Mameve Stern, B. H. S. senior, looks ahead to the future

FOREWORD

*'Tis education forms the common mind;
As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined.*

— Pope

This quotation, the motto of the Class of 1960, indicates the idea behind the choice of "TREES" as the theme of Bangor High School's 1960 Oracle. Just as the strength and productivity of a tree is dependent on its environment as a sapling, the usefulness and character of a person depend on surrounding conditions during youth. Even so, the program of study, extracurricular activities and sports, and social opportunities of Bangor High School have contributed to the growth of its students as citizens.

IN APPRECIATION

Mr. Lawrence "Larry" Striley, retiring school agent,
checks his files.

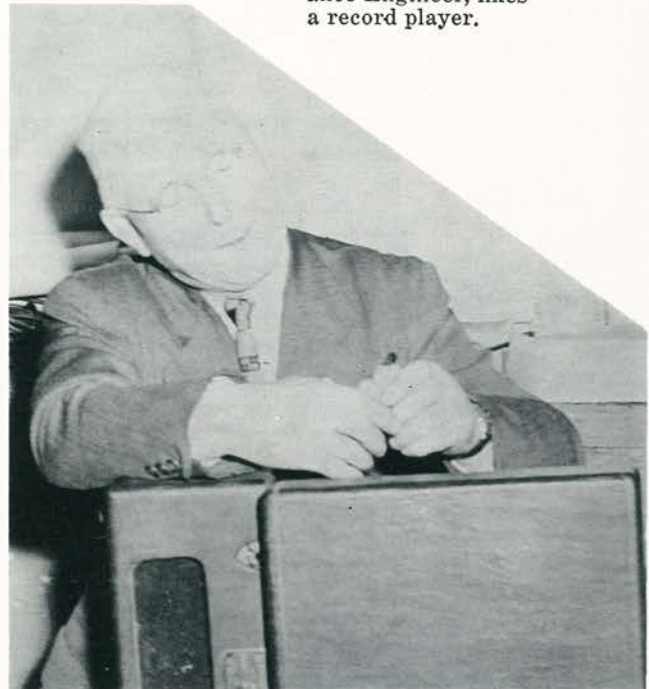

LAWRENCE "LARRY" STRILEY

Bangor School Agent since 1946, "Larry" Striley has been responsible for purchasing the many kinds of equipment, the books, and all the supplies, from paper clips to heating oils, necessary to maintain and to operate the Educational plant of the Queen City. His beautifully written ledgers are models of the bookkeeper's art at its very best. As he retires we will miss his stories — and they are true! — of famous golfers who have been his pupils. Our best wishes go with him as he now has more time to spend with the unusual vegetable varieties and the spectacular flower displays for which he is so noted.

CLIFFORD "CLIFF" BARCHARD

"Cliff" Barchard's long tenure as Plant Maintenance Engineer points up in dramatic fashion the many changes and the rapid developments in the schools of Bangor. During his thirty-eight years of service, lighting progressed from gas lamps through single small bulbs on drop cords to fluorescent fixtures; the hand-wound spring phonograph gave way to transistorized Hi-Fi components and intricate public address systems; and heating changed from hand fired coal boilers to Bunker C burners laden with automatic controls. To this intensely complicated scientific maze, "Cliff" has brought a genuine touch of genius. Like the internal medical specialist his ability to diagnose heating, mechanical or electrical difficulties is uncanny. He is truly a "master mind" repairs expert. We wish him well as he uses his trailer home for a new base for the hunting and fishing in which he so delights.

Mr. Clifford "Cliff" Barchard, retiring Plant Maintenance Engineer, fixes
a record player.

FREDERICK W. PINKHAM

DEDICATION

The Class of 1960 takes pleasure in dedicating this year's Oracle to MR. FREDERICK W. PINKHAM, who, for roughly a quarter of a century, has helped Bangor High School achieve the highest of standards in many different fields. As a commercial teacher, he has seen many of our students win honors; as a penman, he has no peer; as basketball coach, his teams won two Eastern Maine and one State championship; as Faculty Manager of Athletics, he helped make that department tops in the state; as adviser to many groups, his counsel has been unmatched; as a Distributive Education teacher, he conducts a course unequaled in any part of this state. Because of his devotion to duty, his high principles and example, and his extreme thoroughness in every field, Bangor High School, both faculty and students, joins in this tribute of sincere respect and affection.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE 1959-1960

Seated, left to right: Mr. George D. Carlisle, Mr. Charles F. Bragg, 2nd, Mrs. Warren S. Overlock.
Standing: Mr. James F. White and Mr. Milford Cohen.

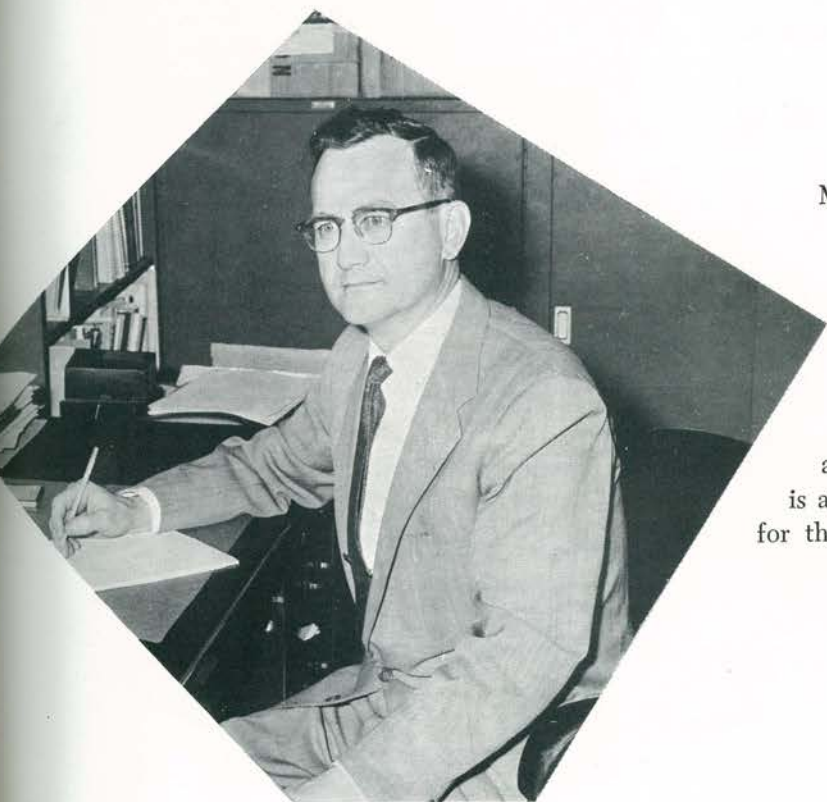

To the School Committee, appointed by the Bangor City Council, the City of Bangor delegates the education of its young people. Giving most generously of their time, the Committee sets the educational policy of the Bangor public schools, evaluates new trends in the philosophy of education as these trends affect Bangor, and oversees the building of new schools.

Galen Cole, President of Cole's Express, talks with Brother Mel, teacher at John Bapst; Brother Malcolm, Principal of John Bapst High School; Mr. Lawrence A. Peakes, Superintendent of Bangor Public Schools; Miss Jessie L. Fraser, Adviser to the Oracle; Miss Margaret Estes, B.H.S. Spanish teacher; and Mr. Efthim Economu, head of the B.H.S. foreign language department, on Bangor's first Business Education Day, sponsored by the Bangor Chamber of Commerce.

Superintendent Lawrence A. Peakes

Mr. Lawrence A. Peakes, Superintendent of the Bangor Public Schools since 1956, is, without doubt, one of the busiest executives in the city. In addition to supervising the many different facets of operating a school department whose budget is well over a million and a half dollars, Mr. Peakes is currently engrossed in a long-range building program. Interested in educational associations on the local, state, and national level, Mr. Peakes is President of the New England Association of School Superintendents. His only regret is that he has so little time for friendly association with teachers and students.

Wendell G. Eaton Curriculum Director

Mr. Wendell G. Eaton, named Curriculum Director of the Bangor Public Schools in 1958, has fulfilled his position admirably. Meeting almost daily with curriculum committees composed of both teachers and supervisors, Mr. Eaton is directing a curriculum that should develop each boy and girl to his fullest capacity. Mr. Eaton is also responsible for engaging the personnel for the Bangor Elementary Schools.

Earl Baldwin, School Business Manager; Karl McGraw, worker in the Superintendent's office; and Miss Charlotte Mulherin, Mr. Peakes' private secretary; check a page before it is mimeographed.

Since 1895, Junior Exhibition has been a well-established and much-enjoyed tradition at B.H.S. Each year the junior class presents its ten best speakers, five girls and five boys, in an exhibition in which every speaker receives a Charles E. French medal.

Beginning with the marshalling in of the Junior chorus by Class President Clifford Larlee and climaxing with the awarding of medals, Junior Exhibition - 1959 was a great success.

Mrs. Barbara Browne, Mrs. Myrle E. Coffey, and Mr. M. Manning Atherton were commended for their fine direction of speakers, chorus, and orchestra, respectively.

The speakers and their cuttings were as follows: Betsey Brewster, "Renaissance" by Edna St. Vincent Millay; Steven Buck, "Old Yeller" by Frederick Gipson; Marion Johnson, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough; Carolyn Jordan, "Gone With The Wind" by Margaret Mitchell; James Plowman, "U.S.A." by John DosPassos; Michael Robson, "By the Waters of Babylon" by Stephen Vincent Benet; Daniel Smith, "The Premature Burial" by Edgar Allen Poe; Mameve Stern, "The Glass Menagerie" by Tennessee Williams; Barbara Whittaker, "Life With Mother" by Clarence Day; and Arnold Weiss, "The Tar Baby" by Joel Harris.

ORACLE STAFF

 Second row: Barbara Whittaker, Christine Prince, Barbara Calderwood, Patricia Foster, Karen Stevens, Betsey Brewster, Sheila Johnson, Marcia Berson, Barbara Williams.
 Third row: Peter Mosher, James Beaver, Roger Stephan, Walter Melvin, Lawrence Emery, Norman Kominsky, Robert Foss.

To start off the year, the B.H.S. yearbook, the Oracle, coupled with the newspaper, the Orascope, held its annual subscription campaign. Throughout the remainder of the 1959-1960 season, the Oracle staff held weekly meetings and extra work sessions. Members of the board decided on a theme, worked out ideas for art work and photography, sought ads, wrote articles, and set up pages.

Section heads working under Miss Jessie L. Fraser, adviser, and JoAnn Peakes, editor-in-chief, were as follows: Mameve Stern, copy editor; Betsey Brewster, senior section; Karen Stevens, activities; Robert Foss, sports; and Peter Mosher, advertising.

Our boys, Walter Melvin, Morton Sclair, Bob Foss, Jim Beaver, and Larry Emery work?

Seated: JoAnn Peakes and Kara Koffron.

Bangor High School Scholars

In order to be a Bangor High School Scholar, a student must obtain a rank of 85 or better in all major subjects for two semesters in both sophomore and junior years and for at least one semester in the senior year. Seven seniors who received the honor of being named B.H.S. Scholars are pictured above.

Tentative lists were made of juniors and sophomores who have maintained the necessary ranks and are possible candidates for B.H.S. Scholars. These students are as follows: juniors—Lynda Gaillard, Nancy Horrocks, Theodore Jellison, Crystal Mayo, Nancy Pearson, Toby Slep, Barbara Snow, Marcia Tolman, Pamela Trojanoski, Helen Trowbridge, and Charles Varney; sophomores—Eleanor Bohan, Jean Christakos, Loretta Cross, Jerry Hillman, Brenda Miles, Pamela Pendleton, Peter Swenson, Jane Campbell, Richard Chady, Robert Chase, Linda Estes, Peter Fergus, Stephen Godsoe, Elizabeth Goodwin, Bruce Hathaway, Marsha Havey, Kathie Kazmierczak, Sandra Larlee, Daniel Libby, Janet McEachern, Donald McLemore, Gerry Page, John Perkins, Joan Raymond, Janet Robertson, Whitfield Russell, Ellyn Segal, Eizens Silins, Penelope Smith, Susan Smith, David Staples, Richard Thomas, Elizabeth Trowbridge, James Willey, and Sheldon White.

Second row: Clifford Larlee, Mameve Stern, JoAnn Peakes, Michael Robson, Daniel Smith.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

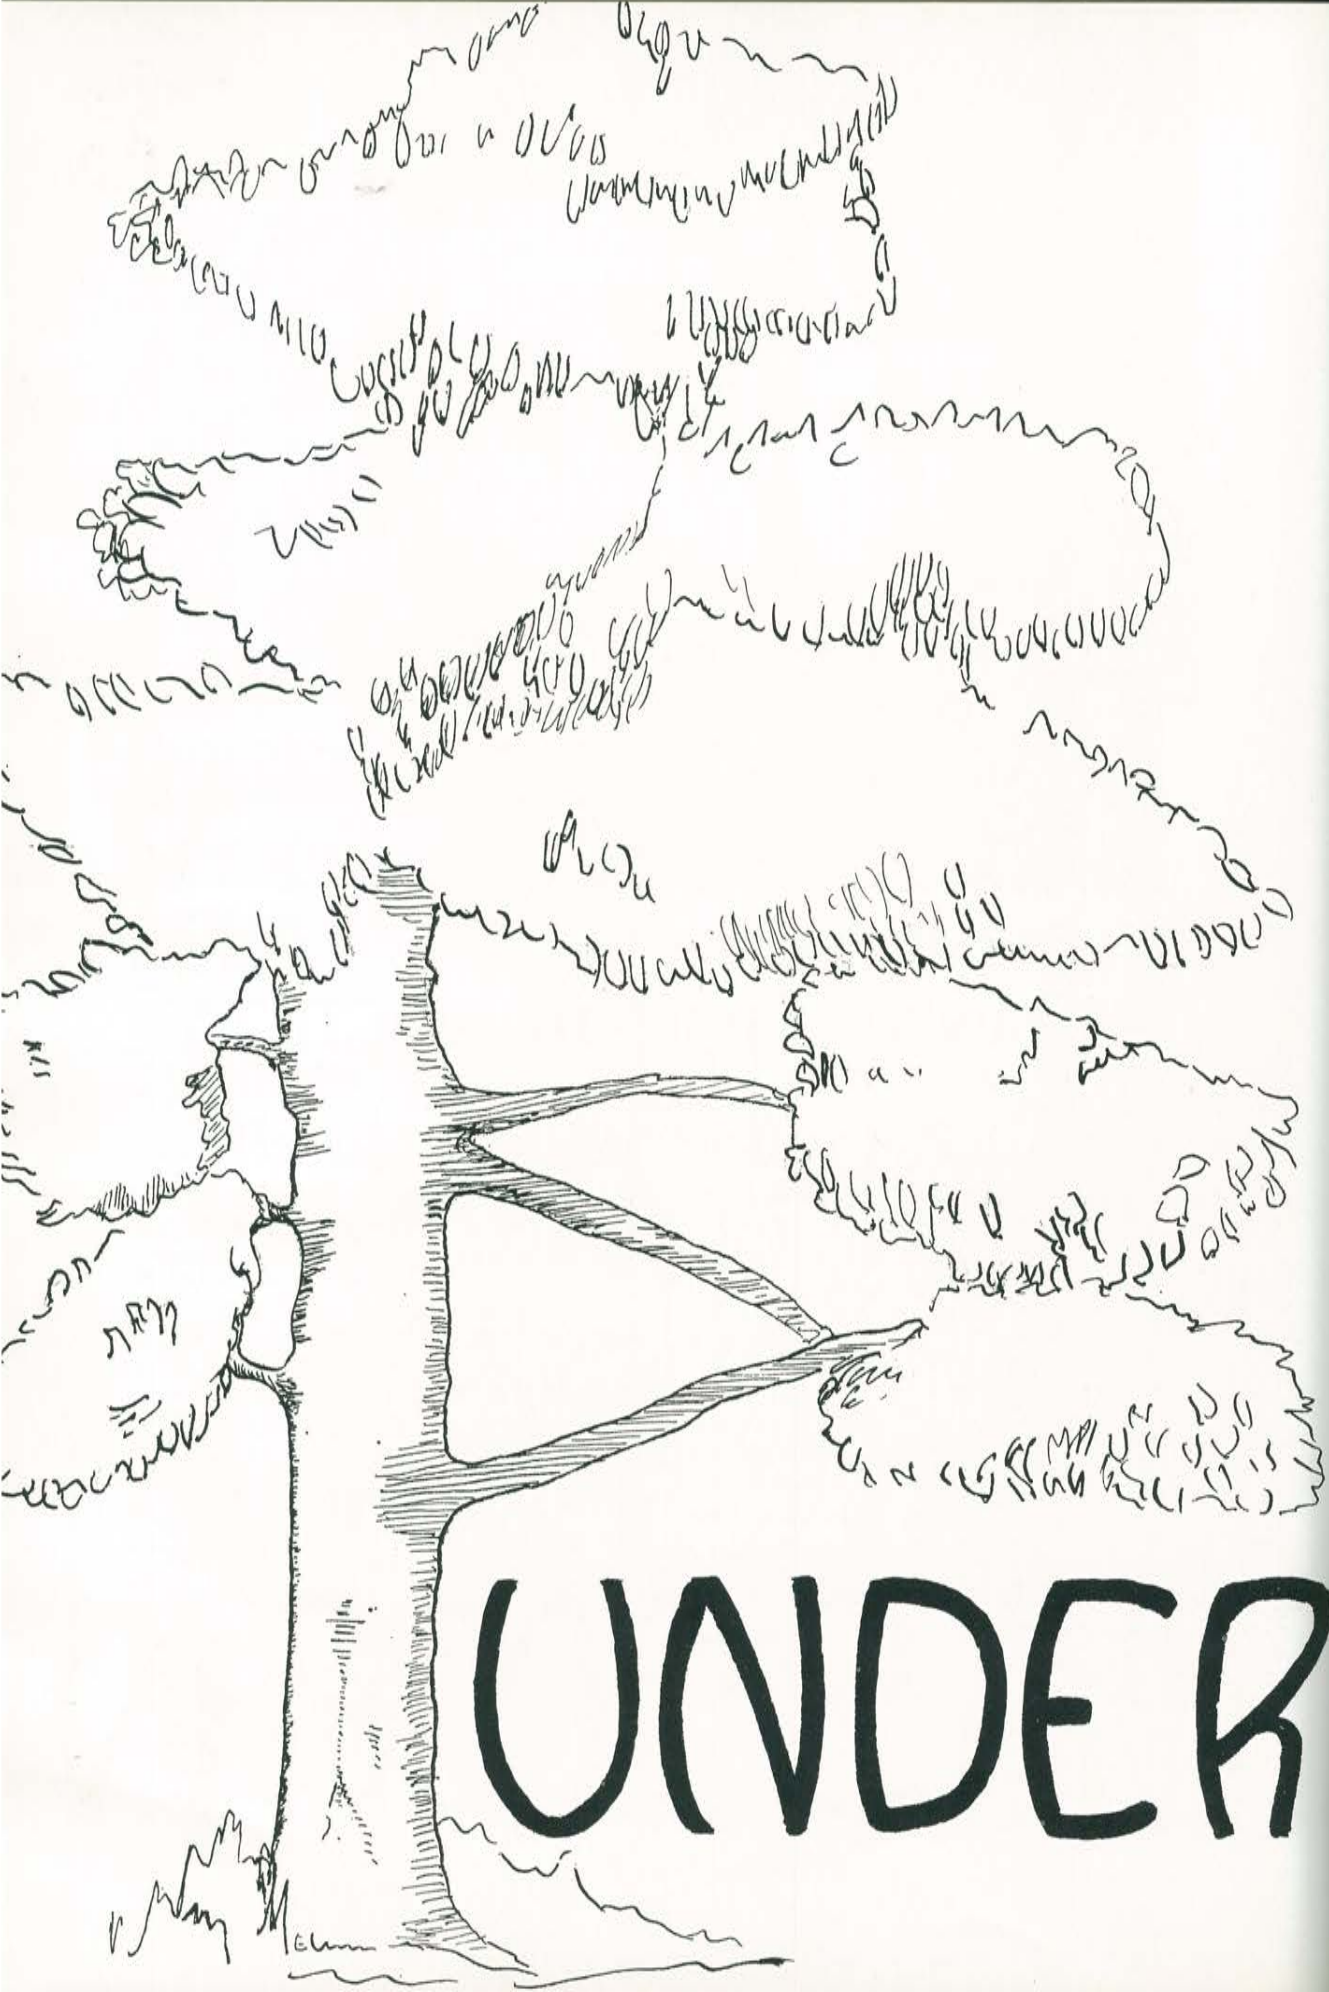

Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service are the qualifications for membership in the National Honor Society. Since 1930, the Bangor High School Chapter has been selecting students on the basis of these characteristics. Members are initiated into the Society each year at an annual assembly and banquet.

At the beginning of this year the Society voted to carry out the new project of showing newcomers around Bangor High School. Six members, Nancy Connors, Robert Foss, Clifford Larlee, JoAnn Peakes, Daniel Smith, and Mameve Stern, were chosen to assist the new students.

The National Honor Society also ushered at Teachers' Convention, promoted a Valentine Delivery Service, and conducted its annual assembly.

The officers of the Society were as follows: President, Karen Stevens; Vice-President, Betsey Brewster; Secretary, Nancy Connors; and Treasurer, Robert Foss.

CLASSMEN

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Class of 1961, under the leadership of the class officers—Neil Martin, President; Roger Lothrop, Vice President; Lois Ingeneri, Secretary; Nancy Pearson, Treasurer—made many outstanding contributions to both the scholastic and extra-curricular activities of Bangor High School.

Most notable were the participants in the speech and drama fields. At the 1960 Junior Exhibition, directed by Mrs. Barbara Browne, French Medals were presented to ten speakers. They were Fred Allen II, Stephen Dolley, Mark Kimball, Lawrence Lee, Susan McGinley, Robert Peters, Bonnie Silver, Norma Smith, Helen Trowbridge, and Yvonne Westbrook.

Three Juniors—Lynda Gaillard, Bonnie Silver and Helen Trowbridge—were members of the Debate Club.

In the One-Act Play, "Caesar and Cleopatra," Lois Ingeneri, Mark Kimball, Neil Martin, and Helen Trowbridge performed, and Sally Higgins was Stage Manager. Lois Ingeneri was placed on the list of All New England actresses.

Fred Allen and Yvonne Westbrook represented Bangor High School in the Spear Speaking Contest. Helen Trowbridge attended the University of Maine Speech-Drama Festival.

Music Department activities were ably supported by members of the Junior class. Jeanne Noyes was one of two Maine students in the All Eastern Orchestra at the Music Educators National Convention in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Participants in the All-State Festival were Angela Aloupis, Stephen Alpert, John Bragg, Fletcher Carter, Parker Denaco, Ann Downing, David Dunham, Sally Higgins, Sandra Moores, Jeanne Noyes, Joseph Raymond, and Norma Smith.

Chosen to attend Dirigo Girls' State were Angela Aloupis, Paula Christakos, Brenda King, Toby Slep, and Helen Trowbridge, with Nancy Pearson and Pamela Trojanoski as alternates. Boys' State representatives were to be David Jarvis, Mark Kimball, Lawrence Lee, Neil Martin, and William Shubert. Dale Moses was chosen as first alternate.

Neil Martin was selected as an Exchange Student to India by Pomfret Academy.

Pepping up the games were the Jayvee Cheerleaders, Pamela Gervais, Joanne Higgins, and Lynn Witherley.

Participating in matches for the Girls' Rifle Team were Dianne Cuozzo and Toby Slep. Members of the Boys' Rifle Team were George Parke, Gary Runnells, and Charles Varney.

In the Military Department, Juniors participated enthusiastically in R.O.T.C. functions with a spirited rivalry for Regimental honors. Chosen as Regimental Sergeant-Major was William Shubert. First and Second Battalion Sergeant-Majors were David Russell and Charles Varney. David Russell was elected President of the N.C.O. Club.

Editor Alan McClure, assisted by Pamela Trojanoski, directed the "Orascope" Staff in the publishing of Bangor High School news.

Mark Kimball exhibited his talents as All Bangor Nite Master of Ceremonies.

Juniors Reginald Archer, Frank Bettencourt, Louis Bohan, David Jarvis, Alan McClure, Philip McTigue, Terrance Roberson, Joel Sazin, and Richard Shaw sparked Bangor High School's athletic teams this year.

Scholastically, the class of 1961 has done very well, for eighteen Juniors are still eligible to be All Bangor Scholars.

New members of the National Honor Society from the Junior class are Lynda Gaillard, Sally Higgins, Crystal Mayo, Neil Martin, Alan McClure, Susan McGinley, Sandra Moores, Jeanne Noyes, Nancy Pearson, William Shubert, Toby Slep, Pamela Trojanoski, Helen Trowbridge.

Looking back, it would appear that 1960's Junior class incorporates great talent in many fields.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Business Education Course sophomores attended in the afternoon session while members of the other courses went in the morning. In this way the sophomore class was represented at B.H.S. all through the day, not at one session only.

The Sophomore Class was ably led by Bruce Flagg, President; Eileen O'Brien, Vice President; Andrea Eaton, Secretary; and Janet McEachern, Treasurer.

Many capable sophomores offered their talents to the Music Department. Those selected to participate in the All-State Festival were Thomas Green, Mark Kinney, and Elizabeth Trowbridge—Chorus; Peter Fergus and James Green—Band; and Eileen Grossman, Ann Lewis, Nancy McKenney, and Marjorie Todtman—Orchestra.

For their outstanding roles in sports Bruce Doughty, Bruce Flagg, Paul Newman, Leroy Patterson, Wayne Philbrook, William Pidgeon, Paul Smith, Richard Stockton, and Ronald Stratton received letters. Leroy Patterson was a familiar figure in three sports, football, basketball, and baseball.

Sophomore girls May McChesney, Sandra Larlee, and Peggy Nason were initiated into the Girls' Athletic Honor Council.

Prominent members of R.O.T.C. were Carl Anduze, Charles Brown, Thomas Green, Russell Lay, Donald McLemore, John Webber, and James Willey.

Chosen as Varsity Cheerleaders were Nancy Arnold, Susan Briggs, Sandra Larlee, and Mary Peabody. Janet Robertson was chosen as captain of the J.V. Cheerleaders; and Toni Porter, as second alternate of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad.

Elizabeth Trowbridge was one of the four candidates selected to compete for the Pomfret Academy Scholarship to India.

A great many sophomores were listed as tentative candidates for B.H.S. Scholars. They were as follows: afternoon session—Eleanor Bohan, Jean Christakos, Loretta Cross, Jerry Hillman, Brenda Miles, Pamela Pendleton, Peter Swenson; morning session—Jane Campbell, Richard Chady, Robert Chase, Linda Estes, Peter Fergus, Stephen Godsoe, Elizabeth Goodwin, Bruce Hathaway, Marsha Havey, Kathie Kazmierczak, Sandra Larlee, Daniel Libby, Janet McEachern, Donald McLemore, Gerry Page, John Perkins, Joan Raymond, Janet Robertson, Whitfield Russell, Ellyn Segal, Penelope Smith, Susan Smith, David Staples, Richard Thomas, Elizabeth Trowbridge, James Willey, and Sheldon White.

Named at the Scholarship Recognition Assembly for highest averages in their respective courses were Peter Fergus, college preparatory, and Wayne Hanson, general.

Peter Fergus also received a certificate for honors in first-year French.

The Freshman Class

Freshman Class Officers—Seated: Charles Kelley, President; Jane Atkins, Vice President; Standing: Priscilla O'Brian, Treasurer; Pamela Worcester, Secretary.

The new members of the student body this year, the Freshmen, have been welcomed by everyone and have displayed their fine ability in many fields.

The Freshmen were under the leadership of their class officers Charles Kelley, President; Jane Atkins, Vice President; Pamela Worcester, Secretary; and Priscilla O'Brien, Treasurer.

Freshmen reporters Joellyn Cohen, Edward Curran, Joseph Demaso, Laurie Hunt, and Norma Vose, who helped the Orascope staff to publish the school newspaper, gained some valuable experience in journalism.

In the field of music, fifty-two Freshman girls exhibited their talent in the Freshman Chorus. Jill Barry and Joellyn Cohen represented this organization in the Freshman Music Council, and Bernice Braveman and Ann Dresner accompanied the chorus. The girls sang at the Christmas Concert and auditioned at the Eastern Maine Music Festival in Bucksport. Freshman band members were Joel Alpert and Don Brown, trombones; Ronald Baron, Vinal Crook, Michael Dwelley, Shirley Gotlieb, Sumner Gotlieb, Milford Randall, clarinets; John Lancaster and Sheila Lynch, flutes; Eric Dolley, Morris Furrow, Walter Hess, trumpets; Austin Griffin, saxophone; Henry Goodstein, baritone; and Paul Fergus, drums. Adding their ability to the orchestra were Joellyn Cohen, Rebecca Connor, Ann Dresner, Gretchen Goodwin, Judith Higgins, and Judith Kellogg. Five of the best musicians of the Freshman Class were chosen to attend All-State Music Festival. They were Joellyn Cohen, Rebecca Connor, Paul Fergus, Judith Higgins, and Cheryl Weymouth.

Several capable swimmers, Mary Hersey, Carol Larlee, and Barbara McEvoy were instructors for swimming lessons which were given at the Y.M.C.A. Carol Larlee and Sheila Lynch were both members of the Flamingoes, a synchronized swimming group.

Jill Barry was chosen by her classmates as the March of Dimes Queen for the Freshman Class.

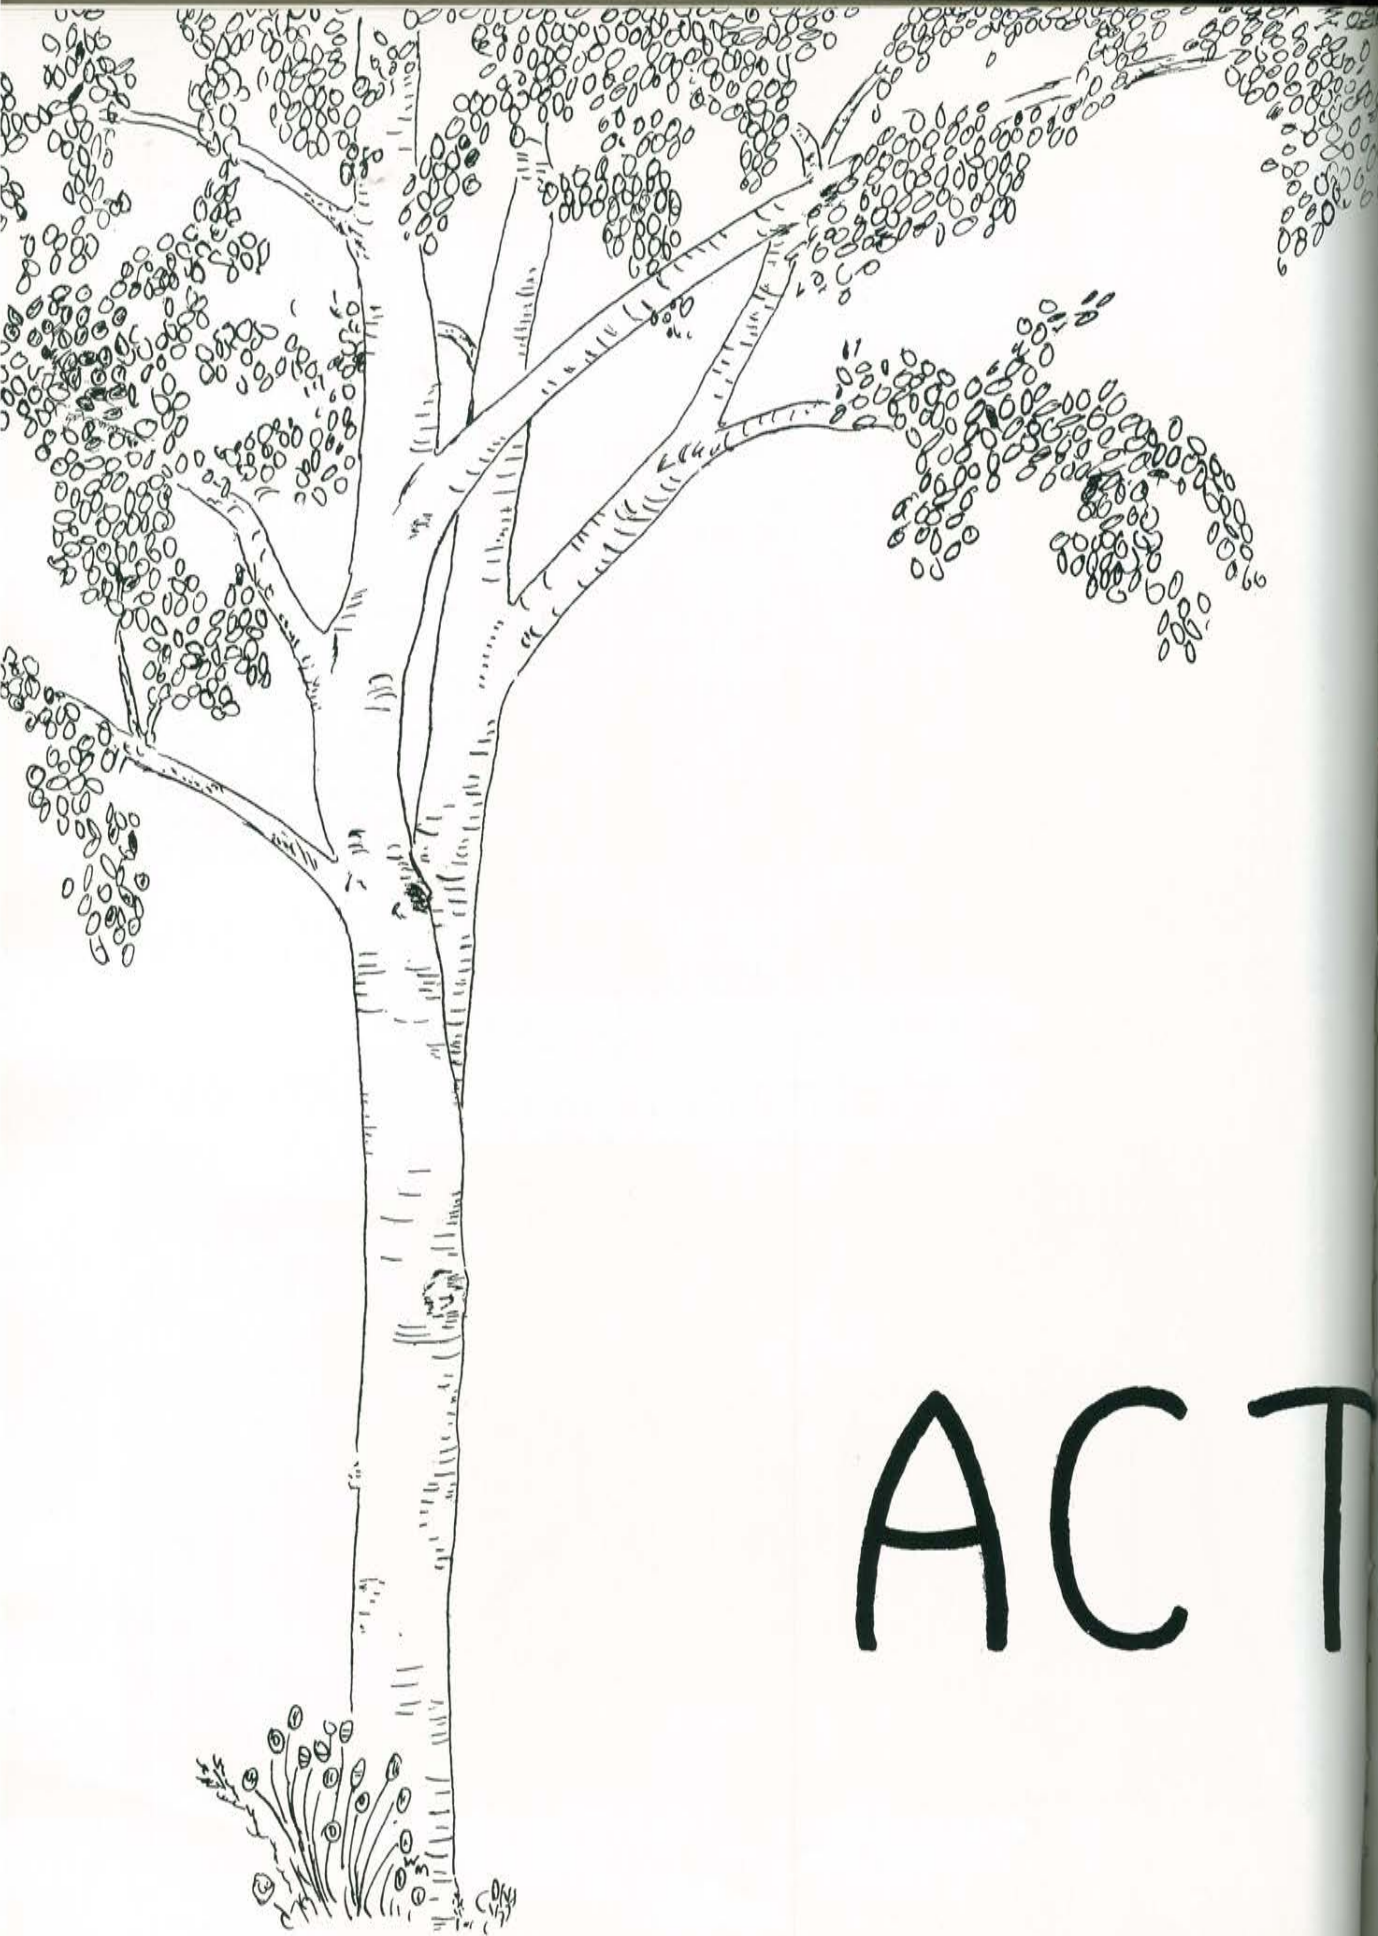

At the Scholarship Recognition Assembly, Freshmen honored for having the highest averages in their respective courses were Joseph Seigel, college preparatory; Richard Stubbs, general; and Natalie Williams, business education.

In sports many freshmen also were outstanding. Members of the winning girls' basketball team were Captain Carol Larlee, Nancy Bangs, Rebecca Connor, Jane Gailard, Judith Higgins, Linda Howard, Debra Johnson, and Barbara McEvoy. Members of the very successful boys' freshman football team were Fred Joy, Daniel Price, Richard Pullen, William McManus, Tony Triano, Edward Curran, John Babcock, George Martin, Calvin Knaide, Gerry Varney, John Ford, Edward Carr, Alan Lincoln, Leonard Shaw, Robert Hauger, Ronald Young, Richard Gibbs, Henry Goodstein, Harold Blethen, Michael Nadeau, Gerald Robertson, Steven Kalloch, Thomas Dorsky.

The fine job that the freshman basketball team did this season was due to the teammates, Greg Barrows, Bob Cohen, Eddie Curran, Dan Gooding, Steve Kalloch, Steve Leen, Jim Lerederick, Ken Lynch, Bill MacManus, Dave Rice, Tim Small, Tom Small, Bob Stockton, and Tom Young. Members of the track team were Roger Boudreau, Norman Braveman, Henry Bunker, Lee Coleman, Joseph Demaso, Tom Dorsky, John Ford, Jim Fredrick, Richard Gibbs, Harry Hasey, Ben Haskell, John Kendall, Alan Lincoln, Erwin Merrill, William Schoolcraft, Leonard Shaw, Tim Small, Tom Small, and Jerry Varney.

After starting off the year with a joint Oracle-Orascope campaign, the Bangor High School Orascope published several editions of the school newspaper in 1959-1960.

Upholding the paper's tradition, the staff kept Bangor High School students informed of all school news. Novel features such as "Skeleton Closet," "Corridor Conversation," and "Dear Ramie" were in each issue.

Miss Jessie L. Fraser was adviser to the group.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Because of the double sessions, the 1959-1960 Student Council had to overcome many problems of the new system. However, this year's group was extremely active.

The first of many projects in September was introducing new students to the B.H.S. routine. Selling bookcovers was another fall task. The Student Council held elections for the class officers early in October. In December the Council held an assembly program for the morning session students and in the spring, another assembly for the afternoon session. The group sponsored the Blizzard Ball, aided the Girls' Rifle Team, granted a charter to the Safety Council, and organized All-Bangor Nite.

The Student Council owed much of its success to the advisers, Mr. Perham Amsden and Mr. Gerald Ballanger.

The officers for the year were Lawrence Emery, President; Clifford Larlee, Vice-President; Marion Johnson, Secretary; and Sue Anderson, Treasurer.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Preparing students for a teaching career is the purpose of the Future Teachers' Club. Monthly meetings this year were devoted to talks by Bangor High School faculty members and practice teachers from the University of Maine. Several movies on the teaching profession were also shown.

Special activities of the club included an exchange visit with the Old Town FTA group, a record hop in February, and an ushering service at the annual Parents' Night. Several members also experimented in practice teaching at local elementary schools.

Club officers are Patricia Vose, President; Peter Mosher, Vice President; Suzanne Anderson, Secretary; and James Beaver, Treasurer.

The advisers were Miss Ruth Belknap and Mr. Perham Amsden.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

One of many chapters comprising the national organization, the Bangor High School Future Homemakers of America has a program based on the "Blueprint for Action."

The goals of this program are to develop potential abilities, to develop a better understanding of family members and to contribute to their welfare, to interpret the value of home economics as a basic part of the total education, and to promote good will by getting to know people both here and abroad.

At a candlelight ceremony in October the following officers were installed: President, Patricia Vose; Vice President, Norma Patterson; Secretary, Helen Pomeroy; Treasurer, Shirley Alexander; Parliamentarian, Suzanne Anderson; Historian, Darlene Miles; Reporter, Charlotte Gopan; and Recreation Chairman, Dorothy Melvin.

Patricia Vose served as discussion leader and Andrea Salter was elected secretary at a district convention in November. Other F.H.A. members who attended the convention were Dorothy Melvin, Claudette Lindsay, and Norma Patterson.

The girls also established a point system to provide an incentive to serve the club, school, and community.

The program, "Christmas Around the World," concerned with food, games, and traditions of foreign nations, was presented in December.

April 30, F.H.A. members attended the state convention. On May 20 they presented their annual fashion show for parents and students.

OUTING CLUB

Second row: Capt. John L. Spencer, Adviser; Bruce McLaughlin, Jack Dunn, Randy Ayooob, Joe Tara, John Robbins, John Perkins, Robert Kellogg.

Three years ago interest in skiing at Bangor High School was at a level sufficient to warrant the development of a ski club. The members joined together for the purpose of organizing ski trips and promoting interest in skiing at Bangor High. This year the club name was changed to the Bangor High School Outing Club. The main function became the promotion of winter sports for the outdoor enthusiast. Every other week during the year, the club was able to obtain excellent ski movies from the Penobscot Valley Ski Club. A meeting place for the club, the National Guard Armory on Union Street, was secured by the club's adviser, Capt. John L. Spencer, Jr. In February many members of the club took a day trip to Sugarloaf Mountain.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Second row: Carol Craig, Bonnie Geikie, Sharon Hurd, Eleanor Seavey, and Miss Paulene Dunn, Adviser.

Nearly all of the library assistants are former members of the Library Club. This year no club was organized and the girls have had no regular meetings. The one social gathering was a supper party at the home of Eleanor Seavey, March 30.

The girls have written and delivered library notices, slipped and shelved books, taken charge of the desk, worked on exhibits, and rendered service to the library in countless other ways.

DEBATE CLUB

Activities of the Debate Club this year have been challenging and varied. In November the entire Debate Club attended a discussion and debate clinic at the University of Maine. At the clinic the club had an opportunity to hear a college demonstration of a debate, a four-member panel speaking on the labor issue topic, and several secondary schools in practice debates.

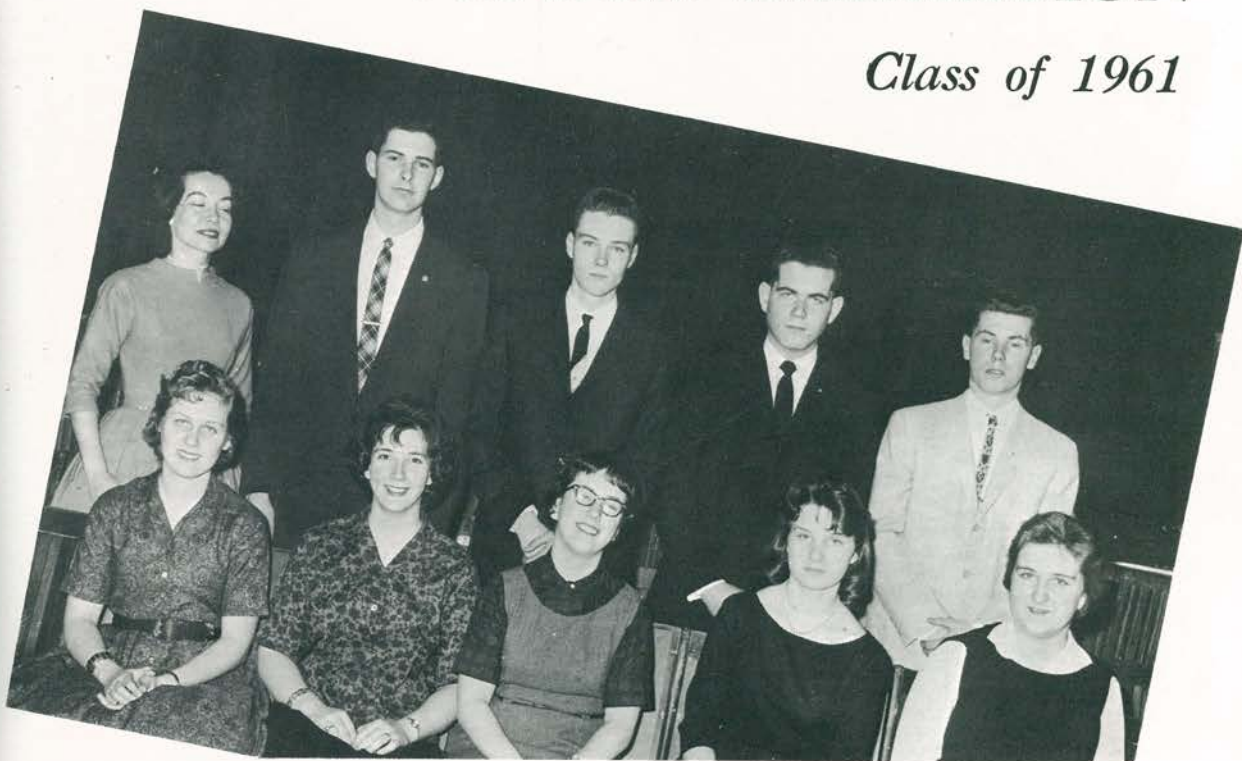

The Kiwanis Club invited the debaters to an informal debate, in January, at which Steven Buck brought credit to Bangor High School with his presentation against Brewer. Later that month practice debates were exchanged with Brewer High School.

In February, B.H.S. was one of 76 teams from New England to compete in the annual University of Maine Tournament. The three teams took two wins and two defeats. In March the Bates Interscholastic Debating League held its regional tournament.

Club officers were Steven Buck, president; Helen Trowbridge, vice-president; Sheila Striar, secretary; and Lynda Gaillard, treasurer. The club adviser was Mrs. Geraldine Mandigo.

JUNIOR EXHIBITION

Second row: Mrs. Barbara Browne, Stephen Dolley, Lawrence Lee, Robert Peters, Mark Kimball.

The Class of 1961 held its Junior Exhibition in the Bangor High School Auditorium April 1. The Junior Chorus and the Orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey and M. Manning Atherton, respectively, furnished the musical part of the evening. Coached by Mrs. Barbara M. Browne, the ten speakers gave the following selections: Fred Allen, "The Ballad of John Henry," author unknown; Stephen Dolley, a cutting from "How To Be a Doctor" by Leacock; Mark Kimball, a cutting from "Ol' Man Adam" by Bradford; Lawrence Lee, a cutting from "Love Is a Fallacy" by Schulman; Susan McGinley, "Chicago" by Sandburg; Robert Peters, "David and Goliath" from the Bible, Samuel II; Bernice Silver, a cutting from "Ile" by O'Neill; Helen Trowbridge, a cutting from "Through the Looking Glass" by Carroll; Yvonne Westbrook, a cutting from "The Last Hour of Beatrice" by Shelley; and Norma Smith, a cutting from "The Importance of Being Earnest" by Wilde.

At the end of the evening Mr. Dana M. Simmons, Principal, presented each speaker with a Charles E. French medal.

Caesar (Michael Robson) comforts Cleopatra (Lois Ingeneri).

1960 brought forth, as in 1959, another Bangor High School spectacular one-act play. This year George Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," scored a total hit. In the regional, state, and New England competitions, Bangor High School walked away with top billing.

The excellent direction of Mrs. Barbara M. Browne transformed a twenty-minute cutting into a vividly alive play. So impressed were the judges at the New England Drama Festival held in Westbrook, that they unanimously declared the B.H.S. play "excellent" and placed Lois Ingeneri among the roster of All New England Actresses.

The sound effects, lighting, makeup, sets, costumes, and acting were all polished to perfection.

The cast was as follows: Caesar, Michael Robson; Cleopatra, Lois Ingeneri; Flatateeta, Helen Trowbridge; Romans, Steven Buck, Mark Kimball, and Peter Mosher.

Backstage were Rebecca Benoit, Steven Dolley, Charlotte Copan, Sally Higgins, and Elizabeth Trowbridge.

SPEECH-DRAMA

Outstanding as ever, the Bangor High School Speech-Drama Department has had a triumphant year. With the fine coaching of Mrs. Barbara M. Browne and the talent of the students, Bangor High School dramatics have received much acclaim.

The students participated in several speech activities this year. In the fall, Jane Dunn and Mameve Stern won the school Voice of Democracy contests. Later in the season, Exana Arango and Mameve Stern participated in the My True Security competition. In the annual Spear Speaking Contest, Yvonne Westbrook and Frederick Allen represented B. H. S. Fred brought great honor to his school by winning first prize. At the State Speech-Drama Festival held at the University of Maine, Susan McGinley and Helen Trowbridge were awarded medals as "superior" speakers.

Also, as a community service, students provided programs for the Athene Club, Quipus Club, Lionettes, Hadassah Donor Dinner, St. Michael's Children's Home, Bangor Children's Home, and the Staples Class of First Universalist Church.

 Third row: Jane Dickson, Carol Melvin, Pamela Worcester, Mary Hull, Deborah Boles, Brenda Bickford, Carolyn Patten, Judy MacLeod, Barbara McEvoy.

FRESHMAN GIRLS' CHORUS

Because of double sessions, Bangor High School was able to have a Freshman Girls' Chorus for the first time in many years. This chorus, along with the other choral groups of the school, presented several selections at the Christmas Concert and auditioned at the Eastern Maine Music Festival held in Bucksport, Maine, on May 7. The girls were under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey and were accompanied by Bonnie Braveman and Ann Dresner.

ALTOS —

Second row: Mrs. Myrle Coffey, Jeanne Noyes, Gaye Conklin, Kath Kazmierczak, Judith Johnson, Jane Silver, Myrna Spencer, Carole Smith, Gloria Tozier, Genevieve Lancaster, Sheila Johnson, Andrea Eaton, Marie Hersey, Rosanne Craig.

Third row: Carol Hanson, Jane Harriman, Brenda Wagner, Beth Smart, Kay Susan Allaire, Jeanne Violette, Sheila Allen, Judith Stone, Susan Files, Susanne Sargent, Beverly Harriman, Margaret Libby, Daryl Ann Grant, Maryann Crowell.

Throughout the year, the members of the Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey, pleased many audiences with their fine singing. The girls' accompanist was Molly St. Lawrence.

At the annual Christmas Concert the girls presented several selections including "In Bethlehem's Lowly Manger" with a solo by Elizabeth Trowbridge. The group also participated in the Bangor-Brunswick Exchange Concerts and the Eastern Maine Music Festival at Bucksport in May.

Second row: Sharon McCaughey, Penny Smith, Ann Downing, Suzanne Stone, Susanne Watson, Pamela Trojanoski, Susan McInnis, Mrs. Myrle Coffey.

Third row: Elizabeth Buckley, Cynthia Dearborn, JoAnne Higgins, Marcia Berson, Christine Prince, JoAnn Peakes, Nancy Pearson.

Second row: Eileen Grossman, Eileen O'Brien, Norma Smith, Sharon Dauphinee, Susan McGinley, Paula Rolsky, Betsey Brewster, Ellen Segal, Phyllis Berger, Mrs. Myrle Coffey.

BOYS' CHORUS

Fine singing of the Boys' Chorus contributed much to the Christmas Concert, the Bangor-Brunswick Exchange, and the Eastern Maine Music Festival. Several members of the group attended All State at Houlton. The boys, an outstanding music group at B.H.S., are under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey and assisted by Andrea Eaton, accompanist.

Second row: Richard Grotton, Thomas White, Michael Robson, Mark Kinney, Peter Polk, Arthur Bearce.

MIXED DOUBLE QUARTET

Second row: Fletcher Carter, Joseph Raymond, Michael Robson, David Swett.

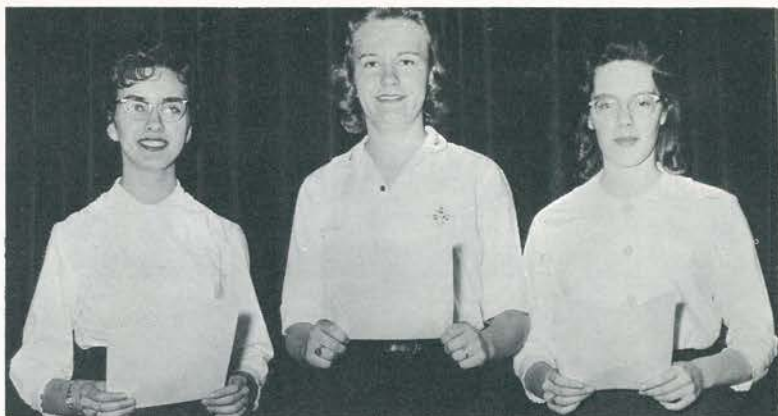

MIXED CHORUS

Under the direction of Mrs. Myrle Coffey and accompanied by Andrea Eaton and Nancy Pearson, the Mixed Chorus, consisting of the Girls' and Boys' choruses, participated in many choral activities during the school year. Following an annual tradition, the group sang selections at the Christmas Concert and also at the Christmas Assembly. One of the highlights of the year was an exchange concert with the Brunswick chorus. On March 25, a concert, consisting of several numbers by each chorus and two combined selections, was held at Vine Street School. A repeat performance of this program was given in Brunswick in May. Also in May, the mixed chorus, along with the other musical organizations of B.H.S., traveled to Bucksport to audition for the Eastern Maine Music Festival.

Fourteen members of the chorus represented Bangor High in the chorus of the All-State Music Festival, held in Houlton, Maine, April 6-9. They were Angela Aloupis, Fletcher Carter, Judith Ernst, Thomas Green, Sally Higgins, Mark Kinney, Pamela Lancaster, Sandra Moores, JoAnn Peakes, Joseph Raymond, Michael Robson, Beth Smart, David Swett, and Elizabeth Trowbridge.

Also singing at the Christmas Concert and many other school and city functions was the Mixed Double Quartet, consisting of eight members of the Mixed Chorus and accompanied by Andrea Eaton.

The Girls' Trio, with Pamela Lancaster, Pamela Trojanoski, and Beth Ann Smart, sang at many Bangor clubs during the year; they also had parts in the Christmas assembly and concert.

Adding a lively note to football games, basketball games, and assemblies, the Bangor High School Band has been constantly active. They have played at the Christmas Concert and at the Eastern Maine Music Festival. The height of the season was the exchange concerts with Millinocket Band on March 26 and April 2. Eight members of the B.H.S. Band were chosen to play in the All-State Band on April 6-9. They were Stephen Alpert, John Bragg, Parker Denaco, David Dunham, Peter Fergus, James Green, Louis Perkins, and Susanne Watson.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

Cd/Sgt. Lawrence Lee inspects arms.

Cd/Lt. Col. Daniel Smith briefs officers on plans for Military Ball.

With the arrival of Captain John L. Spencer, Jr., Professor of Military Science and Tactics, the organization of the R.O.T.C. regiment was changed. Captain Spencer, with the able assistance of M/Sgt. Byron Hart and SFC James Redmond, gave the students more responsibility in teaching classes and drilling the corps.

In April, M/Sgt. Paul C. Sutherland was transferred. Sgt. Sutherland was responsible for much of the success of the groups he had trained.

OFFICERS' CLUB

Sponsoring a dance, publishing a yearbook, and editing a scrapbook of the history of military training at Bangor High School were among the main activities of the Officers' Club during 1959-1960. The highlight of the year was the Military Ball when Miss Janice Weymouth was crowned queen. The finalists of the twenty-four girls chosen by the cadets in the ROTC Regiment were Nancy Arnold, Susan Briggs, Mary Peabody, Sandra Sneed, Karen Stevens, and Janice Weymouth. During intermission at the dance, commanding officers passed their sabres to the respective NCO counterparts.

Captain John L. Spencer, Jr., was adviser for the club. Officers were Lt. Col. Daniel Smith, President; Lt. Col. Allen Tozier, Vice President; 1st Lt. Richard St. Clair, Secretary; and 1st Lt. Richard Cunningham, Treasurer.

Captain John L. Spencer, Jr., posts latest promotions.

SURVIVAL TRAINING

Second row: Arthur Bearce, Philip Provost, Allen Tozier, Wayne Howard.

Third row: Richard Cunningham, Francis Young, Donald Hastings.

For the first time this year a group of ROTC students went to Dow AFB's Survival Training Area at Pickeral Pond. The students learned how to make a shelter from boughs, how to start a fire with damp wood, and how to set traps for food, among other important things. Everyone who went agreed that it was an unforgettable experience.

Captain John L. Spencer, Jr., PMS&T of BHS; T/Sgt. William Tuttle, Survival Training instructor from Dow AFB; and SFC James Redmond accompanied the group of eleven cadets on this trip.

T/Sgt. William Tuttle, Arthur Bearce, SFC James Redmond, Philip Provost, Wayne Howard, and Allen Tozier discuss camping methods.

N. C. O. CLUB

Second row: SFC Gary Runnells, SFC Mark Kimball, Sgt. William Bickford, SFC Robert Ruhlin, Corp. Douglas Parker, Sgt. Karson Pratt, and Corp. Charles Rogers.

Starting proceedings to purchase Regimental Crests was the major project of the N.C.O. Club. This crest, to be worn on the uniform of each cadet, will be of the design of the corps. Other projects included holding a record hop to raise money to purchase the crests and acquiring name tags for all the non-commissioned officers. The club also helped to organize a party in honor of M/Sgt. Paul Sutherland who left Bangor High School in April.

Club officers were David Russell, president; Dale Moses, vice-president; Larry Lee, secretary; and Charles Varney, treasurer.

Second row: Sgt. Byron Hart, Connie Greene, Marjorie Knaide, Althea Currier, Janice Madore, Elizabeth Buckley, Mary Bamford, Brenda King, Sharon Jordan, Mrs. Doris Piatak.

Third row: Bonnie Keyser, Pamela Perkins, Norma Patterson, Joyce Evans, Betty Smith, Patricia Henderson, Joanne Noon, Billie Cushman.

STETSONETTES

Dressed in their colorful uniforms, the Stetsonettes Drill Team performed at various activities during the 1959-1960 school year. The team first drilled at half-time during the Bangor-Brewer basketball game at the new Bangor Auditorium. The girls were received with much enthusiasm by the large crowd attending the game. In February the group traveled to Waterville to entertain the fans during the half-time of the Bangor-Waterville game. Before the end of the season, several more drilling engagements took place.

Thirty members composed the drill team this year. Under the direction of M/Sgt. Byron Hart, the girls practiced every Tuesday and Thursday at the Army Reserve Center on Union Street. The drill leader for the team was Gertrude Lawrence, who was also president of the group. Vicki Hurd was secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Doris Piatak was the faculty adviser.

First row, left to right: M/Sgt. Paul C. Sutherland, adviser; 1st Lt. Richard Cunningham, 1st Lt. Francis Young, Corp. Charles Saindon, M/Sgt. William Shubert, Col. Philip Provost, Lt. Col. Daniel Smith, SFC Dale Moses, M/Sgt. David Russell, Corp. Kenneth Herring, Corp. Russell Lay, PFC Wilbert Mann.

STETSONS

Acclaimed by many this year, the precision drill of the Stetson Rifles was a credit to B.H.S. The team marched at several basketball games, at a Y.M. C.A. dance, on several occasions at Dow Air Force Base Service Club, and in two parades. The Stetsons had their annual banquet at which the team presented their coach, M/Sgt. Paul C. Sutherland, with a gift.

The elected officers were president, Daniel Smith; vice-president, Philip Provost; secretary, Dale Moses; and treasurer, Theodore Jellison.

BOYS' RIFLE TEAM

Second row: S.F.C. James Redman, Paul Ogilvie, Neil Stronach, Robert Thomas, Wayne Hanson.

For the second consecutive year the Bangor High School Boys' Rifle Team captured top honors in the Pine Tree Junior Rifle League. They brought home the Portland Sunday Telegram Trophy and placed second at the National Rifle Association Sectional tournament in Portland.

This year's team was coached by M/Sgt. Paul C. Sutherland and S.F.C. James Redmond.

The officers were president, Frank Young; vice president, Charles Varney; secretary, Theodore Jellison; and treasurer, Philip Provost.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM

Second row: Gail Sawyer, Sharon Beede, Elizabeth Simpson, Dorothy Melvin, Sandra Connors.

Throughout the 1959-60 school year the Girls' Rifle Team practiced regularly each Monday. M/Sgt. Byron Hart supervised the sessions held at the United States Army Reserve on Union Street. The team consisted of ten members who competed at the meet with Gloucester High, Gloucester, Massachusetts.

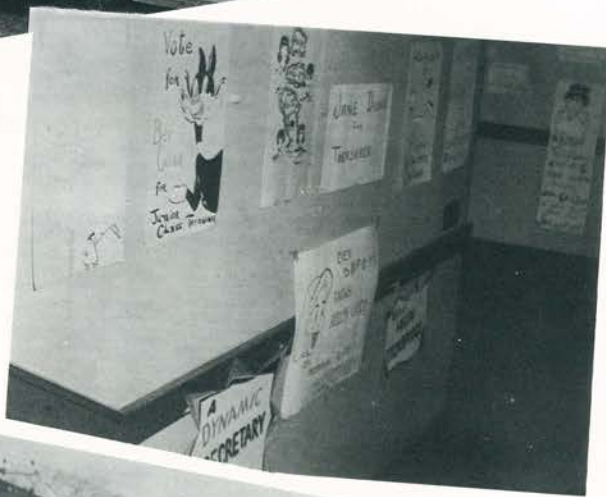

The following officers were elected: Toby Slep, president; Diane Cuzzo, secretary; and Pamela Perkins, treasurer.

Obtaining membership in the Bangor "B" Club is the goal of every sports-minded boy. To become a member, he must fulfill the requirements for any of the six sports offered at Bangor High School. These sports are football and cross-country in the fall, basketball and skiing in the winter, and baseball and track in the spring. Once having been accepted to the club, the new member receives one of the familiar maroon and white "B" jackets or "B" sweaters. The club is constantly trying to improve both the players' and spectators' participation in Bangor High School sports.

Standing: John Webber, Whitfield Russell, Mark Kinney, Coach Vincent Cuozzo, Robert Barker, Thomas Vanidestine, Karson Pratt, Assistant Manager Marvin Glazier.

Coached by Mr. Vincent Cuozzo, the 1959 Bangor Ram Cross-Country squad enjoyed a fine year. The team ended the regular season with a 6-2-1 record.

During the course of the season, Bangor defeated Old Town, Howland, Ellsworth, Orono, Brewer, Schenck, and the University of Maine Frosh. The tie was with Sumner of East Sullivan.

The Rams finished a close second to Houlton in the Regionals. In the state meet Bangor placed fourth in the field of fifteen teams.

The Ram harriers were paced by Frank Bettencourt, Alan McClure, Allan Parker, Joe Raymond, Mike Robson, Jim Smith, and John Thompson. Top Ram finishers in the state meet were Robson and Smith, who finished eighth and tenth, respectively.

The Jayvees finished their season with a mark of one win and five losses. Ellsworth was the lone victim of the junior Rams. J.V. runners were Bob Barker, Mark Kinney, Kit Pratt, Whit Russell, Tom Vanidestine, and John Webber.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Under the capable guidance of head coach Gerry Hodge and line coach Al "Bobo" Martin, the 1959 Bangor Rams football team finished with a fine 5-3 record. Conquered by Rumford, Deering, and Portland in their first three games, the Rams then settled down to win the remaining five.

An inspired Ram squad, led by Leroy Patterson's three touchdowns, shut out Waterville in the fourth game of the season by a 27-0 score.

Gardiner was the next Ram victim, bowing 34-7 as Dick Shaw and Leroy Patterson ripped off long gains and Chip Larlee fired a nine-yard touchdown pass to Tom Pappas.

Bangor's third straight victory came at the expense of Cony, 21-6. The game was played in rain and high winds at Augusta.

The Rams then bombed John Bapst 32-0 in the mud at Garland field. The Crusaders were thoroughly outclassed as Bangor picked up their 23rd win in 32 meetings between the teams.

The climax of the season occurred at the annual Veterans' Day encounter with Brewer. The Rams wrapped up the inter-city championship with a 33-6 win over the Witches. The victory was paced by seniors Chip Larlee, Tom Pappas, Dick Price, and Co-Captain Bill Bailey. Sophomore Wayne Philbrick repeatedly blasted through the Brewer line to throw the Witch ball carriers for a big loss. Lou Bohan, Dave Dunham, Dave Jarvis, and Terry Roberson did a fine job opening up holes for the Ram runners.

After losing their first three games, the 1959 Bangor Rams football team came to life to rack up five straight victories. In their first outings, the Rams lost by decisive margins to Rumford, Deering, and Portland. After these losses, the Rams hit the win trail by shutting out Waterville, 27-0. From this point on, the Rams could do no wrong. They climaxed the season taking the inter-city championship, by tromping both John Bapst and Brewer.

Much of the Ram success in the last five games was due to the fine defense unit, the Rangoons. Led by the defensive captain, Terry Roberson, the Rangoons held their last five opponents to a total of 19 Points. Bangor yielded 83 points in the first three games alone. Key men on this squad were Co-Captain Terrence Roberson, Wayne Philbrook, Richard Trott, Paul Newman, Charles Eaton, Clifford Larlee, Larry Homsted, Richard Price, and Thomas Pappas.

Coach Roger Miles' Freshman football team finished the season with a mark of one win against five setbacks. Although they won only one game, the boys gained valuable experience to be used in future roles on the B.H.S. varsity.

The Frosh began the season with a 13-6 loss to the Bangor J.V.'s. The young Rams next fell to the Brewer Frosh, 19-0, as the Witches scored all their points in the first half.

The Rams' lone victory came at the expense of the Bucksport Frosh, 6-0. Following the blanking of Bucksport, the Frosh lost to the Bangor J.V.'s by the identical score of the first game, 13-6.

Brewer and Bucksport were the final Frosh opponents on the schedule. Both clubs pulled out narrow decisions over the Rams.

SKI TEAM

Very ably coached by Capt. John L. Spencer and M/Sgt. James Redmond, the Bangor High School Ski Team collected its first victory by taking all three places in every event to out-ski Stearns of Millinocket, and Lee Academy of Lincoln in a tri-meet.

The following weekend the team entered the Eastern Maine Ski Championships and after a brilliant fight settled for third place out of nine competitors. The Skiers lost a third meet to M.C.I. of Pittsfield by a fraction of a point. On March 13th they entered the Golden Skis at Bald Mt., skiing against top eastern Maine college and high school competition. After falls by three of its racers, the team once again bowed to a stronger M.C.I. team.

The Rams skiers were strong in both Nordic and Alpine events as against an unbalanced team two years ago. The team also had enough people tryout to warrant sponsoring a junior varsity team. This group gave much-needed racing experience to beginners.

Next year's team will be relying on the talents of returning skiers Bruce McLaughlin, Pete Haney, and some of the J.V. skiers. They will lose Tykie Melvin and Jack Dunn, the two top four-event men.

J. V. BASKETBALL

Coached by Al Martin, the Jayvees compiled a seasonal record of six wins and ten defeats. The squad, primarily made up of sophomores, played many action packed games prior to the varsity games.

The purpose of Jayvee basketball is to provide future varsity hoopsters and to enable the younger players to gain experience under actual game conditions.

An oddity occurred this year in that every game which the Jayvees won was followed by a varsity victory. The junior Rams won games from Houlton, Stearns, Bangor Frosh, Waterville, and twice from Ellsworth.

The Jayvees were led by the hard-driving play of Louis Bohan and Wayne Philbrick. Phil McIntire was a steady player who always picked up a few rebounds. Frank Bettencourt and Whit Russell were the playmakers who could score when the chips were down.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

In November Coach Frederick "Red" Barry was faced with a squad stripped of experienced players because of graduation. Only one letterman, Dick Shaw, remained from the New England finalists of the previous year. The problem which confronted Coach Barry and his assistant Gordon Smith was to find a winning combination. The 7-10 record turned in by the Ram cagers indicates that this combination didn't jell for any long period of time.

The Rams started out slowly, winning only two of their first eight games. One of these victories was a decisive win over highly-rated Concord, N. H., by a 58-45 score.

About midway through the season, Bangor picked up three big wins in a row by conquering Waterville, Ellsworth, and Stearns. These wins were not enough, however, to enable the team to gain a berth in the tournament.

Sophomore Leroy Patterson led the Rams in nearly every department. He was high scorer in almost every game and also hauled down innumerable rebounds. Rugged Dick Shaw was another who grabbed many bounces off the boards.

Aivars Knuble, a hard-working senior, possessed a good scoring touch for the Rams. A fine ball handler, Charlie Eaton, was also a real worker on defense. Al McClure played a major role in the Ram victories.

Ronnie Stratton and Bill Pidgeon, a couple of hustling sophomores, stepped capably into starting assignments many times during the season.

Behind these first seven men were Harry Bridgham, Jon Dauphinee, Phil McTigue, Paul Newman, and Gordon Titcomb.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Sparked by all-round teamwork, the Bangor Frosh gained a tie in the newly formed Penobscot Valley Freshman Conference. Coach Roger Miles, in his first year at Bangor High, guided the team to a fine 7-3 record. In addition to the regular schedule, before the Bangor-Houlton game the Frosh played the Bangor J.V.'s and lost 43-27.

Needing only a victory in their last game against winless Ellsworth to bring about a three-way tie, the Frosh handily whipped the Eagles, 64-28. By winning this final game, the Rams overtook Old Town, who led the conference all season, and Orono. Brewer's victory over Old Town in their last game enabled the young Rams to gain a tie.

High scorers Bob Cohen, Danny Gooding, and Tom Young sparked the Rams all season. The fine play of Ken Lynch fired the team to many victories. Jim Frederick and Steve Kalloch were big rebounding factors. Playmakers Greg Barrows and Bill McManus settled the team down when the going got rough, and both could score when things looked bad.

The initial year of the P.V.F.C. was one of many surprises and of good balance.

The Bangor Ram baseball squad, at the time of this writing, has not completed its schedule. Under the guidance of Coach Frederick "Red" Barry, the Rams have won three games and dropped only two close contests.

Ram veterans who returned from last year's team form the nucleus of the squad. These players include "Ace" Shindler, a capable man with both bat and glove; Phil McTigue and Joe Sazin, the solid hitting left side of the Ram infield; Lou Bohan, the hustling catcher and sparkplug of the Rams; and Al McClure, the southpaw hurler with a wide assortment of pitches. Top sophomores who moved into starting berths are Bruce Doughty, Paul Newman, Leroy Patterson, and Ronnie Stratton.

BASEBALL

The Bangor Rams Baseball Team, under Coach Frederick "Red" Barry, began the season in fine fashion by rolling over John Bapst, 9-3. While southpaw Al McClure held the Crusaders to two harmless singles, the Rams banged out fourteen hits to pile up a substantial number of runs.

Bangor took the lead for good in the big run fourth inning which was climaxed by Joe Sazin's bases loaded single. The Rams put the game on ice with a four run rally in the eighth inning. Ace Shindler led Bangor at the plate with four hits in five trips while Joe Sazin, Al McClure, and Ron Stratton all had a pair of hits.

In the next outing, the Rams were held to four hits by Brewer's Danny Coombs as they fell in a tight three-two game. Al McClure again pitched for Bangor and lost the fine pitching duel in the seventh when the Witches pushed across the only earned run of the game. Brewer picked up six hits against the left-handed slants of McClure.

Old Town was the next Ram victim as Al McClure fired a no-hitter at the Indians. McClure struck out 13 men on the way to his 7-inning masterpiece. The final score was 4-0. Paul Newman, Lou Bohan, and Francis Richards got the only three hits of the game for either team.

Lefty Bill Pidgeon pitched the next game for the Rams as they fell to Ellsworth by a 7-3 score. Bangor got two hits in this game, both by Pidgeon.

TRACK

Second row: Coach G. Vincent Cuozzo, Whitfield Russell, John Gilbert, Thomas Shaffer, Bruce Flagg, John Perkins, Manager David Staples.

Third row: David Dunham, Richard Shaw, Robert Barber, Garland Strang, Alan Sollien, John Burns.

Absent: Donald Dyer, Eric Hunter, Douglas Kinney, Kenneth Maher, Robert Newman, Michael Robson.

Track Coach Norman "Cy" Perkins was faced with a rather thin squad in the spring of 1960. He had only two lettermen, juniors Reggie Archer and Dick Shaw, with whom to form the nucleus of the team. Reggie Archer was an important point getter in the sprints, in the high jump, and especially in the broad jump. Dick Shaw was a key weightman, who also was the top high jumper on the Ram squad.

Ram sprinters included Bruce Flagg, Dick Green, Norm Kominsky, and Ken Maker. These sprinters, along with Dick Trott, also participated in the broad jump. Trott also was the key man in the hurdles for Bangor.

Middle and long distance runners were Bob Barker, Don Dyer, John Gilbert, Allan Parker, John Perkins, Joe Raymond, Mike Robson, and Alan Sollien.

The Ram weightmen were led by Dave Dunham, Wayne Philbrick, Terry Roberson, and Dick Shaw. The Ram thinclads picked up many important points in the shotput, discus, and javelin.

TRACK RECORD AND SCHEDULE

May 5 — Bangor 24	Colby Frosh	76
	Portland	22
	Waterville	21
May 17 — Bangor 10	Maine Frosh	117
May 20 — Bangor	M.C.I. Preppers
May 27 — Waterville and Winslow
June 4 — State Meet at Brunswick

(Later scores not available as Oracle goes to press.)

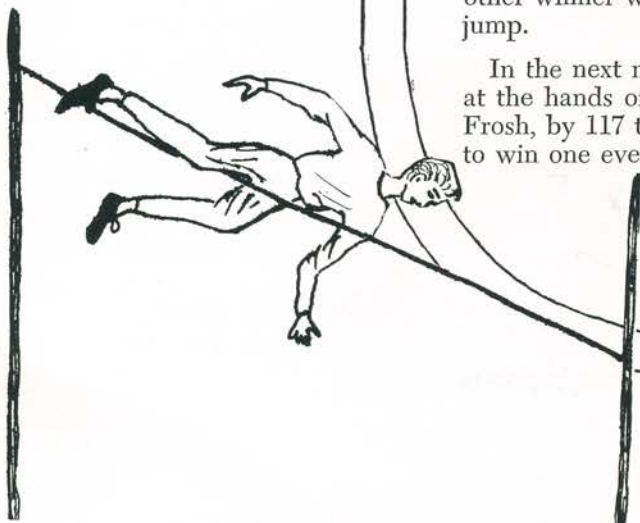

The Bangor Ram Track Squad began the season with the annual Interclass Meet on April 27-28. The juniors, with 119½ points soundly tromped the seniors, 49 points, and the sophomores, who had 22½ points. Individual stars for the juniors were Dick Trott, who scored 27 points, including four first places, and Reggie Archer, who grabbed two firsts and three seconds for 22 points. Mike Robson was the outstanding performer for the senior team. Robson scored 20½ points, as he won both the mile and the half-mile.

In the first competition against other schools, the Rams traveled to Waterville for a quadrangular meet against the Colby Frosh, Portland, and Waterville. Bangor, with 24 points, came in second to the powerful Colby Frosh, who scored 76 points. However, in defeating Portland and Waterville, the Rams kept the string intact of not having been beaten by a high school team in duo, triangular, or quadrangular competition for thirteen years.

Reggie Archer set a new Bangor High School record in the broad jump at Waterville. Archer jumped 21 feet, 1 inch, to win the event. Bangor's only other winner was Dick Shaw in the high jump.

In the next meet the Rams met defeat at the hands of the University of Maine Frosh, by 117 to 10 score. Bangor failed to win one event in this meet.

Warmly dressed in maroon slacks and jackets, the Varsity Cheering Squad cheered the football team toward many a victory. Later in the year the group rallied the crowd at varsity basketball games.

Cheerleaders meet with Mrs. Louise Hammons. This year she will retire from her position as adviser to the cheering squads.

The cheerleaders pepped up school spirit at the bonfire and numerous rallies. The girls cheered not only for Bangor High School teams, but also for Bates College in the Downeast Classic. Besides leading cheers at the games, the squad instructed other girls so that Bangor High will have experienced cheerleaders.

Certificates, pins, and school letters were presented to the girls and their adviser, Mrs. Louise Hammons, at the cheerleaders' banquet and at All Bangor Nite. Also at All Bangor Nite, 1960-61 varsity cheerleaders were announced.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERERS

A familiar sight in their maroon and white jumpered uniforms, the Junior Varsity Cheering Squad is the spark behind the J.V. basketball team. Just as the J.V. team trains to become future varsity players, the J.V. cheering group gains experience to become future varsity cheerleaders.

During the year the girls practiced faithfully under the direction of Captain Bernice Ross. In addition to cheering at J.V. games, the group helped arouse enthusiasm at the beginning of varsity games and spurred on Colgate University in the Downeast Classic. Mrs. Louise Hammons, who retired this year as the group's adviser, was honored at the annual Cheerleaders' Banquet, which was sponsored by the J.V. Cheerleaders.

 Second row: Sandra Connors, Janice L. Jordan, Sharon Dauphinee, Barbara Furrow, Carolyn Mower, Crystal Mayo, Sandra Larlee.
 Third row: Esther Katen, May McChesney, JoAnn Peakes, Paula Rolsky, Sandra Mason.
 Absent: Roberta Rankin, Pat Vose, Jane Withee.

G. A. H. C.

A familiar sight at Bangor High School is the arm bands of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council. At Little City Park in the fall, senior members of G.A.H.C., with Roberta Rankin as hockey manager and Sharon Dauphinee as assistant, coached field hockey. Seniors also coached basketball, and all members assisted in scoring and judging at volleyball games. As an extra activity, the group held frequent cup-cake sales. They also sold food at the football games and sponsored a food booth at Teachers' Convention to serve the teachers and book salesmen.

The preparation of awards and armbands for participation in sports and election to the Council was another project of the Girls' Athletic Honor Council. The highlights of the 1959-1960 year occurred when new members were initiated into the Council at the field hockey party held in the school auditorium in the fall, at the assembly on February 12, and also at the basketball banquet held at a local restaurant in the spring. At the school assembly, a skit entitled "Outer-Space Sports" was presented with Janice Jordan as narrator. JoAnn Peakes then gave a short history of G.A.H.C., and the girls gave the formal rituals for initiation for new members. This assembly and the later banquet climaxed a successful year in sports for the Girls' Athletic Honor Council.

This year's officers were as follows: Nancy Connors, President; Roberta Rankin, Vice-President; Mary Girvan, Secretary; and Ann Rowell, Treasurer. The faculty adviser for the Council was Miss Mildred E. McGuire.

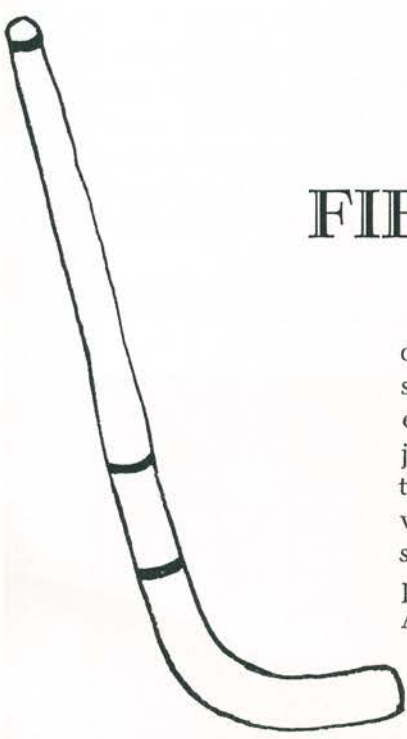

Members of G.A.H.C., JoAnn Peakes, Roberta Rankin, and Paula Rolsky, practice at halftime of a basketball game.

 Second row: Sheila Striar, Carolyn Mower, Norma Patterson, Trenna Naugler, Beverly Harriman, Lyn Witherly.
 Third row: Beth McLean, Barbara Furrow, Sharon Dauphinee, JoAnn Peakes, Paula Rolsky, Sandra Mason, Gerry Simpson.
 Absent: Connie Beverly, Roberta Rankin, Norma Smith.

ALL-BANGOR FIELD HOCKEY TEAM

Early in October the girl's field hockey season opened. After many practices at Little City Park, the sophomores, juniors, and seniors played four games each for the hockey championship, won by the juniors. The annual field hockey party, sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Honor Council under the supervision of Miss Mildred E. McGuire, was held in the school auditorium at the close of the season. At the party, awards were given, and the members of the All-Bangor Hockey Team were announced.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Officials' Club

First row, left to right: Norma Patterson, Barbara Furrow, Esther Katen, Sandra Connors
Second row: Mary LaChance, Janice Jordan, Sharon Dauphinee, Joan Bartlett, Peggy Nason.

Miss Mildred E. McGuire, gym instructor, times a basketball game.

Keeping up with the latest rules for basketball officiating provided a full-time job for the members of the Officials Club. Miss Mildred McGuire, adviser, instructed the girls in new procedures at the regular meetings.

Before being able to officiate at the regular games, each girl had to pass a written examination concerning basketball regulations.

Mrs. Betty Solorzano assisted the club with the officiating, timing and scoring of the games.

Competing for the intramural basketball championship were two teams from each class, sophomore, junior, and senior. The Junior Red team, captained by Sharon Dauphinee, won the championship trophy with a perfect record of no losses. Second place tie went to the Senior White, captained by Paula Rolsky, and the Sophomore White, with Martha Getchell as captain.

Junior Red Champions

Standing: Pamela Perkins; Carolyn Mower; Toby Slep; Beverley Hariman; JoAnn Peakes, Coach.

THANK YOU

We and the entire Oracle staff thank the following people without whose cooperation this yearbook would not have been possible:

The administration, for constant cooperation and wholehearted support.

The faculty and students of B.H.S. for their cooperation in meeting picture schedules and in providing necessary information.

Mr. Danny Maher for the Table of Contents picture.

Miss Barbara Williams, Class of 1961, for photographic services.

The advertisers and subscribers for financial support.

Furbush-Roberts Printing Company, publishers, for outstanding service.

Jackson Studios for group pictures.

Everyone who in any way has made the publication of this yearbook possible.
