A MOLDER OF YOUTH...

For his kindly and everpresent interest in our welfare, we, the Seniors of John Bapst, respectfully dedicate this 1949 edition of the BAPSTONIAN, with heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to BROTHER CANICE, C. F. X. In his twelve years of service at Bapst, he has been known to us as a teacher, revered as a counsellor, renowned as a coach, and endeared as a friend. For the sake of the future students of Bapst, we fervently hope that Brother Canice will spend many happy and fruitful years here in Bangor.

BAPTIST PRINCIPAL, Sister Mary Carmel, talks over the coming day's activities with some of her students, Jeanine Morneau, Josephine Flanagan, Elaine Ryder, and Mary Rose Lizotte.

THE ROLICKING DRAMATIZATION OF "GROWING PAINS" by Aurania Rouverol was the dramatic event of the year. With the male support of the Boys' Department, actors, actresses, stage crews, prompters and makeup artists worked untiringly. The very elaborate set was constructed entirely by members of the Boys' Department, allowing invaluable opportunities for the expression of their talents, their creative ability and initiative.

Under the banner of the Dramatic Club, eager actresses presented readings and interpretations at the Christmas meetings of the Maine Diocesan Council of Catholic Women and the Daughters of Isabella. A cutting from the Passion Play "The

DID THEY MAKE IT? . . . An expression of tension may be seen on the faces of the John Bapst cheerleaders as their team is about to chalk up another marker against the Rams.

The Red Riots proved far from riotous for the Crowley-men who hit on all cylinders to put in a riot of their own.

THE POWER-PACKED PURPLE of John Bapst began their 1948 football campaign, that lead to an undefeated season and a claim on the State title, by defeating the Old Town Indians, 13-7. Billy McCann accounted for both touchdowns, hitting pay dirt in the first and third quarters. Joe Cushing rushed the extra point.

The Bapstmen continued their winning way up another rung of the Penobscot Valley Championship grid ladder by swamping the Orono Riots, 34-0, at Irving Doyle field in Brewer. The Riots fought savagely during the first half, limiting the Crusaders to one marker. The second half, however, brought forth the famed Irish attack, and the boys in purple had the Riots on the ropes. The scoring was well distributed, with six back-field men taking part in the point parade. Jack Tremble, Gallant, Mc-Cann, McManus, and Mahaney racked up touchdowns with Cushing, McCann, and Stefanski adding the extra points.

Bapst traveled to Millinocket to hand the Minutemen of Stearns a crushing 37-0 defeat. With the game less than two minutes old, the purple power-house pushed across the first six points. The Crowley-men had no difficulty in gaining yardage, both on the ground or in the air, never being held for downs and completing nine of fifteen passes. "Bullet" Billy McCann crossed the goal line three times. Spenser and McManus also added touchdowns and Cushing chipped in with the point after.

The biggest upset of the season staged on an Eastern Maine gridiron when Bapst led the Bangor Rams around by the nose all afternoon, winning by the awesome score of 33-13. Although outweighed by an average of thirty pounds, fight, determination and spirit brought another victory to the Crusaders. The Irish offense netted 346 yards on the mound against 151 for the Rams. Cushing, Herbert, Gallant, and McCann tore off huge chunks of yardage while Billy Quinn stole the spotlight with his exceptional line play.

A strong Gardiner High team gave Bapst its strongest tussle of the season, the Broadway Irish slipping through on the long end of a 13-6 score. The Crusaders were outclassed in the first period and trailed by a touchdown. However, good runs by Gallant, climaxed by McCann's 35 yard touchdown dash evened the score at the half-way mark. Shortly after the second half was underway, the Crusaders scored via a Gallant to Lamb pass. Cushing rushed the extra point, and Bapst was ahead to stay.

Six straight wins, the Penobscot Valley Conference tilt and the inter-city flag came simultaneously to the Crusaders as they pulled out a 20-15 decision over the Brewer Witches. In a game considered to be the outstanding contest seen in these parts in 1948, the Crusaders came from behind with a last minute surge of power to capture victory. A 63 yard run by Cy Gallant scored the first six points four plays after the opening whistle. Joe Cushing went off tackle to put the Irish two touchdowns in front as the quarter ended. Brewer scored a safety when a Bapst punt was blocked behind the goal. In the second half, the Witches struck hard, scoring in the third and fourth cantos to pull to the front. But Bob Stefanski recovered a fumble and Gallant tossed the winning tally into the hands of Jack Tremble.

Bapst hopped their highest and hardest hurdle by defeating Cheverus High of Portland in a night game at Brewer, 20-12. The determined Irish appeared like midgets along side their foes, but living up to their "never say die" spirit, they put up a tremendous battle to clinch the game. The running of Cy Gallant and the pass receiving of Win Thibodeau were outstanding, both of whom scored touchdowns along with Fran Herbert.

In their last game, the Crusaders were held to a 7-7 tie by an underdog Waterville eleven. The Panthers were really up for this one. In the

It took a stout heart to watch the Crusaders in action on the basketball court during the 1949 season. Very often the Irish were not satisfied in winning their games in a conventional manner. No, it became a habit with them to wait until the last moment when all seemed lost and then snatch victory from their opponents. There are several highlights of the season that will always stand out in one's memory. There was the spine-tingling game with Waterville which saw a sparkling comeback by the Crusaders in the waning minutes of the contest which turned certain defeat into breath-taking victory in an overtime period. Ellsworth had victory snatched from its grasp in the last fifteen seconds as Bapst put on a tremendous last minute surge to win.

Mission of Boston saw the Crusaders at their best as they flashed a great comeback to defeat the Hub team. In the tournament, Caribou lead the Irish in all but the last forty seconds. Bapst needed but those forty seconds to win that one. Then came the game. Twice during the season, the Bangor Rams had humiliated the Crusaders. In the semifinals of the state tournament, the two rivals met for the third time. Action was so hectic that the lead changed hands nine times in the third quarter. Then the dikes opened as the Crusaders unleashed a furious fourth quarter assault that left the Rams dazed and bewildered. In the final game, a great Waterville quintet barely edged by the Crusaders to capture the Eastern Maine diadem. All in all, it was a great season, and it will be many a year before the exploits of this team will be forgotten.

JAY VEE DRIBBLERS . . . Under Brother Michael Joseph's fine coaching, the J V.'s piled up 13 wins as against 4 defeats. Notable victories were against Bangor, Waterville, Winter Harbor, Ellsworth, Old Town, Bar Harbor and Bucksport. First row: George Allen, Dick Babcock, Ken Harvey, Paul Goody, Danny McLeod, Jim Gillis; Second row: Jimmy Soucy, Jake Gallant, Bill McKenzie, Bill Hanscom, John Quine; Third row: Don Norris, Ray Searway, Bob Chaput, Dickie Lynch, Ed Conley.

FRESHMEN BASKETEERS . . . Sporting a record of 17 victories and only six defeats, the Bapst Frosh enjoyed a successful season. First row: Roger Therriault, James Purdy, George Searway, Bob Clarey, Jim McInnis, Patrick Keenan; Second row: Bob Howell, Win Perry, Rudy LeBlanc, Dave Ferriss, Virgil LeBlanc, Frank Clancy.

MAXIMS

TO GUIDE A YOUTH

by

One of Your Neighbors

Keep good company or none. Never be idle; if your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind. Always speak the truth; make few promises; live up to your engagements; when you speak to anyone, look him straight in the face.

Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things else in life. Never listen to loose or idle conversation; you had better be poisoned in your blood than in your principles. Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If anyone should speak evil of you, let your life be so virtuous that none will believe him.

Always speak the truth and act as if in the presence of your MAKER; drink no intoxicating liquors; ever live, misfortune excepted, within your income. When you retire to bed at night think of what you have done during the day. Never speak lightly of anyone; make no haste to be rich if you should prosper; small and steady gains give competency with tranquility of mind.

Never plan any game of chance; avoid the temptation through fear that may not withstand it. Earn your money before you spend it, and never run in debt unless you can see a way to get out of it.

Never borrow, if you can avoid it. Save when you are young to save when you are old. Never think what you do to alleviate the sufferings of fellow beings is time and money lost. Be kind and generous, for the whole human family is depending one upon the other.
