FROM THE PUBLISHERS:

This record depicts, historically, the personnel and some of the training activities of the men of the 366th Infantry, U.S.A.

The many and great demands made upon the free time of the personnel together with attendance at Service Schools away from the post has made it impossible to show photographs of all of the men. Accordingly, it was necessary to picture those actually available at the time data for this Review were compiled.

HEADQUARTERS 366TH INFANTRY
OFFICE OF THE REGIMENTAL COMMANDER
FORT DEVENS, MASSACHUSETTS

To the Officers and Enlisted Men, 366th Infantry.

I consider it a great privilege to be given this opportunity to express to you my appreciation of your fine spirit and splendid cooperation in the many intricate processes of organizing and training this regiment to become a combat unit.

While many of you are here through the operation of the Selective Training and Service Act, and have left your firesides for the first time to undertake your full obligations as citizens of a free country, you have accepted the new circumstances and methods with highly commendable courage and cheerful spirit. You have adjusted yourselves splendidly with your comrades in arms; you have accomplished a great deal. Although much remains to be done to attain that high degree of regimental efficiency necessary to do our full part toward preserving the security and freedom of our country, I am certain that you are capable and that with fixed determination you will continue to do your utmost to fulfill your sacred trust with great personal satisfaction and pride to your regiment.

I extend to you my best wishes for marked success in your military careers; and for the development of that personal pride which will enable you to return to your homes and friends upon completion of your service, with a clean record and justified consciousness of duty well done.

May the evidence of service here recorded; serve to remind you pleasantly of your service to your country; of lasting friendships; and give to you always justified pride that you were a part of such a splendid group of men and a fine regiment.

HISTORY OF THE 366th INFANTRY

Shield: Argent, a leopard statant azure spotted of the field, armed and langued gules, in front of a Lorraine Cross of the last.
Motto: Labor Conquers All Things.

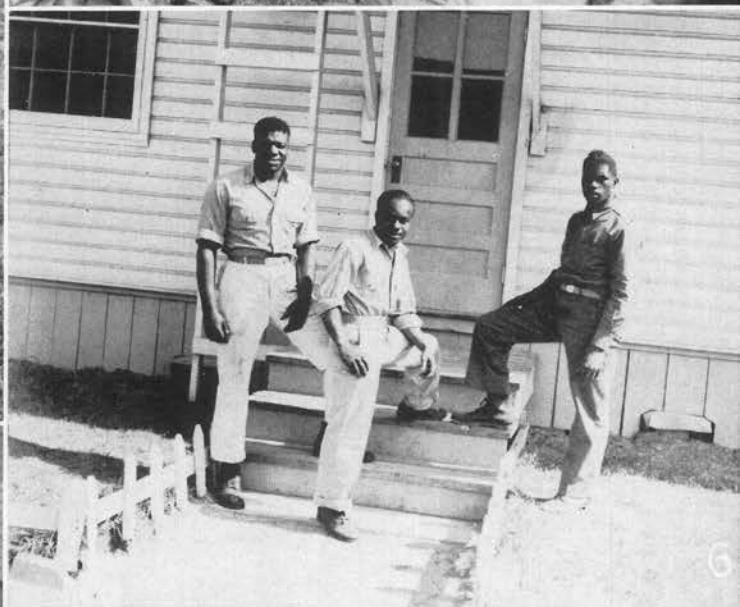

The Lorraine Cross symbolized World War participation in the Lorraine Sector (France). The Leopard symbolizes keenness, boldness, strength, speed, ferociousness and intelligence—the ultimate desire of the regiment in peace or war.

The 366th Infantry was organized at Camp Dodge, Iowa, in November, 1917. The regiment served overseas during the World War as part of the 92nd Division, National Army, and earned credit for battle participation as follows:

St. Die Sector (Lorraine), August 23-September 20, 1918; Meuse-Argonne Sector, September 26-October 5, 1918; Marbach Sector (Lorraine), October 8-November, 1918.

It is entitled to Lorraine and Meuse-Argonne battle streamers for the Colors.

The regiment returned to the United States and was demobilized at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, March 25, 1919. On July 26, 1941, it was reconstituted and consolidated with the 366th Infantry which was organized December 16, 1940, and made active February 10, 1941.
