YEARBOOK DEDICATION

On the Wright Track

We, the John Bapst Yearbook Staff of the 1990-91 Bapstonian, do hereby dedicate this book to Ms. Mary Wright. Despite being a first year teacher at Bapst, she was quick to get involved in yearbook, taking on the yearbook debt, little to no staff, and deadlines just around the corner. Ms. Wright gave the yearbook her free Saturdays and any spare time she had. We can't thank her enough for all her support, so we dedicate this yearbook to the person that made last year's book possible. She has been for us a true supporter, confidant, and friend. We will always remember her off-the-wall sense of humor, timely anecdotes, and sisterly motherly advice. We eternally thank her for her sincere kindness and unending aid in all that we have done and strive to accomplish. We also wish her the best of luck in all that she strives for, and hope we may someday be able to repay her for all she has given us.

Thank You, Ms. Wright,
Kim, Sarah, and Karen

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Joseph Sekera

1991 completes the eleventh year of John Bapst Memorial High School. While this yearbook is a brief testimony of the year gone by, it does not, nor can it convey the emotions we shared as together we followed the war in Iraq and Kuwait. Only those students with fathers, brothers, etc., who served truly know the feelings of loneliness and fear of having loved ones in the military during war. All the John Bapst family extend our support and hope that they all return safely.

To all who have so generously given of their time, talents and resources to Proudly Forward, we are very grateful. We are encouraged by its success and are resolved to continue the strong tradition of a quality education at John Bapst.

To the underclass students, we look forward to the year(s) ahead at Bapst. We will continue to do the best we can for you.

To the staff of this year's BAPSTONIAN, we thank you for your untiring efforts to produce a memorable record of the year gone by. This will, for many years to come, remind us of the events and people who made John Bapst what it is in 1990-91.

To the seniors, we extend our best wishes for a successful time in college as you continue to prepare for whatever life holds for you. We hope your end of the year celebrations are fun and safe, and that the friendships you have acquired remain with you. Your presence among us has been meaningful and we thank you for all you have done to make Bapst what it is.

RE: Yearbook Junk

Another year has come to a close but many of the memories have been preserved in this book for posterity. I hope that each of you will look back on your high school experiences with a sense of pride and satisfaction, and that you will never forget those friends who have been such a big part of your high school years.

Congratulations to all members of the John Bapst family for a successful year.

Joseph Sekera, Principal

Mr. Raymond Giroux

Dear Students, Faculty, Staff and Parents:

This past year will be one that I shall long remember. The opportunity to receive a functional heart valve not only gave me a new lease of life, but also made me realize just how great the John Baptist Family really is.

I am much obliged for all your good wishes, your concerns and your prayers. Special gratitude goes out to those people who had to alter their already busy class and office schedules to accommodate my absence. Merci beaucoup!

To the Seniors: Although it is time for you to move on, it is certain that your spirit will be felt in these halls for a long time. This class has something unique that no other class can offer . . . You!

During these past four years I have gotten to know some of you extremely well. Your presence could certainly have justified my job! For that I thank you. To those of you who never had cause to visit my office, I thank you too!

Finally, as you all leave the stage at graduation chanting Martin Luther King Jr.'s "Free at last — Free at last," please Don't forget what you owe to John Baptist. Congratulations now and on all your future successes.

Sincerely,

Mr. Ray Giroux

SPECIAL EVENTS

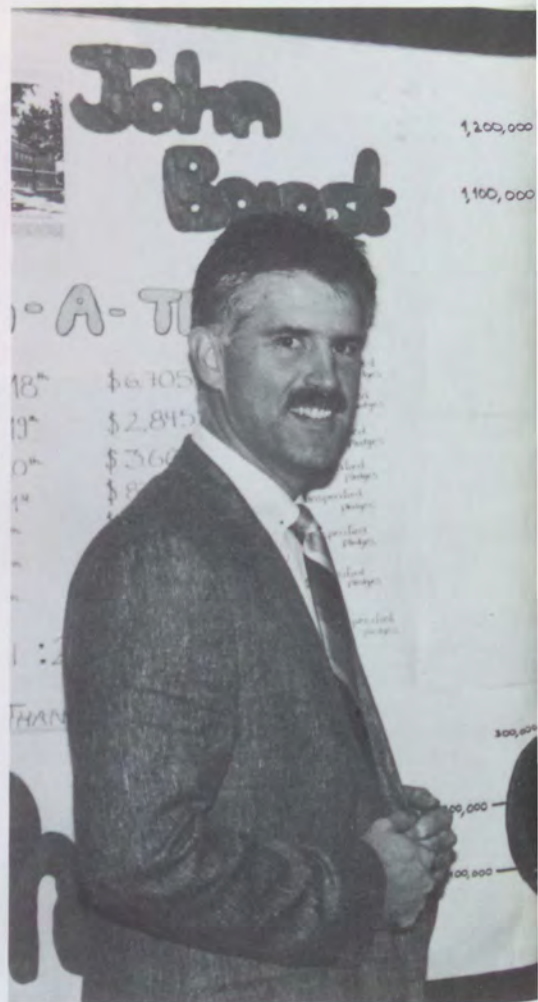

JB CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

"Proudly Forward," the slogan of our recent Capital Campaign, is appropriate indeed. Over the past year the entire John Bapst family has joined together to work toward a mutual and noble goal: the betterment of John Bapst Memorial High School. Our goal was an ambitious 1.2 million dollars, a goal nearly achieved by December of this year.

The fund drive was organized by Consultant John Landry and Development Director Aurelie Mathieu, and spearheaded by Co-Chairmen Dick Campbell, Earle Hannigan and Doug Brown. Large numbers of Bapst students complemented the effort by working a successful car wash and recycling drive. Many students and staff also took to the telephones to solicit help from every class John Bapst has graduated since its inception. That's over 55 graduating classes! The money raised will be used to update existing systems, renovate and beautify the building and grounds, and to insure that Bapst has an endowment fund that will carry us proudly into the future.

EUROPE

In search of the real Europe, 35 Bapstonians began an eleven-day tour of the Continent. England rewarded them with such sights as Big Ben and Buckingham Palace. From there they crossed the Channel to France where they experienced Paris in the springtime. Breathtaking sights included Notre Dame, the Louvre and l'Arc de Triomphe. Those who dared took in a spectacular view of Paris from the top of the Eiffel Tower. The next morning they found themselves at the foot of the Leaning Tower of Pisa. They continued to Florence where they admired the Ponte Vecchio and Michelangelo's "David." Later they discovered that all roads do indeed lead to Rome. Highlights included the Vatican, Sistine Chapel, the Colosseum and the Forum where they celebrated Rome's birthday.

GIVE ME YOUR TIRED ...

And tired they were. After a long trip, the Fine Arts travellers enjoyed excursions to such famous N.Y. sites as the United Nations, the Museum of Art, and Chinatown. The group took in the Christmas Spectacular at Radio City Music Hall, dined at world famous Mama Leone's, rode to the top of the World Trade Center, and Gazed at the Statue of Liberty from Battery Park.

"ANYTHING GOES"

The 1990 John Bapst Player's production of Cole Porter's 1962 musical, "Anything Goes," was a tremendous success. The admirable acting of Jennifer Curtis, Julio DeSanctis, John Hodgins, and Heather Holman, plus the directing of Mr. Timothy Bate were some of the major attributes of this success.

One of the main attractions of this musical, making it different from others in past years was the addition of tap dancing, choreographed by Mr. Joe Calebrais. Also included in the production was a wide range of songs, played by the John Bapst pit band under the direction of Mrs. Julie Waring, who added ample energy and encouragement to the cast, as well as doing an incredible job with the instrumental music. Mr. Bob Leonard was in charge of stage management and set construction, and the school's Art Club, with Mr. Todd Carr's assistance participated in painting the set. Mrs. Nancy Strauch's efforts in running house management were greatly appreciated, along with help with costumes and make-up from Mrs. Roberta Horn.

Overall, "Anything Goes" went extremely well, and was given very high reviews.

Maine — Don't take her for GRANITE!

The annual Earth Science Field trip opened a new world of geology and glaciology to Bapst students. Students explored Maine's geological heritage and it's unique coastline at the same time. The granite that anchors the Maine coastline is a weathered testament to the forces that continue to affect our state. There are still visible signs of the ice sheet that slowly carved our coastline.

O.K., I'll smile, but I won't look!

M. Day, N. Cartier, and M. Hogan on the Frenchman's Bay Cruise.

A reFRESHing discovery: The class of 1994 leaves their mark on Acadia.

On September 21st nearly a dozen administrative and faculty members were reportedly seen in pursuit of 115 John Bapst Freshmen as they golfed, swam, hiked, and cruised the Bar Harbor area.

This day trip, although a bit chilly, was filled with adventure and friendship. In the morning, students chose from five Bar Harbor area spots to explore: The Bar Harbor Marine Research Lab, Hiking at Echo Lake Beach, Golf at The White Birches in Ellsworth, or one of the two boat rides. Students that took the Frenchman's Bay Cruise spotted a whale and those who sought the waters off Somes Sound and the Cranberry Isles happened upon a curious seal. Lunch took place along the edge of Sand Beach. Some relaxed, while others were yet to slow down, frolicking in the waves of Maine's oh-so-cold Atlantic coast.

One may ask, why reward these J.B. newcomers with a day free of school-work? When they began school at Bapst, many left their friends at home. Adjusting to new classes, finding the right room numbers and still hoping not to walk into a bathroom of the opposite sex, is often overwhelming, even for those kids that know each other. This "Fresh" trip was created hoping to get those kids together and get to know the personalities behind their faces.

HOMECOMING! The very word implies excitement. This year's competition was compressed into two hotly contested days. The ever-famous pie throwing contest at Friday's Pep Rally let Mrs. Hannula, Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Floyd take the pie for their respective classes. This year's parade featured not only creative floats, but also a genuine Crusader on a live horse! The Seniors pulled out the win with the parade competition and propelled Brooke Daley and Will Brown to the richly deserved titles of Homecoming Queen and King. And, as always, the John Bapst stands were screaming with pride to cheer on the football team.

Every day I wake up I thank God that you are still a part of me. We've opened up the door for which so many people never find the key. And if the sun should ever fail to send its light then we will burn a thousand candles and make everything all right.

— Warrant

And every now and then I start feeling small, started strong just to trip and fall. One day when you need a friend, people come and go. Sometimes you fly so high just to sink so low, but if things get heavy I won't let you down, when you're led astray, I'll always be around.

I'm glad to be an exchange student in John Bapst. All of the students and teachers are very nice.
The experience has been fantastic.
I will never forget that I spent a school year at Bapst.

I took five classes. At first it was awful because I couldn't understand anything and sometimes I wanted to scream, but later everything was fine, just stay calm!

With youth come aspirations and courage; and we have all said many times in our lives that we would not pause until we had reached the goal of our ambitions, but would strive for something higher and better.

There is no one, whether boy or girl, man or woman, who can read the life of any great person without feeling that he also can aspire to higher and greater things. Live for something. Have a purpose.

FOOTBALL

Bapst Gets Back to .500

Coach Don Cornett led John Bapst to a very successful season this fall. The Crusader football team posted a 4-4 record, scoring wins over Boothbay, MCI, Madison and Dirigo. They narrowly missed making the playoffs. Led by LTC Players of the Year John Cornett, the team featured an explosive "big play" offense and the stingiest defense Bapst has seen in several years. Bapst placed John Cornett, Ken Rassi, Bryn Owen, Will Brown, Maurice Day, and Kevin Maille-pors on the All-Conference Team. All-Academic Team members were Cornett, Brown, Day, Owen and Alex Peters. Will Brown and John Cornett also received All-State honors.

Whatta We Got? We Got SPIRIT!

Spirit was certainly not in short supply with this group of young women. Led by seniors Robyn Foss and Nicole Bangs, the cheerleaders braved crisp fall evenings and even a few rain storms to pump up the crowd at both home and away games. By teaming up with the John Baptist band at home games, the cheerleaders were able to get extra decibels from the crowds at Cameron Stadium, no easy task when you consider just how large the stands there are. Coach Lee did an excellent job of putting to use the experience of her veterans and the enthusiasm of the five Freshmen on the squad.

Here's some of John Baptist's winning smiles!!

You want to hear what?

LINKSTERS

The 1990 Golf Team, led by Coach Jim Nahra, and tri-captains Chris Haas, Tony Haas, and Greg Nichols, completed yet another successful season this fall. With a record of 16-9, this small team, consisting of only seven members, placed second in the Class C PVC Championships and fourth in the Regionals. Chris Haas was awarded the MVP Trophy, the MIP went to Matt McDevitt, and the Coach's Award went to Greg Nichols.

Mark Hunter in action!

Coach Tim White's Boy's Soccer team started out the season on Aug. 7 with gruelign double sessions in the summer sun. From there, the team spent ten to fifteen hours a week the rest of the season. The team was captained by seniors Justin Weinrich and Mark Hunter, with junior Ryan Smith. According to Ryan Smith, "We were only 4-9, but we really did improve from the first round-robin at Orono." This squad was greatly helped by the emergence of three underclassmen: Dorian LeBlanc, sophomore, and Erik Halber and Todd Hunter, both freshmen. Awards went to Ryan Smith and Justin Weinrich (MVP), Evans Roberts (MIP), and Ken Champion (Coach's Award).

Girls' Varsity Soccer

Against wind and rain and muddy soccer fields, the Girls' Varsity Soccer team swept through another season. When asked what they disliked the most, one of the captains, Sarah Gontoski said, "Those damn diagonals!" The weather wasn't always fair, but Coach Webb was just that, in allowing everyone to play. The girls were very supportive to their fellow team-mates. Although other teams left their mark on the Girls Varsity Soccer team, their excellent sportsmanship was highly commendable.

Right: Co-Captains Kim Cornett and Amy Austin.

Looking at the JV Girls Soccer Team record of one tie and no wins, one might assume that these players had no heart, did not try their best, and had a genuinely lousey season. In speaking to these players, they expressed a vigorous determination and a great love of soccer. They described their coach, Jody Lockman, as a "Very supportive, caring and good-hearted coach." She kept their spirits high and showed them how to cooperate as a team. The team's record doesn't seem an accurate assessment of the season. One of the tri-captains, Amy Austin, summed up the season, "It was so much fun," because that should be everyone's goal!

Boy's JV Soccer had high points and low points this year. According to one player, the high point was watching Tyler Leighton slip in the street while chasing an errant soccer ball. The low point was sending three players to the hospital, though they apparently injured each other. Team Captain Peter Philbrick led the team in scoring and the defense was anchored by goalie Todd Hunter. At season's end the team voted Peter Philbrick Most Valuable Offensive Player and Mike Stewart Most Valuable Defensive Player.

MAKING TRACKS

Those JB students seen running the city streets after school this fall were not practicing for a fast getaway, but rather for Cross Country season. Their daily practice entailed running 3-12 miles in preparation for courses about three miles long. Why did these runners submit themselves to this punishment? Kim Sekera explained, "You have to like to run."

The Boy's Team qualified for the State Championship for the first time in 5 years. The Girl's Team, led by All-Conference runners Melissa Lockman, Kim Sekera and Amy Martin, won the Pendle Championship, the Eastern Regional Championship, and placed 2nd in the PVC Championship.

The 1990-91 Boys' Basketball team entered this season facing a challenge. They are the two time defending State Champions. This season they plan to have a "three-peat" and capture their third consecutive Gold Ball. Led by Captains Rodney Buswell and Greg Nichols and Seniors Chris Haas, Tony Haas, Chuck Hogan and Richie Hachey, the team is off to a successful start. Living by such mottos as "There is no I in the word team" and their flawless execution of the infamous Shuffle, they've defeated many tough teams, such as George Stevens. As they approach the tournaments, John Bapst has once again proven that they are a force to be reckoned with.

The 1990-91 Girl's Basketball Team, led by tri-captains Carrie Creath, Angela Kearns, and Kerry McGarr, hustled their way to victory over many strong teams. Other key players included starters Mary Ann Lakeman and Barbara Foster, with alternates Denise Connolly and Tracey Buswell. Although they are still younger than many of the teams they face, having only two seniors on the team, the John Baptist girls have the skill, stamina, and experience to challenge any of their opponents. The Crusaders, under the direction of Lenny Miragliuolo and Joe Floyd, headed towards the tournament with great momentum and confidence. Containing many promising underclassmen now, the future seasons of this team look bright.

Boys' JV BASKETBALL

The Boys' JV team made a name for itself under Coach Bill Cowan. Each players' skills showed without compromising team play. Coach Cowan's technique shows his desire for the "perfect" game: "no 2-pointers, only 3's." He is still pursuing this goal. The desire for playing time kept up morale through suicides, but the desire to win didn't hurt them any either!

Girls' JV BASKETBALL

Raise your hands if you're sure.

This year's Girls' JV Basketball team set aside their diverse playing backgrounds to develop their co-operational skills early this season. Coach Nahra praises his team as the "best girls' team (he) has ever coached . . . (with) a great deal of talent." Though the team lost two juniors and three freshman to the Varsity team this season, it is a strong team that plays hard. Mr. Nahra expects the girls' success to continue with a promising future ahead.

L to R: C. Nadeau, S. Archer, S. Wakeling, M. Day, A. Moore, S. Harmon, H. Field, G. Ashman, H. Smith, V. Higgins, J. Paul, Mr. Nahra. Missing: A. O'Donnell, J. Standridge.

Kim Sekera pays close attention to Mr. Nahra's instructions.

Amy O'Donnell passes to Michelle Day.

BOY'S FROSH

Boy's Freshman Basketball was a new experience this year for both the coach and the players. Coach Jim Mitchell replaced Bill Cowan and inherited a fresh crop of young hoopsters. Led by starters Jon Kelly, Robbie Phelps, Nate Hall, Dave Bennett, and Tony Staffiere, the team compiled a respectable record. With Jon Kelly leading the scoring and valuable help off the bench from Skip Lenfest, the team prepared for next year, and a chance to do that famous "Shuffle." And, yes, guys, playing in the Bangor Auditorium is more fun than the JB gym!

GIRL'S FROSH

Success is measured by improvement and not by wins and losses. This year's Girl's Freshman team scored major victories in the attitude, hard work and commitment departments. Team captains Jyll Soucy and Jennifer Sekera provided leadership and a good example for the team as they struggled through practice and worked tirelessly to improve their fundamental skills. Coach Soucy shared with them the secrets of the now famous Soucy jump shot while grooming the team with his vast experience at coaching.

Give me a "C"!

The John Bapst Cheerleaders have provided spirit for all the basketball games. Whether they are doing a routine on the court or asking the question, "Who's got the spirit?" they do it with enthusiasm. The hard work required to perform the difficult cheers used by the cheerleaders is worth it they feel. They enjoy creating the spirit that propels our basketball teams to victory, and we in the stands are grateful. WONDERFUL JOB GIRLS!

The cheering squad, coached by Miss Karen Lee, includes Kim Kern, Kim Ebersole, Jennifer Seekings, Christine Roy, Kathy Commeau, Danielle Nash, Gwen Saucier, and Jennifer Hoyt.

SWIMMING

Moving towards a fun-filled, winning season, this year's John Bapst swim team consists of new coach, Jeff Rudom, and many new swimmers. The girl's team is headed by captains Katrina Whitt, Jennifer Libbey, and Sandy Carreira. The rest of the girls' team includes Kim Curran, Crystal Ayer, Kristen Coffey, Leslie La Pierre, Marie Parsons, Caitlen Roberts, Diana Heath, and Lisa Black. The boys' team led by Chris Kimbell, and Tyler Leighton, is made up of swimmers Nate Ewer, Dan Colson, Mark Miller, and Brandon Trainor. Manager of the John Bapst Swim team is Christy Blinn.

WRESTLING

A blend of new members and "seasoned veterans" has made this year's John Bapst wrestling team a tough one to beat. Tim White's Crusaders have their largest team ever with a wrestler in nearly every weight class. The team is led by captains Justin Weinrich, Doug Brewer, and undefeated Will Brown; other members include Julio De Sanctis, Evan Roberts, Andrew Logan, Mark Bouchard, Ben Aldrich, Steve McKnight, Todd Hunter, Roger Brasslet, and Ben Ward. Because of the team's significant increase in members and their advanced skills the wrestlers have already enjoyed many wins with much of the season still to come.

INDOOR TRACK

Indoor Track for 1990-91 is fielding its largest team ever, and individual successes are piling up. Melissa Lockman has set records in the mile (5:07), the two mile (11:04) and the thousand yard run (2:46). John Phelps has brought his mile time down to 4:40. Crystal Reitsma is leading all hurdlers, and teammate Kim Roy has continuously crossed the finish line in scoring position. Sarah Gontoski, Jody Gontoski, Jason Goodwin and Cindy Boardman are all scoring in the 60 yard dash. And Tracey Young and Jennie Lynne are adding up points in the 600 while Amanda DeLuck is contributing in the shot put. The prospects for substantial team success are good, but the EMITL teams and state as a whole are very strong. The moment of truth will be in mid-February.

Spring Track

1990 was a season without superstars, but it was not a season without success. John Phelps led the boys' team with excellent performances in the PVC championship in the 1600 and 800 meter runs. He ran his fastest times, placing fourth in both events. Jody Gontoski grabbed third place for the girls in the 100 meter dash, and Kim Sekera took fourth in the 100 as well as fifth in the

200. In the State Meet, Crystal Reitsma took fifth in the 100 meter high hurdles, sixth in the 300 meter hurdles, and ran a strong third leg of the 4 x 400 relay. Crystal, along with Jennie Lynne, Katie Timmins, and Kim Sekera brought home a fifth place medal in an exciting race that put to rout five teams who were seeded ahead of them.

The 1990 JV Baseball team was led to a 10-9 record by first-year coach, Lou Ireland. During the season, many JV players were called up to Varsity. Coach Ireland successfully united the team, which consisted of a great deal of Freshman, whose techniques differed from various junior high schools. The boys learned to work together, and learning from each other, they enjoyed a successful season.

The 1990 Varsity Baseball team struggled through a rebuilding season. The players' selfless devotion to the team and head coach, George Phelps' strong enthusiasm encouraged the boys throughout the season, finishing with a 4-12 record. With the return of many players, the potential for a winning season next year is foreseeable.

The New American Pastime? (Yeah!)

The 1990 Softball team, coached by Bob McCarthy, ended a strong season with a record of 7-9. Lead by captain Maria Kearns, the team held their own against some of the most competitive teams in Class C. Although the team has lost a few key players, with starting pitcher Tracey Rideout and returning players MVP — Kerry McGarr and MIP — Stephanie Archer, the team has a strong base for next year.

Parker Takes Tennis Title

Bapst tennis got a boost this year from State Champion AND All-American Eliza Parker. Eliza made her fourth consecutive trip to the Women's Singles Championship and crushed arch-rival Lauren Rioux of Kennebunkport 6-2, 6-1. To add to her laurels, Eliza was also named a Prince All-American.

The Bapst boys beat Foxcroft Academy in the first round of the playoffs before losing to Dexter. The boys' team included Chris Corbin, Jay Adams, Steve Mathieu, Jody Roberts, Andy Sekera, Chris Austin, Greg Nichols and Peter Kennedy.

The girls' team was led by seniors Eliza Parker, Krissy Hirschfeld, Jeannie Mathews, Jonica Calkins, Keely Harnum, and Michelle Batty. It also included underclasswomen Denise Connolly, Sarah Gontoski, and Becky McCabe.

This year SAC was busier than ever. Hours were spent planning such events as Homecoming, Winter Carnival, Cultural Assemblies, and the extremely successful first Annual Activities Fair. Food was collected in large amounts at Thanksgiving by homeroom representatives, and was donated to the Salvation Army. The 1990-91 council found a few members attending conventions on the district and state levels. Earnings from dances and other fundraisers went towards bettering the school and community in many helpful ways including extensive help with the Capital Campaign. The Student Council Officers for this year are: President Brooke Daley, Vice President John Phelps, Secretary Polly Shyka, Treasurer Erin Soucy, and Historian Tracey Young.

George Bush declared in his campaign that America needed 1000 points of light. That light is volunteerism. Key Club is more than a light, it provides hope and assistance to communities around Bangor. Working at the hospital, volunteering for Red Cross Blood Drives, cleaning up the school, and fundraising for K.P.T.I., Kiwanis Pediatric Trauma Institute are just a part of their commitments. Having fun is also the aim. Key Club members had more fun in 1990-91 than ever before, and they have a level of growth and contributions greater than previously seen in the John Bapst Key Club. Key Club officers are: President John Hodgins, Vice President Denise Connolly, Treasurer Jena Stewart, Secretary Becky Roy, Sargent-at-Arms Brooke Daley, and Yankee Editor Robin Kirk.

Students are selected for National Honor Society based on their Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. These students have demonstrated these qualities in both their school and their communities. They represent the very best their communities and our school have to offer.

For one week during the summer, an amazing change occurred — a phenomena that can only be explained as Boys' and Girls' State. Husson College of Bangor and Maine Maritime of Castine were transformed into the states of Dirigo — one full of boys — the other girls.

Being an American means having responsibilities, and our week in Dirigo was going to teach us what our duties of citizenship were. By establishing towns and countries, the populations of each state created a mock Congress. If you were not elected to a Senate or House position you spent the last days lobbying in Senate and House committees. Each state ended the week with Governor elections and graduation ceremonies.

Government, sports, important speakers, talent shows, and long hours in line for (free!) meals were only a small part of our experience. Friendship and knowledge — things that will remain with us forever, made Boys' and Girls' State.

The "%$1/2#" Team

The Math Team, led by Trond Hildahl '90, and Alex Relyea, capped a very successful '89-90 season with a lackluster performance in the New England Regional Championship. The season included an Eastern League Championship with Hildahl, John Simpson '90, Relyea, Ted Curtis, and Barbara Foster winning medals for individual excellence in league play. The team also won the State Championship with Relyea and Hildahl medaling.

The '90-'91 team is led by Curtis, Foster, and Relyea, with a strong contribution from Amy Davis. As Always, the team is contending for league and state titles, and seems poised to seize another invitation to Canton, MA, the site of the Regional Championship.

The JB Knights

Bapst Chess continues to be a force in Eastern Maine. At the mid-point of the season, Bapst was tied for first place with Hampden Academy. However, a subsequent loss to Hampden means that Bapst will probably finish second in the Penobscot Valley Conference. Coach Mike Schaab is this Year's PVC director and will be taking his charges to the two major tournaments of the year: the PVC Tournament and the Maine State Tournament.

This year's squad of dedicated players includes senior Cristan Small, juniors Gavin Healy, Ben Hatch, and Jason Joy, sophomores Mike Rickert and Greg Lacadie, and freshman Nate Brigham and Gina Blinn.

Mike Rickert makes his move.

EXPOUND, YOU FOOLS!

Credit for the headline goes to Ken Champeon, who, in writing a note to himself, summed up the essence of debating: the ability to expound and persuade. This year's Debate team made the most of the few opportunities they had to actually compete. Trophy winners included Senior Erik Gaspar and Sophomore Abbey House. Juniors Leann Braziller and Ken Champeon both copped Honorable mentions in their first debates. The entire Debate Team showed an impressive amount of dedication, not only by spending time in the library researching the topics, but also by virtue of tolerating Mr.

McCarthy's singing on the long rides to and from debate tournaments. A special Thank You goes to Mr. Skip House and Mr. Steve Hatch for their expertise and support.

HIKE!

Hiking and skiing, that's what they do! the Outing Club, advised by Mr. Sheren, does various outdoor activities throughout the year just to have fun. Primarily, the fall is devoted to hiking and winter ushers in both downhill and cross-country skiing. The group's officers are Kelly Fowler, President; Gavin Healy, Vice President; and Kim Horn, Treasurer. Other members include Aaron Howard, Andrew Logan, Peter Philbrick, Kristi Fowler, Douglas Reed, Cristan Small, Abbey House, Ana Bassett, Holly Field, Leann Braziller, and Sheron Bassett.

So What's the POINTILLISM?

The purpose of the John Bapst Art Club is similar to the approach of the Pointillists, who sought to use a conglomeration of dots to create more luminous colors. We attempt to illuminate our understanding of the Art world through a conglomeration of extra-curricular experiences, or, if you will, points of departure that are directly related to the Art world. This year's High Points: #1. HAVING to eat our "condemned" ginger bread house; #6. creating backdrops for the school musical; and #7. finding a picturesque location to practice skills outside the studio. In conclusion, let us POINT you in the right direction: JOIN THE ART CLUB!

CHORUS

This has been an exciting year for Chorus. Performances included a Choral-a-rama at Hampden Academy, three Holiday concerts and three Spring concerts with a cumulative audience participation of almost 3000. The Chorus is still growing, thanks to the enthusiastic and dedicated performances of its 47 members.

A special note of thanks goes to seniors Ana Bassett, Michelle Clark, Mike Flanagan, Robyn Foss, Kelly Fowler, John Hodgins, Darrell Keene, Robin Kirk, and Christina Petros for their participation and support. Best-of-Luck in your future musical endeavors!

SING IN EXULTATION!

The John Baptist Singers have certainly established themselves as an outstanding group of musicians, dedicated to a high level of performance. Members of the 20 voice audition chorus performed spectacularly at many concerts throughout the year, and with the addition of more male voices in the future, the group will become one of the strongest choruses in the state.

Many thanks to seniors Kelly Fowler, Erik Gaspar, Robin Gup-till, John Hodgins, Kim Horn, Darrell Keene, Robin Kirk and Melissa Lockman for sharing your talents and helping to build this superb group.

Musical Notes: The John Bapst Band

Welcome to the John Bapst Band. Band is a wonderful experience that provides a wide range of musical activities. This year's Band consisted of 130 experienced and beginner musicians. We play the gamut of music, from revved up rock 'n roll to the subtle strains of classical.

The Band braves cold autumn evenings to energize the crowd at home football games, and rocks the Bangor Auditorium during basketball games, infusing both the team and the crowd with unfailing spirit. To add to the Band's laurels, they are the band of choice for Shawn Walsh and the U of M Hockey team, playing at select home games and the Dexter Hockey Classic. The Band also plays two major concerts during the year, one at Christmas and one in the Spring. Join Us! The band meets 2 to 5 days a week, embraces beginners and earns you Fine Arts credit. Don't miss out!

All That JAZZ

The seniors began the year with the expression "Join the Jazz," and boy, was there an incredible response — culminating into the largest stage band ever.

Armed with our red bow ties, we poured through difficult pieces of music, readying ourselves for competition and gigs. Education of jazz and improvisation was a goal of Al McIntyre, the director. More students soloed than ever before — it was clear, we had not only joined the jazz, we were the jazz.

The spirit of jazz poured out into a new group — the Jazz Combo. The Combo consists of three melody instruments and a rhythm section to create their unique sound. Improvisation, playing whatever the artist feels at the time, was stressed. The Jazz Program at Bapst is a lot of work, but musicians don't seem to mind. They only wish to impart good music and the audience feel like the "the jazz was with them."

ORCHESTRA

Orchestra offers Baptist musicians the opportunity to play truly classical music in a chamber setting. Openings for string players are abundant. We hope to fill the viola and cello parts soon and may take as many violin, viola and cello players as there are. Concerts at Christmas and Spring are our major goals. Presently we are looking to add some guest performances at small public functions. Rehearsals are once or twice a week with the opportunity to earn a varsity letter.

PASSAGES 1989-1990

Passages

Passages is an anthology of original artwork, poetry, and short stories submitted by the students of John Baptist Memorial High School. It has been compiled and published with the intention of increasing creative awareness, encouraging interpretation, and enhancing literary appreciation. Passages contends that art is indeed the basis of society, and the works herein are included with this purpose in mind. We sincerely regret that due to limited space, many fine works could not be published.

DEADLINE!?

Struggle would be the best word to describe the making of this year's Bapstonian. This year's yearbook was edited by Kim Horn and co-edited by Sarah Gontoski and Karen Currier. Rookie yearbook advisors Todd Carr and Mitch McCarthy had a lot to learn when they took over the reins in September. They learned that Ben Franklin was right when he said, "Experience keeps a dear school, but a fool will learn in no other." When push came to shove a host of students hunkered down and spent the many hours it takes to put together a yearbook of this size and quality. We take great pride in offering you this remembrance of 1990-91. Read it, enjoy it, but most of all, KEEP IT!

COLOPHON

"THE BAPSTONIAN" of John Bapst Memorial High School was printed at Herff Jones, Inc., an employee owned yearbook company in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. It was printed in a limited edition of 245 copies with 144 pages. The cover chosen utilizes royal purple #41056 vibra tex base material on 120 point binders board. The cover is silkscreened in silver #23 and the title "Bapstonian" is foilstamped in silver #F1. The Crusader logo is applied using a silver mettalay application. The grain used on the cover is handtooled and individual student names are foilstamped in silver #F1.

The endsheets use VC#08 grey and are printed different front and back utilizing our theme graphic. The paper stock used in most of the book is an 80# stock referred to as Bordeaux Special. The book is trimmed to 7 3/4" X 10 1/2" and bound in 16 page signatures. In addition to offset printing in black ink throughout the book there is one 16 page signature of full color using 100# Eurogloss stock. This section has custom school designed layouts pasted up by the staff.

The type style used in the book is LYDIAN. Captions are set in 10 point and most of the headlines used are 36 point size. Paragraphs throughout the book are flush left and the folio numbers are in the lower outside corners. The faculty members of the staff are: Mr. Todd Carr, Layout Adviser; Mr. Ernie Guimond, Business Manager and Mr. Mitchell McCarthy, Copy Adviser. The key students on the staff are: Kimberly Horn, Editor-in-Chief; Sarah Gontoski, Sports Editor and Karen Currier, Activities Editor. Our representative from Herff Jones Yearbooks is Mr. Charles Crosby.

For further information contact the BAPSTONIAN YEARBOOK STAFF, John Bapst Memorial High School, 100 Broadway Street, Bangor, Maine 04401.
