmost devotion to Bapst has given us an example of what faith and loyalty can accomplish. With his coming, Bapst has attained many goals not formerly visualized. The class of 1958 greatly appreciates the help and inspiration received from this fine man.

Football Report

Inspired by the success of last year's team, the 1957 edition of the Crusaders was ready for action when the season opened. With hard, rough blocking and tackling, we made breaks come our way and posted a fine 5-3-1 record for the season.

In our opener, we stopped Crosby of Belfast in a wide open, but Crusader dominated, game. A bitter, hard fought battle was lost the next week to Old Town, 13-6. This game, which could have gone either way, was not decided until the last minutes. We went on to Millinocket where the surprisingly strong Minutemen, despite the rushing of powerful left-half Tom Willett, who accounted for 210 yards, held us to a tie at 14 all.

Madison and Rockland presented no problem as we easily submerged them in the next two games. With fullback Ed Paschal scoring two, one on an interception and the other on a bruising run, we nipped Fairfield, 12-7.

Two weeks later we bombed Bangor, 13-0 for our most cherished win of the year. Tireless charging line play, and brilliant running by Tom Willett and Jerry McGuire, spelled out the victory for us. We were the first Bapst team to top Bangor since the undefeated season of 1948.

Possessed with confidence, we journeyed to Skowhegan where we were crushed by a huge line and fast backfield, receiving our worst drubbing of the season. Our last game, postponed from an earlier date as a result of "flu" casualties, was another hard fought contest against Brewer, broken open in the fourth quarter by the Witches.

Our defensive work, which normally doesn't receive much credit, rates special mention. Fairfield, except for one pass which resulted in a long run for a touchdown, never penetrated beyond our 35 yard line. Bangor on one series of plays squeezed up to our three inch line and was stopped cold. Ed Pooler must have set some sort of record with eight blocked punts for the season. Brewer's fine running attack was almost completely shackled by Lousier on one end and Pooler on the other. Shorette and Robinson were outstanding in every game.

Congratulations are extended to Co-captains Tom Willett and Ed Paschal; to George Shorette, Ed Pooler, Mike Muldoon, John Kelley, Bruce Bromby, Ernie Blaisdell, George Pooler, and Bill Robinson for their clean, but hard, sportsman-like play. Bapst received special honors as hard-running left-halfback Tommy Willett, our leading scorer and ground gainer, and 200 lb. tackle George Shorette were placed on the All-Eastern-Maine first eleven.

With McGuire, Vreeland, Dowd, Hayden, Shanley, Curtis, Lousier, and Verow for a nucleus, and the self-confidence engendered by achievement, prospects "look great for '58" too.

Paschal Scores Twice

JOHN BAPST TOPPLES LAWRENCE TEAM, 12-7

By DON BROUGH

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 13—Striking for two second period touchdowns in less than three minutes, the John Bapst Crusaders held off a last half bid by Lawrence High to win by the margin of 12 to 7 Saturday afternoon.

Ed Paschal scored both touchdowns for the Purple in the second period as he bulled 15 yards for the first and minutes later grabbed a Paul Philles aerial at mid-field to dash 50 yards for the score. Bill Robinson and Johnnie Kelley threw key blocks to let Paschal go the distance.

Neither team could get going in the first period until Bruce Vreeland blocked on the Purple offensive punter. St. Lawrence again dominated the first half.

Jerry McCoy set up the 15 yard zone. The try failed.

The Purple entered the oval at the end of the first half. Willett tried to lead the Crusaders but was halted by the Lawrence defense.

Louis Bessard kicked off and early on the Purple started a drive which saw Larry Pamphrey toss to Dave Cairnie who was tackled immediately by John Kelley on the 35, the last man between Cairnie and the goal line. The play covered 22 yards to the Purple 35. The drive ended seconds later on the Bapst 25 as the whistle sounded ending the half.

The second half started with a punt by Lawrence.

Johnny Mitchell kicked off and the Purple started a drive which saw Larry Pamphrey toss to Dave Cairnie who was tackled immediately by John Kelley on the 35, the last man between Cairnie and the goal line. The play covered 22 yards to the Purple 35. The drive ended seconds later on the Bapst 25 as the whistle sounded ending the half.

Willett, Hayden Pace Purple In Second Win

John Bapst moved back to the victory trail last night by posting an early command and coasting to a 26-7 decision over Rockland before 1,500 chilled but enthusiastic viewers at Doyle field in Brewer.

ALL-EASTERN MAINE

GEORGE SHORETTE

Speed and size are two of the prime requisites for the top-flight tackle, and this Bapst standout possessed the necessary qualities. A 200-pounder, Shorette was an important man in the Bapst attack, both offensively and defensively. He was one of the main reasons for the Crusaders' success.

TOMMY WILLETT

A hard man to bring down, Willett was the main cog in the John Bapst offense and a good defensive man. The leading scorer for the Crusaders, he was mentioned by every coach whose team played against the Bapst team this season. He's another local back looked upon with favor by college coaches.

John Bapst Eleven Whips Madison's Gridders, 26-6

BY WOODY BIGELOW

John Bapst's Crusaders rolled to an easy 26-6 victory over winless Madison at Doyle Field last night, with halfback Tom Willett pacing the attack with a 13-point output.

Willett scored a pair of touchdowns and added an extra point as the silver-helmeted Crusaders posted their third victory in five outings. They've lost one and tied one.

For Madison it was the fourth straight setback, although the Bulldogs can find some consolation in the fact they registered their first points of the campaign in this one.

Bapst took the opening kickoff and marched 71 yards for the TD with Willett hitting paydirt from the one-foot line after setting up the score with a nifty 25-yard scamper. Quarterback Johnny Kelley was stopped as he tried to Big Ed Paschal made it a 20-0 first half as he plunged for the conversion.

The Crusader Tournament Squad for our best season in many years. George Pooler (15), Edward McCarthy (9), Kenneth Lousier (13), Robert McAllister (8), Thomas Jordan (3), Andrew Akins (14) Robert De Grass (4), John Greer (11), Robert Reynolds (6), Thomas Willett (10), James Kenney (12), Robert Cormier (5).

BAPST HAS ARRIVED

Taking their cue from the football team, the Crusaders entered a winning season. With many a beautiful eye-catching play, we closed the record book with a 14-6 entry, as against the 9-9 entry last year. Like last year, we were called "Hot and Cold Bapst"; but, unlike last year, we had the honor of having one of our players called "Little Bob Cousy" by the sports writers. This, of course, is Bob McAllister, one of the finest players in anyone's book. His total score for the season was 387 points, and he averaged 18.4 a game. In addition, Mac was high scorer in the P.V.C. and second highest in the state.

Bob Reynolds played the other guard position excellently. An able shot he accounted for many a point, a good deal of the time when the scores were close. When rebounds were needed, you could be sure "Big Bob" DeGrass would be there to get them, and if he weren't, Tom Jordan or Andy Akins would be. Not that either of them got only rebounds, because Tom and Andy are fighters, to whom control of the ball is a fetish. Both are also able shots. In addition, Tom is a master at defensive play. He retrieves the ball when it is wild, steals it when he wants it, and just plain grabs for it when he doesn't have it.

The seniors on our team gave us a few thrills this season. Ed McCarthy sank a 55 foot shot during the Cheverus game. Bob Cormier was the one who made 90 for us at Old Town, after receiving a beautiful pass from George Pooler.

We began the season with a youthful and relatively inexperienced team. We had not one senior on the starting five. The five starters were three juniors and two sophomores. Mac was the only veteran; the others saw some action as subs last year. In spite of this, they went into action and turned in an excellent record. At the finish of the season, they had tied Brewer for the P.V.C. crown, which is no minor feat.

To crown a beautiful season, the Crusaders made the Eastern Maine Class L Tournament, for the first time in the past few seasons. Sure, we remained there for only one game, but this one game was the shining beacon, announcing that John Bapst had arrived. Nothing could have done it better. The game was an exciting one that had the spectators on their feet most of the time. Stearns won, but in order to do so, they had to fight as if they were fighting for their very lives.

Among other accomplishments which may be credited to the Crusaders are these: During the first Bangor game, we played before a crowd of approximately 5,000 people, the largest attendance of an in-season, high school game in the history of schoolboy basketball in Maine; and we were one of the few teams to reach 90 points on Old Town's floor.

Our only losses of the season—two each to Bangor, Stearns, and Brewer—were as close as could be and were not decided until the final seconds of the game. The team played as best they could, and they fought hard. The spectators could not say that we had played a bad game, because, even though we lost, they were courageous, action-packed contests.

With the exception of Bob Reynolds, we will have our entire starting team back next year. The future holds only the brightest prospects for the Purple and White. Next year is the year for Bapst to go all the way, straight down the line, right to Boston.

Of course, to have any kind of team at all, you need a coach. We at Bapst have one of the best in the business, Coach Mitchell, who took an inexperienced, almost green team, and made

Purple Wins 7th Straight

By WOODY BIGELOW

OLD TOWN, Dec. 30 — Bobby McAllister poured in 36 points tonight as the John Bapst Crusaders walloped Old Town, 90-72, for their seventh straight victory of the season.

The triumph broke a long drought for the John Bapst club in its competition against Old Town. The last Crusader victory over the Indians came during the 1950-51 campaign when the teams split in two games.

McAllister fired 15 field goals through the nets in 22 attempts and dropped six of seven foul shots. As a unit, the Crusaders enjoyed a tremendous shooting performance, bagging 34 from the floor.

Trailing

the first half, the Crusaders led its game meter and straight p Indians at eight minutes.

McAllister tied matters at 27-27 at 4:56 remaining in the second period and Bob DeGrasse followed with a tap-in to give the Crusaders the lead for keeps. McAllister added three more field goals in the blast and Tommy Jordan chipped in with a key three-point play. It was Bapst by 40-33 at intermission.

McAllister, deadly from outside and just as dangerous on his drives, scored two quick buckets to start the action in the second half. Old Town kept digging, however, and the rallying Indians nearly made up an 11-point deficit when Gary Eldridge dropped in a long one-hander to narrow the gap at 48-46.

The cool McAllister then broke Old Town's heart. He came straight down the middle and uncorked an arching, 30-foot bomb which dropped cleanly through. It ignited a spark, for the Crusaders reeled off nine more points before Old Town's Walt McAllister broke the ice with a layup.

Bapst led 61-48 at the three-quarter mark and in the final eight minutes was in command by more than 20 points.

Old Town started off on the right foot, jumping into a 21-14 first period advantage, thanks primarily to some sharp foul shooting. The Indians hit nine times from the line in the first eight minutes.

Three Personals

McAllister, incidentally, was saddled with three personal fouls in the first period but played until less than three minutes remained in the game before being relieved. Jordan also had three personals shortly after the second period got under way.

McAllister's three-point play cut Old Town's lead to 23-21 early in the second frame. Francis Oakes hit from the corner to give the Indians a four-point spread and Walt McAllister hit on the end of a fast break to make it 36-21. McAllister then started Bapst's back with four consecutive two-point shots and McAllister's 17 points led to a 36-21 lead.

Jordan's 28 Sparks Win

By WOODY BIGELOW

John Bapst's Crusaders used the foul line to good advantage last Saturday night as they whipped Cheverus, 70-51, in an inter-sectional clash before a small crowd at the Municipal Auditorium.

Outgunned from the floor, the Crusaders dropped the better of it at the nets, but the Bapst team poured it on. The Crusaders floor at the half, 21-20, only a 21-20 margin, the Bapst team poured it on. The Crusaders floor at the half, 21-20, only a 21-20 margin, the Bapst team poured it on.

Waterville's Stags could only elude the Bapst team's offensive buckets to 47-26, but the visitors for the night, Bapst tallied 70 points with Johnny Greer and McAllister pacing the team.

That quick bast enabled Johnny Mitchell to move of substitutes into the Crusaders took a 61-31 period lead.

ELLSWORTH, Dec. 10 — John Bapst Crusaders pulled away from the speedy and determined Ellsworth Eagles in the first quarter here tonight to rack their third straight victory of the season, 81-64.

Once again led by the coaching touch of Bob MacAllister, Tommy Jordan and the Ellsworth defensive work of DeGrasse, the Crusaders call upon all their speed and defensive prowess in that quarter to pull away from a team which had shaken its point first quarter disadvantage in the final period.

Kelly Stanger, the smallest man on the team, made the only shot in a row by the Crusaders at half-court. Little Jack Reynolds, at half-court, kept a 10-9 edge without the Crusaders' teammates in the third period. The line department of the Crusaders in the third period.

In the third period, Bapst's second effort. He popped the ball before the period ended six more in the Crusaders' favor. Bapst was in command in the three-quarter mark, leading the final score 48-31. Both teams played on practically the same level in the fourth period, outscoring its rivals in that minute span, 22-20. Both a Johnny Mitchell of the Crusaders and Bill Curran of the Eagles poured reserves into the game continually, beginning in its early stages.

With MacAllister and Jordan showing the way, the visitors jumped away to a 24-11 first period lead. Farrell was unable to shake himself loose from the tenacious defensive tactics of DeGrasse in that period, and it was who kept his club within striking distance.

The entire Ellsworth team concentrated something to the total in the second quarter to cut the margin down to eight points. MacAllister hit on four long shots to keep his club in the game.

In Comeback

MacAllister and Bob Reynolds led the Crusaders to a total of seven points in the third period. The lead to 14, and the Crusaders caught fire. The club became all defense and romped in the fourth quarter to contain fast break play. The Crusaders, Andy MacAllister and Jack Gordon bore the brunt of the scoring in the drive. MacAllister strong off the boards, turning in some spectacular defensive plays.

MacAllister dropped in a pair of free throws to open the last canto, but Reynolds later missed on a shot from the side, and the Crusaders forces opened the flood gates. The hopes of the Crusaders fans.

MacAllister and DeGrasse began to click consistently more, putting the game far out of Ellsworth's reach.

The loss was the third in four starts for the Eagles.

The John Bapst Crusaders capped a busy week of basketball activity at the Bangor Auditorium Saturday night, tracking up their fifth straight victory without a loss, strikingly to stop the Skowhegan Indians, 59-48.

The Crusaders will now take a long layoff after the Christmas recess, but they will go after win number 10 at Portland against Cheverus Dec. 27th.

It was a case of Bapst being too much, too soon for the Skowhegan quintet in Saturday night battle. Coach Johnny Mitchell got its offense organized in the opening quarter with an 11-point, 18-7 lead, which he kept up until the half.

The Skowhegan Indians were unable to close the gap point for point over the minutes of the center half, unable to close the gap more than nine points.

Take 11-Point Lead At the four point first period, the Crusaders 6-3 lead on the Skowhegan of buckets by the Crusaders in the opening quarter. Bob DeGrasse and Johnny MacAllister began the scoring in the first point of the game. The Crusaders led.

DeGrasse and MacAllister, Gordon Reynolds, who left the half with what appeared to be an unmountable 31-16 advantage.

Skowhegan pivotman, Skowhegan's big gun in the Indians' attack throughout the game. The Crusaders' 16 minute lead was maintained. Skowhegan's shots were in the rim in the first half, began to hit consistently in the third quarter and fell in the final chapter of the game. The Indians were in striking distance.

A Skowhegan time out with the score at 43-28 in favor of the Crusaders late in the third period. MacAllister and Reynolds teamed up to score all but the final two points for the Crusaders.

Backcourt Men Shine

It was mainly through the efforts of this talented pair of backcourt men that the home forces were able to hold off the resurgent Indians. DeGrasse did most of the scoring, while MacAllister was the team's leading scorer with 28 points.

Coach John Mitchell and the first seven of the basketball squad who took us into the Tournament this year. Captain Thomas Willett (10), John Greer (11), Robert De Grass (4), Andrew Akins (14), Thomas Jordan (3), Robert McAllister (8), Robert Reynolds (6).

BOB McALLISTER

"Mac" is one of the finest basketball players this state has ever seen. His flashing style, his accuracy, and his constant double figure output have made his name a household word all over our state. All this talent has made him the highest scorer in the P.V.C. and the second highest in the state. This same talent has put the name of McAllister on the coveted list of the All State Team. "Little Bob Cousy" will remain always as an outstanding player in the memories of the people who had the pleasure of watching this "master of the court" perform.

A beautiful shot by Mac. Of course it was good.

The touch of the Master is displayed in Bob's dribbling.

"It won't do any good boys; Mac will get it any way."

BOB REYNOLDS

Bob is a tremendous player who always gives his all to see Bapst win. Bob is a great help, especially when the going is rough. He has an individual, polished style, which is a definite pleasure to watch in action. Bob is another of our players who is constantly in the scorers column with double figures. We at Bapst are more than pleased that he chose to come to our school and help raise the name of Bapst to the height to which it has been raised in the past few years.

In a tight moment with Waterville, Bob is determined to get through with the ball.

Bob Reynolds just before raising Bapst by two more points.

"Will it be good?" wonders Bob.

BOB DeGRASS

"Bonesy," our 6' 6" center, has done his part in securing our victories this season. He has been a great help when we needed height. His superb rebounding has secured the ball for us when we needed it most. He plays his best to gain another laurel for Bapst. We may lose, but you can be sure Bapst, and especially "Bonesy" will go down fighting.

Bob is in a tight position, but Tom Jordan and Bob Reynolds are there to help him.

Tom tries a one-hander as Bob DeGrass looks on.

"Shall I pass it, or try to shoot?", wonders Tom as a Brewer player tries for the ball.

ANDY AKINS

Andy has been the surprise of the season. At the critical moment, when we needed a good rebounder, and someone who would fight for the ball, well, there was Andy. He played his best games under pressure. Pressure doesn't seem to bother him. Starting this year as a substitute, he fought his way to a starting berth, and in that position, he has proved his value.

TOMMY JORDAN

Tom's star is outshone only the slightest bit by that shining sun which is McAllister. As a sophomore, he is as good a ball player as most are at the senior level. Tom is a master at defense, saving us from many a possible disaster, and he does it with great skill. His accuracy at shooting, and his ball handling are very seldom equaled at the sophomore level. We of the class of '58 are sorry that most of us will not be in a position to see him play too often in the next two years.

Andy makes the tap . . . two more.

Andy displays here a bit of the rebounding which helped him gain a starting position.

There goes Johnny, as a Waterville player watches.

Taking aim before he shoots is Bob Cormier, as a Waterville player tries to stop him.

It was good for Tom Willett, and he gains two.

The cheerleaders: (back row) M. Harkins, T. LaForge, J. Sullivan, B. McNally; (front row) M. Milroy, F. Crowley, J. Wood, S. Pooler, N. Smith.

the tournament. This is an accomplishment which is hard to duplicate. He tries his best to develop what each boy excels in, and then to mold them into a tight, well-balanced team. This year has been his best product so far.

The smooth operation of the Athletic Department this year has been due to the management of Brother Christian. He has done his best to make the players comfortable on trips, and occasionally helped Coach Mitchell a little.

We cannot, of course, give all the credit to one player, the team or the coach. Granted, ours is a tremendous combination, but without the spirit and drive of the school behind them, we could not have had so envious a season. The rebirth of the school spirit at John Bapst is due to our Principal, Brother Evangelus. The spirit he has is magnetic and contagious. Now, after just a year and a half of his administration, the school is a bubbling fountain of spirit and enthusiasm. He has made Bapst what it is, and we are grateful. Through his war-cry, "Up Bapst!! Up!!", he has elevated Bapst to a position higher than it has enjoyed for several years.

Yes, the John Bapst Crusaders have fought their way from a position of not much importance, all the way to the top. We are now one of the top teams in the state. It has been a hard struggle, but it has been done with the determination, courage and drive that is typical of the men of Bapst. We can now say with pride, "Lift your hats and hold them high! John Bapst is passing by!"

Next year, this same power will race the '58-'59 models, but with different men. But no matter, the essentials are there: the will to win, the spirit, the team, and the coach. Who needs more! Higher, Bapst, higher!!!

The smooth running of a play depends largely on the care, attention, efficiency, and interest of the production staff. Note how self-satisfied we are with the job we did. Sheila McManus and Rosalie Rist didn't have to do much prompting (our actors are good). Gertrude Farrar, Terence Churchill and Marie Richards supplied what properties we needed. Lester Verow handled the lighting, Edward Baker the scenery, and Mike Cassily was stage manager.

Retreat

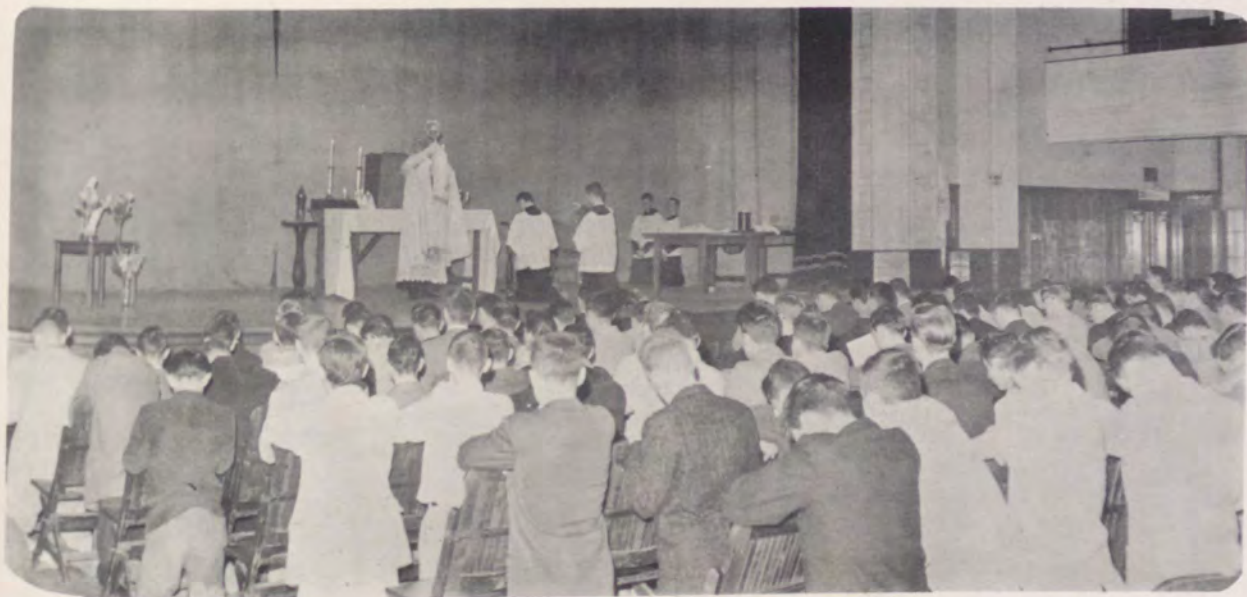

Our Retreat was given by Father McDermott, C.S.S.R. The Girls' Department held theirs on March 5, 6, and 7. The Boys' took place on March 10, 11, and 12. Here Father is giving the Last Blessing at the end of Mass over reverently bowed heads.

Tom Flanigan wafts incense toward the uplifted monstrance as Father invokes the Divine Blessing upon the retreatants.

"I will go unto the altar of God." We had late morning Mass to enable all to partake of the Body of Our Divine Lord.

At the concluding exercise the retreatants ask Divine assistance in their resolutions.

EDITOR

EDMOND PASCHAL

Your Annual this year is mainly due to the untiring efforts, deep interest, and laborious care of Edmond Paschal, who has been a Yearbook staff member now for three years. Unlike any other school activity, Yearbook work requires unremitting attention throughout the school year and profits by attention to detail during the previous summer months. The immense expenditure of time and labor involved is noticed by only a few members of the student body; and a full appreciation is never attained even by these. The Yearbook moderator, very selfishly regretting Ed's graduation from the scene of so much tension, blood, sweat, and tears, wishes to permanently record his deep gratitude to this loyal son of John Bapst for all that he has done to make THE CRUSADER—1958 a success.

"Brother, I'd like you to meet my brother's sister-in-law." "Hi, Nancy!"

"Sir! All these girls can't be your brother's sisters-in-law! You're fired!!"

Ruth Guay, Michelle Milroy, Mary Latno, and Martha Latno look depressed over the condition of the Senior Section. As you can see, Bill Coffey hates girls. "Happy" is not at all unique. He likes girls.

Some real dolls showed up in the Yearbook room—
some

The Misses Dorothy Smith and Carol Politz, our gracious "Girls Friday", affectionately referred to as "The Twins", typed and typed and typed and typed and typed

"Leave the pictures ALONE!!!"

When we put our minds to it, we really worked hard.

John Kelley and Bill Coffey gave time to the Senior Section and picture captioning. All the flattering comments are theirs. Any you object to were the work of some anonymity.

"Scram, girls! I have a deadline to meet!" "Hi, Nancy!"

THE SODALITY

The Sodality of Our Lady of Good Counsel is a religious society, the purpose of which is to instill in its members a devotion to our Blessed Mother. It has become a very popular Organization throughout its existence at Bapst. The members of the Sodality know and carry out to its full extent the purpose for which it was organized, which is to give honor to Mary and plant into every heart a fervent love of Christ. It is the duty of every Sodalist throughout the world to defend the Church and win souls for Christ. The Bapst girls all gather together under the name of Mary to do all they can to spread her work and fulfill her wishes.

Each week a meeting of the Sodality is held, one week a Spiritual one and the next a Social. The Sodality conducts a great many activities which involve a wide variety of things. This year the Sodality donated food-baskets to members of one of the neighboring parishes at Thanksgiving. The girls are in charge of the grab booth at the Reunion. The Sodality is in constant contact with the Catholic magazines of our time.

This year the Sodality also sent three girls to the Summer School of Catholic Action in New York and plans on doing the same for the next year. The reception of the probies is looked forward to each year by all. They will be the future Sodalists. Sodality, like anything else, has special requirements necessary to become a member. Every one in Sodality must do her utmost to see that Christ's work is carried on. A Sodalist has a deep love for Christ and His Mother and puts this love into her everyday life. The Sodality is truly a living of the words "To Jesus through Mary."

Grabs, grabs, and more grabs!
Where are they all coming from?

The Thanksgiving Basket being filled by some of the Sodalists. They are Barbara Condon, Polly Ann Meade, Betty Lou McNamara, Sylvia Fitzpatrick, and Sandra Kelleher.

Jackie Wood looks real put out. Did some one get the wrong grab?

ACTIVITIES

Marie Richards even has to do some explaining for the high school girls concerning the grabs and at the same time provide a joke. The rest of the workers seem to be taken up with the small fry.

A group of Sodalists preparing the grabs for the Reunions. They are Carol Politz, Dorothy Smith, Sylvia Fitzpatrick, Yvette Pinette, and Ruth Nelligan. Members of the Sodality donated the grabs.

This fragment of information brings varying reactions from these members of the Newspaper staff: Judy Blom is stunned; Mary Alice Trainer is horrified; Jeanne Bourbon rejects it; Judy Phillips needs her glasses. Jane MacDonough says this is just great and Jackie Wood is a slow reader.

THE CRUSADERETTE

The job of publishing The Crusaderette this year was undertaken by the Senior girls of Room 307. The real credit belongs to Sister Mary Beata, who devoted much of her time and energy to making the school paper the success that it was. The Crusaderette was published quarterly and was well received by the students.

Cutting stencils isn't always a chore when copy is as interesting as this is to Jane. Judy Hughes has the easy job, just turning the handle on the mimeograph machine.

DEBATING CLUB ACTIVITIES

Resolved: that the United States Foreign Aid should be substantially increased.

Foreign Aid was the topic for our debating club this year. This topic was one that brought about many heated discussions and debates throughout the school year. The club met many schools in the various tournaments. We met schools like Bangor, Brewer, Old Town, and even some from New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

The club participated in more than 100 debates and discussions this year. We had a great number of successful debates. The club was also in the P.V.C. and the state-wide assembly of schools at the University of Maine.

Brother Benilde, who was our director, did a fine job of preparing the teams. We received two new members into the club this year, Eddie Darling and Shawn Dowd. All of last year's club returned. Jerry Higgins Mike Mosbacher, Martyn Vickers, and Dan McGrath were present to bring to the name of John Bapst the numerous victories of the club. Prospects for next year look even more promising.

"Foreign aid is a necessity to keep peace in the Middle East in particular. Here the Soviets are making rapid and alarming advances against the West. They are raising the feeling of the Arab peoples against us in an all-out attempt to win the Cold War . . .", argues Mike Mosbacher.

Ed Darling refers to an article concerning his talk, during a debate. Ed strives hard to put his point across and down any attempt of the opponent to gain the upper edge. Martyn Vickers looks on as if he were interested in the discussion.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club made its initial appearance this season at the John Bapst Parents' Club. The girls typified the superb talent of the Club with their beautiful renditions. This was followed by a Christmas entertainment for the patients at the State Hospital. To the entire Glee Club, under the untiring efforts of Sister Mary Cecile, must be given the superior credit for their presentation of the excellent performance at the annual Novelty Party. Much color and variety was added to the program by the soloists, in addition to the entire group of singers, who nobly upheld the honor of the John Bapst Glee Club. The final appearance of the Glee Club was made at the Prize Speaking. Here all the girls did their best, which explains the entertaining evening that was given both by the Club and the speakers.

Mary Ellen Sheehan and Joyce Beaulieu join for "Little Town in County Down."

Irene Provost and Ruth Nelligan, Glee Club officers, under the guidance of Sister Cecile prepare for each rehearsal.

With personality and charm the Siros twins presented "The Lilac Tree."

GLEE

Susan Thibodeau added beauty with "Cossack's Lullaby."

Susan Thibodeau and Judy Viola show an artistic sense of harmony with their rendition of "Song of Home."

Dolores Umel gives "You'll Never Walk Alone" delightfully.

CLUB

Irene Averill gave her interpretation of "Brahm's Lullaby."

On Wednesday afternoons the Glee Club takes over the auditorium with Sister Mary Cecile for practice sessions in preparation for the concerts we give during the year. (Actually we didn't get in much practice here this day. Drilling noises drove us out.)

Irene Provost was M. C. for the Club.
