We Made Each Other Strong

My friend, I don't wish for you to go, but life will not wait for us I know. Don't look back and see the tears streaking down my face, my heart will never be replaced. Hold tight to today, it will take you to tomorrow. Hold your head high and you won't see the sorrow. We're part of a dream that's yet to be. We're gonna be the best of all - just wait and see. Take me with you when you go, I'll stay forever in your heart that way we'll never say that we've lost a part of ourselves. So thanks for growing up with me, my friend. Parting now we'll reach for the stars and realize that it's not the end, but the beginning that we have dreamt of for so long. Now is the time to show the world that we've made each other strong.

—DEDICATION—

The 1989 Senior Class dedicates this yearbook to Mrs. Eleanor Campbell, our Guidance Counselor. Mrs. Campbell contributes her time to help others prepare for their future. Her countless hours are spent signing students up for classes, contacting college representatives, preparing students for S.A.T., listening and advising students, and so much more.

She is a graduate of Brewer High School and went on to the University of Maine to receive her degree. Her time away from school is spent in her Brewer home with her husband Charles, and her two children Greg and Marie.

Mrs. Campbell's sincerity, guidance, and support has helped so many students now at John Bapst and students that have graduated. Many of the graduates return for her help and she always willing to do what she can.

Mrs. Campbell,

Dedicating this year's yearbook to you is just a small way of, showing how thankful we are for all that you have done for the students at John Bapst. You are a big part of what makes John Bapst so very special. Without you, there would be so many students lost between 108 to 301, your guidance is very important to us.

Lenise Cushing, Editor

—APPRECIATION—

For all her support and hard work, we form this yearbook in appreciation to our yearbook advisor Patti Lee.

Ms Lee,

Being the 1989 yearbook advisor was a long and hard job. When things looked dull and gray you came along and pulled us together. When deadlines were to be met, and you were there to help. Taking the position was a task in itself, but you fulfilled it anyhow.

You took time out of your family life to help the class. We appreciate your support and all the work you did. It means a lot to us and you will always be remembered by the class of 1989. Thank you!

Lenise Cushing, Editor

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

This past year has been exciting and challenging to all of us at John Bapst. As you look through this years' Crusader, you will no doubt remember many happy and some sad events that occurred. I hope you will find on each page something that will remind you of a pleasant experience at John Bapst.

I want to remind you that this yearbook is the culmination of many hours of dedicated work by the entire yearbook staff, lead by Editor, Lenise Cushing and Advisor, Ms. Patti Lee. Please take a moment of your time to thank the staff, they deserve it for a job well done.

To the Seniors, best of luck next year at the college of your choice. Use well the foundations that John Bapst has given you, it is a great asset. To the Freshman, Sophomores and Juniors, I look forward to seeing you next fall.

May each of you enjoy the summer and you and your entire family enjoy good health throughout the year ahead.

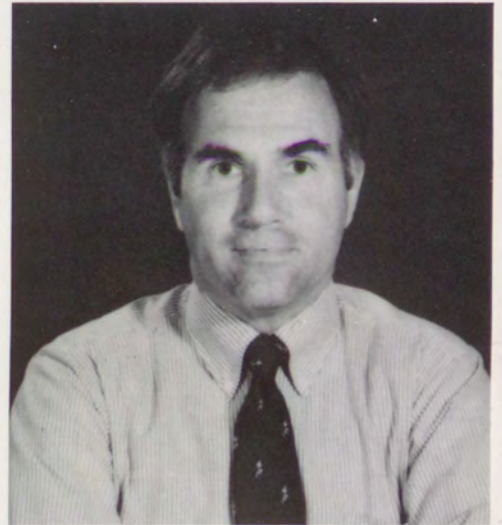

Sincerely,

Joseph Sekera

CLASS WILL

TARA ABBOTT: I leave to Steve Mathieu, a six-pack of Coke and the Party Handbook, Part 2.

MOLLY BACH: I leave all of my language credits to Jason Worster and Bob Shannon. They need them. Also I leave thanks to Mr. Miragliuolo for everything that he has done to help me to survive these four years. Cam, we're outta here!

HEATHER BASS: I leave Mr. Floyd my Honda Goldwing. (Sorry, Arthur and Nathan He had first dibs on it!)

JULIE BEAN: I leave my extraordinary height to my "little" brothers.

ELIZABETH BOURBON AND JENNIFER O'HALLORAN: We leave to Chris and Angie a book on the art of lying, so they won't get confused about who started the rumor. And to Jill and Kendra, we leave a mirror, make-up, and a girdle, in hopes they will use them. And last, but not least, we leave, a Def Leppard Tape, batteries, suntan lotion, and binoculars to Kim I. for those long, hot summer days at the beach.

JOHN BUCKLEY: I leave my acute driving ability under emergency situations to anyone with a hunting license.

STACY BURKE: I leave John Bapst with many memories, but no regrets.

KRISTIE CARR: I leave Susie Johnson the ability to stop the soccer and softballs that are hit to her in the forthcoming years. I leave Kerri McGarr my kicking ability to score goals in soccer games.

DODIE CLENDENNING: I leave Mrs. Campbell three big hugs, and Mr. Miragliuolo my will to go on, and not let anyone ruin my day.

LENISE CUSHING: I leave my editor's position to the juniors who already want it.

CHRIS DALTON: I leave whatever he feels like having to Bob Shannon, just because I'm a nice guy.

ANDY DAVIS: I leave good memories to my teachers, in order to receive even better recommendations.

AMY DESHANE: I leave my little-known abilities of seagull imitations, hanging spoons on my face, and playing TV theme songs on push-button phones to anyone who can (and dares to) perfect them.

IAN HEALY: I leave my love for horror movies and RC Cola to Matt Clark, Scott Millett, John Hodgins, Michelle Batty, and anyone else who has been able to put up with me.

JULIE HERBERT: I leave nothing to my sister, but anything to anyone else.

HEATHER HEWS: I leave my portion of the warm, dependable radiator Francie Darling left me, to Tami Young. I also leave in hopes that someday we will be members of the "petite Elite!" I love you hon'

STEPHANI JONES: I leave Andy Sekara a little tiny mirror so he can see what is really up his nose, and so he can check whether or not his left nostril is bigger than his right nostril.

JEFF KLISIEWICZ: I leave my keys to the school to who ever is smart enough to use them and not get caught the first time they use them. I also leave my expert window dimbing skills to the Martin kids.

GWEN KOZIOL: I leave to my sister Mindy my footsteps, in hopes that she will one day fill in the spots where there is only one.

CHRISTIANA LAKEMAN: I leave thanks and many hugs & kisses to Mr. M. and Mr. Floyd . . . "I LOVE YOU Des and Bob!"

CURT LEMAY: I leave an alien to Andy Davis, and enough paint, CO₂, and bruises to last forever to John, Joey, and Sean.

KIMBERLY LEKOUSES AND SHELLY ROBERSON: We leave a map of Europe and a glass of "water" to "S-jon" in hopes that he will be able to find his way around (alone).

ARTHUR MATHISEN: I leave the ability to John Phelps to find a loving girl friend as terrific as mine. Also, I leave my memory to Brett Soucy so he can learn the basketball plays.

SEAN MCGARR: Not only do I leave my sex appealing body, but also my intellectual personality and modesty to the little frenchman.

AMY MOORHEAD: I leave all of the self-confidence that I have acquired to Mr. Floyd to acknowledge.

STACIE NEVELLS: I leave Denise King a lifetime supply of stripe, cause you can NEVER have enough. Meghan McNichol the I-3 color code and Sue Dunning everything else- especially Sat. nights with Pee Wee Hermon and yearly Santa pictures. -Have a great Senior year-

KATHY PHILBRICK: I leave Jan Martin the ability to find a ride at any hour of the day! I leave Steven Mathieu a party handbook, and the ability to chug-a-lug a whole can of coke.

BETH REITSMA: I leave any good luck that I never used to my sister.

JOHN ROSS: I leave 90 pound accounting book to the poor Junior that takes college accounting next year.

AMY SECHREST: I leave my nerve to get up in front of a couple hundred people and scream and holler to anyone who wants it.

KRISTIE SHAW: I leave nothing to nobody because I have nothing to leave.

TRICIA SINCLAIR: I leave my Man in Green to Darcie Umel because she can't find her's. I also leave my brand new car to Jason Worster since he no longer has one.

ORA SPRATT: I leave Des Ashman my athletic ability. I leave Chris Ford my talent for picking cars. I leave Angie Zeigler to any one who can put up with her and Roger.

JAMES STONETON: I leave my attitude to brother Joel who is alresdy well on his way to being a pessimist.

SETH UMEL: I leave my sister a canadian quarter and my mustache to John Kearns and Shane Porter.

JOHN KEARNS: I leave Bobby Shannon my ALL-STAR armpads and the keys to the 1978 turbo-driven Mercury Zephyr. Desmond gets the back seat, and both receive the rights to the O-Line slogan OOROOOAK!!!!

JOE SHYKA: I leave Angela Kearns a pizza in the catwalk.

LORRAINE MACLEOD: I leave my great parking abilities to my cousin Kirsten in hopes she will never use them

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

This year, the John Bapst Photography Club has begun to take off! We have had fundraisers, such as Christmas Candy Cane Sales. We plan other activities, such as raffles and talent shows. We plan to have at least one photography show this year, and several next year, to display our work. We also hope to open up the darkroom, for our use in the spring.

The Math Team participates in 5 math meets a year. Each meet consists of 6 rounds. There are 5 specific categories per meet such as arithmetic, lines and angles, binomial theorem, radicals, imaginary numbers, polynomials and sequence series.

5 students participate in each category. Each has 12 minutes to solve 3 word problems. The 6th round is the team round, which everyone participates in. The group has 12 minutes to solve 12 problems.

This year the Math Team has done very well. The first meet was on October 5th. They came in first for Eastern Maine.

BAND COUNCIL

With the addition of 30 new members, Band Council started organizing in early August. Band very successfully played the football games, Pep Rallies, Christmas Tour, and Concert. The PAT success totaled close to $5,000.00. The Spring semester included four of the home Basketball games for both boys and girls and their tournament games. A performance for UMO Hockey and men's basketball both ended with a trip to Pat's Pizza. On Step-Up day, the 96 members played their best for the prospective freshmen. The Grand Finale in the spring was the trip to Montreal and the annual spring tours.

PASSAGES

S. Jones, Advisor Mr. Nahra, D. Clendenning

Passages is the creation of the students of John Bapst. Its main purpose is to serve as an outlet for their writing. It gives them the opportunity to be published. Passages editorial staff is always looking for a good short story, poem, or work of art. Passages is not limited to just these areas, but it also welcomes new ideas and creative expressions of all types. The most recent edition of Passages edited by Dodie Clendenning, and Stephanie Jones, is actually an accumulation of two years of student work.

MIDWEEK

D. Connolly, B. Daley, K. MacLeod, advisor; Mr. Emerson, not shown are: K. Currier, S. Gontoski

The Midweek staff attempts to place into the Bangor Daily News Midweek Magazine important non-sports news, events, and activities happening at John Bapst Memorial High School. Five students of the sophomore class make up this years group.

Tri-captains: J. Gambino, S. Spratt, D. Vittum

The 1988 Crusaders had one of their best seasons, sporting a 12-3 regular season record. This outstanding record advanced the Crusaders to the final game against the defending Class C State Champions, Washington Academy. The Crusaders posted an 8-0 win over W A and moved to a semi-final game against Penobscot Vally of Howland. The Crusaders then defeated Howland 4-3 and advanced to the Eastern Maine Championship game against the Madawaska Eagles. Though they were defeated in the title game the Crusaders displayed an incredibly strong defense and a miraculous offense.

The offensive team this year was led by Tim True, Sean McGarr, Sonny Spratt and Joey Gambino, all batting over .400. Darren Vittum held the defense together behind the plate with a .357 batting average. Leading the pitching staff was Scott Phelps with his 9 wins and only 2 losses. Behind him was Nick Chiappone 3-2, McGarr 2-0, and Spratt 1-0. The '89 Crusaders are counting on a 4 year veteran ace right-hander, Nick Chiappone one the mound, Sonny Spratt's strong bat, Sean McGarr with his hitting and speed playing outfield, and Rob Hume at first base carrying the team with his glove.

The John Bapst baseball team would like to thank Coach Bob Sinclair and Coach Bill Cowan for putting in all the time that they did for the team.

J.V.

JUNIOR VARSITY: 1st row: B. Knopf. 2nd row: D. Ashman, T. Haas, L. Lord, B. Shannon, R. Ingalls. 3rd row: T. True, F. Martin, E. Gaspar, J. Worster, C. Haas, T. Ross. Absent: Managers Sue Dunning and Sue Magnont, Scorer Shawn Cutler.

Playing eleven games this past spring, the John Bapst J.V. baseball team's season was one marked by ups and downs. The teams record (3 wins - 8 losses) was more the result of inexperience and a tough schedule rather than a lack of team spirit or individual effort. The coaching staff, led by Coach Walter Sheren, was especially pleased with the enthusiasm and progress shown by all team members.

When next seasons' shout of "Play ball" is heard, we can look forward to continued hard work, hustle, and success from our J.V. team!

The players would like to thank Coach Sheren for the time he put in for the team and individual players.

You Made Us Proud!

We're
Friends . . .

Guess Who This Is!
(Hint: It's a girl)

Is She Possessed?

'Tis but a short time between the day that we met
 And the day that we'll part.
 We've had only minutes to discover each other,
 And hours to have fun.
 Seems like just seconds were spent with us as one-
 As a whole. And yet now
 we must separate,
 become ourselves again, so we can find that which will most fulfill our lives.

Just as boredom began to set in and envelop them, the bell sounded, and freed the prisoners from the unwanted messages of the unwelcome speaker.
These hostages walked away from the extremely uncomfortable metal chairs, barely thinking of anything but the forty-two minutes separating them from freedom-if only until eight the next day ...
