FOREWORD

In a parochial school such as John Bapst, the ideals and objectives of education are treated in such a way as to impress the pupils that the mere garnering of knowledge is not the sole aim of education—is not even the most important one. From the day that boys and girls first enter the portals of Bapst until that wonderful Sunday in June when they don the purple and white cap and gown, they are constantly reminded that their education is not only important from an academic standpoint, but also from a spiritual one. Along with the usual high school curricula, they are taught to be true CRUSADERS; that is, men and women of faith, of courage, of loyalty, of honesty, of diligence. In other words, they are taught that however important knowledge may be, it is not nearly so important as character.

True, these lessons are taught by precept, but not by precept alone. Words fall far short of the living example that are constantly before us, our teachers. These are men and women who are so imbued with the ideals with which they seek to impress us that they have given up their most precious gift, their lives, in dedication to this cause. For their constant good example, for their untiring efforts to instill in us the true aim of education—Christian character—to them, the true CRUSADER says, "Thanks."

There is no true CRUSADER who does not have devotion to Mary, the Mother of Christ and of all mankind. Christ first came to us through Mary; He will come again to us through her. As we CRUSADERS place these pages under the mantle of Mary, so every CRUSADER worthy of the name, will place his or her life under her protection. Devotion to her will bring to fruition in our lives the true aim of education, Christian character; it will amply repay our teachers for their efforts and sacrifices; and it will insure for us a rebirth of Christ in our lives now, a rebirth which will inspire us throughout our lives, a rebirth which will remain with us forever.

Dedication

IN DEDICATING OUR 1953 ISSUE OF THE BAPSTONIAN TO SISTER MARY LUKE, WE ARE PAYING TRIBUTE TO A SPLENDID RELIGIOUS AND A FINE EDUCATOR. SISTER, DURING HER FOUR YEARS AS PRINCIPAL OF THE GIRLS' DEPARTMENT AT BAPST, HAS ESTABLISHED HERSELF IN THE HEARTS OF ALL HER STUDENTS. ALTHOUGH OUR BELOVED PRINCIPAL NEEDS NO ENCOMIUMS, WE FEEL OBLIGED TO PAY HER A FINAL TRIBUTE. AND SO WE SAY:

TO YOU SISTER MARY LUKE, WE EXTEND A FULL MEASURE OF HEARTFELT GRATITUDE FOR BEING A NOBLE INFLUENCE DURING OUR SCHOOL LIFE.

Sister Mary Luke

The Right Reverend Thomas J. Nelligan

The class of 1953 extends to you, Monsignor Nelligan, our deepest appreciation for making our high school education Catholic — Greetings on the 25th anniversary of John Bapst.

The Right Reverend Edward F. Ward

Each year since your coming to Bangor and helping in the direction of our school, our regard and respect for you have grown constantly. We hope you remain a Bapstonian forever.

John Bapst Alma Mater

John Bapst we've learned from thee
Many truths that sacred be
For watchful care and fealty
We give thanks to Our High School
Though years may dim our sight
We'll be mindful of the light
That instilled in our young minds
Our love for right

DONNA ARMITAGE has a great list of followers due to her ever-ready attitude towards playful activities. She is one of Bapst's loyal rooters and a staunch supporter of all social life requiring bounce and go. Donna has acquired a versatile knowledge of the library which will be to her advantage in later courses. Donna is pointing towards a nursing career and probably will take off for Portland and Mercy in the Fall.

GENEVA BELL is a good-natured girl, a fact which has been overwhelmingly attested to by nearly all the Senior girls. Gene is a brilliant French student and has done better than average work in her other studies. She is a model of neatness and taste. Geneva has all the grand qualifications one looks for in a professional student. She is going to Mercy in the Fall and we predict she will be a great credit to Bapst.

HAROLD BISHOP could be called "Mr. Personality of the Class of '53." A pillar at Townsend's, he is always generous with his profits, for which virtue he is loved by his fellow students. Nicky has always given the impression that he is overburdened with heavy assignments, whereas the actual truth is that he has breezed along nicely, without too much effort. We have always pointed to Nicky as the class candidate for the Sanctuary. We sincerely hope and pray Nicky attains this most noble goal.

*Donna Armitage
Harold Bishop*

*Geneva Bell
Margaret Bishop*

Mercy Day Play put on by the senior class.

MARGARET BISHOP started out to be a headliner by singing "Galway Bay" in Father Carlson's Coffee Party show. She was so well received that we predicted a long career of singing for our pretty blue-eyed Mornie. But that was it. From then until she became a Senior and headed up the Snowball Dance Committee, Mornie was very moderate and subdued. She lost none of her charm and today can carry claim to "Duchess of Good Fellowship" among her class pals. Margaret is apt to become a Southern belle, perhaps a Virginian. Good luck, yo' all!

Pat Welch and Sally Perry pose for photographer Ray Welch.

PAUL BOUCHARD is well known not only in Bangor and Brewer, but even way down in South Brewer. "Bush" drives a second-hand Chevy (to put it mildly) and is always on the lookout to give his fellow Bapstmen a lift to and from school. He is a very clever mechanic and may turn to that field for his livelihood. "Bush" is also an enthusiastic devotee of the fish and game world and has spent much of his free time romping around the woods of Central Maine. At the present time Paul is anticipating a few years in the Air Force.

Paul Bouchard
Shirley Campbell

Beverly Burton
Guy Carroll

BEVERLY BURTON is the top candidate for the slowpoke honors of 1953. Although Bev never seems in a hurry and always appears to be on the point of retiring, she comes to life when she puts on her roller skates. Beverly is a thoroughly reliable person and should make a capital secretary. She plans a course at Husson when she finishes Bapst. We are all very sincere in wishing her a lot of success.

SHIRLEY CAMPBELL was one of the candidates for the honor of being selected Queen of Snowball Prom. Although Shirley was not crowned, she proved herself to be very popular among the muscular males. Shirley is very photogenic. What with dimples and a mouth full of pretty teeth, she is way out front in any posing group. Miss Campbell has a lot of charming qualities and an expansive way about her that qualifies her to soar in any career. All the members of the Yearbook Staff are united in wishing you well, Shirley.

GUY CARROLL is one of the few comics who have stood the test of time. After four years of being Minstrel jester, he still held top billing. "Gus" is just the opposite in the classroom, where he is always the perfect gentleman. He has a natural talent in dusting the ivories and can get an equal amount of music out of his "squeeze box." During his Senior year Guy developed into a slick basketball player and exceptional rebounder. In spite of all these tremendous talents, he is still a most friendly, likeable "Guy." After graduation he intends to enlist in the Air Force.

GEORGE CASSIDY comes all the way from East Eddington via dog sled. From the day he started at Bapst, "Ajax" has been bubbling over with Crusader enthusiasm and has been able to rub off much of it on his many friends. He made the football team as a Freshman and was unanimously selected as Co-captain as a Senior, a member of the "Commercial" All-Scholastic. His flaming spirit will remain at Bapst. In baseball he holds down the "hot corner." However, "Ajax" has not confined all his time to sports — he holds the record for being on the most dance committees. Good luck at Maine Maritime!

FRANK CONNERS is staking his hopes for a staunch Catholic life from the education he received at Bapst. Frank came to us from Abraham Lincoln and Garland Street schools. In 4C he is known as the human adding machine. Frank has a wonderful voice, but would only lend it to the chorus. He has been a class officer and a member of several activity committees. He has also been a member of the Yearbook Staff and did great work in obtaining ads. Frank's dependability will be his strongest asset when he enters the business world.

ROBERT COWAN came to us from Orono as a Sophomore and in no time at all established himself in the hearts of all his school mates as a worthy man of Bapst. Bob has more sidelines than "Meg" has boy friends. Bob is the strong arm of Townsend's IGA Store. Although he has already joined the Naval Reserve and has passed a test for the IBM School, we feel Bob will be missing his calling if he doesn't eventually end up as a salesman.

*George Cassidy
Robert Cowan*

*Frank Connors
Richard Cushman*

A casual scene at the Snowball Formal.

RICHARD CUSHMAN, although one of the best looking young men in his class, has not allowed any romantic complications to beset his life. Rick has carried on a long standing Cushman tradition by being a very staunch Bapst supporter. Although he has not taken part in any of the major activities at Bapst, he has done more than his share of boosting for the cause. Ricky is planning to attend Maine Vocational School in Portland next year. We know he will succeed in whatever he does and will always be a credit to his Alma Mater.

ANN DAVIS is the busiest member of the Class of '53. She is the school's representative for the "Bangor Commercial" and does a real professional job of reporting. We would never realize what a stupendous affair the dance or party was until we read Ann's column on it the following Friday. The Dairy Maid from Veazie is going places — one of which is to the University of Maine. Of all the graduates, she gives the most promise of becoming a pro. Good luck, Ann.

This is what the underclassmen look like at feeding time.

Ann Davis
Wayne Dionne

Robert Day
Norbert Dowd

ROBERT DAY is Veazie's contribution to Broadway. He came slowly as a football player, but saw plenty of action as a rugged lineman during the past campaign. Although Bob did not take part in any other sports, his presence was felt at all social activities. Bob is one of those quiet, hard-working types who manage to do well in their studies. He should be able to cash in on his efforts when he joins the Marines. Best of luck to you, Bobby!

WAYNE DIONNE holds the distinction of being the smallest Senior in the Class of '53. He could easily pass for a seventh grader, but he has the mentality of a post-graduate. Mr. Dionne has held himself graciously aloof during his four years, so we doubt if any of the Bangor Bapst-onians could pronounce seriously on his merits. Wayne, however, has done better than average in his scholastic efforts. He will probably remain on the active duty list of the Old Town register while he matriculates at Maine U.

NORBERT DOWD came to Bapst heavily burdened with tradition and prestige. It was a matter of conjecture among all and sundry just how Norby would live up to the distinction of being a son of one of the first members of the Bapst faculty. After four years Norby has proved himself to be even more than anything that had been anticipated. He has won honors in all his classes, in oratory, and in debating. Norby did more than his share to contribute to the success of sports and has been prominent in all social functions. He plans to attend Holy Cross next year.

CATHERINE DUREN would give an outsider the impression that she is a very standoffish person, but her exterior shyness only partially hides the fact that Cathy is an extremely capable and talented young lady. One of the drawings in this yearbook illustrates her ability in this field. Throughout her high school days Catherine has been a very keen student. And, men, if you are searching in vain for a girl who can keep her mouth shut, stop looking — Catherine is the lass for you.

C. C. D. Play put on by the senior class.

Catherine Duren
Mark Ferris

Jane Farwell
Thomas Flanagan

JANE FARWELL is best described as the girl who continually sparkles. She is a talented, fun-loving creature and a grand person to be in company with. Janie made a hit at Bapst as a Sophomore dancing in the Coffee Party with Guy Carroll. She has, since then, been the one who heads up the St. Mary's Reunions and who plays the uke for miscellaneous social gatherings. Janie has been generous with her talent. She will be hard to replace as an entertainer, an usher, and a loyal Bapstonian.

MARK FERRIS is the last of the brilliant Ferris family to graduate from Bapst. Mark is a tall, quiet, likeable lad who has earned the favor of both the faculty and the student body. He won distinction by his declamation of "The Death of Poe's Wife" in the Maine Oratorical Contest. He has been a member of the Debating club for three years and proved to be a good argumentor. During Mark's four years at Bapst he has taken an active interest in all social affairs and has turned out to be a real party man. He plans to continue his education after a turn in the Air Force.

THOMAS FLANAGAN comes from a family of brilliant students, but it seems none of it rubbed off on him. Tommy's one of those lads who would burn his textbooks at the slightest excuse. In spite of his hatred of studying, he is considered one of the "brains" of the 4C class. His curly hair has attracted glances from all the girls, but Tom has eyes for only one. He has been an enthusiastic supporter of all Bapst undertakings. Tommy intends to study electronics at Maine Vocational in Portland next year.

MARY JANE GIROUARD is our choice for the International High School Representative award. Mary Jane is prim and proper at all times, but without ever being "stuffy." One would be hard put to find a better hostess or secretary. She is an accomplished accordianist, a clever dancer, and a sweet singer. Mary Jane says, "Why worry?" and well she might — with all her talent. Mercy bound and Heavenward.

RICHARD GOGGIN made many contributions to the life of the Senior class by his jibes and quips. Hardly a situation arose in class that Ric failed to appraise. It was strictly "Grogan's" idea that the '52 Senior Prom dancers be enclosed by a white picket fence. Although he under-estimated the paint necessary for the job, he managed to squeeze enough (four gallons) to finish the fence shortly before the prom began. Ric has done very well in his academic work, especially math, and should have a good foundation for the engineering course he is planning to take at the U. of M.

JAMES GOLDEN is one of Bapst's fiery red-heads who is ready to fight at the drop of a hat. He put this to good use as one of our most prolific football players. Jim may be a radio "ham," but when it comes to entertaining he did a famous job with "You Can't Do Wrong Doing Right." A master of pantomime, he won encormiums at the Bapst and the C.Y.O. talent shows. Jim's plans at the present are somewhat uncertain. If he escapes the service call for the time being, he no doubt will enter some school of engineering.

Mary Jane Girouard
James Golden

Richard Goggin
Mary Ellen Graham

Ann Davis interviews Dr. Marie-Cecile Schulte Strathous.

MARY ELLEN GRAHAM is the readiest to smile or to break out into a hearty laugh of any of the Senior girls. She has been a willing worker and a loyal supporter of all activities during her four years at Bapst. Mary Ellen has lots of friends on the boys' side, especially in 4A — "Jeepers, why not?" asks Meg. We sincerely hope Mary Ellen comes into a lot of good fortune when she leaves Bapst. She's our choice for the All-American "Good Kid" medal.

Hallowe'en Dance committee discuss plans for coming dance.

JAMES HUGHES has suffered all through his high school years because of continued reference to his political affiliations. He broke into prominence in a big way as a Junior when he took over as M. C. of the annual Minstrel. Present at every Bapst function, Jimmie has so many times extended a helping hand as to merit the nickname "Old Reliable." He was the Bapst representative in this year's American Legion Oratorical Contest. Next September Jimmie expects to pursue studies in engineering at the U. of M.

James Hughes
Robert Kearns

James Kearns
Philip Keesey

JAMES KEARNS is the younger in age but the older looking of the Kearns "twins." Jim, like his brother Bob, had to overcome a weight handicap while on the football field. He was a varsity lineman for three years. What he lacked in weight he made up in fighting spirit. Jim has the most varied grammar school career of the Seniors. He also has been a frequent visitor of a certain "parlor" in town. At Bapst he was vice president of his class for two years. Jim is interested in engineering and the U. S. Coast Guard.

ROBERT KEARNS has been playing on Bapst teams from back in the days of Nat Crowley. His size was a handicap which Bobby overcame by his spirited play in both football and basketball. Bob keeps a guiding hand on his "little brother" Jimmy. Although Bobby has not set any scholastic records, he leaves Bapst with a very respectful reputation as a hard worker and real plugger. Uncle Sam has already put in a word for his services, and it won't be long after graduation that Bobby will be sailing the Seven Seas.

PHILIP KEESEY, the toast of three continents, has only recently joined our ranks at Bapst. This clever redhead has been commercial cartooning for a decade. With his high interest in building model airplanes, one would suspect that he is heading for the United States Air Force. However, holding true to family tradition, Phil expects to join the Navy. Although Phil is not too well known by the members of the Senior class, he is highly respected, and during his brief year at Bapst has given all indications that he will reflect credit to our school.

PAULA KELLEHER has had a long career at Bapst. She is one of the St. Mary's Grammar School pupils who were forced out of there by fire. Paul is well known for her generous contributions to the St. Mary's Coffee Party. She has more than the usual amount of parish loyalty, a fact which is attested to by her singing in both the St. Mary's Junior and Senior Choirs. Paula loves nice clothes, particularly pleated skirts and fancy ties. She may well become a professional wearer of clothes, and if she does, we predict Paula will become the Model model.

BARBARA KELLY — the girl who answers the question: "What would you be, Barbara, if you weren't Irish?" with the comeback, "I'd be ashamed of myself." Barb is totally lacking in affectation and has no time for people who act out their lines. Barbara will be missed by Doctor Miragliuolo when she departs for Florida in June. Barb made herself a host of new friends at Hallowe'en when she entertained the Senior class. She will be an important member of the nursing profession some day. Good luck, Irish!

CHARLES KERSHAW may be one of the smallest in size, but he is easily the smartest operator in 4C. Charlie's transfer from Brewer at the start of his Junior year proved to be a happy choice for all the Brothers. Books and study are purely a by-line with Charlie — especially since he won that car at Sear's. Although Charlie claims ice skating and roller skating are among his capital accomplishments, we feel he will cut a much smarter figure selling light bulbs. Charlie is a natural for the service where his carefree good fellowship should make him a "King of Gabs."

Paula Kelleher
Charles Kershaw

Barbara Kelly
John Killam

JOHN KILLAM was well-schooled in the art of stage craft before entering Bapst, but he did not blossom out fully until his Senior year when he turned in the best performance of any interlocutor in the history of Bapst Minstre's. John's greatest achievement as a public speaker was his winning the statewide "Voice of Democracy" contest. Besides taking home a T-V set, he was awarded a trip to Virginia with all the trimmings. Johnny plans to continue his scholastic career and will specialize in oratory.

Christmas Float that won much praise by all viewers of the parade.

Therese LaFlamme
Ann Lynch

Robert LePage
Geneva Malone

THERESE LAFLAMME is one of those people we are worried about — worried about how we can ever replace her. There is not enough space here to list all the assignments Therese handled while at Bapst, but we can mention the fact that she made singers out of a lot of Minstrel performers who would otherwise have squeaked out on the high ones. The marvel is not so much that she did all the piano playing for the show, but that she was always so patient and sweet about it. If we could make a presentation to an "All-Bapst Sweetheart" it would surely go to our Therese.

ROBERT LEPAGE is a product of St. John's Grammar School. He is well known for his deadly push shots from the corners of the basketball court and has glue on his finger tips when it comes to making impossible catches on the gridiron. As a Freshman, Bob was president of his class. Although his good looks and pleasing personality didn't show up on his report card, his "line" should get him by. Bob's immediate future may be with the Navy, but he hopes the day is not far off when he can be selling Hudson Hornets and settle down to married life.

ANN LYNCH is easily the 1953 candidate for the All-Scholastic Comedienne. Ann is funny without trying. She has a loyal following made up of people from both sides of the school. Ann broke into public recognition this year when she played for the Mothers' Club Talent Show. She made her second appearance when she played for the C.Y.O. Reunion Show. Ann has more than the usual run of gab and more than the usual amount of driving skill. We will miss Ann but we feel quite sure she will be around when we need her.

GENEVA MALONE had an enviable record at John Bapst. She has been Number One on the honor roll since her Freshman year. She has not sacrificed her interest in school activities. Geneva is the Sodality Prefect, an honor which is well deserved. Last year she was a Bapst representative to the Summer School of Catholic Action. She has been a four-year member of the Glee Club, and a willing worker on a number of dance committees. Geneva is Mercy Bound.

Brother Valerian demonstrates biology pictures with the new projector presented to the school by the Mothers' Club.

Brother Andrew and his Senior Math-Men.

SHIRLEY MANN could have been declared the Darling of the Class of '53 and may be when all the ballots are counted. No graduate can boast a stronger claim to John Bapst support than can our little Shirley — the girl who knows how to run a library and how to run her social life so as to be the girl with a million friends. Shirley has been the backbone of Brother Patricius' Minstrels ever since her Sophomore year when she taught all the dance routines. We hope Shirley does not stay on at the Columbia, as she is the one we look forward to becoming the model housewife and mother.

*Shirley Mann
Richard McAloon*

*Joan Martin
Ellen McCluskey*

JOAN MARTIN came to us from Madison in her Sophomore year. She has been a pronounced favorite of both departments and has made the grade as a professional photography model. Dee Dee is very easy to take. Despite her unusual popularity, she is an active busy beaver. Joan is an honor student, an usher, and a good song-and-dance partner. She plans to attend commercial art school. Wherever she goes, we know her presence will be welcomed. Good luck, Dee Dee.

RICHARD McALOON is the third and most handsome of the McAloon's to attend Bapst. Dick did not come into his own until his Senior year when he shared top honors with Pete Robinson in the Minstrel. He is a natural fun-maker, but he has the saving grace of being modest and retiring. Dick is a pioneer member of the C.Y.O. and has made many contributions to the success of the organization. In all probability, Dick will follow his older brothers to Maine for Business Administration — and who knows, some day he may become owner of the Parkview Grocery.

ELLEN McCLUSKEY is one of the prettiest girls in the graduating class. She is known and thoroughly liked by all her teachers and classmates. Ellen has had a busy career coming back and forth from Hampden, plus the hours she was working at the Dairy Bar. Ellen has a lot of religion and many high ideals. One of the persons we will always be proud of is our little round-faced, brown-eyed Ellen.

CONSTANCE McGEE loves parties, especially the kind she throws herself. Connie might some day become a professional hostess, but she is more likely to be a hostess on her own. She gives every indication of being an industrious person when she steps into the business world by way of Beal College. We are deeply concerned with your welfare, Connie, and hope you strike paydirt whichever way you turn.

JULIA McLEAN is one person whom you have to know very well to appreciate. She seems to be a quiet little Miss who has no notion at all of what life is all about, but when she is among her own she can sound off in capital letters. Julia is a very attractive creature, a very wholesome and sincere girl. She has always declared herself interested in the Religious life as a career. We know of no other field that could use her fund of talents so well and could provide better for her modesty and charm.

FRANCIS MOONEY for some reason is called "Bill" by everyone. Despite lacking a love for textbooks, he has managed to get passing grades most of the time. Bill has always been a comedian in the classroom, much to the dismay of his teachers. He is seen in Brother Aubertus' office quite frequently (discussing policy, no doubt). Bill has been a regular official in the Bapst Grammar League where he has demonstrated such skill in whistle-tooting that it would surprise nobody to find him working varsity games in the area in a few years. Right now he is thinking about attending the Maine Vocational School in Portland.

Constance McGee
Francis Mooney

Julia McLean
Juanita Morneau

Freshmen at their dancing classes.

JUANITA MORNEAULT is small but not tiny. She laughs when she is called "Shorty" and makes no countercharge. Juanita has a world of good qualities, the most important being her kindness and consideration of others. She can dance, sing, and laugh on the slightest provocations, but she seems to do all these things simultaneously when she hears "Kentucky Waltz." Just how much Kentucky will figure in her future years she is unwilling to say, but we know she is Kentucky bound at the moment.

PAUL NELLIGAN is the tall, handsome, affable young man in 4A. He leaves Bapst with a record of good fellowship that will be hard to match. Paul gave freely of his basketball talents and distinguished himself in his Junior year by winning the right to represent Bapst in the "Portland Telegram" Foul Shooting Contest. Although Paul did not handicap himself by an overload of academic work, he did manage to meet the requirements sufficiently well to move along from year to year. At this point Paul is undecided, but has both the U. of M. and the Air Force on his mind.

SNOWBALL QUEEN CANDIDATES

Anne Marie Vickers, Joan Martin, Joann Talbot, Shirley Mann, Jane Farwell, Shirley Campbell.

Paul Nelligan
Ann O'Loughlin

Paul O'Connor
Beverly Ouellette

PAUL O'CONNOR probably journeys farther to reach Bapst than other student of the school. Hailing from Sullivan, "Oakie" has been here for only his Senior year. If he feels the way the rest of us do, he's wishing he started here as a Freshman. We don't know if this is rumor or fact, but it is said he was born in Hartford High School of that city — may be that is why Paul is so studious. He is a member of the Naval Reserve and upon graduation expects to "see the world." After that he hopes to attend college as preparation for some undecided professional career.

ANN O'LOUGHLIN is the heartiest and most discerning member of the Senior class. Her observations are classic, and her wit in telling simple incidents is just about the most refreshing listening one can get in on around Bapst. Ann moves in and out, driving her Suburban with comforting ease. Miss O'Loughlin may well attain to eminence as a political leader in this community. She has worthwhile convictions and a load of finesse in giving them out. Ann's bound for the U. of M. and the top of the Political World.

BEVERLY OUELLETTE is a delightful combination of virtue and frolicsomeness. We feel it would be hard to find a more sincerely religious person and yet Bev wears her religion well. There is no social or athletic function that she does not attend in spite of her devotion to books and the worthwhile objectives. Beverly has made a mark for herself in basketball and has many marks to show for her efforts. We are not sure just which way Bev will turn but we do know her scholastic record at Bapst will be her strongest claim to success. Our heartiest to you, Bev.

BERNARD PELCHIER came to Bapst from St. John's Grammar School. Outside of class hours he can usually be found in Viner's Music Store. Bernie has quite a collection of jazz classics and other rare recordings. He has been president of his class in his Junior and Senior years. For two years he added his voice to the Minstrel Chorus. At the present time he is eying the Air Force. After this stretch, quiet, likeable Bernie has hopes of opening a record shop.

FUDGE CLUB

Beverly Ouellette, Joann Talbot, Jack Caruso, Mary Ellen Graham, Ken Williams, Maggie Godfrey.

Bernard Pelchier
Brigid Pooler

Sally Perry
John Prelgovisk

SALLY PERRY is a worthy representative of the Perry clan from Hampden, a part of which is called "Perryville." Sally seems to have little to say about lots of things, but she is none-the-less very much "in the know" and can give a thorough rundown on almost any of the current topics on the slightest provocation. Sally, too, is a Milk Maid, and a very attractive dispenser of said product (Portland Press-Herald). She plans a career at diagnosing and will train at Pratts Diagnostic Institute.

BRIGID POOLER is an enthusiastic Holy Cross fan. "Bib" has had a very interesting life at Bapst. Where others may have worried and fretted about dates or parties, "Bib" never did, and maybe that is why she is such a staunch Cross fan. Other than to usher and to be a member of the dance committee for the 1952 Senior-Junior Prom, "Bib" has confined her interests. She has the most lofty ideals of any of the Seniors. If her plans work out, "Bib" will become an airline hostess.

JOHN PRELGOVISK is just about as nice a lad as has come this way in a long time. He has been quiet and unobtrusive in the pursuit of his academic work, a fact which has contributed much to his success as a student. Johnny is a good athlete and has played a lot of baseball for both Bapst and the C.Y.O., with ability to scoop up grounders like a pro. Although Johnny is uncertain about his future, he is seriously considering attending some professional school.

PETER ROBINSON is the professional fun-maker of the Seniors. His classmates have found school a happier place because of his tremendous humor. Despite his lack of size, Pete turned out to be a real rough and ready Bapst lineman. He was the backbone of the 1953 Minstrel, and his contributions to the show were original and exceptionally clever. Pete's plans for the future are a bit indefinite, but it looks like Maine Maritime or Boston College for him. His pleasing personality should make him a hit wherever he goes.

JOHN RUSSELL is a breezy Fairmounter who has won a host of friends at Bapst. In spite of his size, he is one of the smoothest infielders and best hitters on the Bapst Nine. Johnny's batting average in Mathematics is not quite so high as his stickwork on the diamond, but his over-all grades are better than average, permitting him to show a lot for his efforts. Johnny hopes to enter Bowdoin in the Fall and pursue a pre-law course.

VERNON ST. AMAND is one of Bapst's most loyal commuters from Old Town. Vernie gets to town from this "outlying district" by way of his own limousine. A proficient speaker, he has been the backbone of our Debating club as he has verbally attacked the pros and cons for the past three years. At one time he was an ardent fan of Brother Patricius' famous photographic rites, but his oratorical ambitions and achievements far outshine those of the darkroom. Vernie has continually been in the race for top scholastic honors. He is heading for pre-Law at Bowdoin come next September.

James Samways

Dick McAloon supervises the typing of Connie McGee and Mary Ellen Graham.

JAMES SAMWAYS came to Bapst from St. Mary's Grammar School and signed up for the classical course. At the end of one year, Jim decided the classics were not for him and since then course. Jim has been a very popular lad during all his time at Bapst, and in his quiet way has taken part in all activities requiring loyal Bapstonians. With his smooth style and sharp-breaking curves, Jim is one of our strongest bets for a successful baseball team. Next Fall Jim has hopes of majoring in accounting at a commercial school in Boston.

SNOWBALL FORMAL COMMITTEE

Mary Jane Girouard, Joann Talbot, Mary Ellen Graham, Margaret Bishop, Beverly Ouellette, Colleen Sullivan.
Richard Cushman, Guy Carroll, Francis Shaw, Richard Goggin, Norbert Dowd, Richard McAloon.

NANCY SANBORN created a real sensation when she appeared at the Halloween Party in a disguise that completely baffled all the guys and dolls. Nancy's a popular kid in this part of the town and at Lucky's Landing where she swings and sways on her roller skates to the popular melodies. Nancy broke all records for attendance at the Principal's office. That's partly because she likes Sister so. Miss Sanborn has very little to say about her future but we know she will do well. Our very best to you, Nancy.

Nancy Sanborn
Francis Shaw

Carol Ann Shanley
Colleen Sullivan

CAROL ANN SHANLEY is a fun-loving, vivacious redhead who by her expansive personality has won the hearts of a large following. "Callie" has done more perhaps than any individual at Bapst to supply entertainment for the St. Mary's Coffee Party. Carol Ann has a rich soprano voice and a willingness to sing that make her the toast of any party. "Callie" plans to study music at the Julliard School of Music in New York City.

FRANCIS SHAW, better known as "Frannie," is a lean, angular "smoothy" who has won the favor of his fellowmen by simply handing out gentle pats on the back. He possesses a great sense of humor and probably will miss Brother Michael's jokes more than any other member of his class. Fran started out as a singer in his Freshman year, but after one performance he retired from public, although remaining a hearty promoter. He should become a first-rate politician if he so aspires, but he is apt to become a meat cutter or a telephone lineman. In any case, he has our blessings.

COLLEEN SULLIVAN is a leading candidate for the All-Bapstonian honors. She has all the charm and grace one would look for in a queen but for all of that she is very much a regular person. Colleen has been a soloist at Bapst since her Freshman year when she scored a hit singing "Bali Hi." She is a member of both the student and the senior choir at Saint Mary's. Colleen has done very well and qualifies to go on with the college course but is of late wavering and may turn to nursing and Mercy. Our very best good wishes go with you, Colleen.

JOANN TALBOT has been very much a favorite at Bapst. During three of her four years she has been the president of her class and has been elected to several important committees. Joann has a lot of poise and a pleasing shyness that combine to make her about the most attractive Miss on Broadway. She is well known for her dancing talent but, until lately, not so well known as a singer. She's looking around and hoping that she might do better than "Falling Back on Norby." (Sorta corny.) Keep that pretty little chin pointed up high, Joann and continue to be our proudest boast.

PATSY ANN TOWLE is perhaps the most impressive of all the silent members of the Senior class. She has won favor all during her three years at Bapst for her eagerness and dependability in helping others. Besides being industrious, Patsy is a regular member of the Garland Street Pharmacy. She is farsighted and plans a career in nursing after her training course at Mercy Hospital in Portland.

JOSEPH TREMBLE, like his two brothers before him, is a handsome chap possessing that old Tremble personality. Joe, also like his brothers, was co-captain of the Bapst Eleven, in which sport he starred at one of the end positions. Joe claimed he needed more time for his studies, thus his concentration in only one sport. However, he made plenty of use of his fancy footwork at all the dances. You guessed it — Joe is heading for Maine Maritime.

*Joann Talbot
Joseph Tremble*

*Patsy Ann Towle
Raymond Welch*

Sister Mary Luke and Brother Patricius look over "The Bapstonian."

RAYMOND WELCH is the lad who for three years and a half gave promise of becoming Bapst's most pronounced misogynist — but he has finally been converted to the society world. Bommy has been a model airplane man for many years and more recently has turned to photography and gadgeteering. Bommy is a C.Y.O. enthusiast and has done much to extend its successful growth these past several years. Ray is going to the U. of M. and take the engineering course.

Anne Marie Vickers
James White

Patricia Welch
Kenneth Williams

ANNE MARIE VICKERS, the very gracious vice president of our Senior class, is just about the most talkative Veep in the business. Anne has a good word for everybody — and for some she has a good many good words. Anne was the popular choice for the Snowball Queen. She broke into public attention when she paired with Guy Carroll two years ago to sing "Lilac Tree" in the Minstrel. Anne has brains, and looks, and a sweet way about her that should make her the toast of the campus at Chestnut Hill.

PATRICIA WELCH — the girl with a heart and lots of coal-black hair. Pat has been the backbone of the Graham, McGee, Mann combine and is responsible for the great popularity of the funny foursome. Besides being chosen as a Bapst Easter Model, she has swung her weight heavily in the Bapstonian enterprise this current year. Pat managed to maintain respectable grades throughout her high school course. She plans to go to Husson and from there to a secretarial position in the Waves.

JAMES WHITE has turned in a fine scholastic record at Bapst despite finding math and the sciences difficult. Of all the quiet men in the Senior class, Jim is the most apt to influence a large following. The Senior class trip can be credited almost entirely to the continued efforts of James White. Throughout the past several years, Jim has been more than generous in supplying transportation and accommodations for the various activities. He will be remembered for his kindness and coöperation, and leaves Bapst with the goodwill of everyone.

KENNETH WILLIAMS has continued to carry on the family tradition by lending his musical talent to the annual Minstrel Shows. For four years Ken and his band have been furnishing the music for the weekly C.Y.O. and Squires' dances. His pigskin prowess has been of invaluable aid to our battling Bapstonians. A serious injury on the field kept him out of the line-up for the latter part of the past season. Ken plans to join the Navy and see the world; then he would like to have a musical career.

PIG CLUB

Edward Wilson

EDWARD WILSON came to Bapst from St. Mary's with more energy and enthusiasm than the average candidate. His extreme loyalty to Bapst is unquestioned, and we are certain his interest in his Alma Mater will not wane over the years. Dependable Teddy has been head manager of football and basketball the past two years and has set a magnificent precedent for his successors to this thankless, never-ending job. In his classwork Ted has been a tireless worker, thereby winning the admiration of his classmates and teachers. Once out of school, "Thumper" plans to work for Uncle Sam in the Air Force.

THE BAPSTONIAN Staff for the year 1953 was drawn from a group of very enthusiastic Seniors and the choices all proved to be good. The advertising campaign was not as feverish as other years but the results were just as good, in spite of a casual attitude on the part of the campaigners.

We were very happy to be able to dedicate our book to Sister Mary Luke this year because we feel we owe her much more than our feeble efforts can show.

The work of designing the book was planned by the members of the staff and was carried out in great detail. Joann Talbot proved to be very tasteful in her arrangements. Norbert Dowd made a fine contribution by his careful arranging and writing assisted by Paul Nelligan in the sports section. Thomas Hennessy, a Junior, made some fine drawings. A great deal of fun was had by all doing the write-ups of the Seniors.

It is hoped by the members of the staff that no offence has been given and that due recognition has been taken of all members of the graduating class. It is our sincere hope that THE BAPSTONIAN meets with favor and takes its place among the best in the history of the school.

The Senior and Junior Sacred Heart groups have been active at Bapst for the past several years. All these members are enrolled in the Sacred Heart League and all are pledged at carrying out the prescribed duties of Sacred Heart members. Although the senior group is restricted to Seniors there is no separate activity for either group. One of the functions of this group is the Thanksgiving Baskets which have always been over subscribed and we feel the distribution has meant many blessings to our school. We hope this work will continue through the years.

OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL SODALITY 1952-1953

The Sodality of Our Lady of Good Counsel began its second year with Geneva Malone, '53 as Prefect, Joanne Talbot, '53 as Vice-Prefect, Julia Shannon, '54 as Secretary and Joanne Ryder, '55 as Treasurer.

A Hallowe'en party was given to the children of St. Michael's Home in the Assembly Room.

The Sodality Reception was held December 7 at St. John's with 77 new members being received. Reverend Joseph H. Butler, Director, conducted the ceremony.

A Spiritual Bouquet for Our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII was made and sent to the Sodality Headquarters.

The new Sodalists were welcomed into the Sodality with a Christmas party. Our Director, Rev. Joseph H. Butler, was a guest. Gifts were distributed by Santa. The usual song fest and refreshments followed.

The dressing of dolls and collecting of toys for the needy poor was the December project. Over 50 dolls were given by Santa to the little girls.

Sixteen Christmas Carolers gave an entertainment at the City Hospital. The carolers also visited St. Agnes and St. Joseph's Hospitals.

Valentines were sent to the children at St. Michael's and the Shut-Ins of the various parishes.

A Food Sale for funds for the S. S. C. A. was held at Grant's.

The Sodality was represented by a number of Sodalists at Youth Day at Poland Spring, May 24.

The Fatima Club sponsors First Saturday at Bapst. The Sodalists attend Mass, received Holy Communion and then go to Bapst where the Rosary is recited followed by a talk by Reverend Richard E. Harvey. Breakfast is then enjoyed in the Assembly Room.

Two Sodalists are to attend the Summer School of Catholic Action in Boston, August 10-15.

The officers for 1953-54 are: Catherine Vickers, '54, Prefect; Virginia Rennebu, '54, Vice-Prefect; Colette Davitt, '55, Secretary; Mary Kenney, '56, Treasurer.

Father St. Pierre, O. M. I.

For the first time in the history of Retreats in John Bapst the boys' and girls' Retreats were held separately. Father Luke Chabot made a wonderful impression on the girls by his fiery discourses and his over-all zeal in providing time for confession and conferences. We dare not make comparison but we, the Senior class, feel that Father Luke was unsurpassed as a Retreat Master.

The following week Father St. Pierre of the Oblates of Mary was very calm and persuasive in his discourses to the boys and was able to affect a sincerity and enthusiasm that was very impressive. The boys responded by being unusually quiet and collected and by a 100% response at the sacraments.

The 1953 Retreats will long be remembered by both the graduates and the undergraduates and we hope will result in a development of piety.

BROTHER ALPHONSE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Brother Alphonse presents the trophy to St. John's Grammar School, Champs in the Bapst Grammar League for 1953. The league, composed of seven teams from nearby Catholic grammar schools and representatives from the C.Y.O. and Squires, was organized last year by Brother Alphonse. Brother is a believer in "starting them young" and hopes to instill in the future Bapst Greats a true spirit of sportsmanship.

The veterans are all smiles before the aches and pains set in.

Football

Although there were ten lettermen present at the opening practice of the John Bapst football squad last September, the majority of them had seen only limited service. As a result, Coach Farrell had his work cut out for him and his untiring efforts were shown in the fighting Crusader eleven of 1952. As a whole, they were probably the smallest team in the state but it would be difficult to make any of their opposition say that Bapst was a pushover. The Crusaders came out the victors in four of their nine games, tying one, and losing four. Although this record is none too imposing, the team deserves a lot of credit for their sportsmanship and fight.

Throughout the first three games, the sidy, Jim Golden.

LEFT: Bob LePage about to catch the pass that led to John Bapst's first touchdown of the '52 season.

Crusader goal line was not crossed. In the opener, the Purple blanked Old Town 13-0 holding the Indians to 67 yards by rushing. The Crusader forward wall was tremendous that night and the Old Town backs could never get started.

The following Saturday, the Crusaders defeated an undermanned Lawrence

High squad, 26-0; and still a week later downed the Stearns Minutemen, 25-0. Bob LePage, the slick pass catching end scored twice against the Minutemen and Bobby Kearns and Mike Welch garnered single tallies. The Crusader line was successful in holding off the powerful Kelly and McAvoy backfield double threat.

For the first time in the history of the schools, John Bapst answered the opening whistle against Bangor High with an undefeated, untied, unscored upon record. Early in the second period, however, the Purple discovered how it felt to be scored upon. The Rams had too much power for the Crusaders and ended up on the long end of a 32-0 score.

For the next two weeks, the Crusaders could not seem to complete the one pass or make the one important tackle which might have turned defeat into victory. In Gardiner, fumbles and a blocked punt helped the Tigers defeat the Crusaders.

The following week, Bob Hooper scored the lone tally of the afternoon as Brewer defeated the Purple in a well played ball game 6-0. From the opening whistle, the Crusaders gave the highly avored Witches all the football they wanted.

At Garland Field the next week, the aerial attack of the Crusaders matched the vaunted Skowhegan ground attack and the final gun found the teams deadlocked at 6-6.

The Madison Bulldog provided the opposition on the following Saturday and were completely outclassed, 21-2.

Johnny Millett scored twice for the Crusaders and passed for the third score to spearhead the Crusader victory.

The season ended on a sour note as far as the Bapst fans were concerned when the Red Raiders of Winslow posted a 13-6 victory. The Crusaders tried hard to close the season with a victory and twice Mike Welch romped across the goal line and twice penalties nullified the scores.

SECOND ROW: Manager Teddy Wilson, John McCarty, Gerry Thorne, Guy Carroll, Coach Farrell, Paul Boardway, Bob Connor, Hugh Flinn, Assistant Manager Tom Graves.

Coach Farrell giving last minute instructions to Bobby Kearns.

The 1952-53 basketball season at John Bapst was one of those trying seasons which occur every so often when it is necessary to build. When Coach Farrell sounded the call for candidates, only two lettermen were left from the previous season.

On the eve of the opening game, Coach Farrell's starting lineup was anything but settled. Many different combinations were used during the first few weeks of the season and although the inexperienced underclassmen gave it that old John Bapst try, a consistent winning combination could not be found.

John Bapst bee ' trust. Earl Spinney, Dick Goody and Gerry Thorne.

Dick Goody comes soaring in to lay one up against Ellsworth.

The Crusaders opened their season against the highly touted Eagles from Ellsworth. It was apparent from the opening whistle that the visiting Eagles had too much basketball savvy for the Purple. When the final gun went off, the Eagles left the floor with a 63-38 victory.

Three days later, the Crusader quintet journeyed to Waterville to tangle with the Elm City Panthers. Five underclassmen started the tilt for the Crusaders and proved that with experience they would prove to be anything but a pushover. The Panthers, led by Herbie Barakat's 25 points, went on to defeat Bapst, 56-45. At half-time, the Crusaders were behind by only ten points, but the Waterville team gradually pulled away in the second half.

The story of this game was repeated many times during the season. The lead would change hands over and over again during the first half and at half-time, the teams would be separated by a very slim margin. However, Coach Farrell's never-say-die ballplayers would be defeated in the second half not because they lacked hustle, but because the experience of their foes proved to be a little too much for the green Crusaders.

The Crusaders' record was not too impressive but neither was it as bad as it might seem. The Sophomores and Juniors who composed about three-fourths of the team gained invaluable experience and will prove dangerous when the basketball uniforms are again taken from the moth balls. Men like Paul Boardway, Joe Quinn, Bob Connor, and Mike Welch will undoubtedly form the nucleus of a team which will be respected throughout Eastern Maine come next winter.
