One of the hardest jobs the editors have is choosing the yearbook's theme. Multitudes of things are needed from only a single theme. It must be something that can reflect the entire student body and all the diverse activities they participate in. It must be something that catches the eye and the mind and it must be something that can easily be incorporated. After a lot of consideration and arguments we came up with the theme for this year; BEHIND THE SCENES. To us this theme incorporated both those in the spotlight and those backstage. Speaking of those backstage we would like to extend our thanks to the following:

OUR PATRONS: Without whom this yearbook would not be possible. The names of these dedicated people are listed on the bottom of the Senior and Activity pages.

ANDY, JON AND STAFF: (aka Miracle Workers) We will never be able to understand how you managed to get anyone to buy ads in this recession (we're not returning the calls of anyone who complained of large men measuring their windows while carrying 2x4's.) Jon: We hope the recession has ended by the time you return or at least, we hope the cost of 2x4's has gone down.

BETSY AND STAFF: You worked long hours to convince the student body that they would want our book in June. You should really be proud of yourselves because we certainly are.

DAVE: You did a great job with a very time consuming section. We know that keeping track of all the teams at BHS is hard. Thanks.

ERIN: Thank you so much for your unending help and cooperation. No matter how rushed you were, you were always there to rescue us. You did a magnificent job!

LAURIE: You really pulled together a difficult section that, to many, is the most important section of the book. With your organization this section is wonderful. All the seniors owe you a great deal.

SAM AND MARIE: You have our undying gratitude for taking over when others disappeared. We hope that throughout the hectic hours you had some fun and learned a lot for next year. Good luck and be sure to send us a copy of the 1993 yearbook.

MYRIAM: Muchas Gracias por todo tu trabajo en este libro de ano, especialmente paginas 24, 25, 56 y 57.

BECKY, SARAH C., ELLIE AND ALL WORKSTAFFS: All of you were always available to help with only short notice and without you this book never could have happened.

OUR PARENTS: For two years you've carted us to 6:30 am meetings, have picked up film from every processor in the city of Bangor, have typed reams of copy, and have allowed your living room to be invaded the day before a deadline even though you had no idea what was going on. Thank you so much, without you we never would have been able to handle the pressure!

ALL OF OUR TEACHERS FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS: Thank you for never complaining as we came rushing in after the bell begging to be excused to deal with the latest yearbook crisis. MR. JOHNSON: Without your understanding in our Junior year we never could have become editors. MR. MOOERS: Thank you for being lenient with attendance and for the use of your typewriter.

MR. SAWYER AND MR. ERIKSON: Thank you so much for the use of your pictures. Because of them the play and soccer pages are spectacular.

MANY THANKS: Sarah, Awesus, Molly and Deanna for all your efforts.

MR. AMES: As our yearbook advisor you have taught us to juggle what seem like hundreds of demands at once; how to please an administration, a faculty, a student body and ourselves all at the same time. You have been much more than an advisor to us and we will never be able to forget you and the past two years. Thank you.

COLE: You come from afar in your traveling Taylor mobile, with visions of screens and foils.

You peddle your wares to idealistic editors and financially strapped advisors; and after you have left a part of you remains in our hearts and in our book. Thank you.

Now that we have acknowledged those behind the scenes we welcome you to turn the pages and go . . .

STOP!!

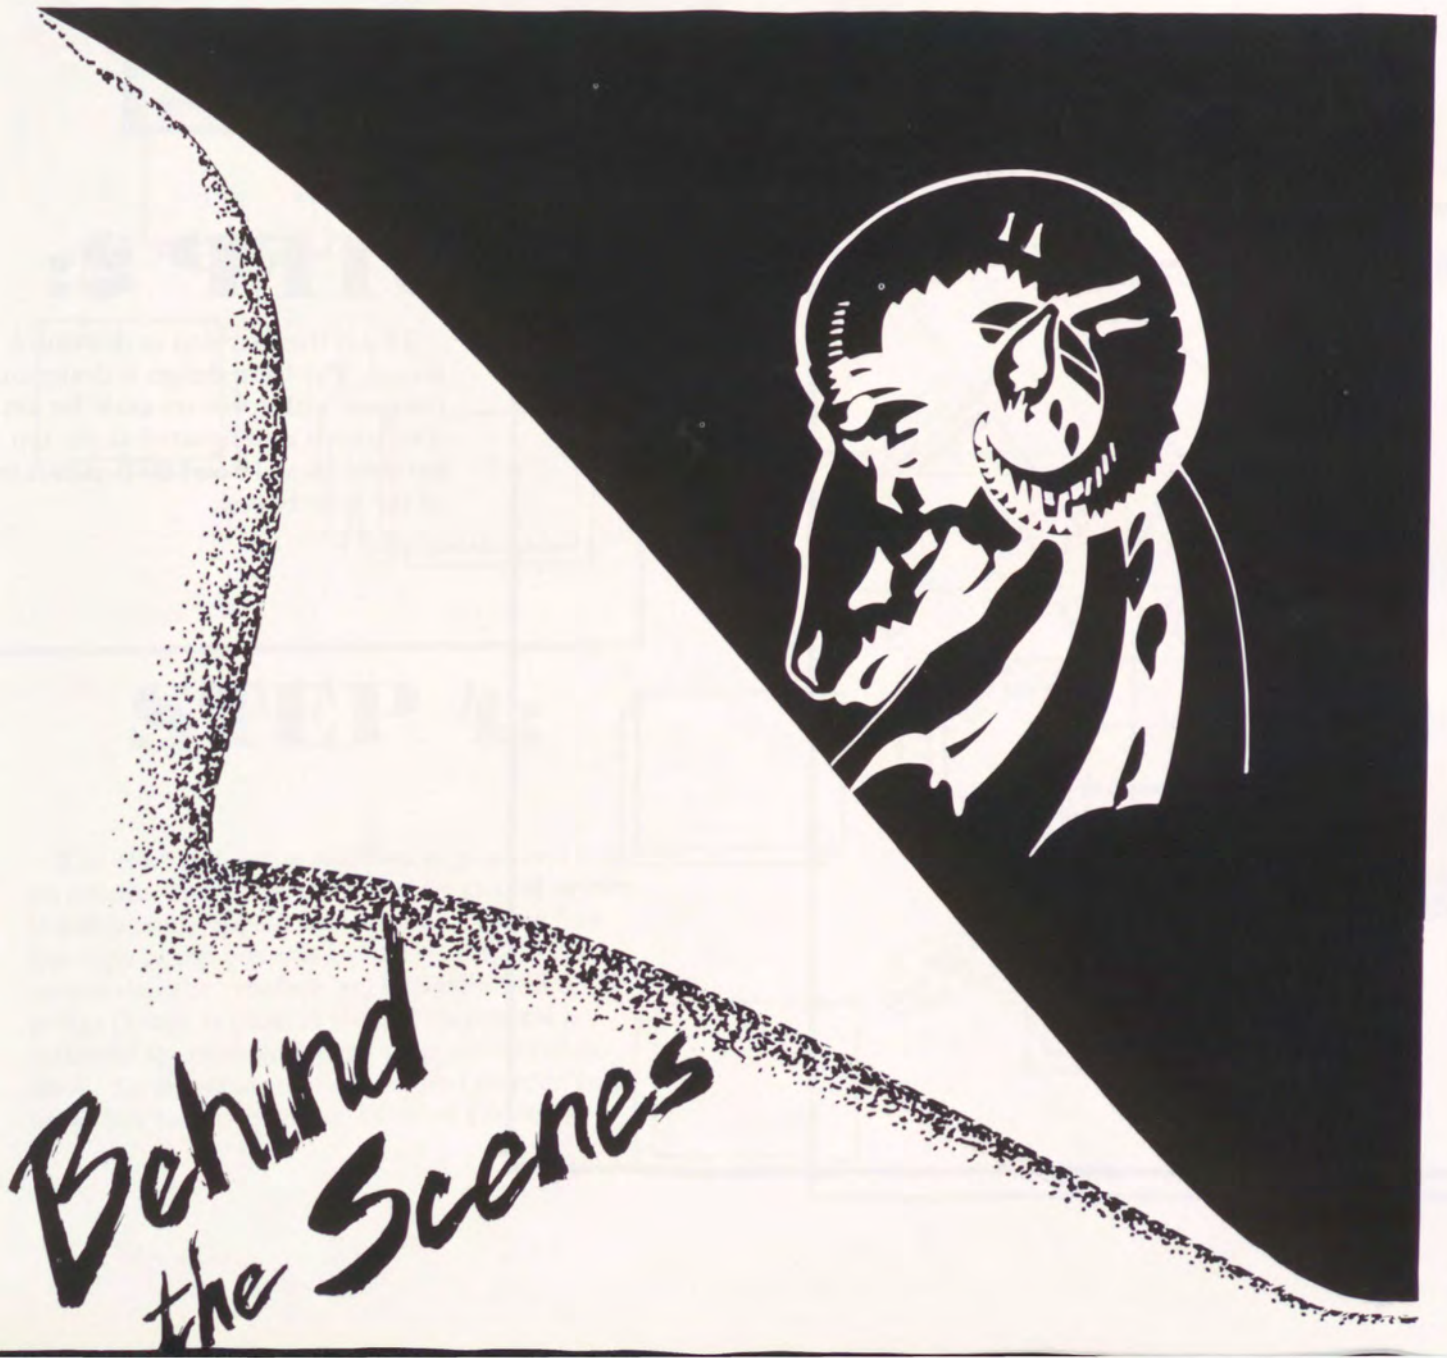

N ow that we have your attention . . .

Rarely a week goes by that Bangor High and its students aren't mentioned in local papers or on television. Whether it is our boys' soccer team on their way to the playoffs or the Latin Club hosting a state meeting Bangor High students are out in front. For every activity, sport, or person mentioned publicly there are ten times as many who quietly go about their work helping their classmates and school reach glory while hanging back from the limelight themselves.

From the football star to the scenic decorator for the play, Bangor High students are dedicated to the Bangor High tradition of school spirit. School spirit isn't about winning every game or being involved in every activity. It is a pride in our school and ourselves which all Bangor High students, regardless of popularity or ability demonstrate.

HOW A PAGE

STEP 1:

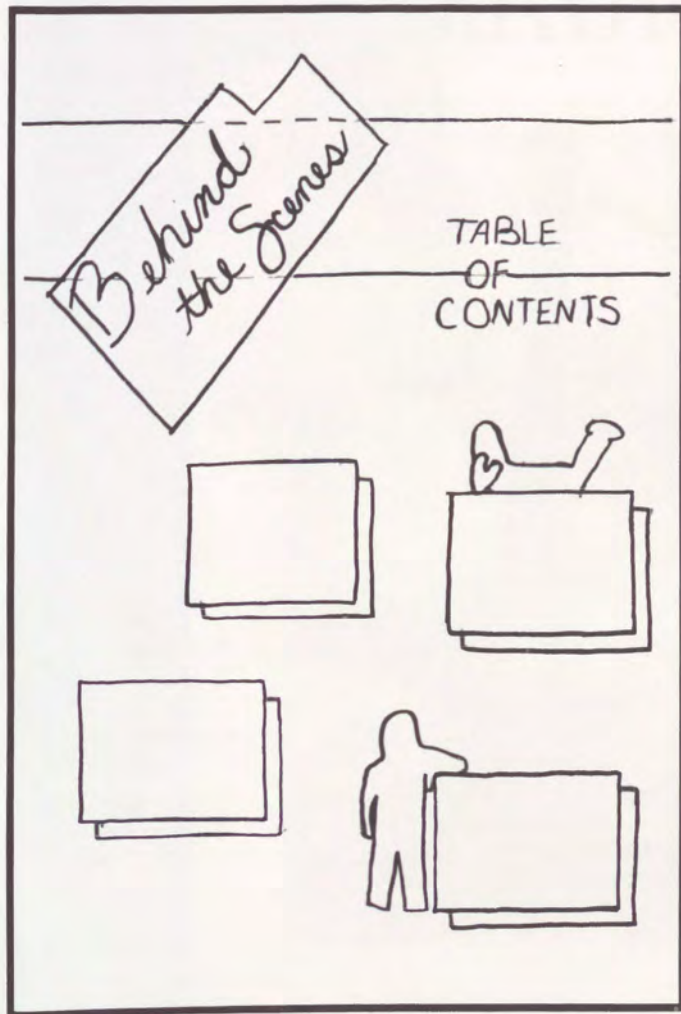

The first step is a group of people getting together and brainstorming. They think about how the page should look and what its effect will be. Although this step takes the longest, it can be the most fun. After designing the page, source books are consulted to check on page and copy directions.

STEP 2:

This is the first step in drawing a layout. The basic design is drawn on the page with space set aside for art. The screen is designated at the top between picas 10 and 20 (a pica is one of the little boxes).

IS MADE

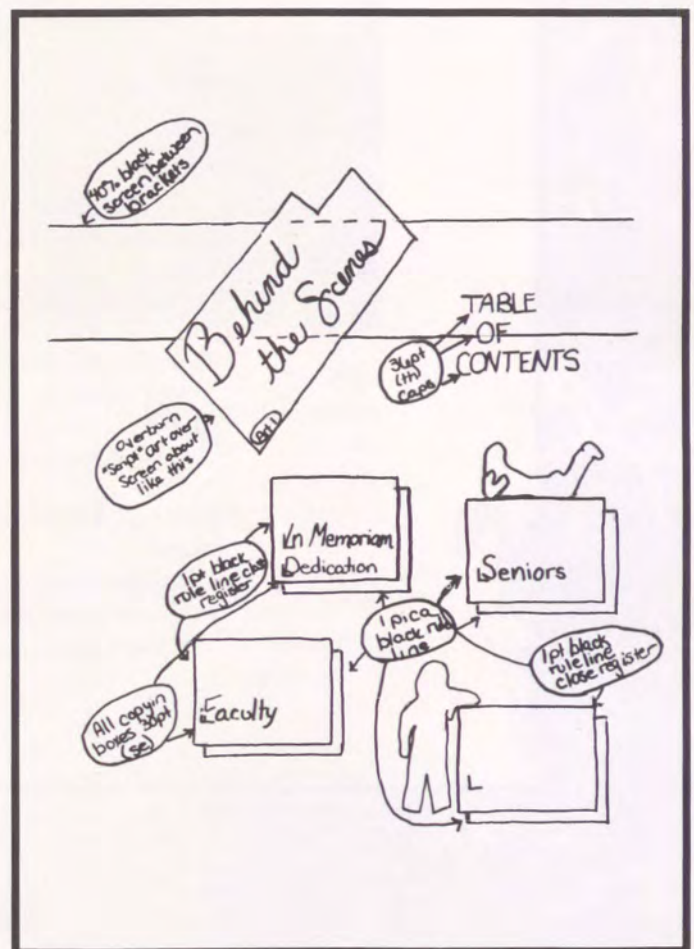

STEP 4:

The final step is the addition of page and copy directions. Each direction must be circled or else it will actually appear on the page. Notice how the copy in the boxes is in "30 pt. (se)." This means that the typeface (se) or Seville will be 30 points (2 and ½ picas in size.) This process is followed for each and every page in the entire book. To see what the finished and printed page looks like just turn to the Table of Contents.

STEP 3:

Now the space that was set aside for the art contains an example of what that art will look like. Next to the boxes are outlines of more art that will be added later. Finally the title of the page is added.

IN MEMORIAM

*Sunset and Evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

*— Alfred, Lord Tennyson
"Crossing the Bar"*

Dedication

This year's yearbook theme is Behind the Scenes and we, the ORACLE staff of 1992 could think of no one more appropriate to dedicate this year's yearbook to than Carole Bassi. Like so many others, she works behind the scenes to aid students and faculty alike. From handing out Band-Aids and parking permits to performing miracles and offering a sympathetic ear she is there for everyone who needs her.

She attended Bangor High School where she graduated eighth in a class of 366. She received the French Medal — Business and the B.P.W. award. Mrs. Bassi began working in the Bangor School Department when the secretary at Dow Lane school took a leave of absence. In November of 1982 she began working at Bangor High School. Mrs. Bassi has embodied the spirit of B.H.S. through her coaching of the Varsity Cheerleading Team and through her riveting announcements. Mrs. Bassi lives in Bangor with her husband Mike and three children Mike Jr., Kristen, and Andrea.

The ORACLE staff wishes to thank Mrs. Bassi for everything she has done to help make this book a success.

MEMORIAL

Dear Members of the Class of 1992:

Each year the excitement builds until the message goes out that the yearbooks have arrived. I know, from past experience, that this year all will share that same excitement.

The ORACLE helps all of us to reflect, at different times, on the various events and happenings that took place during our high school years.

The ORACLE staff has, once again, put many hours of hard work into making a book that all will find enjoyable and want to keep for lasting memories. We all wish to thank the ORACLE staff and advisor for a job well done.

To the Class of 1992, we wish you every success and good fortune that the future can give.

*A silent uproar
Has unleashed the Dogs of War
You can't stop what has begun
Signed, sealed, They deliver oblivion
We all have a dark side to say the least
And dealing in death is the nature of the beast.
The Dogs of War don't negotiate.
The Dogs of War won't capitulate.
They will take and you will give.
And you must die so that they may live
You can knock at any door.
But wherever you go, You know they've been there before.
Well winners can lose and things can get strained.
But whatever you change,
You know the Dogs remain.*

And whither then? I cannot say.*

A yearbook's duty is to represent as many members of the student body as possible and to capture the countless teams and activities present in the school. However the duty of the yearbook to the Senior Class is quite different. Seniors expect to see every moment of their last year in high school captured, and rightly so. We think that the following four pages capture the spirit and energy of the Class of 1992.

Signs of Senior Year

- Mom and Dad getting mad at you because you were late picking them up
- staying up until two, not to finish a movie but to finish a term paper
- receiving 14 letters a day from colleges you have never heard of
- having senioritis
- moving into Guidance
- having nightmares about college
- Juniors treat you like you have already graduated and try to run the school

Led by their advisors Mrs. Tabor and Mrs. Marston, the Junior Class Council has approximately $2,800 gaining interest every day. The Junior Class Council is planning to hold a bottle drive and they sent two representatives to the leadership conference in November. As they did last year, the council will be holding a candy sale — something we all can sink our teeth into. Good luck to the Junior Class Council in raising money for their Senior Year.

S.A.T.s

The very thought of taking them strikes fear into the hearts of high school students across the country. As if taking the test wasn't bad enough, students also have to try and figure out which method of preparing is best for them. Methods at B.H.S. ranged from the traditional, getting a "nutritious breakfast from the four food groups" (Kate O'Donnell) and "sharpening a lot of pencils" (John Robertson) to untested methods such as "listening to easy listening to get that intelligent feeling" (Nicole Hawkes) to the old standby "praying" (Lynn McCarthy). Whatever the method one thing is common to all S.A.T. takers everyone is very happy when it is all over.

After two years of being picked on as underclassmen/women, the Class of 1993 has finally entered the ranks of upperclassmen/women. All Juniors seem to think that there is a significant difference between their last two years in high school and this year. Many feel that the work is harder and that the teachers expect more and all seemed a little concerned with upcoming tests and having to worry about college. Sarah Michaud expressed Junior year the best when she said, "This is the year that counts. It's not so much that the teachers expect more from us, it's more that we expect more of ourselves."

When the twelve-thirty bell rings most of B.H.S. sprints to their lockers or begins to cram for their next test, but many lucky Seniors make their way to their cars. Senior Privileges are often dreamed about by underclassmen/women and Seniors love the feeling of being able to leave school early without having to make up the time missed in detention. This opportunity though is no longer available to incoming classes and many of this year's Sophomores and Freshmen don't like it one bit. (continued on page 79).

When asked about the change in the Senior Privileges many said that they were upset mainly because it would cut down on the amount of hours they would be able to get at work. Others thought that getting out early should not be a privilege given only to Seniors but that all classes should be able to get out. What will happen when the first class with no Senior Privileges becomes Seniors . . . should be interesting.

Led by their President Allyson Port the Sophomore Class Council has raised $1,000. So far this year they have had a dance and later on in the year are planning to have a carnation sale for Valentine's Day which will make all the couples at B.H.S. very happy. The advisors of the Sophomore Class Council are Mrs. Lord and Mr. Mooers. With two math teachers as their advisors there is no doubt in our minds that the Council will soon be doubling their profits.

The Freshman Class Council has raised $45.00 so far but plan on increasing this amount very soon. They are very proud to have won first place for their float during Spirit Week and are planning a dance. They are a very busy group and are tossing around many ideas for fundraising. They feel they will accomplish many tasks throughout the year.

Over the past year or so a lot of attention has been focused on the Middle East and the downfall of Communism across Europe but in this time more and more people have begun to become concerned with the large federal deficit and the lack of money that the state has. The economic scene doesn't seem to be getting any better either and the prospect of schools having to close early has grabbed the attention of students across the state. Everyday the front pages of all the local papers recount the latest in layoffs and the nightly news does the same (continued on page 91).

The inability of Republicans and Democrats to set aside differences and get down to business both on the Federal and State level has begun to worry almost everyone, as Scot Crichton said, "It is scary that the people whom we elect to run our country fail to be able to reduce the federal deficit." Students and teachers alike recognize the need for something to be done by someone and soon.

With over twenty activities present in the school, Bangor High students have no reason to be bored. For every interest whether it is writing, Latin or government a group exists at Bangor High. Almost without exception, these activities are open to all who are willing to participate.

Around the border, all of the activities present at the school are listed. Many of these activities are not well known through out the school. They are not as visible as R.O.T.C. nor is their membership as vast as the Key Club's. Nevertheless they quietly go about their business, attending meetings, paying dues, and most importantly having a good time with people who share a common interest.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1991-92 Student Council had a year filled with accomplishments. Under the advisement of Mr. Monk and president Parke Oldenburg, the council supported many successful activities and events. Such successes included a spirited homecoming week, The Red Cross Blood Drive, and representation at the annual Leadership conference in Old Town. The Student Council strove to present itself not only as a leadership organization, but as an organization dedicated to school service.

It held a successful dance or two, and under its great leadership, raised a considerable amount of money. On the whole, the Junior class has come a long way, and the success of this year has allowed them to inch closer to graduation.

The Class of '95 proudly accepted first prize in the float contest at Homecoming.

The freshmen were pleased to have assisted BHS students with their midterms/finals by selling doughnuts and milk during break. Other fundraising efforts included the selling of cheering towels, pencils and pens, a car wash and a spring dance.

The freshman class is well on its way to graduation in 1995.

GIRLS' AND BOYS' STATE

The delegates sent to Girls' and Boys' State were among the best and brightest of Bangor High School. Nicole Hawkes, Sarah Shubert, Jayne Wellman, Gina Thompson, Sarah Jordan and Jessica Madore represented BHS at Girls' State and representing BHS at Boys' State were Andy Richards, Dave Haskell, Dirk Warren, Jeff Bowden, and Tom Lingley. Delegates spent time learning about patriotism and citizenship by participating in mock state and local governments. All of the delegates brought back a better understanding of state politics and, more importantly, fond memories of a great week!

PEER SUPPORT

Peer Support at Bangor High School is a group of caring and concerned students who desire to make a difference in our school community by helping other students. The group started out with a large membership led by a number of dedicated individuals. Many members are actively involved in other activities at B.H.S. Despite the many commitments of its members, the group remains active and upbeat.

In the future Peer Support plans to become involved in some type of Teen Theatre to demonstrate teen issues and constructive ways to cope with these issues. Interested students should contact the advisors, Ms. Tingley or Mr. Murray or the student leaders. Co-Presidents are Kelly Comer and Angie Michaud, the treasurer is Sarah Rea and Amy Goddard is the secretary.

S•E.E.D., in these last two years, began a recycling program for Bangor High School and the surrounding community. They have held park and school cleanups and have had a successful bottle drive to raise money for their bulletin board. They received over 200 signatures for the "Kick the Oil Habit" petition, and they held a 1991 and 1992 Earth Day celebration at Bangor High School for which they sold T-Shirts and planted a tree. They also performed skits for the middle schools about the importance of recycling. They accomplished their goals with the Bangor Conservation and the Northern Forest Campaign and are continually striving to make the world's resources last longer to benefit all the generations to come.

DEBATE

This year the Bangor Debate Team fielded both a Lincoln Douglas and Policy Team. Led by captains Wendy Stockford and Whitney MacDonald, the Policy Team debated the resolution that "the Federal Government should significantly increase Social Services to homeless individuals in the United States." Wendy and Whitney were joined in the Varsity ranks by Wendy Shaw, Heather Turner, Kirsten Strong, Ed Allen, Molly Tomlinson, and Liza Levering. The Varsity Team grew in experience this year as they participated in the different tournaments against more experienced debaters. Novices this year included Chris Swartz, Johanna Barrett, Missy Young, Jon Becker, Dan Ryder, and Jon Ferreira. Bangor also fielded a Lincoln Douglas Debate team with Wendy Shaw, Aaron Roth, and Paul Laliberte debating such issues as genetic engineering and violence used as self-defense.

Bangor began its year at the Oxford Hills Instructional Tournament where it did quite well, capturing several trophies. It was at this tournament that it became obvious that Bangor's chief competition at the novice level would be Noble and Scarborough. This rivalry followed the team up to the Bangor Invitational Tournament in November where several Bangor debaters helped administer the tournament. The very next weekend we traveled to Mt. Ararat in Topsham where we were competitive in all divisions. December brought the Scarborough tournament where Bangor again showed its skill, yet we did not bring home any of the hardware. Bad weather and other commitments held the Bangor team at bay for two other tournaments in January, but the team traveled to Old Town and brought home three trophies between the two competitors that day. There was also the Noble Tournament in February and the State Tournament in March.

SPEECH

Is it possible to tow a U-Haul trailer behind a school bus?

The quantity of hardware collected by Bangor's Speech Team during the 1991-1992 season was truly impressive. We were often forced to consider, as we boarded our transport home from tournaments "Will all these trophies fit on the bus?"

With an astonishingly young team, we made our presence known at tournaments throughout the state. Numbered among those who produced awards for the team are: Champion storyteller Angie Plummer who consistently collected first and second prize awards, Kristen Gwinn and Brooke Bishop collaborated to make their judges cry, always an indicator of an award winning performance, Jen Talbot and Andy Day, who, with a selection from Death of a Salesman, transported their audiences to a world of domestic disharmony, Liz Teixeira, authored a convincing portrayal of her ideal of courage, Beth Cote broke judges' hearts with a searing tale of parent-child separation, Whitney Macdonald, Jess Bridges, Jen Emery, Megan Ziegler-Haynes, and Molly Tomlinson, wrote, presented, and won with original works on the subjects of substance abuse, the opposite sex, and the twisted humor of the ancients, Scot Crichton, our eloquent political correspondent, and Gina Thompson whose stunning portrayal of a grieving daughter left her listeners in silent tears.

Impressing the competition with our show of spirit and talent, while losing only four graduating seniors, look out Maine Forensic League, the Bangor High School Speech Team is a snowball headed down the mountain.

MATH TEAM

The Bangor High Math Team continues to excel in the Eastern Maine Math League and in the State. Every year since 1985, BHS has been in five regional meets and a state meet. Bangor High has qualified and competed in the New England Invitational Math Competition at Canton, Massachusetts the last two years by scoring high in the regional and state competitions. Last year BHS was first out of twenty-two schools in Eastern Maine at the Regional Math Contest in March. At the third meet this year BHS scored the most points ever for a Bangor High team and easily finished first. Two sample questions are:

1. Find the sum of the following series:

$$48 + 40 + 36 + 27 + 22.5 + \dots$$

Answer: 352

2. Given a triangle ABC formed by points A(6,2), B(14,t), and C(12,-2), find the value of t so that the area of the triangle ABC is 15 square units.

Answer: $t = 53$ or $t = -253$

Team members who learn to do problems like these find the SAT exams to be significantly easier. Those who attended most of our meets include: Jeff Bowden, Christine Bragg, David Brownell, Ben Carlisle, Amy Dunham, Joni Fournier, Amanda Godsoe, Thomas Lingley, Melissa McEwen, Jeff Merritt, Kate Merritt, Michelle Ouellette, Andy Richards, John Robertson, Laurie Rosenthal, Aaron Roth, Wendy Shaw, Kenyon Shubert, Sarah Shubert, Sam Singal, Dan Thai, Molly Tomlinson, and Jesse Walton.

Odysey of the Mind is an extracurricular competitive program in creative problem solving. It encourages team work, divergent thinking, and problem solving. Teams of five to seven students work together to solve one of five challenges. They plan, develop, and rehearse their novel solutions, testing them in competition against students from other schools. Winning teams go on to compete in local, regional, state competitions and the world final.

In its second official year at Bangor High School the A.F.S. club provided a gateway between the B.H.S. community and the school's exchange students some of whom came from Russia, Columbia, and Spain. The A.F.S. club focuses on the cultures of foreign countries and gives opportunities, such as their Christmas Party, that allow the foreign exchange students to meet outside of the school environment.

The Teenage Republicans were founded by Jayne Wellman and Deanna Gagner in 1990. Last year club members helped the local Republicans and the University of Maine College Republicans in campaigning for Olympia Snowe, William Cohen and Governor McKernan. This year provided us with the experience of seeing caucuses with the 1992 Presidential elections. During the campaigns we became actively involved. With each new year we hope to expand our club membership and the amount of interaction with local Republicans.

In its third year of publication, the Ram-Page brings local and school news to the student body. The 1990-91 editions featured stories on Bangor's homeless, the new labor law for teenagers and the UMO hockey team. The first edition of The Ram-Page was published in the fall of 1989. A group of aspiring journalists under the direction of advisors, Mrs. Drisko and Mrs. Jones, formed a Journalism Club and, during the school year, 1989-90 produced four issues of the paper. Richard Fye '91 was The Ram-Page editor for two years. The Ram-Page is a joint effort of the Journalism Class and the Journalism Club. This year, Journalism Club members have contributed stories, editorials, drawings, and reviews.

LITHOUSE

This year the creative writing class, under the guidance of Mrs. Christakos, worked to produce Lit-House, the school literary magazine. The Lit-House is a collection of poems, short stories, and art works, all done by Bangor High School students. This group not only reviewed the submissions of other students, but also contributed a lot of their own writing to produce a successful Lit-House, which represents the very best of the talent at BHS.

MIDWEEK WRITERS

Every week the dedicated staff of Ed Allen, Sarah Shubert, and Sam Singal gathered school news of the city newspaper. Their efforts helped to keep the Bangor area informed on the many activities and achievements of the students at BHS. Much credit is due to Mrs. Christakos, the advisor, for her skillful organization and guidance throughout the year. Various midweek articles told of the progress of the Math Team, the achievements in the ROTC program, presentations and visitors to the school, and trips made by different science classes. Others kept the student body informed of scholarships, contests and opportunities available at BHS, and followed up on the achievements of last year's graduates. Overall, the work of the midweek writers served to gain for BHS a lot of recognition that it deserves.

Behind the Scenes with Sponty

To those who know BHS Football, this season would be considered a disappointment but the team's coach would disagree. Although the win-loss record doesn't show it Bruce Morse in his last year as head coach said that "This is one of the most enthusiastic groups that I've coached." Headed by Seniors Brian Issacs, Eddie Hannon, Josh McNeily, Tommy LeClair, Steve Subjoc and Junior Robbie Estey, the team showed the great values of courage and strength that their coach had instilled in it. With 40 underclassmen on the roster BHS football has a great chance to improve in the coming years.

A RE-BUILDING YEAR

Although the BHS Freshman Football team had a disappointing record the eighth grade football league had obviously given the players an edge when it came to game experience. The highlight of the season was the pre-season defeat of arch rival Brewer. With Dan O'Connell and Josh Jamieson leading the team, the freshman football team provided a great nucleus that will certainly add to the football tradition at BHS in the years to come.

ENDURING SPIRIT

Despite their record for the season the Bangor High Field Hockey team had a winning attitude that would not let them quit. Under coach Gina Toole and assistant Gail Mercier the team went into every game prepared and with a win on their minds. Leading the team defensively was goalie Nichole Hawkes and Molly Kornfield. Offensively, Amanda Godsoe and Amy Goddard led the charge. This year's team was a young one. With many players returning next year, it is clear to see that the Field Hockey team at Bangor High has a great future.

Despite losing five starters from last year, the Bangor High Golf team still had a successful season. Under coach Dave Willette the team had a record of 11-4 and finished as runners up in the Eastern Maine regionals. The team was led by Seniors Pat Reed, Lenny Ryan and Josh Bears and Juniors Scott Crichton and Ryan Bradford. With the return of Crichton and Bradford along with freshman David Smith, the Bangor High Golf team is looking good.

The Bangor High Cross Country team, under Coach Jeff Ingalls, performed better than anyone had thought they could. The team went from 18 members last year to 46 members this year. For the boys Scott Butterfield, Joe Locke and Andy Watkins led the charge. For the girls Courtney Parker and Kristi Merrithew were the front runners. Both boys and girls had successful seasons with the boys making the state meet for the second consecutive year. The boys and girls team are expecting a great return for next year's team and a brighter future for Bangor High Cross Country.

ON TOP

The Boys Soccer Team of Bangor High exceeded all expectations. Under coach Roger Reed the Rams made the playoffs for the fourth consecutive time, although they were defeated in a heart breaking loss to Brewer, the team was still outstanding. With goalie Billy Newman and defensemen Dan Thai, Pat Masters, Chris Watkins and Stien Sandal the Rams only allowed an amazing seven goals all season. Midfielders Parke Oldenburg, Nahesi Grant and George Wright were absolutely superb in big game situations. David Hamel, Mark Reed, Ryan Maher, and Mark and Jay Hannon Provided the scoring punch. The team will be losing only five seniors so the future is looking very bright for the Ram's Soccer Team.

GAVE IT THEIR ALL

The desire to succeed and to strive as far as possible is something that a coach loves to see in a team. The Lady Rams Soccer Team showed these qualities and more while having a great season and just missing the playoffs. Guided by a very talented group of seniors, the team played with great control and unselfishness during every game. The team's attitude was without a doubt an unbeatable one. With a rich pool of talent still remaining the future is looking very promising for the girls' soccer team of Bangor High.

EM CHAMPS

What can you say about this year's version of the Bangor Boys Basketball team? This talented group of guys displayed the heart and soul of true winners. Under coach Roger Reed's leadership each one ran the fast break with finesse, hit the outside jumper with pure accuracy and played defense with animal instincts. Led all the way by senior, McDonalds All-American Candidate, Bill Newman and juniors Mark Reed, John Tennet, Chris Pickering, Dean Heistand and Ryan Bradford, the team was a true force to be reckoned with in Eastern Maine. With a strong contingent of people coming back next year Bangor should once again be a fearful team to face on the Basketball court!

B-BALL

Coach Tom Tennett's Lady Rams showed great courage and fortitude throughout every game played. There was never a game when this close knit bunch of girls wasn't ready for their opponent. Win or lose these girls always had their heads up high. Led by seniors Charolette Cyr, Amy Waterman, Shonna Cook and Lee Wilson, the team showed formidable opponents that Bangor was a serious face to be recognized with.

Bangor will once again look strong when the '92-'93 season rolls around. Look for Courtney Parker, Leah Thistle, Jeanne Englebrecht and Michel Pulis to lead the way in Eastern Maine basketball.

FROSH POWER

Well you can rack up another championship for the Freshman boys' basketball team of Bangor High. This time it was at the expense of Brewer. First year coach Mark Hackett put his boys through the rigors of a team that you knew would go all the way to the top. With a great chemistry and attitude this team was destined for greatness from the first practice to the championship game.

HOOP IT UP!

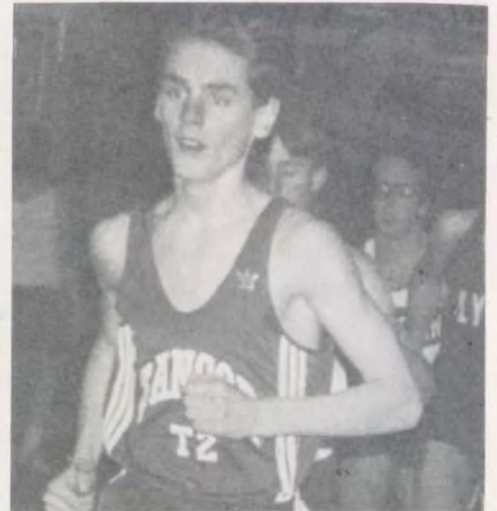

If there was one thing that you could say about this year's version of the Girls Freshman basketball team, it was when they were down they were never out. This was apparent when they came back from a large deficit to beat the John Bapst Crusaders in the semifinals of the Eastern Maine Tournament. Coach Jeff Paul instilled courage and a fighting instinct that would never let them get down easily. The entire team showed everyone why it worked so hard throughout the season.

SPEEDY FOLKS

Coach Maynard Walton's Boys and Girls Indoor Track Teams had a very productive season in Eastern Maine track competition. The boys used intensity and hard work in taking the runner up trophy at the Eastern Regionals behind Old Town, but in front of Brewer. The girl's team, while very young this year, showed a tremendous competitive flare in every race. The boys were led by Captains Joe Locke and Scott Butterfield and senior sprinter Josh Beers. The Girls were led by captains Lindley McCarthy, Joni Fournier, and Lisah Smith along with Steph Miller. Both teams are expecting great runners back with their respective squads next year. Watch out for Mike Baude, Doug Civileo, Son Thai, Josh Mishou, Kim Cross, Emily Woodman, and Leah Cohen also will most likely set great marks for the girls next year. Assistant coaches Mike Berrier and Ian Braun were also a tremendous help throughout the season.

GUTS AND GLORY

This year's Lady Rams Swim Team didn't need a lot of motivation from Coach Jim Willis. Captains Patti Sawyer, Jessie Sexton and Sarah Shubert provided the motivation and desire to succeed that all teams should have. The Lady Rams proved once again to be a force in Maine swimming. With a great depth of swimmers, the team was able to capture its 12th consecutive P.V.C. Championship crown. They were beaten by just 6.5 points by Cape Elizabeth in the State Meet. Throughout the entire season, the girls stuck together and shared a bond that could not be matched. With swimmers like Amy Walls, Missy McEwen, Cate Splane and Ellie Edson coming back next year, the rest of Class A will fear the Bangor tidal wave coming to a pool near them.

DIVE IN

The tradition of swimming excellence was once again shown by our boy's swim team. This year's team surprised many schools especially with their opening upset of the 1991 state champs, Cape Elizabeth. They continued their strong showing throughout the season with a come-from-behind tie with arch rival, Old Town, and then proceeded to crush the Indians at the P.V.C. Championship meet. Coach Phil Emery once again instilled in his team the fire to work hard and achieve as much as possible while at the same time having fun. The team was led by seniors Parke (Golden Bug) Oldenburg, Dirk (The Dirker) Warren and Tom (The Hair) Lingley. Next year's team will have a very strong group of returning swimmers such as Ben Carlisle, Chris Gallon, Mark and Jay Hannon, Todd Oldenburg and Aaron Roth. Beware of swimming up to this bunch in a dark pool!

SCORE

The Bangor Hockey Team under Coach Tim McDougal put on a show of force with every game played. The team was led by captains Eddie Hannan and Micah Robbins who made their opponents pay for every trip down to their end of the rink with bruising checks and hustling defense. From there, they would simply swarm around the opponent's goal bringing havoc on other goalies. One highlight which will not be forgotten for a while was the upset of the number one ranked Lewiston during the season. Despite the fact that Bangor didn't make the play-offs, the team was fun to watch throughout the season.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Let me extend my personal congratulations to the Bangor High School Graduating Class of 1992. I expect that upon reflection of your years in the Bangor public school system, and more specifically Bangor High School, have been productive.

The Bangor School Department takes pride in offering the very best educational opportunities and experiences for all its students. As Superintendent of Schools, and on behalf of the Bangor School Department, I want to acknowledge the variety and magnitude of accomplishments by members of the Class of 1992. Your academic performance has been outstanding. Your achievements in co-curricular activities have been many, and your overall efforts have brought pride upon your community.

Never before in our history as a nation has the value of a high school education been more apparent. Today, a high school diploma is but the threshold over which all must pass. Beyond high school graduation is a world of opportunity. Whether you elect to enter a post-secondary institution, the job market, or the military, there is a need for you to recognize that there is no real end to formal education. Future job opportunities and quality of life issues will demand that your quest for new knowledge become a lifelong pursuit.

To each member of this year's graduating class, best wishes and lifelong happiness.

James F. Doughty

Sometimes the real learning takes place between classes.

One on one, you and the teacher. Discussing, debating.
Clearing up a point, asking a last question. Taking the time to really understand something.

Education doesn't just come from the text or the lesson plan or the tests. Sometimes it comes from digging just a little deeper into a subject. Or into yourself.

Key Bank congratulates you for what you have learned. And we hope you never stop learning, even when the classes are over.
